

Rex Eugene Raudenbush passed away February 7, 2017, at home in Shawnee, KS. Rex was born June 20, 1935, in Bluecreek Township, Adams County, IN. Rex was a loving husband, father and grandfather. Rex retired from elementary school classroom teaching, having served in the Shawnee Mission School district for 35 years, many years at Nieman Elementary School. Rex was an accomplished tenor singer who enjoyed participating in barbershop quartets, church choir and chorale at Village Presbyterian Church, where he and Arlene have been member for many years. Rex was an avid cyclist, enjoying many local rides as well as sponsored rides across Kansas, Iowa and Missouri. Rex and his wife of 56 years, Arlene Raudenbush, rode across Europe numerous times. Rex loved the country lifestyle, working on the family farm in Indiana as well as assisting on his son-in-law's farm in Ottawa, KS. Rex met his wife Arlene Skinner at Warner Pacific College in Portland, OR. Married in 1960, after graduation Rex served as music minister in Kansas City, MO. Rex obtained his Master's of Education from University of Kansas. Rex is survived by his wife, Arlene Raudenbush of Shawnee, KS; daughter Rhonda LaGalle of Ottawa, KS; daughter, Laurel Campbell of Durango, CO; son, Brett Raudenbush of the US State Department; son, Cesar Perez of Sunnyvale, CA; sons-in-law, Dwayne LaGalle & Bruce Campbell; daughter-in-law, Aida Gomez Perez; grandchildren, Avery LaGalle, Bennet LaGalle, Henry Campbell, Thalia Campbell, Daniel Perez & Laura Perez as well as extended family and numerous friends. Memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 11, at The Prairie Village Presbyterian Church, 6541 Mission Rd., Prairie Village, KS 66206. Charter Funerals, 816-921-5555

Published in Kansas City Star from Feb. 9 to Feb. 10, 2017

Contributed by Karin King