

HOSEA RISTINE - for judge

Source: Crawfordsville 10 March 1896

Hosea H. Ristine is announced in today's Journal as a candidate for the position of Judge of the Montgomery Circuit Court. Mr. Ristine is a man whom all will acknowledge as capable of filling with capability, credit and honor this high position. He is now 48 years of age and in the full strength of his manhood. A lawyer by descent and volition Mr. Ristine's years of studious application and his large practice have eminently fitted him for the Judgeship, while his honorable and unquestioned record as an attorney commend him as worthy of it. While not a politician, Mr. Ristine has always been an ardent worker in the Republican party, believing thoroughly in its principles as the correct principles of government. He was graduated from Wabash College in 1869 and at once begun the study of law with his father, Ben Ristine, with whom he has since been associated in the practice. If nominated Mr. Ristine will be elected and will prove a just and efficient Judge.
