

CHARLES MYERS _ taken to Danville VA

Source: Crawfordsville Review 25 Feb 1899

Charley Myers, whose wife died last week, has gone to the Soldiers' Home at Danville, Ill. His folks live in Germany. He is quite advanced in age, being eighty years old, and has resided at the Crossing (Lofland) for twenty-seven years. He was an industrious man and led a very active life. His old home seems sadly deserted since the old man and his wife are gone, and seems to speak eloquently of the constant changes of life. These good people will be much missed in the community. – kbz

The small farm of Charley Myers was bought by Lou Tomlinson on last Tuesday for the consideration of $600. Lou will be a citizen of Lofland's Crossing after next Tuesday or Wednesday.
