

Thomas Funeral to be Thursday

Funeral services for Clinton C. Thomas, 50, 126 West Baker Street, prominent local business man who died at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home following an illness of several years, will be held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at Mungovan & Sons Mortuary, Rev. Newton S. Weber officiating. Burial will be in Greenlawn Memorial Park. Friends may view the body at the mortuary after noon today.

Mr. Thomas was owner and operator of the Habit Dry Cleaners and Pressers at 112 West Baker Street at the time of his death. Born in Sabina City, O., he had resided in the cleaning and pressing industry for 30 years. He was a member of the Mennonite Church.

Survivors include the widow, Pearl; a sister, Mrs. Marie Webb of Sabina City and a brother, William Thomas of Huntington.

Journal-Gazette
May 1, 1940