

JOHN & GEORGE STULL shoot up school

Source: Crawfordsville Star June 16, 1881 p 3

Last Saturday evening John and George Stull, with others, became drunk and saveagely assailed a spelling school at Harveysburg. They fired 16 pistol shots in the building, but without injuring anyone. On Sunday evening Constable Ratcliffe of Parke County with the assistance of Policeman Cox of this city, went up to Darlington and arrested the two Stull boys and took them back to the scene of their willful crimes. - kbz
