

DUNBAR

Samuel Dunbar, 71, died at 10:55 o'clock Sunday night at Lutheran Hospital where he had been a patient since April 1. Death was due to carcinoma. Mr. Dunbar was a former employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad Shops and had been making his home with a daughter, Mrs. Hallie E. Gilliland of the Bluffton Road.

Surviving besides the daughter are three sons, Charles L., Deryll K. and Cecil G. Dunbar, all of this city; four grandchildren; a brother, Harvey of Sweetwater, Tenn., three sisters, Mrs. Maude Snow of Sweetwater, Mrs. May Johnson of Benton, Tenn., and Mrs. Christ Schneider of Butler.

He was a member of the First Christian Church and the Masonic Lodge.

The body was removed to the McComb & Son Funeral Home.

Journal-Gazette
May 6, 1940