

Man With Relatives Here Killed At Bluffton, O.

Roderick L. Balmer, 30, of Bluffton, Ohio, was killed instantly Tuesday evening when his car was struck from the rear as he was turning into the driveway of his home on North Main street in Bluffton. He died of a skull fracture. Balmer had some relatives in this community, his mother being the former Elizabeth Inniger, who was a cousin to the late Abe Inniger. His wife, the former Raelene Campbell, two sons, a daughter and three brothers survive.

Balmer's machine was struck by a car driven by Lorenzo Wilson, 23, of Bluffton. Wilson escaped serious injury. (Friday, Oct. 5, 1962)
