

Dr. Speiddle owes Money

Source: Crawfordsville Indiana Star newspaper, Feb 1, 1877

One Dr. Speiddle used to cut around Crawfordsville in pretty loud style and when he left, several over-confiding creditors wept over his departure. He again made a transitory visit tot he scenes of youthful pleasures this week but was heavily beseiged by importune creditor that he was glad to escape with his team and a wole head. His present headquarters are somewhere on the peaceful Wabash. - typed by kbz
