

Ida DURHAM - vs. Stephen KERSEY - breach of promise

Source: Weekly Argus News, Jan 2, 1893 p 4

-- Darlington Echo -- Miss Ida Durham has brought suit in the Montgomery county circuit court against Stephen J. Kersey to recover $5,000 for breach of promise. This case is set for the March term. Miss Durham is one of the handsome young ladies of Darlington and Mr. Kersey is our promising young druggist. This case will develop one of the most profound sensations ever unearthed in the town and will probably create more excitement. It will shake society from center to circumference. When the ball opens, a number of Darlington people can make up their minds to attend court day in and day out for weeks at a stretch. The very best thing the participants in this suit can do is to compromise it, and keep it out of court.
