

5 Charley Millers

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal, 29 March 1895

Said Charley Miller, "the well-known real estate man" today. "That item in The Journal last evening about the wife of a certain Charley Miller suing him for divorce has caused trouble. There are five Charley Millers get mail at Crawfordsville and each one of them is under suspicion. Why about 40 have struck on me as the wicked wretch. They come up hemming, hawing and clearing their throats, saying that they can't hardly believe it but wanting to know what it's all about. It's all right for the guilty Charley but it's pretty tough on the four innocent Charleys." - kbz
