FATHER OF LADOYT McCRORY DIES

Funeral For Well Known Retired Grain Dealer is Friday

John S. McCrory, 81, well known retired hay and grain dealer of Decatur and father of John LaDoyt McCrory of this place, died at his home at 612 Patterson street, at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Death was attributed to pneumonia after an illness of about one week.

Mr. McCrory, who at one time operated an elevator in Decatur retired from active business a number of years ago. He would have celebrated his 82nd birthday on May 18.

With the exception of a few years at Van Wert he was a lifelong resident of this county. He was a member of the United Brethren church.

The decedent was married first to Mary Tindall and several years after her decease he married Jennie Baker, who survives with the following children: Mrs. W. P. Robinson of Decatur, Mrs. J. C. Rieder of Joplin, Mo., John LaDoyt of Berne, and Mrs. Paul Rowlands of Pasadena, California. One son, Ralph, preceded. One brother, Charles, of Ohio City, Ohio, survives.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Gillig & Doan funeral home in Decatur with the Rev. G. T. Rosselot, pastor of the U. B. church, officiating. Burial will be in the Van Wert cemetery.
