

REDDEN SNYDER VISITS FROM DANVILLE, IL + other articles

Source: Crawfordsville, Indiana Daily News Review, July 26, 1900

Red Snyder, a namesake of our late beloved Reden B. Snyder, living in Danville, Ill is visiting in this locality. Red is the son of Chuck Snyder and Chuck is the nephew of the late Aaron Snyder. It will be remembered by our old timers how excellent and easy Chuck used to play the fiddle. Red, with his father, is running a fine restaurant in Danville. It would be well for our boys to make a note of this when hungry and cast adrift in that city. It is said Red is here in the interest of a beautiful little blonde, who owns a cow, a bicycle, and a swing. Red left for his home on Thursday – Sandy. - transcribed by kbz

Source: Saturday Mercury, Crawfordsville, Montgomery County, Indiana 11 December 1876

A grand fox chase will take place next Thursday the 16th. Everybody is invited to participate in the sport. The hunters with their hounds will meet at Reddin B. Snyders on the Attica Road three miles west of the city. - kbz