

MILDRED DUNN ENTERTAINS FOR JOE MILLION

Source: Unknown newspaper; unknown date

Miss Mildred Dunn was hostess at a party Thursday evening at the home of her parents, in honor of Joe Million, a former schoolmate, who was here from Monticello for a short visit. Merriment ran high and it was plainly evident that everybody had a good time. Her guests were treated to refreshments of ice cream and nabiscos at the Sugar Bowl. Those present were Misses Doris Long, Belle Seaman, Ruth Haywood, Edith Royer, Gay SHotts, Ruth SHobe, Nellie Livingston, Elnora McNeil and Erma Dick; Messrs. Joe Million, GOrdon Harriman, Ernest Hinton, Harry Bell, Ralph Crowder, Herbert Alexander, Clyde Walts, Newell Seaman and Carroll Long.
