

1890 Census Enumerators

Source: Weekly Argus News May 10, 1890

Note: The 1890 census burned thus this is all nil, but neat to see who was appointed and their occupation nonetheless

If acceptable to census enumerator Porter; Paul Burns; FG Davis; Henry Williams; WG Hanna; Haviland Gifford; Rice Canine; Jacob Swank and T.M. Lynn will take the census of Union Township. The following is the list as printed in the Terre Haute Express of those who will be appointed outside of Union but in this county: Samuel S. Martin, Insurance, Darlington, Soldier. William H. Mount, farmer, Shannondale, soldier. James D. Hurt, farmer, New Ross, soldier. William G. McClure, Implement Dealer, Mace, soldier. John I. Powel, farmer, New Ross, soldier. Joel Ridge, Insurance, Ladoga, civilian. Walker R. Rodman, teacher, Ladoga, civilian. George W. Snyder, farmer, Ladoga, soldier. William P. Britton, farmer, New Market, soldier. Presley J. Johnson, farmer, Parkersburg, soldier. Henry R. Rhoads, Insurance, Waveland, civilian. Samuel N. Boyland, farmer, Brownsvalley, Civilian. Jesse M. Burford, Farmer, Waveland, civilian. George W. Tucker, Physician, Bowers, soldier. James E. Cave, farmer, Stockwell, soldier. Frank O. Fraley, student, Linden, civilian. Alexander Campbell, farmer, Darlington, civilian. William W> Tiffany, farmer, Elmdale, soldier. Israel Naugle, teacher, Wingate, civilian. James N. Sanders, farmer, Crawfordsville, soldier. Eli H. Edwards, clerk, Waynetown, civilian. Erasmus D. Williamson, laborer, Waynetown. James M. Smith, painter, Alamo, soldier. John H. Grimes, clerk, Alamo, civilian.