

ROBERT JONES HOUSEFIRE - 1864

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal 18 Feb 1864

The dwelling house of Mr. Robert Jones, residing about two miles southeast of the city on the Danville state road, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday night of this week. Mr. Jones, we understand, lost, not only his house, but the major part of its contents. The fire occurring after the family had retired to rest, but little time was afforded for rescuing personal effects. Of his probably loss, we are not informed.