

JOHN HOLLOWAY -- CHRISTMAS

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal, 1 January 1897

No where in the county was Christmas day enjoyed more than at the old homestead of John and Margaret Holloway, in Sugar Creek township. They had their children and grandchildren to the number of twenty-five and gave them a fine dinner. There was also a Christmas tree loaded down with seventy-four presents. - transcribed by Kim H

The website management appreciates all the contributions provided for use here.