

Paul CLARK & his car mess

Source: Waveland Independent Waveland, Montgomery County, Indiana Friday, March 27, 1931

Ben CANINE sold a Chevrolet car to Paul CLARK of Indianapolis on Sunday. It will be remembered that in company with Miss Mary LOUGH, he was held up by bandits who took his car and they were compelled to walk back to Indianapolis. The car was recovered in Muncie. Its associations have been so bad that he wanted to get rid of it.

File Created: 24 March 2010