

SWINEHART

Freeman Swinehart, 79, retired knitter died of heart disease at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at his home at 805 Cottage Avenue. He was employed by the Wayne Knitting Mills as a presser for 28 years, retiring in 1931. He was a member of the Wayne Knit Quarter-Century Club.

Survivors include the widow, Anwilda; three sons, Raymond and Harlow of this city and Harry L. Swinehart of Detroit, Mich.; three daughters, Miss Hazel Swinehart, Mrs. J. L. Mingus and Mrs. Audrey Baldwin of this city; two stepsons, Robert and Omer Goodale of Indianapolis; 10 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Priscilla Clutter of Detroit.

The body was removed to Klaehn & Sons Funeral Home.

Journal-Gazette

May 3, 1940