

JOHN IRWIN (Jr) -- dead/not dead

Source: Crawfordsville Star Dec 29, 1887 p 5

"Darlington News" -- It was reported a year or more ago that John Irwin, Jr. had been killed in Texas and nothing could be learned of him until a few days ago he wrote his brother Isaac that he was in the standing army at St. Louis. Many will remember that he ran through quite a nice little fortune and then deserted his wife and little child - typed by kbz.

The website management appreciates all the contributions provided for use here.