

VARIOUS MUSIC VENUES

Source: Crawfordsville Daily Argus 13 March 1883

Opera House - on Tuesday Feb 6 -- Original Nashville Students in their plantation melodies and popular songs. The Nashville Students Have Few if Any Equals. Reserved Seats at Hollingsworth's.

Thursday Feb 8 - Elliott Barnes' Great American Play - Only a Farmer's Daughter - played 150 nights in NY. Acknowledged by the entire world as the handsomest woman on stage with a great cast including Lillian Gerard, J.F. Brien, Emma Frank and La Petite Gilroy, the greatest living child actress. Reserved Seats at Hollingsworth's.

Thursday, Feb 22 -- Rescue Fire Co. Grand Ball for the benefit of the company. Music by the Rutledge Orchestra. Floor Tickets $1. Gallery Tickets 25 cents. --kbz

Source: Crawfordsville Daily Argus 13 March 1883 p 1

The Rescue Fire Company will give a fireman's dance and banquet on February 22. All the necessary arrangements are being made to insure a pleasant time to all who attend. The boys deserve to be well patronized by all the city for the objective is to get money to replenish their treasury, which is to meet any necessary expenses that may occur. There is always expenses attached to be defrayed by members and people should see that the company is helped. --kbz