

HARBER

C. M. (Pete) Harber, 46-year-old Pennsylvania Railroad baggage room employee, died at 1:20 am Sunday at his residence, 1423 Wabash Avenue, following a heart attack. He was a native of Pleasant Township and came to Fort Wayne in 1918 to begin working in the Pennsylvania baggage room.

Surviving are the widow, Lola; five daughters, Mrs. Edward Thomas, Mrs. Arian Misner, Cleora Harber and Alice Harber, all of Fort Wayne and Mrs. James Crawford of Birmingham, Ala.; his mother, Mrs. Margaret Harber of Fort Wayne; a brother, John Harber of Anderson; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Parrot and Mrs. Edward Sullivan, both of Fort Wayne and one grandchild.

The body may be viewed after noon at Mungovan & Sons Mortuary today. Services will be held Tuesday, 2 pm at the funeral chapel with Rev. A. P. Bourns in charge.

Harber was a member of Anthony Boulevard Presbyterian Church.

Journal-Gazette
May 6, 1940