

FANNIE SNYDER - enveloped in flames

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal, 17 December 1897

Wednesday Miss Fannie Snyder, of the north Green street laundry office had a narrow escape from death. Her clothes took fire and enveloped in flames. She ran into the street where Chief Vance, of the fire department, caught her and smothered the flames. Her injuries are no serious. - thanks to Kim H