

POLICE WARNED NO DRINKING ON THE JOB

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal, 20 October 1893

Shaking Up Dry Bones.

The police board of the city held a two hours session Wednesday after the council meeting. It was ordered that hereafter no policeman enter a saloon for the purpose of drinking while on duty. One member of the force was called up to answer to certain charges made against him. Some were explained and other remain for investigation. Pending this investigation he will continue in his official capacity.- thanks to Kim H