Mary Hutzal wrote a will apparently on her death bed for she died about a week later. The will is as follows:

The last will and Testament of Mary Hutzal. - I Mary Hutzal considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and - memory do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following - that is to say.

First I give and bequeath unto my daughter - Eliza J. Hutzal out of a note of Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars due from Margray Ruder - the sum of Fifty Dollars- then after the expenses of my last sickness and Funeral Expenses - the remainder of said note to be equally divided between my two youngest children John - W. and Elizabeth E. Hutzal. and it is further my will that the Remainder of my Freehold - and personal Estate to be equally divided between my four youngest children except Ten - Dollars which is to be paid to my Eldest Daughter Hester M. Trout when the freehold - Estate is sold-

I hereby appoint as my Executors of this my - last Will and testament John Brown and D. Reader dated this 26th day of July - 1871. It is my request that John Brown and David Reeder be appointed Guardian for the Children

Mary X Hutzal (Seal) & mark

Witness

John Brown John C. McNeal

The above will was entered into probate court on 5 Aug 1871. The following 21st of May 1872, John Brown entered a guardian report and resigned as guardian. On the same day he also entered an executors report and resigned as executor of the estate. The next guardian report is filed on 5 Jun 1873

X by Samuel Hutzel.

No more reports are shown in the probate records. Her freehold estate which consisted of a house and small acreage in Catlin, Indiana, was never sold and was held on the tax records until 1981 (one hundred and ten years after her death) when a quit-claim was filed by her decedents and the property was sold.
