

ENOCH COX loses Jane Charlton -1836

Source: Crawfordsville Record, 21 May 1836

Ran away - from the subscriber, living 8 miles NE from Crawfordsville on the 1st day of May 1836, Jane Charlton, a bound girl aged about 15 years, dark hair, black eyes and of rather small stature. Any person that will arrest said girl and deliver her to the subscriber at his dwelling will be entitled to a reward of five cents but no thanks nor extra charges. All persons are forbid trusting her on my account. Enoch Cox - May 10, 1836
