Forward

Twelve score and 16 years ago, a boy was born at sea, the son of a man who's last name was Fisher, and who arrived in the Colonies in 1753. From that beginning, this Fisher line has multiplied in numbers and spread hundreds of miles from Pennsylvania beginning via Ohio to Parke County, Indiana , Kentucky, Illinois, Iowa, California, Oregon, Missouri and Canada and other points.

I leave this 1753 baby's name as George, Sr. as my predecessors have. His family grew through two wives, and sixteen children. This part of my tale centers around four of his sons, William, John, George, Jr., and Jacob. The Further Adventures of a Fisher Family of Parke County, will be my next project, that expands this search to the other children of George Sr, update the data in this book, transcribe William Fletcher Fisher's GRANGE Journal of 1786-87, and try to answer the questions I have on my great-grandfather William Fletcher's wife's name. As our country grew and spread westward after the Revolutionary War, George, Sr., and his family left Pennsylvania and moved to Brown County, Ohio, and Kentucky which I believe was as early as 1788 or soon after.

My father Solon had said he thought there were about six generation, and that the family originally came from the Upper Ohio River Valley. That and about a dozen names were my starting points. I focused on my paternal and maternal ancestors of my Fisher line. At first the walk back words in time seemed easy, until I reached George. I never imagined so many people with the same name existed at the same time and in the same general area. A major portion of time has and is spent sorting out the George's, John's, Jacob's, which was easier after, first, Sherman Reed Fisher's book "Fisher Family" (1938) and then Alfred's "A Historical Sketch of The Fisher Family" (1894) became available. That direct line of ancestors I was looking for grew and grew, and was amazed to find that my great-grandmother, wife of William Fletcher, had fourteen children, only five made adulthood. A set of triplets died with-in three or four days of birth were among the nine who didn't make it.

To help keep it all straight, especially for me, and I hope future researchers, I have assembled all information I found to date into separate chapters. Surely, no one who reads what follows will believe it to be one-hundred percent accurate. As my predecessor said "it is nearly so". I believe it better to consider all of this as a guideline, a starting point that will attract other researchers who will contribute, help fill in the blanks and correct any misinformation.

Chapter 1, is the whole Fisher line from Unknown Fisher and George Sr.. This single chapter leaves out many very interesting biographies of associated families. The following chapters starts with one of the four sons, William, John, George Jr., and Jacob. Chapter 2, the family line of William, Chapter 3, the family line of John Fisher (my direct line), subsequent sections are the family lines he and his descendants married into. Chapter 4 is the line of George Jr., and his associated families. Jacob is Chapter 5. Judging from what I have gleaned from public records, John and George, Jr. were more proliferating, then William or Jacob. Could this be the reason Sherman Redd centered his information on George Jr., and John?

Approximately one-hundred and seventy-five miles lays between Brown County, Ohio, and Parke County, Indiana. The 1829 movement from Ohio to Indiana were the early pioneering days of our nation. Much has changed. In 1829 travel time was seventeen days, (about 10 miles a day) today three to four hours. Then, it was a defective schools system, which contributed to little education. Today, it may appear that the school systems are defective, however, we seem to have progressed in knowledge.

My closing wish is that the following information will spark an interest in family genealogy.

THE FISHER FAMILY

According to family tradition, George Fisher, Sr., was born while his parents were on the water, sailing from Germany to America, about the year 1753.

We are not certain of his father's given name; but the old Dutch rule was to name the first male child after its father; so we conclude that his name was George.

He had two other sons, Henry and John. Of them and their descendants we know nothing.

He settled somewhere in Pennsylvania, and raised his family.

George married about the year 1774 or 1775 and settled in Washington County, Penn. To them were born six children, four boys and two girls. Mrs. Fisher died about 1788 or '89. He married again in a few years, and then moved west, settling in Brown County, Ohio, on the waters of Eagle Creek, seven miles from Riply, on the Ohio river.

He was a man of limited means. He was a fine blacksmith by trade, making guns a specialty. The county was new, and teeming with wild animals, and some Indiana, who occasionally committed terrible depredations, such as killing settlers and stealing horses; but Mr. Fisher was never molested by them. He settled right in the green wood, and put the boys to clearing, while he ran his shop. Immigrants came in rapidly, and he soon found himself surrounded by friends, instead of the Red Men.

The fruits of the second marriage was ten children, eight girls and two boys. About the year 1802 the older children began to marry. They all came with their father to Brown Count, Ohio.

Sally, the eldest child, married William White, and they moved out on the Big Sandy.

George, the first son, married Hannah Wright. They lived in Brown County, O., until 1829, then moved west, settling in Parke County, Ind., three miles southeast of Rockville.

John, second son, was born March 12, 1782, in Washington County, Pa., and married Nancy Miller, of North Carolina, in Brown County, Ohio Dec 8, 1806. He served in the War of 1812.

William, third son, married Cynthia Lear. He ran an oil mill on Eagle Creek, Ohio, for some years; then moved west, settling near Rockville, Parke County, Ind.

Betsy, second daughter married James Ford; they settled in eastern Indiana.

Jacob, fourth son, married Susan Hock. They moved west about the year 1824 and settled near Rising Sun, Indiana, on the Ohio River.

This ends a short history of the first children of George Fisher, Sr.. Of the second set of children:

Daniel, married Susan Reeves, and settled somewhere in Indiana.

Catherine, eldest daughter married Tobias Woods. They both died near Beaver Swamps, Ill.

Mary, married John Robb, and lived near La Fayette, Ind.

Fred, married Polly Robb. They moved to Illinois, and thence to Iowa.

Susan, was born in Brown County, Ohio, April 5, 1798. She married Abraham Higbie in 1817 and some eight or ten years later moved west, down the Ohio River on a small boat, settling in Ripley County, Indiana. Old Aunt is still living, talks fluently of old-time incidents, and tells of many things that took place 80 to 85 years ago. The writer is indebted to her for much of this history. Her mind is clear and strong on incidents of her youth. She is now 96 years of age, and to all appearances will live out the hundred.

Anna Fisher, married Joseph Stinson.

Fanny, married William Reeves. She lived to a good old age, and died in Brown County, O., on Eagle Creek.

Abby, married William Pickerel. She lived to an old age, and died on Eagle Creek.

Lyda, the youngest was not bright.

Thus ends a short sketch of the writer's uncles and aunts.

George Fisher, Sr. remained on the farm he bought, in Brown County, Ohio, until he died, in the fall of 1833, at the ripe age of eighty years.

John Fisher, second son of George Fisher, Sr. was born March 12, 1782, in Washington County, Penn.. He came west with his father, and learned the blacksmiths trade with him. When he reached his majority he worked jour work for several years. He married Nancy Miller, of North Carolina, in Brown County, Ohio, Dec 8, 1806. To them were born eight children, six boys and two girls. He settled in Brown County, O., on the Hills of Eagle Creek. He lived there 23 years; then sold his farm for $600, on payments, moved out west in the Sugar Creek bottoms, in the north-east corner of Parke County, Ind.

The county was as wilderness; quite a numbers of squatters, but no farms. The wood were full of wild animals, such as deer, some bear, hundreds of turkeys, wild cats, porcupines, etc.; and a few Indians. Here his family went through the hardships of pioneer life. Hard work and hard living were the rule.

As I said before, there were eight children; six boys and two girls. The children were all born in Brown County, Ohio.

Jacob, the first born son was born Apr. 20, 1808, and married Nancy Newel, Aug. 20, 1829, In Brown County, O., and moved west with his father in the spring following. He settled in the green woods four miles south-west of Rockville.

James Miller, second son was born Oct. 26, 1809, and married Elizabeth Montgomery, Dec. 22, 1831, in Parke County, Ind..

Polly, eldest daughter, was born Jan. 23, 1812, and was married to Robert Norwood, of Alabama, Oct. 25, 1831, in Parke County, Ind.

Sally, second daughter, was born Sept. 16, 1814, and was married to Alexander Myers, of North Carolina, June 1, 1837, in Parke County, Ind..

Daniel, third son was born Dec. 18, 1816, and married Elizabeth J. Welsh, June 18, 1840.

Carey Camel, the fourth son, was born, March 5, 1819, and married Elizabeth Allen, Oct. __, 1842.

Alfred, fifth son, was born April 12, 1822 and married Elizabeth Allen, June 4, 1846, in Fountain County, Ind..

John, sixth son was born Aug. 8, 1824, and married Elizabeth Gooden, Oct. 13, 1847, in Fountain County.

Thus ends a short sketch of the births and marriage of the children of John Fisher, Senior.

Alfred Fisher, the fifth son of John Fisher, Sr., married Elizabeth Allen, June 4, 1846. To them were born nine children. Three died in infancy; six were raised to womanhood and manhood.

Lucinda, was born Dec. 8, 1847, and was married to A. C. Sherman, Oct. 16, 1886.

Nancy E., was born March 28, 1850 and was married to D. G. Smith, Dec. 23, 1868.

Clara E. was born January 27, 1854.

Louisa Manda, was born May 6, 1856, and was married to Benjamin H. Logan.

Laura A., was born Nov. 4, 1860, and was married to J. P. Mahorney, Sept 6, 1863. She died Sept. 19, 1886.

John DeWitte, was born Jan 8 1864, and married Mattie A Hobson, Oct 27, 1886.

Thus ends a short sketch of the descendants of George Fisher, Sr., in a period of 140 years. We cannot say it is all correct, but it is nearly so.

Notes for UNKNOWN FISHER:

Sherman Reed FISHER in 1938 writes:

"Definite history of our ancestors dates back less than two-hundred years. We find no claim of decent from royalty or "blue-blooded" aristocracy, but we observe that our fathers were stalwart, brave and reliable men, willing to endure the hardships and inconveniences of pioneer life and to do their bit in transforming the primeval landscapes of our country into improved farms and opulent cities of the present time."

"For the earlier part of this history we are indebted to "A Historical Sketch of the Fisher Family", written by Alfred Fisher of Waveland, Indiana."

"It seems that very few people are interested in their ancestry to the extent of writing a history of events; and outside the records of the family Bible, with its chronicle of births, marriages and deaths, very little data is found save in tradition."

"May the future historians of the "Fishers" be able to write more fully and accurately, is the wish of the framer of these incidents."

SRF (Initials Sherman Reed Fisher)

In Part from Portrait & Biographical Record of Fountain, Montgomery & Parke Counties 1893, originally _ Chapman Brothers.

"George Fisher,...was born on board ship while his parents were coming to this country from Germany, and it was his father whom the great family of Fishers in this country are searching very diligently to get some trace of, for on his identity as the father of George hangs a great estate in Germany, which amounts to nearly $60,000,000.00."

Children of UNKNOWN FISHER and UNKNOWN UNKNOWN are:

2. i. GEORGE² FISHER, SR., b. 1753, At Sea; d. 1833, Ripley Brown County, Ohio.
- ii. HENRY FISHER, b. Aft. 1754.
- iii. JOHN FISHER, b. Aft. 1754.

Generation No. 2

2. GEORGE² FISHER, SR. (UNKNOWN¹)^f was born 1753 in At Sea, and died 1833 in Ripley Brown County, Ohio. He married (1) UNKNOWN UNKNOWN Abt. 1774. She died Abt. 1788. He married (2) MARY WESNER Abt. 1788. She was born Abt. 1762, and died 02 Sep 1852 in Brown County, Ohio.

Notes for GEORGE FISHER, SR.:

Taken from Sherman Reed FISHER's book of 1938.

"In the year 1753 a young German and his wife, inspired by glowing accounts of the New World left their home and friends in the Fatherland and embarked in a sailing vessel bound for America. The only known names of the man and his wife is that the family name was "Fisher".

"During the extended voyage, while in mid-ocean a baby boy was born to them and they named him "George"."

"We will designate this boy as George Fisher, Sr., as he is the first known (full name) of our ancestry."

"Ye who read these pages take note that if a drop of "Fisher blood (of the lineage here-in recorded) flows in your veins, are a descendant of this baby boy born (somewhere) on the broad Atlantic Ocean one-hundred and eighty-five years ago. After landing in the new country the family settled in Washington County, Penn. Later two more sons were born, but nothing further is known of these younger sons or the descendants."

"George Sr, was twenty-three years of age when the old Liberty Bell rang out its proclamation of freedom to the people of the United States. We would be pleased to say that he immediately offered his services to our country in the great conflict which followed, but his record is silent in regard to this matter. Nevertheless, we may be able to read between the lines of his history; we know that he was a blacksmith, by trade, and became an expert in gun-making; so we can reasonably presume that he gave of his time and skill in making and repairing rifles, thereby rendering a greater service than if he had carried arms at the front."

"George had two wife's, after the first wife died in about 1788 he married again and moved to within Ripley, in Brown County Ohio, all of the children from the first marriage came with him to the new home.

"The country was new teeming with wild animals and Indians. Many of the settlers were killed or suffered otherwise from the hands of the Indians, such as having horses stolen, buildings burned, etc. but George Sr. seemed to keep on friendly terms with them for he was never, molested by them."

"He settled in the midst of the forest and set his boys to clearing the ground while he worked in the shop. Immigrants came rapidly, and he was soon surrounded by many friends of his own race."

"George Sr. remained on the land which he entered in Brown County , Ohio until death took place in the autumn of 1833, at the age of eighty years.."

"We know nothing concerning a single descendant of any one of these fourteen children. No doubt there are many of them. We wonder what names they bear; we ask, Where are they? Only echo answers, "Where"? We place them in the same list of the Lost Tribes of Israel. But of the two boys, George and John, and their posterity. we have a different tale to tell."

She married WILLIAM WHITE 18 Mar 1797 in Mason County, Kentucky³, son of DAVID WHITE and NANCY UNKNOWN. He was born 06 Jan 1772 in Pennsylvania, and died 21 Oct 1850 in Kentucky.

Notes for SARAH H. FISHER:

All that was known of George's daughter's name was Sally Fisher, Alfred Fisher in 1894 and Sherman Reed in 1938 lists Sally as first born. Date of birth and death unknown, that she married William White and moved out on the Big Sandy.

The Big Sandy River is the name given to the stretch of the Ohio River between Kentucky and West Virginia, and its water shed is mostly in Kentucky.

Looking for William Whites on the census records of 1810 and 1820 Kentucky.

1810 Census Greenup, Kentucky

William White

1 Male 0-9

2 males 10-15

1 Male 26-45

3 Females 0-9

1 Female 26-45

The Big Sandy River goes along the border of Greenup County. (See marriage records)

Kentucky was right across the river from Brown County, Ohio (where most of the FISHER's eventually settled).

Sarah and William lived in Kentucky, on the Big Sandy, for their whole lives - possibly in the exact same place. Mason County, where they married, split off into Greenup, which split to Lawrence, which split to Boyd. So they married in Mason, raised children in Greenup, died in Lawrence, and buried in Boyd, without maybe even ever moving.

Their cemetery records:

Boyd County, Kentucky Records Lockwood/White Cemetery

Sarah H. White b. 1778, d. 3 Dec. 1859, w/o William

William White b 6 Jan 1772 d 21/31 Oct 1850

As is evident from their tombstones, Sarah had a middle initial, H., and was actually born in 1778 which means she is not the eldest child in the family. That honor now seems to fall on William, who is believed to be born in 1775.

She was born 24 May 1787 in Westmoreland, PA⁴, and died 1846 in Rockville, Parke, IL.

6. JOHN³ FISHER, SR. (*GEORGE*², *UNKNOWN*¹)⁴ was born 12 Mar 1782 in Washington, Co. Penn, and died 01 Oct 1843 in Rockville, Parke, IN. He married NANCY MILLER⁴ 08 Dec 1806 in Bourbon County, Kentucky⁵. She was born 30 Aug 1783 in North Carolina, and died 22 Mar 1864 in Parke County , IN.

Notes for JOHN FISHER, SR.:

"These two brothers (George and John) have a very similar life story. They were born in Washington County, Penn. George's birth date was about 1780, and John was born March 12, 1782. Before they reached their teen age their mother died. The father soon married again, and all of them moved to Brown County, Ohio. Here the boys assisted their father in clearing a farm and at work in a blacksmith shop. Upon reaching their majority they took unto themselves wives, and settled in the immediate neighborhood. A few years passed, each had a family of three or four children, when there came the sound of war's alarm, and both enlisted in the War of 1812. When the war ended they returned to their homes and the avocations of peace. A few more fleeting years spent along the beaten path of life and we see these brothers near their half century mile posts, and each had a large family. It is not ours to question actions of interpret motives, but we see them now sever their connections with friends and home state and move farther toward the setting sun.."

"In the autumn of 1829, George and John Fisher with their wives and children moved to Parke County Indiana. To get an idea of the environment into which they came, let us note some of the physical surroundings and conditions which prevailed in the County at that time."

"The whole land was covered with dense forests, except a few roadways cut across the country in various directions, and small clearings already made by earlier settlers. The earlier settler had come ten or twelve years before, and now the traveler along the roads would pass a log dwelling about an average of one house every two miles."

"Rockville had a population of two hundred and contained about fifty log residences, a half dozen businesses and a court house. One of the principle buildings was a two-story log structure on the north west corner of the square, known as Rey's Tavern. Other trading points in the county were at Roseville, Armiesburg, Montezuma and Lusk's Mills. Government land was for sale at a fixed price of a dollar and quarter per acre. The first man to throw his money on the counter secured his choice. One third of the land was considered too wet to be of any value. Of course, men's judgement on this point were often at fault and many sections of land purchased in later years proved of more value than some of the earlier choices."

"A few Indians still dwelt in the county. Game was plentiful; occasionally a bear was killed; deer and wild turkey were abundant; squirrels so numerous as to be a nuisance to farmers; wolves, foxes, raccoons, opossums, groundhogs and porcupines infested the woods; snakes by the millions crawled through the underbrush, and birds numbered twenty to one as compared with the present day. Chills fever laid hold on the inhabitants during the wet weather and changes of the seasons, a common topic of conversation was mud and malaria. Schools and churches were few and far between. Hard work and hard living was the rule. Coarse food and coarse clothing was the best to be obtained. Surely it required a strong nerve to face such conditions. Evidently the "Fisher's" had the "nerve"."

"The old homestead situated in Howard Township is still known as the "FISHER Farm"."

"The soil is very fertile and abundant crops are annually gathered from it."

"In a small cemetery on the farm John and his wife lie at rest."

"We sometimes wonder why these two brothers (George) did not settle on adjoining farms when they came to the new country instead of choosing lands twenty-five Miles apart."

Notes for DANIEL D. FISHER:

FISHER, Daniel D., farmer Rockville was born in Brown County, Ohio, September 17, 1817, and is the son of George and Hannah. His father was a blacksmith by trade, and was born in PA and died in 1848. He was in the War of 1812. His mother was a member of the Presbyterian Church. Owing to the defective common school system Mr. FISHER had a very limited education. In 1829 he came to Parke Co.. He was married October 23, 1844 to Mary A. MARSHALL. They had nine children; Theodore M; Oliver P; Victoria; John; Sarah L; Charles E; George F.; and Rovilla. Mr. FISHER began farming in 1844, with not much capitol. He now has a well-improved farm of 160 acres. His son Theodore M. was in the Army. He enlisted December 23, 1863 in Co. F, 126th Regiment, 11th Ind. Vol. Calvary. He served until the close of the war. Mr. FISHER has traveled through Ill., Iowa, MO., KS. and visited Niagara Falls, crossed the Great Lakes and traveled in Canada. Mr. FISHER is a republican and highly respected gentleman."

"Daniel D. FISHER has been a resident of Indiana since his 12th year, or since 1829, and is therefore one of the oldest inhabitants and pioneers of Parke County. He makes his home on Section 26, Adams Township, a portion of the farm his father entered from the government. He at one time owned 220 acres and now after deeding some to his children, he still owns 130 acres and has some 45 acres of timberland. The rest of the land is under good cultivation and yields abundant income to the owner. Our subject was born September 13, 1817. He is a son of George FISHER, who was born in Pennsylvania in 1780. He in turn was a son of F George FISHER. Our subject's maternal grandfather participated in the battle of Bunker Hill and did valiant service. *(This may or may not be Mary WESNER; Mary was George Sr's. second wife. His first wife, Unknown Name died in 1788). When our subject's father, *(George, Jr.) was 14 he ran away from home and was married in 1804 to Miss Hannah WRIGHT, after which he located in Brown County, Ohio where he was an early settler. He purchased land and lived there until 1829 when he removed to Parke County with his wife and ten children, locating on section 26, Adams Township, where he entered two quarter sections of land and proceeded to clear and improve them until his death in 1848, two years prior to which his wife departed this life. There children all lived to adult years but only two are now living, our subject and his brother Lewis. When George FISHER came to Indiana the land was perfectly wild state and game abounded. He was a great hunter and kept the family well supplied with deer and wild turkeys. His six sons were great assistance to him in clearing the land and raising crops. The deceased children were; George; Samuel; John; Robert; Rachel, wife of Lewis SILCOTT; Mary, wife of Hiram BALL; Almira, Mrs. Samuel GRIFFIN; and Alzana who married James SKANK *(SCHENCK). The father was in the War of 1812. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in good standing and fellowship and was highly esteemed by all as a worthy man and genial, kind neighbor. It was a great event in the life of our subject when he with his parents, brothers and sisters, started from Ohio in wagons for their 17-days journey to Indiana. Here he grew to manhood and helped to develop the farm in the wilderness which is still his home. As the schools of that day were few and poorly conducted his privileges in an educational direction were of the most limited description, so to his own efforts is due the standing he has held for years in the community as a man of intelligence and wide information. On the 23rd of October, 1844 Mr. FISHER married Mary Ann, daughter of John MARSHALL, a native of North Carolina, who on coming to this state and settled in the Southern part. This was in 1821, and after remaining there for about 5 years became a resident of this county. Mrs. FISHER was called to her final rest August 2, 1879. Directly after his marriage Mr. FISHER located on the place where he has lived for 63 years. Of his ten children, one died in childhood and seven are now living; Theodore, who lives in Terre Haute; John a prosperous farmer of Wabash Township; Charles who is married and is now making his home with our subject; George, of this township and Lincoln (Samuel L.) who lives in Omaha, is a traveling auditor of the Western Freight Association. The deceased members of the family are; Oliver P.; Victoria, who is the wife of John BRYANT and Joseph A. In a measure Mr FISHER is now retired from active duties of life on account of his advancing years And has relegated the cares of his farm to his son, who lives with him. He is an interesting conservationist, and his stories of the hardships which he encountered in the pioneer days are full of interest. Most of their goods were transported on the river and Mr. FISHER himself made nine trips to New Orleans, and assisted in building a good many flatboats. Too much cannot be said in favor of the sturdy founders and early settlers of the new states, who courageously overcame all difficulties and have handed down to their posterity the fruits of their labors and chief among those to whom prosperity of Parke County is due to our subject. - Portrait & Biographical Record Of Montgomery, Parke & Fountain Counties, Indiana. "Daniel and Mary Ann Fisher took in an orphan, William H. WILLIAMS."

"In 1846 a terrible accident happened to three members of the WILLIAMS family. The father and mother and the eldest boy being unwell, a young physician was called in, who was supposed to have given them poison by mistake. At 12 o'clock, noon, the father died; by 4 o'clock in the evening the mother too was a corpse, and before 90 o'clock the same day the eldest boy lay dead. The three corpse in one family brought gloom upon the neighborhood, and left the children to the cold sympathies of the world. The dead were buried in the Boatman graveyard, followed to the grave by an immense procession. William H. WILLIAMS was now 2 years old, and was taken to the house of his aunt, Martha until he was 5 years old. He spent 3 years with his aunt Sally Busy. From then on he bounced around living a year at a time with neighbors, spending one year with Daniel FISHER, before joining Co. C 11th Ind. Vols. Later becoming a minister of the Christian Church in 1873. (1880 History of Parke County, IN by J.H. Beadle, 1840-1897 pg 386-387)

Portrait and Biographical Record of Montgomery, Parke, & Fountain Counties.

"Lewis W. FISHER is among the oldest of settlers now living in Parke County, in the welfare of which he has taken so leading a part that its history would be sadly lacking without some tribute to him. His homestead on Section 26, Adams Township, is finely improved, there being about two thousand of tile on the place. Of his two hundred and eighty acres, one hundred and ninety are a part of the old homestead, and one hundred and ninety acres are in the place where his home is situated. Ninety acres belonging to him adjoin Section 27, and of his entire land two hundred acres are well improved. He makes a specialty or raising sheep of the Cotswold variety and keeps other high-grade stock".

"Our subject is the son of George and Hannah (WRIGHT) FISHER and was born in Brown County, Ohio, May 5, 1828. The following year, when he was an infant of eighteen months, his father removed to Indiana, locating on the very Farm where our subject still resides, which property was entered from the Government. Our subject helped his father in clearing the farm and made this place his home until his marriage, with the single exception of two years, when he lived with his sister, Mrs. BALL of Florida Township. September 2, 1852, he married Rebecca H. MARSHALL, whose birth occurred in Rockville, Indiana in 1838. Her father, John MARSHALL, who was an early settler of this county, came here from North Carolina and kept a store in Rockville in those days, afterward removing to a farm in this Township. He was a Probate Judge of this county for a number of years".

"Owned adjoining farm with brother Daniel D." They were Republican in politics."

24. JACOB⁴ FISHER (*JOHN*³, *GEORGE*², *UNKNOWN*¹) was born 20 Apr 1808 in Brown County, Ohio, and died 18 May 1878 in Parke County , IN. He married (1) NANCY NEWELL 20 Aug 1829 in Brown County Ohio, daughter of THOMAS NEWELL and MARGARET TAYLOR. She was born 10 Aug 1812 in Ohio, and died 26 May 1848 in Parke County , IN. He married (2) MARY BROWN 04 Jan 1849 in Parke County, Indiana¹¹. She was born 27 Feb 1818 in Ohio, and died May 1879 in Parke County , IN.

Notes for JACOB FISHER:

"Jacob Fisher, the oldest son of John and Nancy Fisher was born on a farm in Brown County, Ohio on the 20th day of April 1808. The early part of his life was spent at the place of his birth, where he received a common school education. On the 20th day of August 1829 he married Nancy Newell. In the fall of the same year he removed to Parke, Co, IN and lived for two months in the northwestern part of the county, but settled permanently in Adams Township. When Mr. Fisher bought the farm where he still lives, his nearest neighbor was three miles away and he put up a tent in which he lived from December till February and in his own words "was lulled to sleep at night by the howling of the wolves". By hard work, good management and close attention to business, Mr. Fisher has added to his original purchase of 160 acres of land until now has a splendid farm of 500 acres most of which he cleared himself. Mr. Fisher's first wife died in 1848 and he was again married in 1849 to Mary Brown."

"By way of explanation, this winter experience, from Dec. to Feb., was spent alone in the dense forest of Parke County, before marriage, (This entry does not fit above bio), and the tent was a three-sided log shed, the forth side being entirely open, except a constantly burning log heap".

Mr FISHER was of robust physique, weighing, in prime, more than two hundred pounds. He had blue eyes, was of patrician bearing, and wore a ruffled shirt and stove-pipe hat when such was the style. When Mary BROWN saw him for the first time, she inquired of a friend, "Who is the gentleman?", and received the answer, "That's big Jake FISHER."

He was a staunch Republican.

During the great panic of 1873 and a few years following, he suffered great financial losses to the extent that at the settlement of the estate, after his death, there remained only forty acres of land.

v. SYLVESTER J. FISHER, b. 01 Mar 1842, Parke County , IN; m. ALICE SYMMES, 07 Jun 1865, Mattoon, Illinois.

Notes for SYLVESTER J. FISHER:

"FISHER, Sylvester J. was born on a farm near the bluffs and Peaks of Rock River, In Parke County, Indiana March 1, 1842, just nine miles southeast of the Shades of Death arched by the Devil's Backbone. These natural and wonderful formations at that day excited very little interest but now are visited by thousands of tourists yearly. He was the Benjamin of 5 sons of Judge James M. and Elizabeth FISHER. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm and until the age of 15 attended the common district school presided over by the typical "Hoosier" schoolmaster, who boarded with the scholars. He became quite proficient in "spellin, readin, writen, ciperin and grammer." The teacher in Possum Bottoms (the classical name of this district) owing to the scarcity of coin and paper money often received his pay in the products of the soil; he considered himself specially favored if some of the scholars paid for their "larnin" in fowls, chickens, geese, etc. At the age of 16 young FISHER was sent to Waveland Academy (10 miles distance) and remained there three years in search of "more knowledge", he paid for his tuition in cutting cord wood at 25 cents per cord, building fires in the classrooms and ringing the Academy bell. During his stay at the Academy he with three other boys, kept "Bachelors Hall" and lived on the "fat" of his father's farm. At the close of these years his father sold his farm and moved to Mattoon, Illinois to which place he soon followed, bidding farewell to the bluffs and peaks, the hills and dales of his native county and state. Still his "thirst" for wisdom had not abated and in 1859 he attended Westminster College at Fulton, Missouri, entering the sophomore class, he was graduated in 1861 and returned to Mattoon where his parents lived. While at Fulton, FISHER was an ardent Republican and follower of "Abraham" the only one is Fulton in the Kingdom of Callaway. The presidential election to place in November 1860; Lincoln, Douglas and Bell were candidates for the presidency. Young FISHER although two years under age, attempted to vote and was arrested by the city Marshall and taken before a justice of the peace who after hearing the facts said unto young FISHER, as king David said unto his servants who had suffered indignities at the hands of the Hanum, Tarry young man in the vales of Jericho until your beard be grown." He still thirsted , and in 1862 and 1863 attended law school in Chicago. In 1864, May 6, he was admitted to the bar under examination of Justice Sidney Breese of the Illinois Supreme Court. The same year he was elected to the office of police magistrate in Mattoon and served 5 years in that capacity. Resigning he went to Kansas City remained 5 years and moved to St. Louis in November 1874. In December of that same year he opened a real estate office at No. 714 Chestnut Street under the name and style of Fisher & Co.. In 1878 the Real Estate Savings Bank made an assignment and he was appointed by the circuit court assignee and required to give bond in the sum of $400,000. He qualified and wound up the affairs of the bank in 1881, paying depositors 79 cents on the dollar. He united with the Presbyterian Church while at Waveland, Indiana in 1857 and has always been known as Presbyterian. He abominates "hypocrisy and can't", and hence does not exhibit any special (outward) enthusiasm in the discharge of his religious or church duties. He follows his chosen profession (selling real estate) and always sticks close to his text and that of his writing he is still Presbyterian and is still transacting business at the same old stand, 714 Chestnut Street, St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. Fisher married Miss Alice SYMMES, June 7, 1865 at Mattoon. Miss SYMMES was a daughter of Harrison SYMMES, MD, granddaughter of Capt. John Cleves SYMMES, USA; great granddaughter of John Cleves SYMMES, a distinguished jurist who was a delegate to the Continental Congress in 1785, for distinguished services during the Revolution was granted by Congress a large tract of land on the Ohio and Miami Rivers and was virtually the founder of North Bend, Indiana and Cincinnati. He died in the latter city in 1814. Encyclopedia of the History of St. Louis. NY: South Historical Society, 1899, page 787.

A Fisher Family of Parke County Indiana

"Daniel FISHER was born in Brown County, Ohio, near Georgetown, December 18, 1816, to John and Nancy MILLER FISHER. His father was a native of the Keystone State and a son of George FISHER, who was born on board ship while his parents were coming to this country from Germany, and his father whom the great family of FISHER's in this country are searching very diligently to get some trace of, for his identity as the father of George hangs a great estate in Germany, which amounts to nearly $60,000,000.00. Geroge FISHER, after reaching his majority in his native state, moved to Kentucky, where he died."

"The father *(John FISHER Sr.) of our subject had four *(?) brothers (George, Jr., Jacob) and two half brothers *(Frederick, William, Daniel I). John was a soldier in the War of 1812 and emigrated to Parke County, IN in 1829, where he died about eleven years later;with William, deceased and Jacob. His half-brothers were Daniel, who died in Ohio near Ripley; Fred who went to California and has not been heard of since. John, the father of our subject, was a Whig and a member of the New Light Church, and although a man of limited education, he had liberal views in religious matters as well as those concerning political affairs. The mother of our subject was known as Nancy MILLER in her single life and was born in North Carolina, immigrating to Kentucky with her parents, and thence to Indiana, where she died in Parke County in 1862."

"Daniel FISHER, our subject, was fifth in order of birth in a family of eight children born to the above parents, there being six boys and two girls. Jacob was twice married, first to Nancy NEWELL, who became the mother of a large family of children; second to Mary BROWN, who bore him six children and died in Parke County in May 1879. James married Lizzie MONTGOMERY and has a large family of children who all have been highly educated. The eldest son, Michael, speaks fifteen languages fluently and is a publisher in St. Louis, where he is doing much toward getting the great fortune left in Germany. James was for twenty years a Justice of the Peace in Parke County, and was a Presbyterian minister until his death in 1883. Polly married Robert NORWOOD, a native of Alabama. They became parents of a number of children. Two sons, John and Alexander, were killed in the late war, the latter at the Battle of Richmond. Mrs. NORWOOD died in Texas. Sallie became the wife of Alexander MEYER and the mother of a family. She died in the northern part of this county. Carey married Elizabeth ALLEN, and died in Mahaskas County, Iowa. Alfred married Elizabeth ALLEN, a cousin of his brother's wife, and lives in Montgomery County, Indiana, John married Elizabeth GOODIN and resided in Kansas, where he too passed away."

"Our subject grew up on his father's farm, devoting the greater part of his time to farm duties, but being of a studious turn of mind, he pursued his studies every spare moment he could find, and by so doing was enabled to receive as good an education as could be had at that time. His father was a man of some means and gave his son Daniel a start in life. In 1860 our subject bought the place on which he now resides and is using all his energy for its improvement."

In 1840 a very important event took place in the life of our subject, when he was united in marriage with Eliza Jane WELSH, but this lady lived but a short time, and five years later he again married, choosing for his companion Miss Abbie WOODS, a native of Brown County, Ohio. He father Tobias WOODS was born in Ohio and married Miss Katie FISHER. They came to West Illinois, where they made their home and reared eleven children, five boys and six girls. The father and mother of this family passed away, and the family scattered to various part of the United States."

Mr. and Mrs. FISHER have been the parents of five children, three boys and two girls. The sons were Alfred, Wright and John. The latter, who was an unfortunate, having been born deaf and dumb, while being educated in Indianapolis was one day crossing the railroad when and approaching train struck him. The other son Wright, was also deaf and dumb, and was educated at the same place as his brother. For a time he published a paper there, but is now with his father on the farm. Mr. FISHER has been peculiarly unfortunate with his boys, for his third son John was born with an unsound mind. One of the daughter is Hattie, the widow of John TUGMAN. She has two children, Etta Maude and Orrin, who live with Mr. FISHER. Lizzie is the wife of Dr. John JORDAN, a prominent physician in Indianapolis, and has two children. The eldest son DeWitt, is also a physician in the same city, graduating at Louisville, Kentucky, and Iva is now being educated in Indianapolis."

"Mr. FISHER was a Democrat up to Buchanan's election, but when the Republican Party was organized he cast his ballot with that body. He has always been a temperance man and was never intoxicated in his life. He and his wife are both members of the Methodist Church, in which capacity they have labored for many years, living consistent Christian lives. Mr. FISHER is one of the Trustees of the congregation."

Need to do more research on Elizabeth ALLEN, to see if she is the daughter of Isaac C. ALLEN who's will is in Index #1 at the Fountain County Court House Covington, IN.

Notes from Carolyn ALLEN FLINT: "They lived where I now live and were part of them in Parke Co and part in Fountain Co.. Buried in Parke 2 miles directly south of Wallace in Parke and will is in Fountain. Now there is another funny twist to this history that just came to mind. Thomas ALLEN the oldest son b. June 13,1790 married Elizabeth SUMMERS had a daughter named Elizabeth ALLEN b. March 21, 1822and she married an Alfred Cary FISHER on June 4, 1846 they are both buried at Maple Ridge Cemetery at North Edge of Waveland, Indiana. Grandpa Isam ALLEN knew them, when he was about 10 he rode a horse over and stayed the night several times in the good weather. When I was in grade school we lived across from the cemetery and I played in among the tombstones on occasion when the sexton was mowing. There may be a connection to those FISHERS. I do not know anything about his family."

Clara E. FISHER
Montgomery County, IN
Waveland Independent
May 22, 1914

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. PENNINGTON, on Friday morning at the home, was in the charge of Rev. S. K. FUSON, assisted by the Rev. F. B. SOLIN. There were many beautiful and appropriate floral tributes. The following obituary was read: Clara E. PENNINGTON was born January 27, 1854, in Parke County, Indiana, on the farm now owned by her brother J. D. FISHER. She was the third daughter of Alfred and Elizabeth FISHER, both of whom departed this life several years ago. Her younger sister also, Mrs. Laura A. HAHONEY passed to the other shore in her young womanhood. The other members of the family are: Mrs. L. F. SHERMAN of Topeka, Kansas; Mrs Ellen SMITH of Emporia, Kansas; Mrs Amanda LOGAN, of Arcola, Ill., and J. D. FISHER of this place, who is the youngest of the family. The deceased was married to W. F. PENNINGTON March 25, 1902. The brother and sisters with her husband and some friends were present at her bedside on Thursday morning at 3:15 o'clock, when Clara was taken home by the Heavenly

A Fisher Family of Parke County Indiana

Father to join the innumerable host of relatives and friends who worship continually around the Throne. Clara united with the Baptist Church of Waveland January 2, 1889, under the pastorate of Elder Wm. CUPPY. Her Church was very dear to her. Her life was a living example of Christianity. Wednesday evening, as the family stood by the bedside, she united with them in the Lord's prayer and the 23rd Psalm, her voice leading in the verse "Though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff, the comfort me." Clara was a patient sufferer. During her several month's illness, her courage and patience was sustained by her faith in the unlimited power of God, completely resigned to His will, and believing that all would be well.

Death of Elza Silcot

Fort Collins is mourning the death of one of its cherished citizens. Elza Silcot is dead. He answered the dread summons a few minutes after nine o'clock Sunday morning, after an illness dating from the 4th inst. Stricken then with apoplexy, attended with paralysis of the right side, he has since lain upon his couch by far the greater portion of the time in an unconscious condition gradually growing weaker day by day despite the skill of his physicians and the loving care and attention of those whom he was dearer than life. The end came without a struggle, peacefully and Calmly he softly breathed his life away.

How hard it was for us to look at the silent form, to think we shall never more hear that cheery voice, see his friendly smile or feel his warm hand grasp. What heavy mists floated before our eyes as we listened with bowed heads to the failing clods upon his casket. How close the King of Terrors came to us all when he beckoned this loved husband and father, this friend and companion, this model citizen and up right man to eternity's shore. Stricken Down in the vigor of perfect manhood, in the full flush of business success, in the enjoyment of peace with his fellowman, the love of his family and the confidence and respect of all who knew him, Elza Silcot leaves and aching void that time can never fill. All hearts go out in warmest sympathy for the dear stricken ones in the home made gloomy indeed by the death of so good a man.

Elza Silcot was a native of Park County, Indiana born 45 years ago. Moved with his parents in 1853, when a child to Indianola, Iowa, where he attended school and grew to man's estate. His early life³ was spent upon a farm and it was during those years that he imbibed those sterling traits of character which distinguished him as a man and a citizen, in after years. He married Alice Webster in 1880, who with a dearly loved young daughter, survive him. He came with his family to Fort Collins in the fall of 1883, and at once engaged in the furniture business with his brother W. G. Silcot, the two continuing in business until a fire, in January, 1895, destroyed their stock of goods and the store they occupied. Shortly after that they dissolved partnership, Elza to continue in the furniture trade and W. G. to engage in the grocery business. Mr. Silcott was the leading furniture dealer in the city and one of the most prominent citizens. The year before his death Mr. Silcott united with the M. E. Church and remained a true believer and consistent follower of its teaching, ever mindful of his duty to God, his church and his fellow man. He was also a highly prized member of the A. O. U. W., the Odd Fellows and of the Degree of Honor and took a lively interest in the welfare of each.

The funeral occurred on Tuesday afternoon at the Odd Fellows Hall, the services being conducted under the joint auspices of the United Workman and Odd Fellows. The large hall was crowded with sympathizing friends and score were unable to gain admittance. The casket was covered with flowers and floral wreaths, and festoons of roses hung over the sides. The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. F. Coffman, pastor of the deceased, and the singing was by a select choir. The bearers were H. T. Decker, John Wiedman and George Wolfer from the Off Fellows lodge, and Hiram Pierce, S. S. Peterman and M. W. Fuller from the O. U. W. After the impressive services in the hall the casket was removed to the banquet room and opened. The members of the different fraternities to which he belonged in life took their last view of the body, being followed by the congregation. The procession to Grandview Cemetery was one of longest that ever passed out of the city, thus attesting to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow citizens. Business in the city was practically suspended during the service at the hall, nearly every business house was closed.

Child of ELZA SILCOTT and ALICE WEBSTER is:

- i. LOIS⁶ SILCOTT, b. 25 Apr 1885.

43. ELIZABETH MEARS⁵ FISHER (GEORGE⁴, GEORGE³, GEORGE², UNKNOWN¹) was born 04 Dec 1834 in Edgar County, Illinois, and died 25 Jan 1918 in Canon City, Fremont County, Colorado. She married THOMAS HAWKINS ROBBINS 02 Oct 1853 in Rockville, Parke County, Indiana. He was born 06 Jul 1832 in Rockville, Parke County, Indiana, and died 12 Sep 1922 in Canon City, Fremont County, Colorado.

Notes for ELIZABETH MEARS FISHER:

A Genealogical and Biographical Sketch of the lives of Thomas Hawkins Robbins and his wife Elizabeth Mears Fisher Robbins.

By Lilly Robbins Jacoby 1953

"It is imperative, in order to get a true picture of Thomas Hawkins ROBBINS and his wife, that we give a brief history of their forbears. It was the strength, courage and integrity of people like them who laid the foundation of our great nation today.....Her (Elizabeth Mears Fisher whose mother was Sarah MEARS, David & Elizabeth's daughter) mother's family were from Scotland. They, with many others fled from there to Northern Ireland during the reign of Mary, the Bloody Queen of Scotland. After that they were know as the Scotch-Irish. After the American Revolution they decided to come to America. The MEARS and SILCOTT's among them. In Scotland

MEARS was spelled "MUIRS" but was changed to "MEARS" in Ireland. They sailed from Ireland in a sail ship as there were no steamships then. During the ocean voyage a severe storm drove them off their course, and after many perils and hardships they finally landed in New Orleans, from there they traveled north to Kentucky. They were over seven months reaching their destination. After several years in Kentucky the MEARS and SILCOTT's, with their families and seven other families decided to move to Ohio. They built rafts and taking all their household goods and other possessions, started to cross the Ohio River when a party of Indian Warriors came out from the Ohio side in canoes, took them captives and started north through the heavily wooded country. With the captives were several small children who could not go as fast as the others and began crying. The Indians took them by the feet and dashed them to death against the trees. They took the prisoners to Detroit where the British had a garrison, there they traded them to the officers for blankets, beads, and anything they would give them. The British then gave these destitute people and escort to take them to Brown County, Ohio their destination. It was there that Sarah J. MEARS was born and grew to womanhood and married George FISHER. Shortly after this they moved to Edgar County Illinois where Elizabeth Mears FISHER was born 4 December 1834. She was one of a large family, when she was eleven years old her parents with all their families moved to Parke County, Indiana where she married Thomas H. ROBBINS when she was 19 years of age. A few days after the wedding they started for Iowa where they settled on a farm in Dallas County not far from Des Moines. Both Thomas and Elizabeth were received as members of the Methodist Episcopal Church before they were married and wherever they lived they took an active interest in religious affairs. Two or three years after they settled in Iowa their parents moved from Indiana and joined them. Many of the descendants are still living there."

Notes for ALBERT E. FISHER:

Obituaries.

Albert FISHER, son of Jacob and Nancy FISHER, was born in Parke County, Indiana, November 13, 1843; died February 15, 1914, aged 70 years, 3 months and 2 days. Mr FISHER spent his boyhood days in the county where he was born, and growing to young manhood, living in the time of the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, early became enthused by the impulse of war and its probable achievements, and following the example of his young men associates, enlisting in the United States service in defense of his country. Not being satisfied by the first enlistment and trials of the soldier life, he re-enlisted the second and third time, remaining practically in the Service throughout that long, bloody war. It was upon a time of furlough, coming home, he met and became acquainted with Miss Mary E. WHITE. The friendship ripened into love, and growing stronger resulting in their marriage October 19, 1865, following closely the close of the war. To this happy union were born four children. The mourning widow, together with the remnant of children are left behind. One child dying in infancy, one daughter dying March 23, 1913, Rufus E. residing in Clinton, Indiana and Ora W. of Corina California, also seven grandchildren living. The deceased has one brother, John FISHER living in Nevada, Missouri, and three half brothers -- Wm F., Edward G. and Sherman R of Parke County, also two half-sisters Nancy I BRINDLEY and Melissa A. MARTIN of Vermillion County. The departed was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for a period of twenty-five years. His relatives and friends have reason to believe that his faith in the atonement of our Savior has been sufficient. His allegiance to the great principles of the higher life. Unknown source.

Albert FISHER was a quiet unassuming character, who regarded all rights of his fellowmen as he did those of his own, thus drawing around him friendship both respected and lasting. While a loving and kind affectionate father and grandfather has passed from mortal scenes and actions, the family gather to give him their last respect and love to a common memorial. The burial took place on Tues. the 17th of Feb. 1914, preached by Rev A. R. Simpson or Montezuma after which a large delegation of Odd Fellows performed the last sad yet tender burial service peculiar to that grand order. A goodly number of the Grand Army members were present, ready to give their customary services to the memory of an old comrade, but omitted most of the ritual on account of lack of time and inclement weather. The body was laid to rest on the hill of Mount Olivet Church to await the trumpet call. David Strouse, who knew Mr. FISHER well and who was an honorary member of MR. FISHER's first regiment, the Indiana Regiment, has furnished the following short tribute to his record as a soldier. He was mustered in Company A of the 14th Indiana Regiment June 7, 1861 and was discharged for disabilities May 13, 1862. August 1, 1862 he enlisted in Company "C" of the 78th Indiana, and was taken prisoner at the battle of Uniontown, Kentucky, and paroled. He again enlisted in Company F of the 11th Indiana Cavalry December 9, 1863, and was mustered out with the regiment September 19, 1865. His services as a soldier, being a member of several regiments, thus exemplifies his loyalty to his country and his flag. He was an honest, conscientious soldier as well as citizen, as all those who knew him testify. Unknown source.

70. WILLIAM FLETCHER⁵ FISHER (JACOB⁴, JOHN³, GEORGE², UNKNOWN¹) was born 25 Oct 1849 in Parke County , IN, and died 25 Aug 1926 in Parke County , IN. He married MATILDA MALINDA EDMONSON 23 Jun 1870 in Parke County, Indiana, daughter of WILLIAM KELTNER and REBECCA EDMINSON. She was born 06 Feb 1852 in Parke County , IN, and died 19 Aug 1942 in Parke County , IN.

Notes for WILLIAM FLETCHER FISHER:

"William Fletcher was a farmer, and at one time managed a stereopticon show, including slight of hand tricks."

"During the last six years of his life he was afflicted with cancer on his face which ultimately caused his death."

From Sherman Reed's Book of 1938

More About WILLIAM FLETCHER FISHER:
Census: 1860, Florida Township, Parke County Age 11

Notes for MATILDA MALINDA EDMONSON:

Passed down to me was that the wife of William Fletcher was Matilda KELTNER, and that she was the sister of Mary C. KELTNER who was married to William's brother Charles Wesley. (Also see notes on Edward Guy FISHER as to how Sherman Reed refers to Matilda). One census shows her as Matilda M. and another shows her as Malinda M. In a marriage transcription she is listed as Matilda M. KELTON. William Fletcher refereed to her as Tid.

I have not found a Matilda KELTNER in any census, prior to her marriage to William in 1870. Nor, have I found a Matilda KELTNER in the KELTNER family tree, that fits into this time frame. I did find living next door to the KELTNER's in the 1860's the EDMONSON's (Edminston - Edminsten), at that time Matilda was 7 years old:
Allen Edmonson Age 54
Matilda Edmonson Age 49
Matilda Age 7

In a daily journal in William's own handwriting, dated 1 January - 31 December 1875 for the GRANGE he mentions several times that the grandparents EDMONSON's stopped by for a visit and he also mentions visiting them.

Part of William H. KELTNER's will reads:

"except that if Matilda Fisher wife of William F. Fisher shall inherit by devise or gift from Allen Edmiston a share of his estate the said Matilda Fisher shall have no share in the forgoing named property and that (the) portion that would go to her shall be divided to the other heirs equally - and I further devise that the portion that would fall to Sarah Ann Swafford wife of Mark shall go to her bodily heirs if any be living at that he time of division of the property aforesaid. And if the aforesaid Sarah A. Swafford shall have no heirs then living, then that portion (that) would fall to them is living shall be divided between the other heirs".

I am listing Matilda, as Matilda Malinda EDMONSON KELTNER until I can find answers to several questions.

In the 1860 census, a Matilda age 7, was living with Allen EDMONSON who was 54 and his wife Matilda age 49, next door to William KELTNER. Could Allen also be the father of Rebecca Ida EDMINSON wife of William H. KELTNER? If Allen was 54 in 1860 his birth would have been about 1806, making him about 25 when Rebecca was born in 1831. This could be a reason why William Fletcher refers to him as grandparents?

Matilda could have been visiting Allen at the time of the census. Did the census taker assume she was the daughter of Allen?

Did William KELTNER adopt Matilda for some reason, or could she be an indentured servant? Did Allen and his wife Matilda both die between the 1860 census when Matilda was 7 and the 1870 census when she married William Fletcher?

He was reared to manhood in and close to Waveland, where his parents lived, and attended public schools of this town. He later went to the Lodoga Academy. Obituary

"Anna Fisher, daughter of John Ed and Margaret Fisher, was born near Elveston, Illinois, October 24, 1871, aged at death, 45 years, 3 months and 17 days. She was united in marriage to Squire Symmonds December 24, 1890. To this union were born 11 children, Alice, Jane, Margaret, James, Joseph, Paul and Samuel, four dying in infancy. Sister Symmonds united with Smyra Church of Old School Baptists at Bentley, Ill., October., 1916, ever after adored her profession with devotion to her Lord and the church. For several years, she was in failing health, having heart trouble. On the morning of the 11th at her home, surrounded with her family, which was one of her great enjoyments, she was suddenly called while preparing dinner, passing away in a few minutes. She died in the full triumph of faith, leaving with her family the sweet evidence that she had entered into rest. The funeral services were held at the Christian church Hamilton, which was here home, conducted by the writer in the presence of many of her brethren and sisters and a large concourse of friends, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Oakwood cemetery. May the Lord in his tender grace sustain Brother Symmonds and his dear children in their great loss. L. E. Frazee." "Margaret Symmonds, daughter of S.A. and Anna (Fisher) Symmonds, was born April 9, 1894. The ambition of her life was to care for her father's home, motherless since Feb. 1917. Her soul was beautiful, and she ever manifested an unselfish love and tenderness toward those about her. She received a precious hope before the death of her mother, but did not come to the church until June 15, 1919, when she united with the Primitive Baptist church call Smyrna, at Berkley, Ill.; she was batized July 29th by her beloved pastor Elder L. E. Frazee. She loved so much to be with the children of God, and the days following he batisim were among the happiest of her life. In August she was stricken with typhois fever, and lived almost two weeks. One night when her suffering was very great, she clasped her brother who was sitting at her bedside, in her arms and sang a sweet humn; the said, "Children, can you doubt that Christ has been among us this evening"? She realized that her time to die was near; she was not afraid, but felt the presence of her blessed Savior. She requested of her sister that after she was gone, Elder Frazee be sent for, to offer prayer and say a few words; then for them to sing a few songs and carry her to Oakwood cemetery (Hamilton, Ill.)

Chapter 3
Family Line of John Fisher, Sr.
and
Associated Families

Descendants of John Fisher, Sr.

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN³ FISHER, SR. (*GEORGE*², *UNKNOWN*¹)¹ was born 12 Mar 1782 in Washington, Co. Penn, and died 01 Oct 1843 in Rockville, Parke, IN. He married NANCY MILLER¹ 08 Dec 1806 in Bourbon County, Kentucky². She was born 30 Aug 1783 in North Carolina, and died 22 Mar 1864 in Parke County , IN.

Notes for JOHN FISHER, SR.:

"These two brothers (George and John) have a very similar life story. They were born in Washington County, Penn. George's birth date was about 1780, and John was born March 12, 1782. Before they reached their teen age their mother died. The father soon married again, and all of them moved to Brown County, Ohio. Here the boys assisted their father in clearing a farm and at work in a blacksmith shop. Upon reaching their majority they took unto themselves wives, and settled in the immediate neighborhood. A few years passed, each had a family of three or four children, when there came the sound of war's alarm, and both enlisted in the War of 1812. When the war ended they returned to their homes and the avocations of peace. A few more fleeting years spent along the beaten path of life and we see these brothers near their half century mile posts, and each had a large family. It is not ours to question actions of interpret motives, but we see them now sever their connections with friends and home state and move farther toward the setting sun.."

"In the autumn of 1829, George and John Fisher with their wives and children moved to Parke County Indiana. To get an idea of the environment into which they came, let us note some of the physical surroundings and conditions which prevailed in the County at that time."

"The whole land was covered with dense forests, except a few roadways cut across the country in various directions, and small clearings already made by earlier settlers. The earlier settler had come ten or twelve years before, and now the traveler along the roads would pass a log dwelling about an average of one house every two miles."

"Rockville had a population of two hundred and contained about fifty log residences, a half dozen businesses and a court house. One of the principle buildings was a two-story log structure on the north west corner of the square, known as Rey's Tavern. Other trading points in the county were at Roseville, Armiesburg, Montezuma and Lusk's Mills. Government land was for sale at a fixed price of a dollar and quarter per acre. The first man to throw his money on the counter secured his choice. One third of the land was considered too wet to be of any value. Of course, men's judgement on this point were often at fault and many sections of land purchased in later years proved of more value than some of the earlier choices."

"A few Indians still dwelt in the county. Game was plentiful; occasionally a bear was killed; deer and wild turkey were abundant; squirrels so numerous as to be a nuisance to farmers; wolves, foxes, raccoons, opossums, groundhogs and porcupines infested the woods; snakes by the millions crawled through the underbrush, and birds numbered twenty to one as compared with the present day. Chills fever laid hold on the inhabitants during the wet weather and changes of the seasons, a common topic of conversation was mud and malaria. Schools and churches were few and far between. Hard work and hard living was the rule. Coarse food and coarse clothing was the best to be obtained. Surely it required a strong nerve to face such conditions. Evidently the "Fisher's" had the "nerve"."

"The old homestead situated in Howard Township is still known as the "FISHER Farm"."

"The soil is very fertile and abundant crops are annually gathered from it."

"In a small cemetery on the farm John and his wife lie at rest."

"We sometimes wonder why these two brothers (George) did not settle on adjoining farms when they came to the new country instead of choosing lands twenty-five Miles apart."

From Sherman Reed FISHERS's book of 1938

Generation No. 2

2. JACOB⁴ FISHER (*JOHN*³, *GEORGE*², *UNKNOWN*¹) was born 20 Apr 1808 in Brown County, Ohio, and died 18 May 1878 in Parke County, IN. He married (1) NANCY NEWELL 20 Aug 1829 in Brown County Ohio, daughter of THOMAS NEWELL and MARGARET TAYLOR. She was born 10 Aug 1812 in Ohio, and died 26 May 1848 in Parke County, IN. He married (2) MARY BROWN 04 Jan 1849 in Parke County, Indiana³. She was born 27 Feb 1818 in Ohio, and died May 1879 in Parke County, IN.

Notes for JACOB FISHER:

"Jacob Fisher, the oldest son of John and Nancy Fisher was born on a farm in Brown County, Ohio on the 20th day of April 1808. The early part of his life was spent at the place of his birth, where he received a common school education. On the 20th day of August 1829 he married Nancy Newell. In the fall of the same year he removed to Parke, Co, IN and lived for two months in the northwestern part of the county, but settled permanently in Adams Township. When Mr. Fisher bought the farm where he still lives, his nearest neighbor was three miles away and he put up a tent in which he lived from December till February and in his own words "was lulled to sleep at night by the howling of the wolves". By hard work, good management and close attention to business, Mr. Fisher has added to his original purchase of 160 acres of land until now has a splendid farm of 500 acres most of which he cleared himself. Mr. Fisher's first wife died in 1848 and he was again married in 1849 to Mary Brown."

"By way of explanation, this winter experience, from Dec. to Feb., was spent alone in the dense forest of Parke County, before marriage, (This entry does not fit above bio), and the tent was a three-sided log shed, the forth side being entirely open, except a constantly burning log heap".

Mr FISHER was of robust physique, weighing, in prime, more than two hundred pounds. He had blue eyes, was of patrician bearing, and wore a ruffled shirt and stove-pipe hat when such was the style. When Mary BROWN saw him for the first time, she inquired of a friend, "Who is the gentleman?", and received the answer, "That's big

Jake FISHER."

He was a staunch Republican.

During the great panic of 1873 and a few years following, he suffered great financial losses to the extent that at the settlement of the estate, after his death, there remained only forty acres of land.

- v. SYLVESTER J. FISHER, b. 01 Mar 1842, Parke County , IN; m. ALICE SYMMES, 07 Jun 1865, Mattoon, Illinois.

Notes for SYLVESTER J. FISHER:

"FISHER, Sylvester J. was born on a farm near the bluffs and Peaks of Rock River, In Parke County, Indiana March 1, 1842, just nine miles southeast of the Shades of Death arched by the Devil's Backbone. These natural and wonderful formations at that day excited very little interest but now are visited by thousands of tourists yearly. He was the Benjamin of 5 sons of Judge James M. and Elizabeth FISHER. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm and until the age of 15 attended the common district school presided over by the typical "Hoosier" schoolmaster, who boarded with the scholars. He became quite proficient in "spellin, readin, writen, ciperin and grammer." The teacher in Possum Bottoms (the classical name of this district) owing to the scarcity of coin and paper money often received his pay in the products of the soil; he considered himself specially favored if some of the scholars paid for their "larnin" in fowls, chickens, geese, etc. At the age of 16 young FISHER was sent to Waveland Academy (10 miles distance) and remained there three years in search of "more knowledge", he paid for his tuition in cutting cord wood at 25 cents per cord, building fires in the classrooms and ringing the Academy bell. During his stay at the Academy he with three other boys, kept "Bachelors Hall" and lived on the "fat" of his father's farm. At the close of these years his father sold his farm and moved to Mattoon, Illinois to which place he soon followed, bidding farewell to the bluffs and peaks, the hills and dales of his native county and state. Still his "thirst" for wisdom had not abated and in 1859 he attended Westminster College at Fulton, Missouri, entering the sophomore class, he was graduated in 1861 and returned to Mattoon where his parents lived. While at Fulton, FISHER was an ardent Republican and follower of "Abraham" the only one in Fulton in the Kingdom of Callaway. The presidential election to place in November 1860; Lincoln, Douglas and Bell were candidates for the presidency. Young FISHER although two years under age, attempted to vote and was arrested by the city Marshall and taken before a justice of the peace who after hearing the facts said unto young FISHER, as king David said unto his servants who had suffered indignities at the hands of the Hanum, Tarry young man in the vales of Jericho until your beard be grown." He still thirsted, and in 1862 and 1863 attended law school in Chicago. In 1864, May 6, he was admitted to the bar under examination of Justice Sidney Breese of the Illinois Supreme Court. The same year he was elected to the office of police magistrate in Mattoon and served 5 years in that capacity. Resigning he went to Kansas City remained 5 years and moved to St. Louis in November 1874. In December of that same year he opened a real estate office at No. 714 Chestnut Street under the name and style of Fisher & Co.. In 1878 the Real Estate Savings Bank made an assignment and he was appointed by the circuit court assignee and required to give bond in the sum of $400,000. He qualified and wound up the affairs of the bank in 1881, paying depositors 79 cents on the dollar. He united with the Presbyterian Church while at Waveland, Indiana in 1857 and has always been known as Presbyterian. He abominates "hypocrisy and can't", and hence does not exhibit any special (outward) enthusiasm in the discharge of his religious or church duties. He follows his chosen profession (selling real estate) and always sticks close to his text and that of his writing he is still Presbyterian and is still transacting business at the same old stand, 714 Chestnut Street, St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. Fisher married Miss Alice SYMMES, June 7, 1865 at Mattoon. Miss SYMMES was a daughter of Harrison SYMMES, MD, granddaughter of Capt. John Cleves SYMMES, USA; great granddaughter of John Cleves SYMMES, a distinguished jurist who was a delegate to the Continental Congress in 1785, for distinguished services during the Revolution was granted by Congress a large tract of land on the Ohio and Miami Rivers and was virtually the founder of North Bend, Indiana and Cincinnati. He died in the latter city in 1814. Encyclopedia of the History of St. Louis. NY: South Historical Society, 1899, page 787.

He married (2) ABIGAIL WOODS 13 Feb 1845 in Parke County, Indiana, daughter of TOBIAS WOODS and CATHERINE FISHER. She was born 1823 in Brown County, Ohio, and died 1893 in Parke County , IN.

Notes for DANIEL FISHER:

"The sons of the family were all deaf and dumb. A congenial misfortune, supposed to be caused by kinship of parents."

From Sherman Reed FISHER's book of 1938

Montgomery, Parke & Fountain Counties, Indiana

Originally Publisher in 1893 by Chapman Bros.

"Daniel FISHER was born in Brown County, Ohio, near Georgetown, December 18, 1816, to John and Nancy MILLER FISHER. His father was a native of the Keystone State and a son of George FISHER, who was born on board ship while his parents were coming to this country from Germany, and his father whom the great family of FISHER's in this country are searching very diligently to get some trace of, for his identity as the father of George hangs a great estate in Germany, which amounts to nearly $60,000,000.00. Geroge FISHER, after reaching his majority in his native state, moved to Kentucky, where he died."

"The father *(John FISHER Sr.) of our subject had four *(?) brothers (George, Jr., Jacob) and two half brothers *(Frederick, William, Daniel I). George the eldest, came to Indiana and settled near Rockville, where he died. John was a soldier in the War of 1812 and emigrated to Parke County, IN in 1829, where he died about eleven years later;with William, deceased and Jacob. His half-brothers were Daniel, who died in Ohio near Ripley; Fred who went to California and has not been heard of since. John, the father of our subject, was a Whig and a member of the New Light Church, and although a man of limited education, he had liberal views in religious matters as well as those concerning political affairs. The mother of our subject was known as Nancy MILLER in her single life and was born in North Carolina, immigrating to Kentucky with her parents, and thence to Indiana, where she died in Parke County in 1862."

"Daniel FISHER, our subject, was fifth in order of birth in a family of eight children born to the above parents, there being six boys and two girls. Jacob was twice married, first to Nancy NEWELL, who became the mother of a large family of children; second to Mary BROWN, who bore him six children and died in Parke County in May 1879. James married Lizzie MONTGOMERY and has a large family of children who all have been highly educated. The eldest son, Michael, speaks fifteen languages fluently and is a publisher in St. Louis, where he is doing much toward getting the great fortune left in Germany. James was for twenty years a Justice of the Peace in Parke County, and was a Presbyterian minister until his death in 1883. Polly married Robert NORWOOD, a native of Alabama. They became parents of a number of children. Two sons, John and Alexander, were killed in the late war, the latter at the Battle of Richmond. Mrs. NORWOOD died in Texas. Sallie became the wife of Alexander MEYER and the mother of a family. She died in the northern part of this county. Carey married Elizabeth ALLEN, and died in Mahaskas County, Iowa. Alfred married Elizabeth ALLEN, a cousin of his brother's wife, and lives in Montgomery County, Indiana, John married Elizabeth GOODIN and resided in Kansas, where he too passed away."

"Our subject grew up on his father's farm, devoting the greater part of his time to farm duties, but being of a studious turn of mind, he pursued his studies every spare moment he could find, and by so doing was enabled to receive as good an education as could be had at that time. His father was a man of some means and gave his son Daniel a start in life. In 1860 our subject bought the place on which he now resides and is using all his energy for its improvement."

In 1840 a very important event took place in the life of our subject, when he was united in marriage with Eliza Jane WELSH, but this lady lived but a short time, and five years later he again married, choosing for his companion Miss Abbie WOODS, a native of Brown County, Ohio. He father Tobias WOODS was born in Ohio and married Miss Katie FISHER. They came to West Illinois, where they made their home and reared eleven children, five boys and six girls. The father and mother of this family passed away, and the family scattered to various part of the United States."

Mr. and Mrs. FISHER have been the parents of five children, three boys and two girls. The sons were Alfred, Wright and John. The latter, who was an unfortunate, having been born deaf and dumb, while being educated in Indianapolis was one day crossing the railroad when and approaching train struck him. The other son Wright, was also deaf and dumb, and was educated at the same place as his brother. For a time he published a paper there, but is now with his father on the farm. Mr. FISHER has been peculiarly unfortunate with his boys, for his third son John was born with an unsound mind. One of the daughter is Hattie, the widow of John TUGMAN. She has two children, Etta Maude and Orrin, who live with Mr. FISHER. Lizzie is the wife of Dr. John JORDAN, a prominent physician in Indianapolis, and has two children. The eldest son DeWitt, is also a physician in the same city, graduating at Louisville, Kentucky, and Iva is now being educated in Indianapolis."

"Mr. FISHER was a Democrat up to Buchanan's election, but when the Republican Party was organized he cast his ballot with that body. He has always been a temperance man and was never intoxicated in his life. He and his wife are both members of the Methodist Church, in which capacity they have labored for many years, living consistent Christian lives. Mr. FISHER is one of the Trustees of the congregation."

Need to do more research on Elizabeth ALLEN, to see if she is the daughter of Isaac C. ALLEN who's will is in Index #1 at the Fountain County Court House Covington, IN.

Notes from Carolyn ALLEN FLINT: "They lived where I now live and were part of them in Parke Co and part in Fountain Co.. Buried in Parke 2 miles directly south of Wallace in Parke and will is in Fountain. Now there is another funny twist to this history that just came to mind. Thomas ALLEN the oldest son b. June 13,1790 married Elizabeth SUMMERS had a daughter named Elizabeth ALLEN b. March 21, 1822and she married an Alfred Cary FISHER on June 4, 1846 they are both buried at Maple Ridge Cemetery at North Edge of Waveland, Indiana. Grandpa Isam ALLEN knew them, when he was about 10 he rode a horse over and stayed the night several times in the good weather. When I was in grade school we lived across from the cemetery and I played in among the tombstones on occasion when the sexton was mowing. There may be a connection to those FISHERS. I do not know anything about his family."

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. PENNINGTON, on Friday morning at the home, was in the charge of Rev. S. K. FUSON, assisted by the Rev. F. B. SOLIN. There were many beautiful and appropriate floral tributes. The following obituary was read: Clara E. PENNINGTON was born January 27, 1854, in Parke County, Indiana, on the farm now owned by her brother J. D. FISHER. She was the third daughter of Alfred and Elizabeth FISHER, both of whom departed this life several years ago. Her younger sister also, Mrs. Laura A. HAHONEY passed to the other shore in her young womanhood. The other members of the family are: Mrs. L. F. SHERMAN of Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. Ellen SMITH of Emporia, Kansas; Mrs. Amanda LOGAN, of Arcola, Ill., and J. D. FISHER of this place, who is the youngest of the family. The deceased was married to W. F. PENNINGTON March 25, 1902. The brother and sisters with her husband and some friends were present at her bedside on Thursday morning at 3:15 o'clock, when Clara was taken home by the Heavenly Father to join the innumerable host of relatives and friends who worship continually around the Throne. Clara united with the Baptist Church of Waveland January 2, 1889, under the pastorate of Elder Wm. CUPPY. Her Church was very dear to her. Her life was a living example of Christianity. Wednesday evening, as the family stood by the bedside, she united with them in the Lord's prayer and the 23rd Psalm, her voice leading in the verse "Though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff, the comfort me." Clara was a patient sufferer. During her several month's illness, her courage and patience was sustained by her faith in the unlimited power of God, completely resigned to His will, and believing that all would be well.

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. PENNINGTON, who died at three on Thursday morning, will take place at the home at half past 10 on Saturday morning. Re. S. K. FUSON will be in charge. Interment at Maple Ridge.

Obituaries.

Albert FISHER, son of Jacob and Nancy FISHER, was born in Parke County, Indiana, November 13, 1843; died February 15, 1914, aged 70 years, 3 months and 2 days. Mr FISHER spent his boyhood days in the county where he was born, and growing to young manhood, living in the time of the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, early became enthused by the impulse of war and it's probable achievements, and following the example of his young men associates, enlisting in the United States service in defense of his country. Not being satisfied by the first enlistment and trials of the soldier life, he re enlisted the second and third time, remaining practically in the Service throughout that long, bloody war. It was upon a time of furlough, coming home, he met and became acquainted with Miss Mary E. WHITE. The friendship ripened into love, and growing stronger resulting in their marriage October 19, 1865, following closely the close of the war. To this happy union were born four children. The mourning widow, together with the remnant of children are left behind. One child dying in infancy, one daughter dying March 23, 1913, Rufus E. residing in Clinton, Indiana and Ora W. of Corina California, also seven grandchildren living. The deceased has one brother, John FISHER living in Nevada, Missouri, and three half brothers -- Wm F., Edward G. and Sherman R of Parke County, also two half -sisters Nancy I BRINDLEY and Melissa A. MARTIN of Vermillion County. The departed was a member of the Methodist Episcopal; Church for a period of twenty-five years. His relatives and friends have reason to believe that his faith in the atonement of our Savior has been sufficient. His allegiance to the great principles of the higher life. Unknown source.

Albert FISHER was a quiet unassuming character, who regarded all rights of his fellowmen as he did those of his own, thus drawing around him friendship both respected and lasting. While a loving and kind affectionate father and grandfather has passed from mortal scenes and actions, the family gather to give him their last respect and love to a common memorial. The burial took place on Tues. the 17th of Feb. 1914, preached by Rev A. R. Simpson or Montezuma after which a large delegation of Odd Fellows performed the last sad yet tender burial service peculiar to that grand order. A goodly number of the Grand Army members were present, ready to give their customary services to the memory of an old comrade, but omitted most of the ritual on account of lack of time and inclement weather. The body was laid to rest on the hill of Mount Olivet Church to await the trumpet call. David Strouse, who knew Mr. FISHER well and who was an honorary member of MR. FISHER's first regiment, the Indiana Regiment, has furnished the following short tribute to his record as a soldier. He was mustered in Company A of the 14th Indiana Regiment June 7, 1861 and was discharged for disabilities May 13, 1862. August 1, 1862 he enlisted in Company "C" of the 78th Indiana, and was taken prisoner at the battle of Uniontown, Kentucky, and paroled. He again enlisted in Company F of the 11th Indiana Cavalry December 9, 1863, and was mustered out with the regiment September 19, 1865. His services as a soldier, being a member of several regiments, thus exemplifies his loyalty to his country and his flag. He was an honest, conscientious soldier as well as citizen, as all those who knew him testify. Unknown source.

Thanks to Ruth SCHALLE for the above obits.

14. WILLIAM FLETCHER⁵ FISHER (JACOB⁴, JOHN³, GEORGE², UNKNOWN¹) was born 25 Oct 1849 in Parke County , IN, and died 25 Aug 1926 in Parke County , IN. He married MATILDA MALINDA EDMONSON 23 Jun 1870 in Parke County, Indiana, daughter of WILLIAM KELTNER and REBECCA EDMINSON. She was born 06 Feb 1852 in Parke County , IN, and died 19 Aug 1942 in Parke County , IN.

Notes for WILLIAM FLETCHER FISHER:

"William Fletcher was a farmer, and at one time managed a stereopticon show, including slight of hand tricks."

"During the last six years of his life he was afflicted with cancer on his face which ultimately caused his death."

From Sherman Reed's Book of 1938

Notes for MATILDA MALINDA EDMONSON:

Passed down to me was that the wife of William Fletcher was Matilda KELTNER, and that she was the sister of Mary C. KELTNER who was married to William's brother Charles Wesley. (Also see notes on Edward Guy FISHER as to how Sherman Reed refers to Matilda). One census shows her as Matilda M. and another shows her as Malinda M. In a marriage transcription she is listed as Matilda M. KELTON. William Fletcher refereed to her as Tid.

I have not found a Matilda KELTNER in any census, prior to her marriage to William in 1870. Nor, have I found a Matilda KELTNER in the KELTNER family tree, that fits into this time frame. I did find living next door to the KELTNER's in the 1860's the EDMONSON's (Edminston - Edminsten), at that time Matilda was 7 years old:

Allen Edmonson Age 54

Matilda Edmonson Age 49

Matilda Age 7

In a daily journal in William's own handwriting, dated 1 January - 31 December 1875 for the GRANGE he mentions several times that the grandparents EDMONSON's stopped by for a visit and he also mentions visiting them.

Part of William H. KELTNER's will reads:

"except that if Matilda Fisher wife of William F. Fisher shall inherit by devise or gift from Allen Edmiston a share of his estate the said Matilda Fisher shall have no share in the forgoing named property and that (the) portion that would go to her shall be divided to the other heirs equally - and I further devise that the portion that would fall to Sarah Ann Swafford wife of Mark shall go to her bodily heirs if any be living at that he time of division of the property aforesaid. And if the aforesaid Sarah A. Swafford shall have no heirs then living, then that portion (that) would fall to them is living shall be divided between the other heirs".

I am listing Matilda, as Matilda Malinda EDMONSON KELTNER until I can find answers to several questions.

In the 1860 census, a Matilda age 7, was living with Allen EDMONSON who was 54 and his wife Matilda age 49, next door to William KELTNER. Could Allen also be the father of Rebecca Ida EDMINSON wife of William H. KELTNER? If Allen was 54 in 1860 his birth would have been about 1806, making him about 25 when Rebecca was born in 1831. This could be a reason why William Fletcher refers to him as grandparents?

Matilda could have been visiting Allen at the time of the census. Did the census taker assume she was the daughter of Allen?

Did William KELTNER adopt Matilda for some reason, or could she be an indentured servant? Did Allen and his wife Matilda both die between the 1860 census when Matilda was 7 and the 1870 census when she married William Fletcher?

Biography
Waveland Independent, January 24, 1930

John DeWitt FISHER, the youngest child and only son of Alfred and Elizabeth ALLEN FISHER, was born in Waveland, on January 8, 1864, at the FISHER homestead on East Howard Street, now owned by Charles KRITZ. He was reared to manhood in and close to Waveland, where his parents lived, and attended public schools of this town. He later went to the Lodoga Academy. He was united in marriage to Martha HOBSON and to this union five children were born: three daughters, Mrs. Foster FUDGE and Miss Corrine FISHER of Crawfordsville; Mrs Clifford BANTA of Englewood, New Jersey; and two sons, John D. FISHER, Jr. of Crawfordsville and Alfred A., of Hammond. He was successfully engaged in various business in and around Waveland during his life being in furniture and undertaking, grocery business and later handling horses and live stock. He was always active in the farming industry of this community where he owned a farm and was active in its management. He was an active and energetic member of the Presbyterian Church, which he had served faithfully in various capacities during his lifetime. He was also a member of the K. of P. and Modern Woodman Lodges, in which he took much interest. Of amiable and pleasant disposition, he made countless friends and was widely known and liked by everyone. April 19, 1926 Mrs. Martha HOBSON FISHER, his first wife died. Notes for ELIZABETH SUMMERS ALLEN:

Need to do more research on Elizabeth ALLEN, to see if she is the daughter of Isaac C. ALLEN who's will is in Index #1 at the Fountain County Court House Covington, IN.

Notes from Carolyn ALLEN FLINT: "They lived where I now live and were part of them in Parke Co and part in Fountain Co.. Buried in Parke 2 miles directly south of Wallace in Parke and will is in Fountain. Now there is another funny twist to this history that just came to mind. Thomas ALLEN the oldest son b. June 13,1790 married Elizabeth SUMMERS had a daughter named Elizabeth ALLEN b. March 21, 1822 and she married an Alfred Cary FISHER on June 4, 1846 they are both buried at Maple Ridge Cemetery at North Edge of Waveland, Indiana. Grandpa Isam ALLEN knew them, when he was about 10 he rode a horse over and stayed the night several times in the good weather. When I was in grade school we lived across from the cemetery and I played in among the tombstones on occasion when the sexton was mowing. There may be a connection to those FISHERS. I do not know anything about his family."

A Fisher Family of Parke County Indiana

WARREN PENNINGTON, 25 Mar 1902, Montgomery County, Indiana⁴.

Notes for CLARA E. FISHER:

Clara E. FISHER
Montgomery County, IN
Waveland Independent
May 22, 1914

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. PENNINGTON, on Friday morning at the home, was in the charge of Rev. S. K. FUSON, assisted by the Rev. F. B. SOLIN. There were many beautiful and appropriate floral tributes. The following obituary was read: Clara E. PENNINGTON was born January 27, 1854, in Parke County, Indiana, on the farm now owned by her brother J. D. FISHER. She was the third daughter of Alfred and Elizabeth FISHER, both of whom departed this life several years ago. Her younger sister also, Mrs. Laura A. HAHONEY passed to the other shore in her young womanhood. The other members of the family are: Mrs. L. F. SHERMAN of Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. Ellen SMITH of Emporia, Kansas; Mrs. Amanda LOGAN, of Arcola, Ill., and J. D. FISHER of this place, who is the youngest of the family. The deceased was married to W. F. PENNINGTON March 25, 1902. The brother and sisters with her husband and some friends were present at her bedside on Thursday morning at 3:15 o'clock, when Clara was taken home by the Heavenly Father to join the innumerable host of relatives and friends who worship continually around the Throne. Clara united with the Baptist Church of Waveland January 2, 1889, under the pastorate of Elder Wm. CUPPY. Her Church was very dear to her. Her life was a living example of Christianity. Wednesday evening, as the family stood by the bedside, she united with them in the Lord's prayer and the 23rd Psalm, her voice leading in the verse "Though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff, the comfort me." Clara was a patient sufferer. During her several month's illness, her courage and patience was sustained by her faith in the unlimited power of God, completely resigned to His will, and believing that all would be well.

Waveland Independent, May 15, 1914

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. PENNINGTON, who died at three on Thursday morning, will take place at the home at half past 10 on Saturday morning. Re. S. K. FUSON will be in charge. Interment at Maple Ridge.

John DeWitt FISHER, the youngest child and only son of Alfred and Elizabeth ALLEN FISHER, was born in Waveland, on January 8, 1864, at the FISHER homestead on East Howard Street, now owned by Charles KRITZ. He was reared to manhood in and close to Waveland, where his parents lived, and attended public schools of this town. He later went to the Lodoga Academy. He was united in marriage to Martha HOBSON and to this union five children were born: three daughters, Mrs. Foster FUDGE and Miss Corrine FISHER of Crawfordsville; Mrs Clifford BANTA of Englewood, New Jersey; and two sons, John D. FISHER, Jr. of Crawfordsville and Alfred A., of Hammond. He was successfully engaged in various business in and around Waveland during his life being in furniture and undertaking, grocery business and later handling horses and live stock. He was always active in the farming industry of this community where he owned a farm and was active in its management. This first trip on a vacation of his character seemed to inspire him with confidence and good health, and even the day of his death, he had written letters to relatives saying as could be, he thought that the trouble has passed, but upon retiring again, it recurred and before a doctor could reach the home he had passed away from an acute attack of indigestion. He is Survived by the widow, Mrs. Metta FISHER, the children previously named, one sister, Mrs. Amanda LOGAN or Arcola, Illinois, six grandchildren and many other relatives and friends. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred FISHER and four sisters, Laura, Lou, Clara and Ellen, preceded him in death. His death took from the community one of its staunchest citizens, and his friends and relatives have lost a sincere and true friend. Mr. FISHER was One of the active workers in the preliminary work in securing our Carnegie library building. He was a member of the first board of trustees and served until he removed from the community. 7. MATILDA MALINDA⁴ EDMONSON (WILLIAM H.³ KELTNER, JOHN², HENRY¹ KELCH) was born 06 Feb 1852 in Parke County, IN, and died 19 Aug 1942 in Parke County, IN. She married WILLIAM FLETCHER FISHER 23 Jun 1870 in Parke County, Indiana, son of JACOB FISHER and MARY BROWN. He was born 25 Oct 1849 in Parke County, IN, and died 25 Aug 1926 in Parke County, IN.

Notes for MATILDA MALINDA EDMONSON:

Passed down to me was that the wife of William Fletcher was Matilda KELTNER, and that she was the sister of Mary C. KELTNER who was married to William's brother Charles Wesley. (Also see notes on Edward Guy FISHER as to how Sherman Reed refers to Matilda). One census shows her as Matilda M. and another shows her as Malinda M. In a marriage transcription she is listed as Matilda M. KELTON. William Fletcher referred to her as Tid.

I have not found a Matilda KELTNER in any census, prior to her marriage to William in 1870. Nor, have I found a Matilda KELTNER in the KELTNER family tree, that fits into this time frame. I did find living next door to the KELTNER's in the 1860's the EDMONSON's (Edminston - Edminsten), at that time Matilda was 7 years old:
Allen Edmonson Age 54
Matilda Edmonson Age 49
Matilda Age 7

In a daily journal in William's own handwriting, dated 1 January - 31 December 1875 for the GRANGE he mentions several times that the grandparents EDMONSON's stopped by for a visit and he also mentions visiting them.

Part of William H. KELTNER's will reads:

"except that if Matilda Fisher wife of William F. Fisher shall inherit by devise or gift from Allen Edmiston a share of his estate the said Matilda Fisher shall have no share in the forgoing named property and that (the) portion that would go to her shall be divided to the other heirs equally - and I further devise that the portion that would fall to Sarah Ann Swafford wife of Mark shall go to her bodily heirs if any be living at that he time of division of the property aforesaid. And if the aforesaid Sarah A. Swafford shall have no heirs then living, then that portion (that) would fall to them is living shall be divided between the other heirs".

I am listing Matilda, as Matilda Malinda EDMONSON KELTNER until I can find answers to several questions.

In the 1860 census, a Matilda age 7, was living with Allen EDMONSON who was 54 and his wife Matilda age 49, next door to William KELTNER. Could Allen also be the father of Rebecca Ida EDMINSTON wife of William H. KELTNER? If Allen was 54 in 1860 his birth would have been about 1806, making him about 25 when Rebecca was born in 1831. This could be a reason why William Fletcher refers to him as grandparents?

Matilda could have been visiting Allen at the time of the census. Did the census taker assume she was the daughter of Allen?

Did William KELTNER adopt Matilda for some reason, or could she be an indentured servant? Did Allen and his wife Matilda both die between the 1860 census when Matilda was 7 and the 1870 census when she married William Fletcher?

- v. SYLVESTER J. FISHER, b. 01 Mar 1842, Parke County, IN; m. ALICE SYMMES, 07 Jun 1865, Mattoon, Illinois.

Notes for SYLVESTER J. FISHER:

"FISHER, Sylvester J. was born on a farm near the bluffs and Peaks of Rock River, In Parke County, Indiana March 1, 1842, just nine miles southeast of the Shades of Death arched by the Devil's Backbone. These natural and wonderful formations at that day excited very little interest but now are visited by thousands of tourists yearly. He was the Benjamin of 5 sons of Judge James M. and Elizabeth FISHER. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm and until the age of 15 attended the common district school presided over by the typical "Hoosier" schoolmaster, who boarded with the scholars. He became quite proficient in "spellin, readin, writen, ciperin and grammer." The teacher in Possum Bottoms (the classical name of this district) owing to the scarcity of coin and paper money often received his pay in the products of the soil; he considered himself specially favored if some of the scholars paid for their "larnin" in fowls, chickens, geese, etc. At the age of 16 young FISHER was sent to Waveland Academy (10 miles distance) and remained there three years in search of "more knowledge", he paid for his tuition in cutting cord wood at 25 cents per cord, building fires in the classrooms and ringing the Academy bell. During his stay at the Academy he with three other boys, kept "Bachelors Hall" and lived on the "fat" of his father's farm. At the close of these years his father sold his farm and moved to Mattoon, Illinois to which place he soon followed, bidding farewell to the bluffs and peaks, the hills and dales of his native county and state. Still his "thirst" for wisdom had not abated and in 1859 he attended Westminster College at Fulton, Missouri, entering the sophomore class, he was graduated in 1861 and returned to Mattoon where his parents lived. While at Fulton, FISHER was an ardent Republican and follower of "Abraham" the only one is Fulton in the Kingdom of Callaway. The presidential election to place in November 1860; Lincoln, Douglas and Bell were candidates for the presidency. Young FISHER although two years under age, attempted to vote and was arrested by the city Marshall and taken before a justice of the peace who after hearing the facts said unto young FISHER, as king David said unto his servants who had suffered indignities at the hands of the Hanum, Tarry young man in the vales of Jericho until your beard be grown." He still thirsted, and in 1862 and 1863 attended law school in Chicago. In 1864, May 6,

A Fisher Family of Parke County Indiana

he was admitted to the bar under examination of Justice Sidney Breese of the Illinois Supreme Court. The same year he was elected to the office of police magistrate in Mattoon and served 5 years in that capacity. Resigning he went to Kansas City remained 5 years and moved to St. Louis in November 1874. In December of that same year he opened a real estate office at No. 714 Chestnut Street under the name and style of Fisher & Co.. In 1878 the Real Estate Savings Bank made an assignment and he was appointed by the circuit court assignee and required to give bond in the sum of $400,000. He qualified and wound up the affairs of the bank in 1881, paying depositors 79 cents on the dollar. He united with the Presbyterian Church while at Waveland, Indiana in 1857 and has always been known as Presbyterian. He abominates "hypocrisy and cant", and hence does not exhibit any special (outward) enthusiasm in the discharge of his religious or church duties. He follows his chosen profession (selling real estate) and always sticks close to his text and that of his writing he is still Presbyterian and is still transacting business at the same old stand, 714 Chestnut Street, St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. Fisher married Miss Alice SYMMES, June 7, 1865 at Mattoon. Miss SYMMES was a daughter of Harrison SYMMES, MD, granddaughter of Capt. John Cleves SYMMES, USA; great granddaughter of John Cleves SYMMES, a distinguished jurist who was a delegate to the Continental Congress in 1785, for distinguished services during the Revolution was granted by Congress a large tract of land on the Ohio and Miami Rivers and was virtually the founder of North Bend, Indiana and Cincinnati. He died in the latter city in 1814. Encyclopedia of the History of St. Louis. NY: South Historical Society, 1899, page 787.

Notes for JACOB FISHER:

"Jacob Fisher, the oldest son of John and Nancy Fisher was born on a farm in Brown County, Ohio on the 20th day of April 1808. The early part of his life was spent at the place of his birth, where he received a common school education. On the 20th day of August 1829 he married Nancy Newell. In the fall of the same year he removed to Parke, Co, IN and lived for two months in the northwestern part of the county, but settled permanently in Adams Township. When Mr. Fisher bought the farm where he still lives, his nearest neighbor was three miles away and he put up a tent in which he lived from December till February and in his own words "was lulled to sleep at night by the howling of the wolves". By hard work, good management and close attention to business, Mr. Fisher has added to his original purchase of 160 acres of land until now has a splendid farm of 500 acres most of which he cleared himself. Mr. Fisher's first wife died in 1848 and he was again married in 1849 to Mary Brown."

"By way of explanation, this winter experience, from Dec. to Feb., was spent alone in the dense forest of Parke County, before marriage, (This entry does not fit above bio), and the tent was a three-sided log shed, the forth side being entirely open, except a constantly burning log heap".

Mr FISHER was of robust physique, weighing, in prime, more than two hundred pounds. He had blue eyes, was of patrician bearing, and wore a ruffled shirt and stove-pipe hat when such was the style. When Mary BROWN saw him for the first time, she inquired of a friend, "Who is the gentleman?", and received the answer, "That's big Jake FISHER."

He was a staunch Republican.

During the great panic of 1873 and a few years following, he suffered great financial losses to the extent that at the settlement of the estate, after his death, there remained only forty acres of land.

Taken From Sherman Reed Fisher's book 1938.

Notes for JOHN W. LEWIS:

John W., farmer, Roseville, an enterprising and gentlemanly farmer of this section was born November 10, 1837 on the place that he now lives. His father Isaac Lewis was born June 16, 1803 and at the age of 27 years came to Parke from Highland County, Ohio and settled on Walker's Bluff in the Fall of 1831. He remained here but a short time when he removed to Perrysville and spent the winter with relations, intending to settle in that neighborhood, but owing to the fact that a load of hay was blown off the wagon while he was hauling, he vowed he never would live in a Prairie country; consequently he returned to Parke and settled on the BURSON farm where he lived until December 10, 1832 when he moved to the farm now owned by his son, John W, and erected a small cabin about two rods E. of the present house. The first night they slept under a tent, and in the morning found quite a little snow had fallen Lewis lived on the farm until his death, save one year sent on the bottoms and a couple more on a farm previously purchased. His father died Oct. 11, 1871. His mother Margaret (SHOEMAKER) Lewis was born September 2, 1801. and died April 20, 1871. They were married November 18, 1824, in Highland County, Ohio and had twelve children, eight of whom are living. John W, his son, lived with his parents until he was 21 when he commenced farming by renting a portion of his father's farm in partnership with his brother, Cyrus, and for three years operated his farm, being at the same time engaged in handling and underground ditcher. The fall of 1860 he and his brother purchased a farm Edgar County, IL of 240 acres, operating it about two years. They sold out on account of an early frost the first year and heavy rains the second.. He then rented for some time, and July 3, 1867, returned to Parke Co., and Lived as a renter until the winter of 1872, when he purchased the home farm on on Sec. 17. He now has a farm of 200 Acres. February 19, 1863, he was married to Cynthia BRIGGS who died May 28, 1867, leaving one child, Wallace who was born May 24, 1864. He was married a Second time to Cynthia PENCE daughter of Peter Pence a prominent citizen of Parke Aprile 21, 1870 in Adams Township. He is a member of the Methodist church, as also his wife and has held the office of steward some time. He is a republican, casting his first presidential vote for Abraham Lincoln.

Notes for ALBERT E. FISHER:

Obituaries.

Albert FISHER, son of Jacob and Nancy FISHER, was born in Parke County, Indiana, November 13, 1843; died February 15, 1914, aged 70 years, 3 months and 2 days. Mr FISHER spent his boyhood days in the county where he was born, and growing to young manhood, living in the time of the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, early became enthused by the impulse of war and it's probable achievements, and following the example of his young men associates, enlisting in the United States service in defense of his country. Not being satisfied by the first enlistment and trials of the soldier life, he re-enlisted the second and third time, remaining practically in the Service throughout that long, bloody war. It was upon a time of furlough, coming home, he met and became acquainted with Miss Mary E. WHITE. The friendship ripened into love, and growing stronger resulting in their marriage October 19, 1865, following closely the close of the war. To this happy union were born four children. The mourning widow, together with the remnant of children are left behind. One child dying in infancy, one daughter dying March 23, 1913, Rufus E. residing in Clinton, Indiana and Ora W. of Corina California, also seven grandchildren living. The deceased has one brother, John FISHER living in Nevada, Missouri, and three half brothers -- Wm F., Edward G. and Sherman R of Parke County, also two half-sisters Nancy I BRINDLEY and Melissa A. MARTIN of Vermillion County. The departed was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for a period of twenty-five years. His relatives and friends have reason to believe that his faith in the atonement of our Savior has been sufficient. His allegiance to the great principles of the higher life. Unknown source.

Albert FISHER was a quiet unassuming character, who regarded all rights of his fellowmen as he did those of his own, thus drawing around him friendship both respected and lasting. While a loving and kind affectionate father and grandfather has passed from mortal scenes and actions, the family gather to give him their last respect and love to a common memorial. The burial took place on Tues. the 17th of Feb. 1914, preached by Rev A. R. Simpson or Montezuma after which a large delegation of Odd Fellows performed the last sad yet tender burial service peculiar to that grand order. A goodly number of the Grand Army members were present, ready to give their customary services to the memory of an old comrade, but omitted most of the ritual on account of lack of time and inclement weather. The body was laid to rest on the hill of Mount Olivet Church to await the trumpet call. David Strouse, who knew Mr. FISHER well and who was an honorary member of MR. FISHER's first regiment, the Indiana Regiment, has furnished the following short tribute to his record as a soldier. He was mustered in Company A of the 14th Indiana Regiment June 7, 1861 and was discharged for disabilities May 13, 1862. August 1, 1862 he enlisted in Company "C" of the 78th Indiana, and was taken prisoner at the battle of Uniontown, Kentucky, and paroled. He again enlisted in Company F of the 11th Indiana Cavalry December 9, 1863, and was mustered out with the regiment September 19, 1865. His services as a soldier, being a member of several regiments, thus exemplifies his loyalty to his country and his flag. He was an honest, conscientious soldier as well as citizen, as all those who knew him testify. Unknown source.

"Aaron PENCE, Terre Haute, blacksmith is the son of Peter and Margaret NEWELL Pence, who were natives of Ohio and of German-Irish decent. They came west in 1834 and located in Parke County, Indiana and became one of the prominent families of that county. Soon after they came to that county they purchase a farm on which they resided until their deaths. Mr. PENCE died Oct. 15, 1877 and Mrs. Pence 1867. Aaron was born in Parke County Dec. 25 1836 and resided with his parents attending school from 30 - 40 days in winter and working on the farm in the summer. This he continued until 16 and then went to Rockville in the same county and served an apprenticeship, learning the blacksmith's trade which he completed at 19 years of age. The spot where he learned his trade is now marked by a church. Dec. 31 1857 Mr. PENCE took a life partner, his choice being Miss Caroline WITHAM daughter of Thomas and Sarah WITHAM who were natives of KY and MD. March 24, 1846 Mr. WITHAM died. Mrs. WITHAM now resides in this county (Vigo). Mr. PENCE came to Vigo in 1861 and located on LaFayette Rd., 5 miles north of Terre Haute, where he has been engaged in his former occupation, that of blacksmith. Notes for JOHN W. LEWIS:

John W., farmer, Roseville, an enterprising and gentlemanly farmer of this section was born November 10, 1837 on the place that he now lives. His father Isaac Lewis was born June 16, 1803 and at the age of 27 years came to Parke from Highland County, Ohio and settled on Walker's Bluff in the Fall of 1831. He remained here but a short time when he removed to Perrysville and spent the winter with relations, intending to settle in that neighborhood, but owing to the fact that a load of hay was blown off the wagon while he was hauling, he vowed he never would live in a Prairie country; consequently he returned to Parke and settled on the BURSON farm where he lived until December 10, 1832 when he moved to the farm now owned by his son, John W, and erected a small cabin about two rods E. of the present house. The first night they slept under a tent, and in the morning found quite a little snow had fallen Lewis lived on the farm until his death, save one year sent on the bottoms and a couple more on a farm previously purchased. His father died Oct. 11, 1871. His mother Margaret (SHOEMAKER) Lewis was born September 2, 1801. and died April 20, 1871. They were married November 18, 1824, in Highland County, Ohio and had twelve children, eight of whom are living. John W, his son, lived with his parents until he was 21 when he commenced farming by renting a portion of his father's farm in partnership with his brother, Cyrus, and for three years operated his farm, being at the same time engaged in handling and underground ditcher. The fall of 1860 he and his brother purchased a farm Edgar County, IL of 240 acres, operating it about two years. They sold out on account of an early frost the first year and heavy rains the second.. He then rented for some time, and July 3, 1867, returned to Parke Co., and Lived as a renter until the winter of 1872, when he purchased the home farm on Sec. 17. He now has a farm of 200 Acres. February 19, 1863, he was married to Cynthia BRIGGS who died May 28, 1867, leaving one child, Wallace who was born May 24, 1864. He was married a Second time to Cynthia PENCE daughter of Peter Pence a prominent citizen of Parke Aprile 21, 1870 in Adams Township. He is a member of the Methodist church, as also his wife and has held the office of steward some time. He is a republican, casting his first presidential vote for Abraham Lincoln.

Notes for ELIZABETH SUMMERS ALLEN:

Need to do more research on Elizabeth ALLEN, to see if she is the daughter of Isaac C. ALLEN who's will is in Index #1 at the Fountain County Court House Covington, IN.

Notes from Carolyn ALLEN FLINT: "They lived where I now live and were part of them in Parke Co and part in Fountain Co.. Buried in Parke 2 miles directly south of Wallace in Parke and will is in Fountain. Now there is another funny twist to this history that just came to mind. Thomas ALLEN the oldest son b. June 13, 1790 married Elizabeth SUMMERS had a daughter named Elizabeth ALLEN b. March 21, 1822 and she married an Alfred Cary FISHER on June 4, 1846 they are both buried at Maple Ridge Cemetery at North Edge of Waveland, Indiana. Grandpa Isam ALLEN knew them, when he was about 10 he rode a horse over and stayed the night several times in the good weather. When I was in grade school we lived across from the cemetery and I played in among the tombstones on occasion when the sexton was mowing. There may be a connection to those FISHERS. I do not know anything about his family."

Clara E. FISHER

A Fisher Family of Parke County Indiana

Montgomery County, IN
Waveland Independent
May 22, 1914

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. PENNINGTON, on Friday morning at the home, was in the charge of Rev. S. K. FUSON, assisted by the Rev. F. B. SOLIN. There were many beautiful and appropriate floral tributes. The following obituary was read: Clara E. PENNINGTON was born January 27, 1854, in Parke County, Indiana, on the farm now owned by her brother J. D. FISHER. She was the third daughter of Alfred and Elizabeth FISHER, both of whom departed this life several years ago. Her younger sister also, Mrs. Laura A. HAHONEY passed to the other shore in her young womanhood. The other members of the family are: Mrs. L. F. SHERMAN of Topeka, Kansas; Mrs Ellen SMITH of Emporia, Kansas; Mrs Amanda LOGAN, of Arcola, Ill., and J. D. FISHER of this place, who is the youngest of the family. The deceased was married to W. F. PENNINGTON March 25, 1902. The brother and sisters with her husband and some friends were present at her bedside on Thursday morning at 3:15 o'clock, when Clara was taken home by the Heavenly Father to join the innumerable host of relatives and friends who worship continually around the Throne. Clara united with the Baptist Church of Waveland January 2, 1889, under the pastorate of Elder Wm. CUPPY. Her Church was very dear to her. Her life was a living example of Christianity. Wednesday evening, as the family stood by the bedside, she united with them in the Lord's prayer and the 23rd Psalm, her voice leading in the verse "Though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff, the comfort me." Clara was a patient sufferer. During her several month's illness, her courage and patience was sustained by her faith in the unlimited power of God, completely resigned to His will, and believing that all would be well.

Waveland Independent, May 15, 1914

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. PENNINGTON, who died at three on Thursday morning, will take place at the home at half past 10 on Saturday morning. Re. S. K. FUSON will be in charge. Interment at Maple Ridge.

"Found in an old book a small item that may be of importance to SYMMES researchers: John Cleves SYMMES was appointed Judge in 1788, Washington Co.. On the 15th of October 1788 John Cleves SYMMES in behalf of himself and his associates, contracted with the board of Treasury for purchase of a large tract of land situated between the Great and Little Miami Rivers, and the first settlement within the limits of that purchase, and the second in Ohio. From Ohio Biographical Sketches, 1876: Ancestry.com

"Honorable John Cleves SYMMES was born at Riverhead, on Long Island, July 21st, 1742. Receiving a good but not classic education, he became a school-teacher and surveyor. In the war of the revolution he espoused the cause of the colonists, though in what capacity he served is not known. He was in the battle of Saratoga. After the war he removed to New Jersey, where he became Chief Justice of the State, and at one time represented it in Congress. As early as 1787 he began to negotiate for the purchase of lands in the Northwest Territory. The coveted land, about one million acres, lay between the two Miami's. Finally a contract for this number of acres was signed by himself and others, at sixty-six cents per acre, payable in instalments. But the troubled state of the country, caused by hostility of the Indians to the proposed settlement, led to the failure in fulfilling the terms of the contract. But in the spring of 1794 he and others effected the purchase of 248,000 acres. In the meantime he had taken up his residence at North Bend, which town he had founded, and which in the pioneer days the rival of Cincinnati. He took up his residence there in the spring of 1789. He was the most energetic and influential of the early pioneers, and had a method of dealing with the Indians which he made them more friendly toward him than to the great majority of his brethren. Indeed he was more than once assured by these children of the forest that his life had thus fare spared because of his kindness to them. He died at Cincinnati, February 26th, 1814, having passed the allotted threescore and ten. He was buried at North Bend, where a quarter of a century later were laid the remains of President Harrison. A part of the inscription on his tomb reads that he "made the first settlement between the Miami rivers."

Notes for SYLVESTER J. FISHER:

"FISHER, Sylvester J. was born on a farm near the bluffs and Peaks of Rock River, In Parke County, Indiana March 1, 1842, just nine miles southeast of the Shades of Death arched by the Devil's Backbone. These natural and wonderful formations at that day excited very little interest but now are visited by thousands of tourists yearly. He was the Benjamin of 5 sons of Judge James M. and Elizabeth FISHER. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm and until the age of 15 attended the common district school presided over by the typical "Hoosier" schoolmaster, who boarded with the scholars. He became quite proficient in "spellin, readin, writen, ciperin and grammer." The teacher in Possum Bottoms (the classical name of this district) owing to the scarcity of coin and paper money often received his pay in the products of the soil; he considered himself specially favored if some of the scholars paid for their "larnin" in fowls, chickens, geese, etc. At the age of 16 young FISHER was sent to Waveland Academy (10 miles distance) and remained there three years in search of "more knowledge", he paid for his tuition in cutting cord wood at 25 cents per cord, building fires in the classrooms and ringing the Academy bell. During his stay at the Academy he with three other boys, kept "Bachelors Hall" and lived on the "fat" of his father's farm. At the close of these years his father sold his farm and moved to Mattoon, Illinois to which place he soon followed, bidding farewell to the bluffs and peaks, the hills and dales of his native county and state. Still his "thirst" for wisdom had not abated and in 1859 he attended Westminster College at Fulton, Missouri, entering the sophomore class, he was graduated in 1861 and returned to Mattoon where his parents lived. While at Fulton, FISHER was an ardent Republican and follower of "Abraham" the only one is Fulton in the Kingdom of Callaway. The presidential election to place in November 1860; Lincoln, Douglas and Bell were candidates for the presidency. Young FISHER although two years under age, attempted to vote and was arrested by the city Marshall and taken before a justice of the peace who after hearing the facts said unto young FISHER, as king David said unto his servants who had suffered indignities at the hands of the Hanum, Tarry young man in the vales of Jericho until your beard be grown." He still thirsted , and in 1862 and 1863 attended law school in Chicago. In 1864, May 6, he was admitted to the bar under examination of Justice Sidney Breese of the Illinois Supreme Court. The same year he was elected to the office of police magistrate in Mattoon and served 5 years in that capacity. Resigning he went to Kansas City remained 5 years and moved to St. Louis in November 1874. In December of that same year he opened a real estate office at No. 714 Chestnut Street under the name and style of Fisher & Co.. In 1878 the Real Estate Savings Bank made an assignment and he was appointed by the circuit court assignee and required to give bond in the sum of $400,000. He qualified and wound up the affairs of the bank in 1881, paying depositors 79 cents on the dollar. He united with the Presbyterian Church while at Waveland, Indiana in 1857 and has always been known as Presbyterian. He abominates "hypocrisy and can't", and hence does not exhibit any special (outward) enthusiasm in the discharge of his religious or church duties. He follows his chosen profession (selling real estate) and always sticks close to his text and that of his writing he is still Presbyterian and is still transacting business at the same old stand, 714 Chestnut Street, St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. Fisher married Miss Alice SYMMES, June 7,1865 at Mattoon. Miss SYMMES was a daughter of Harrison SYMMES, MD, granddaughter of Capt. John Cleves SYMMES, USA; great granddaughter of John Cleves SYMMES, a distinguished jurist who was a delegate to the Continental Congress in 1785, for distinguished services during the Revolution was granted by Congress a large tract of land on the Ohio and Miami Rivers and was virtually the founder of North Bend, Indiana and Cincinnati. He died in the latter city in 1814. Encyclopedia of the History of St. Louis. NY: South Historical Society, 1899, page 787.

Sister Symmonds united with Smyrna Church of Old School Baptists at Bentley, Ill., October, 1916, ever after adored her profession with devotion to her Lord and the church. For several years, she was in failing health, having heart trouble. On the morning of the 11th at her home, surrounded with her family, which was one of her great enjoyments, she was suddenly called while preparing dinner, passing away in a few minutes. She died in the full triumph of faith, leaving with her family the sweet evidence that she had entered into rest. The funeral services were held at the Christian church Hamilton, which was here home, conducted by the writer in the presence of many of her brethren and sisters and a large concourse of friends, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Oakwood cemetery. Baptist church call Smyrna, at Berkley, Ill.; she was batized July 29th by her beloved pastor Elder L. E. Frazee. She loved so much to be with the children of God, and the days following he batisim were among the happiest of her life. In August she was stricken with typhois fever, and lived almost two weeks. One night when her suffering was very great, she clasped her brother who was sitting at her bedside, in her arms and sang a sweet humn; the said, "Children, can you doubt that Christ has been among us this evening"? She realized that her time to die was near; she was not afraid, but felt the presence of her blessed Savior. She requested of her sister that after she was gone, Elder Frazee be sent for, to offer prayer and say a few words; then for them to sing a few songs and carry her to Oakwood cemetery (Hamilton, Ill.)

Notes for CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN CLEVES SYMMES, SR.:

The following does not seem to agree with the notes on Sylvester J. FISHER as to land.

"Found in an old book a small item that may be of importance to SYMMES researchers: John Cleves SYMMES was appointed Judge in 1788, Washington Co.. On the 15th of October 1788 John Cleves SYMMES in behalf of himself and his associates, contracted with the board of Treasury for purchase of a large tract of land situated between the Great and Little Miami Rivers, and the first settlement within the limits of that purchase, and the second in Ohio. From Ohio Biographical Sketches, 1876: Ancestry.com

"Honorable John Cleves SYMMES was born at Riverhead, on Long Island, July 21st, 1742. Receiving a good but not classic education, he became a school-teacher and surveyor. In the war of the revolution he espoused the cause of the colonists, though in what capacity he served is not known. He was in the battle of Saratoga. After the war he was removed to New Jersey, where he became Chief Justice of the State, and at one time represented it in Congress. As early as 1787 he began to negotiate for the purchase of lands in the Northwest Territory. The coveted land, about one million acres, lay between the two Miami's. Finally a contract for this number of acres was signed by himself and others, at sixty-six cents per acre, payable in instalments. But the troubled state of the country, caused by hostility of the Indians to the proposed settlement, led to the failure in fulfilling the terms of the contract. But in the spring of 1794 he and others effected the purchase of 248,000 acres. In the meantime he had taken up his residence at North Bend, which town he had founded, and which in the pioneer days the rival of Cincinnati. He took up his residence there in the spring of 1789. He was the most energetic and influential of the early pioneers, and had a method of dealing with the Indians which he made them more friendly toward him than to the great majority of his brethren. Indeed he was more than once assured by these children of the forest that his life had thus far spared because of his kindness to them. He died at Cincinnati, February 26th, 1814, having passed the allotted threescore and ten. He was buried at North Bend, where a quarter of a century later were laid the remains of President Harrison. A part of the inscription on his tomb reads that he "made the first settlement between the Miami rivers."

"Captain John Cleves SYMMES of Hamilton, Ohio was a veteran of the war of 1812 & a popular figure on the lecture circuit with his most unusual theory. "The earth is hollow & habitable within, containing a number of solid concentric spheres & is open at the poles....Mr. SYMMES health declined & he died in New Jersey in 1829 at the age of 49. In the 1840's his son Americus commissioned this monument (tall marble type-3 rectangles, triangle & sphere top) which stands in 4th Street Parke in Hamilton, Ohio."

Notes for SYLVESTER J. FISHER:

"FISHER, Sylvester J. was born on a farm near the bluffs and Peaks of Rock River, In Parke County, Indiana March 1, 1842, just nine miles southeast of the Shades of Death arched by the Devil's Backbone. These natural and wonderful formations at that day excited very little interest but now are visited by thousands of tourists yearly. He was the Benjamin of 5 sons of Judge James M. and Elizabeth FISHER. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm and until the age of 15 attended the common district school presided over by the typical "Hoosier" schoolmaster, who boarded with the scholars. He became quite proficient in "spellin, readin, writen, ciperin and grammer." The teacher in Possum Bottoms (the classical name of this district) owing to the scarcity of coin and paper money often received his pay in the products of the soil; he considered himself specially favored if some of the scholars paid for their "larnin" in fowls, chickens, geese, etc. At the age of 16 young FISHER was sent to Waveland Academy (10 miles distance) and remained there three years in search of "more knowledge", he paid for his tuition in cutting cord wood at 25 cents per cord, building fires in the classrooms and ringing the Academy bell. During his stay at the Academy he with three other boys, kept "Bachelors Hall" and lived on the "fat" of his father's farm. At the close of these years his father sold his farm and moved to Mattoon, Illinois to which place he soon followed, bidding farewell to the bluffs and peaks, the hills and dales of his native county and state. Still his "thirst" for wisdom had not abated and in 1859 he attended Westminster College at Fulton, Missouri, entering the sophomore class, he was graduated in 1861 and returned to Mattoon where his parents lived. While at Fulton, FISHER was an ardent Republican and follower of "Abraham" the only one is Fulton in the Kingdom of Callaway. The presidential election to place in November 1860; Lincoln, Douglas and Bell were candidates for the presidency. Young FISHER although two years under age, attempted to vote and was arrested by the city Marshall and taken before a justice of the peace who after hearing the facts said unto young FISHER, as king David said unto his servants who had suffered indignities at the hands of the Hanum, Tarry young man in the vales of Jericho until your beard be grown." He still thirsted , and in 1862 and 1863 attended law school in Chicago. In 1864, May 6, he was admitted to the bar under examination of Justice Sidney Breese of the Illinois Supreme Court. The same year he was elected to the office of police magistrate in Mattoon and served 5 years in that capacity. Resigning he went to Kansas City remained 5 years and moved to St. Louis in November 1874. In December of that same year he opened a real estate office at No. 714 Chestnut Street under the name and style of Fisher & Co.. In 1878 the Real Estate Savings Bank made an assignment and he was appointed by the circuit court assignee and required to give bond in the sum of $400,000. He qualified and wound up the affairs of the bank in 1881, paying depositors 79 cents on the dollar. He united with the Presbyterian Church while at Waveland, Indiana in 1857 and has always been known as Presbyterian. He abominates "hypocrisy and can't", and hence does not exhibit any special (outward) enthusiasm in the discharge of his religious or church duties. He follows his chosen profession (selling real estate) and always sticks close to his text and that of his writing he is still Presbyterian and is still transacting business at the same old stand, 714 Chestnut Street, St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. Fisher married Miss Alice SYMMES, June 7,1865 at Mattoon. Miss SYMMES was a daughter of Harrison SYMMES, MD, granddaughter of Capt. John Cleves SYMMES, USA; great granddaughter of John Cleves SYMMES, a distinguished jurist who was a delegate to the Continental Congress in 1785, for distinguished services during the Revolution was granted by Congress a large tract of land on the Ohio and Miami Rivers and was virtually the founder of North Bend, Indiana and Cincinnati. He died in the latter city in 1814. Encyclopedia of the History of St. Louis. NY: South Historical Society, 1899, page 787.

Her father was drowned on the bottoms about 60 years ago, while assisting a neighbor in driving some cattle from a small island to the mainland, during an overflow of the Wabash River. While swimming his horse through some driftwood, he tipped, lost his balance, got under the drift and was not found until the Water went down.

Notes for ALBERT E. FISHER:

Obituaries.

Albert FISHER, son of Jacob and Nancy FISHER, was born in Parke County, Indiana, November 13, 1843; died February 15, 1914, aged 70 years, 3 months and 2 days. Mr FISHER spent his boyhood days in the county where he was born, and growing to young manhood, living in the time of the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, early became enthused by the impulse of war and it's probable achievements, and following the example of his young men associates, enlisting in the United States service in defense of his country. Not being satisfied by the first enlistment and trials of the soldier life, he re enlisted the second and third time, remaining practically in the Service throughout that long, bloody war. It was upon a time of furlough, coming home, he met and became acquainted with Miss Mary E. WHITE. The friendship ripened into love, and growing stronger resulting in their marriage October 19, 1865, following closely the close of the war. To this happy union were born four children. The mourning widow, together with the remnant of children are left behind. One child dying in infancy, one daughter dying March 23, 1913, Rufus E. residing in Clinton, Indiana and Ora W. of Corina California, also seven grandchildren living. The deceased has one brother, John FISHER living in Nevada, Missouri, and three half brothers -- Wm F., Edward G. and Sherman R of Parke County, also two half -sisters Nancy I BRINDLEY and Melissa A. MARTIN of Vermillion County. The departed was a member of the Methodist Episcopal; Church for a period of twenty-five years. His relatives and friends have reason to believe that his faith in the atonement of our Savior has been sufficient. His allegiance to the great principles of the higher life. Unknown source.

Albert FISHER was a quiet unassuming character, who regarded all rights of his fellowmen as he did those of his own, thus drawing around him friendship both respected and lasting. While a loving and kind affectionate father and grandfather has passed from mortal scenes and actions, the family gather to give him their last respect and love to a common memorial. The burial took place on Tues. the 17th of Feb. 1914, preached by Rev A. R. Simpson or Montezuma after which a large delegation of Odd Fellows performed the last sad yet tender burial service peculiar to that grand order. A goodly number of the Grand Army members were present, ready to give their customary services to the memory of an old comrade, but omitted most of the ritual on account of lack of time and inclement weather. The body was laid to rest on the hill of Mount Olivet Church to await the trumpet call. David Strouse, who knew Mr. FISHER well and who was an honorary member of MR. FISHER's first regiment, the Indiana Regiment, has furnished the following short tribute to his record as a soldier. He was mustered in Company A of the 14th Indiana Regiment June 7, 1861 and was discharged for disabilities May 13, 1862. August 1, 1862 he enlisted in Company "C" of the 78th Indiana, and was taken prisoner at the battle of Uniontown, Kentucky, and paroled. He again enlisted in Company F of the 11th Indiana Cavalry December 9, 1863, and was mustered out with the regiment September 19, 1865. His services as a soldier, being a member of several regiments, thus exemplifies his loyalty to his country and his flag. He was an honest, conscientious soldier as well as citizen, as all those who knew him testify. Unknown source.

Thanks to Ruth SCHALLE for the above obits.

Notes for DANIEL D. FISHER:

FISHER, Daniel D., farmer Rockville was born in Brown County, Ohio, September 17, 1817, and is the son of George and Hannah. His father was a blacksmith by trade, and was born in PA and died in 1848. He was in the War of 1812. His mother was a member of the Presbyterian Church. Owing to the defective common school system Mr. FISHER had a very limited education. In 1829 he came to Parke Co.. He was married October 23, 1844 to Mary A. MARSHALL. They had nine children; Theodore M; Oliver P; Victoria; John; Sarah L; Charles E; George F.; and Rovilla. Mr. FISHER began farming in 1844, with not much capitol. He now has a well--improved farm of 160 acres. His son Theodore M. was in the Army. He enlisted December 23, 1863 in Co. F, 126th Regiment, 11th Ind. Vol. Calvary. He served until the close of the war. Mr. FISHER has traveled through Ill., Iowa, MO., KS. and visited Niagara Falls, crossed the Great Lakes and traveled in Canada. Mr. FISHER is a republican and highly respected gentleman."

"Daniel D. FISHER has been a resident of Indiana since his 12th year, or since 1829, and is therefore one of the oldest inhabitants and pioneers of Parke County. He makes his home on Section 26, Adams Township, a portion of the farm his father entered from the government. He at one time owned 220 acres and now after deeding some to his children, he still owns 130 acres and has some 45 acres of timberland. The rest of the land is under good cultivation and yields abundant income to the owner. Our subject was born September 13, 1817. He is a son of George FISHER, who was born in Pennsylvania in 1780. He in turn was a son of F George FISHER. Our subject's maternal grandfather participated in the battle of Bunker Hill and did valiant service. *(This may or may not be Mary WESNER; Mary was George Sr's. second wife. His first wife, Unknown Name died in 1788). When our subject's father, *(George, Jr.) was 14 he ran away from home and was married in 1804 to Miss Hannah WRIGHT, after which he located in Brown County, Ohio where he was an early settler. He purchased land and lived there until 1829 when he removed to Parke County with his wife and ten children, locating on section 26, Adams Township, where he entered two quarter sections of land and proceeded to clear and improve them until his death in 1848, two years prior to which his wife departed this life. There children all lived to adult years but only two are now living, our subject and his brother Lewis. When George FISHER came to Indiana the land was perfectly wild state and game abounded. He was a great hunter and kept the family well supplied with deer and wild turkeys. His six sons were great assistance to him in clearing the land and raising crops. The deceased children were; George; Samuel; John; Robert; Rachel, wife of Lewis SILCOTT; Mary, wife of Hiram BALL; Almira, Mrs. Samuel GRIFFIN; and Alzana who married James SKANK *(SCHENCK). The father was in the War of 1812. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in good standing and fellowship and was highly esteemed by all as a worthy man and genial, kind neighbor. It was a great event in the life of our subject when he with his parents, brothers and sisters, started from Ohio in wagons for their 17-days journey to Indiana. Here he grew to manhood and helped to develop the farm in the wilderness which is still his home. As the schools of that day were few and poorly conducted his privileges in an educational direction were of the most limited description, so to his own efforts is due the standing he has held for years in the community as a man of intelligence and wide information. On the 23rd of October, 1844 Mr. FISHER married Mary Ann, daughter of John MARSHALL, a native of North Carolina, who on coming to this state and settled in the Southern part. This was in 1821, and after remaining there for about 5 years became a resident of this county. Mrs. FISHER was called to her final rest August 2, 1879. Directly after his marriage Mr. FISHER located on the place where he has lived for 63 years. Of his ten children, one died in childhood and seven are now living; Theodore, who lives in Terre Haute; John a prosperous farmer of Wabash Township; Charles who is married and is now making his home with our subject; George, of this township and Lincoln (Samuel L.) who lives in Omaha, is a traveling auditor of the Western Freight Association. The deceased members of the family are; Oliver P.; Victoria, who is the wife of John BRYANT and Joseph A. In a measure Mr FISHER is now retired from active duties of life on account of his advancing years And has relegated the cares of his farm to his son, who lives with him. He is an interesting conservationist, and his stories of the hardships which he encountered in the pioneer days are full of interest. Most of their goods were transported on the river and Mr. FISHER himself made nine trips to New Orleans, and assisted in building a good many flatboats. Too much cannot be said in favor of the sturdy founders and early settlers of the new states, who courageously overcame all difficulties and have handed down to their posterity the fruits of their labors and chief among those to whom prosperity of Parke County is due to our subject. - Portrait & Biographical Record Of Montgomery, Parke & Fountain Counties, Indiana. "Daniel and Mary Ann Fisher took in an orphan, William H. WILLIAMS."

"In 1846 a terrible accident happened to three members of the WILLIAMS family. The father and mother and the eldest boy being unwell, a young physician was called in, who was supposed to have given them poison by mistake. At 12 o'clock, noon, the father died; by 4 o'clock in the evening the mother too was a corpse, and before 90 o'clock the same day the eldest boy lay dead. The three corpse in one family brought gloom upon the neighborhood, and left the children to the cold sympathies of the world. The dead were buried in the Boatman graveyard, followed to the grave by an immense procession. William H. WILLIAMS was now 2 years old, and was taken to the house of his aunt, Martha until he was 5 years old. He spent 3 years with his aunt Sally Busy.

From then on he bounced around living a year at a time with neighbors, spending one year with Daniel FISHER, before joining Co. C 11th Ind. Vols. Later becoming a minister of the Christian Church in 1873. (1880 History of Parke County, IN by J.H. Beadle, 1840-1897 pg 386-387)

"Lewis W. FISHER is among the oldest of settlers now living in Parke County, in the welfare of which he has taken so leading a part that its history would be sadly lacking without some tribute to him. His homestead on Section 26, Adams Township, is finely improved, there being about two thousand of tile on the place. Of his two hundred and eighty acres, one hundred and ninety are a part of the old homestead, and one hundred and ninety acres are in the place where his home is situated. Ninety acres belonging to him adjoin Section 27, and of his entire land two hundred acres are well improved. He makes a specialty or raising sheep of the Cotswold variety and keeps other high-grade stock".

"Our subject is the son of George and Hannah (WRIGHT) FISHER and was born in Brown County, Ohio, May 5, 1828. The following year, when he was an infant of eighteen months, his father removed to Indiana, locating on the very Farm where our subject still resides, which property was entered from the Government. Our subject helped his father in clearing the farm and made this place his home until his marriage, with the single exception of two years, when he lived with his sister, Mrs. BALL of Florida Township. September 2, 1852, he married Rebecca H. MARSHALL, whose birth occurred in Rockville, Indiana in 1838. Her father, John MARSHALL, who was an early settle of this county, came here from North Carolina and kept a store in Rockville in those days, afterward removing to a farm in this Township. He was a Probate Judge of this county for a number of years".

Death of Elza Silcot

Fort Collins is mourning the death of one of its cherished citizens. Elza Silcot is dead. He answered the dread summons a few minutes after nine o'clock Sunday morning, after an illness dating from the 4th inst. Stricken then with apoplexy, attended with paralysis of the right side, he has since lain upon his couch by far the greater portion of the time in an unconscious condition gradually growing weaker day by day despite the skill of his physicians and the loving care and attention of those whom he was dearer than life. The end came without a struggle, peacefully and Calmly he softly breathed his life away.

How hard it was for us to look at the silent form, to think we shall never more hear that cheery voice, see his friendly smile or feel his warm hand grasp. What heavy mists floated before our eyes as we listened with bowed heads to the failing clods upon his casket. How close the King of Terrors came to us all when he beckoned this loved husband and father, this friend and companion, this model citizen and up right man to eternity's shore. Stricken Down in the vigor of perfect manhood, in the full flush of business success, in the enjoyment of peace with his fellowman, the love of his family and the confidence and respect of all who knew him, Elza Silcot leaves and aching void that time can never fill. All hearts go out in warmest sympathy for the dear stricken ones in the home made gloomy indeed by the death of so good a man.

Elza Silcot was a native of Park County, Indiana born 45 years ago. Moved with his parents in 1853, when a child to Indianola, Iowa, where he attended school and grew to man's estate. His early life³ was spent upon a farm and it was during those years that he imbibed those sterling traits of character which distinguished him as a man and a citizen, in after years. He married Alice Webster in 1880, who with a dearly loved young daughter, survive him. He came with his family to Fort Collins in the fall of 1883, and at once engaged in the furniture business with his brother W. G. Silcot, the two continuing in business until a fire, in January, 1895, destroyed their stock of goods and the store they occupied. Shortly after that they dissolved partnership, Elza to continue in the furniture trade and W. G. to engage in the grocery business. Mr. Silcott was the leading furniture dealer in the city and one of the most prominent citizens. The year before his death Mr. Silcott united with the M. E. Church and remained a true believer and consistent follower of its teaching, ever mindful of his duty to God, his church and his fellow man. He was also a highly prized member of the A. O. U. W., the Odd Fellows and of the Degree of Honor and took a lively interest in the welfare of each.

The funeral occurred on Tuesday afternoon at the Odd Fellows Hall, the services being conducted under the joint auspices of the United Workman and Odd Fellows. The large hall was crowded with sympathizing friends and score were unable to gain admittance. The casket was covered with flowers and floral wreaths, and festoons of roses hung over the sides. The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. F. Coffman, pastor of the deceased, and the singing was by a select choir. The bearers were H. T. Decker, John Wiedman and George Wolfer from the Off Fellows lodge, and Hiram Pierce, S. S. Peterman and M. W. Fuller from the O. U. W. After the impressive services in the hall the casket was removed to the banquet room and opened. The members of the different fraternities to which he belonged in life took their last view of the body, being followed by the congregation. The procession to Grandview Cemetery was one of longest that ever passed out of the city, thus attesting to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow citizens. Business in the city was practically suspended during the service at the hall, nearly every business house was closed.

Child of ELZA SILCOTT and ALICE WEBSTER is:

- i. LOIS⁶ SILCOTT, b. 25 Apr 1885.

16. ELIZABETH MEARS⁵ FISHER (GEORGE⁴, GEORGE³, GEORGE², UNKNOWN¹) was born 04 Dec 1834 in Edgar County, Illinois, and died 25 Jan 1918 in Canon City, Fremont County, Colorado. She married THOMAS HAWKINS ROBBINS 02 Oct 1853 in Rockville, Parke County, Indiana. He was born 06 Jul 1832 in Rockville, Parke County, Indiana, and died 12 Sep 1922 in Canon City, Fremont County, Colorado.

Notes for ELIZABETH MEARS FISHER:

A Genealogical and Biographical Sketch of the lives of Thomas Hawkins Robbins and his wife Elizabeth Mears Fisher Robbins.

By Lilly Robbins Jacoby 1953

"It is imperative, in order to get a true picture of Thomas Hawkins ROBBINS and his wife, that we give a brief history of their forbears. It was the strength, courage and integrity of people like them who laid the foundation of our great nation today.....Her (Elizabeth Mears Fisher whose mother was Sarah MEARS, David & Elizabeth's daughter) mother's family were from Scotland. They, with many others fled from there to Northern Ireland during the reign of Mary, the Bloody Queen of Scotland. After that they were know as the Scotch-Irish. After the American Revolution they decided to come to America. The MEARS and SILCOTT's among them. In Scotland MEARS was spelled "MUIRS" but was changed to "MEARS" in Ireland. They sailed from Ireland in a sail ship as there were no steamships then. During the ocean voyage a severe storm drove them off their course, and after many perils and hardships they finally landed in New Orleans, from there they traveled north to Kentucky. They were over seven months reaching their destination. After several years in Kentucky the MEARS and SILCOTT's, with their families and seven other families decided to move to Ohio. They built rafts and taking all their household goods and other possessions, started to cross the Ohio River when a party of Indian Warriors came out from the Ohio side in canoes, took them captives and started north through the heavily wooded country. With the captives were several small children who could not go as fast as the others and began crying. The Indians took them by the feet and dashed them to death against the trees. They took the prisoners to Detroit where the British had a garrison, there they traded them to the officers for blankets, beads, and anything they would give them. The British then gave these destitute people and escort to take them to Brown County, Ohio their destination. It was there that Sarah J. MEARS was born and grew to womanhood and married George FISHER. Shortly after this they moved to Edgar County Illinois where Elizabeth Mears FISHER was born 4 December 1834. She was one of a large family, when she was eleven years old her parents with all their families moved to Parke County, Indiana where she married Thomas H. ROBBINS when she was 19 years of age. A few days after the wedding they started for Iowa where they settled on a farm in Dallas County not far from Des Moines. Both Thomas and Elizabeth were received as members of the Methodist Episcopal Church before they were married and wherever they lived they took an active interest in religious affairs. Two or three years after they settled in Iowa their parents moved from Indiana and joined them. Many of the descendants are still living there."

Obituary

"Anna Fisher, daughter of John Ed and Margaret Fisher, was born near Elveston, Illinois, October 24, 1871, aged at death, 45 years, 3 months and 17 days. She was united in marriage to Squire Symmonds December 24, 1890. To this union were born 11 children, Alice, Jane, Margaret, James, Joseph, Paul and Samuel, four dying in infancy. Sister Symmonds united with Smyrna Church of Old School Baptists at Bentley, Ill., October., 1916, ever after adored her profession with devotion to her Lord and the church. For several years, she was in failing health, having heart trouble. On the morning of the 11th at her home, surrounded with her family, which was one of her great enjoyments, she was suddenly called while preparing dinner, passing away in a few minutes. She died in the full triumph of faith, leaving with her family the sweet evidence that she had entered into rest. The funeral services were held at the Christian church Hamilton, which was here home, conducted by the writer in the presence of many of her brethren and sisters and a large concourse of friends, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Oakwood cemetery. May the Lord in his tender grace sustain Brother Symmonds and his dear children in their great loss. L. E. Frazee." "Margaret Symmonds, daughter of S.A. and Anna (Fisher) Symmonds, was born April 9, 1894. The ambition of her life was to care for her father's home, motherless since Feb. 1917. Her soul was beautiful, and she ever manifested an unselfish love and tenderness toward those about her. She received a precious hope before the death of her mother, but did not come to the church until June 15, 1919, when she united with the Primitive Baptist church call Smyrna, at Berkley, Ill.; she was batized July 29th by her beloved pastor Elder L. E. Frazee. She loved so much to be with the children of God, and the days following he batisim were among the happiest of her life. In August she was stricken with typhois fever, and lived almost two weeks. One night when her suffering was very great, she clasped her brother who was sitting at her bedside, in her arms and sang a sweet humn; the said, "Children, can you doubt that Christ has been among us this evening"? She realized that her time to die was near; she was not afraid, but felt the presence of her blessed Savior. She requested of her sister that after she was gone, Elder Frazee be sent for, to offer prayer and say a few words; then for them to sing a few songs and carry her to Oakwood cemetery (Hamilton, Ill.)

Notes for ELIZABETH MEARS FISHER:

A Genealogical and Biographical Sketch of the lives of Thomas Hawkins Robbins and his wife Elizabeth Mears Fisher Robbins.

By Lilly Robbins Jacoby 1953

"It is imperative, in order to get a true picture of Thomas Hawkins ROBBINS and his wife, that we give a brief history of their forbears. It was the strength, courage and integrity of people like them who laid the foundation of our great nation today.....Her (Elizabeth Mears Fisher whose mother was Sarah MEARS, David & Elizabeth's daughter) mother's family were from Scotland. They, with many others fled from there to Northern Ireland during the reign of Mary, the Bloody Queen of Scotland. After that they were know as the Scotch-Irish. After the American Revolution they decided to come to America. The MEARS and SILCOTT's among them. In Scotland MEARS was spelled "MUIRS" but was changed to "MEARS" in Ireland. They sailed from Ireland in a sail ship as there were no steamships then. During the ocean voyage a severe storm drove them off their course, and after many perils and hardships they finally landed in New Orleans, from there they traveled north to Kentucky. They were over seven months reaching their destination. After several years in Kentucky the MEARS and SILCOTT's, with their families and seven other families decided to move to Ohio. They built rafts and taking all their household goods and other possessions, started to cross the Ohio River when a party of Indian Warriors came out from the Ohio side in canoes, took them captives and started north through the heavily wooded country. With the captives were several small children who could not go as fast as the others and began crying. The Indians took them by the feet and dashed them to death against the trees. They took the prisoners to Detroit where the British had a garrison, there they traded them to the officers for blankets, beads, and anything they would give them. The British then gave these destitute people and escort to take them to Brown County, Ohio their destination. It was there that Sarah J. MEARS was born and grew to womanhood and married George FISHER. Shortly after this they moved to Edgar County Illinois where Elizabeth Mears FISHER was born 4 December 1834. She was one of a large family, when she was eleven years old her parents with all their families moved to Parke County, Indiana where she married Thomas H. ROBBINS when she was 19 years of age. A few days after the wedding they started for Iowa where they settled on a farm in Dallas County not far from Des Moines. Both Thomas and Elizabeth were received as members of the Methodist Episcopal Church before they were married and wherever they lived they took an active interest in religious affairs. Two or three years after they settled in Iowa their parents moved from Indiana and joined them. Many of the descendants are still living there."

- i. WILLIAM⁴ ROBBINS, b. 27 Jun 1854.

Death of Elza Silcot

Fort Collins is mourning the death of one of its cherished citizens. Elza Silcot is dead. He answered the dread summons a few minutes after nine o'clock Sunday morning, after an illness dating from the 4th inst. Stricken then with apoplexy, attended with paralysis of the right side, he has since lain upon his couch by far the greater portion of the time in an unconscious condition gradually growing weaker day by day despite the skill of his physicians and the loving care and attention of those whom he was dearer than life. The end came without a struggle, peacefully and Calmly he softly breathed his life away.

How hard it was for us to look at the silent form, to think we shall never more hear that cheery voice, see his friendly smile or feel his warm hand grasp. What heavy mists floated before our eyes as we listened with bowed heads to the failing clods upon his casket. How close the King of Terrors came to us all when he beckoned this loved husband and father, this friend and companion, this model citizen and up right man to eternity's shore. Stricken Down in the vigor of perfect manhood, in the full flush of business success, in the enjoyment of peace with his fellowman, the love of his family and the confidence and respect of all who knew him, Elza Silcot leaves and aching void that time can never fill. All hearts go out in warmest sympathy for the dear stricken ones in the home made gloomy indeed by the death of so good a man.

Elza Silcot was a native of Park County, Indiana born 45 years ago. Moved with his parents in 1853, when a child to Indianola, Iowa, where he attended school and grew to man's estate. His early life³ was spent upon a farm and it was during those years that he imbibed those sterling traits of character which distinguished his as a man and a citizen, in after years. He married Alice Webster in 1880, who with a dearly loved young daughter, survive him. He came with his family to Fort Collins in the fall of 1883, and at once engaged in the furniture business with his brother W. G. Silcot, the two continuing in business until a fire, in January, 1895, destroyed their stock of goods and the store they occupied. Shortly after that they dissolved partnership, Elza to continue in the furniture trade and W. G. to engage in the grocery business. Mr. Silcott was the leading furniture dealer in the city and one of the most prominent citizens. The year before his death Mr. Silcott united with the M. E. Church and remained a true believer and consistent follower of its teaching, ever mindful of his duty to God, his church and his fellow man. He was also a highly prized member of the A. O. U. W., the Odd Fellows and of the Degree of Honor and took a lively interest in the welfare of each.

The funeral occurred on Tuesday afternoon at the Odd Fellows Hall, the services being conducted under the joint auspices of the United Workman and Odd Fellows. The large hall was crowded with sympathizing friends and score were unable to gain admittance. The casket was covered with flowers and floral wreaths, and festoons of roses hung over the sides. The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. F. Coffman, pastor of the deceased, and the singing was by a select choir. The bearers were H. T. Decker, John Wiedman and George Wolfer from the Odd Fellows lodge, and Hiram Pierce, S. S. Peterman and M. W. Fuller from the O. U. W. After the impressive services in the hall the casket was removed to the banquet room and opened. The members of the different fraternities to which he belonged in life took their last view of the body, being followed by the congregation. The procession to Grandview Cemetery was one of the longest that ever passed out of the city, thus attesting to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow citizens. Business in the city was practically suspended during the service at the hall, nearly every business house was closed.
