

DICK HOWELL - RYAN SHAW - Europe slides

Source: more than likely the Crawfordsville Journal Review unknown year, possibly 1957 - thanks so much to Connie W for sending this interesting piece

Members of the Lions Club at their dinner meeting Wednesday evening at the Crawford Hotel, enjoyed the reports of Dick Howell and Ryan Shaw, describing observations and experiences gain on their trip to Europe during the past summer. Slides showing pictures of several scores of buildings and scenes they saw on the trip were also shown during the program. Countries which Howell and Shaw visited during the two months of their trip included Holland, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Greece, Belfium, Turkey, Monaco, England and Scotland. It was announced during the dinner-program that the light bulb sale, sponsored by the Lions Club will be held Oct 10, 11, and 12 of next week. It was also announced by President Lloyd Williams who presided, that the annual Halloween parade, sponsored by the club, will be Thursday night, Oct 31.
