

Death Takes Ex-Mennonite Pastor Here

The Rev. Ben B. King, 81, pastor of First Mennonite Church here from 1904 to 1930, died Thursday in Scottdale, Pa., where he resided. He had suffered a stroke two weeks earlier.

The Rev. Mr. King also served as pastor of Mennonite churches in Elida, O., and Sheldon, Wis., and as an evangelist for the denomination.

He had resided in Scottdale since his retirement from the ministry, and is survived by five daughters and several grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at Scottdale Mennonite Church.

(Saturday, March 2, 1963)

Berne (IN) Library Heritage Room

Adams County Obits 1962-1964, image 12

Transcribed by Janice Vasilovski