

DELTA TAU DELTA - Chadwick

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Review Feb 20, 1923 p 7

Through an inaccurate source of information, The Review yesterday morning implied, in its story of the Wabash-Notre Dame basketball game, that Chadwick, lanky scarlet center, was out of condition because of the "untimely initiatory efforts of his fraternity brothers." Later investigation divulged that Chadwick was not submitted to rough initiation by the members of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity to which he belongs. An apology, certainly due the Delta Tau fraternity for this implication against its willingness to cooperate in activities of interest to the entire college is hereby willingly tendered.
