

Swaim-Seybold.

A beautiful home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Seybold, Wednesday evening, Nov. 6, at 8 o'clock when their daughter, Nettie May, was united in marriage to Owen R. Swaim of Marshall. The house was beautifully decorated in chrysanthemums and roses.

Miss Opal Swaim played the wedding march from "Hearts and Flowers," while the bride and groom descended the stairs and took their places under a canopy of ferns and chrysanthemums. The bride was dressed in French lawn, trimmed in valenciennes lace, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

About 75 guests were present. Rev. W. M. Torr, pastor of M. E. church of Staunton, was the officiating clergyman.

A three-course lunch was served. Percy Seybold presided at the punch bowl. Many valuable and costly presents were presented these young people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gastineau entertained 31 of their friends last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mayfield, who had just returned from their bridal trip. In the afternoon a musical program was rendered and a good social time enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield left for their future home in Kansas, Monday morning.

The Change.

Before she went to boardin' school she useter romp and play,
She druv the cows from the field an' helped take in the hay,
But she don't do that any more, because of this, ycu see—
She went away as Mary Jane an' came back Jeanne Marie.

She useter wear made-over clothes, an' always with a smile,
But now her dresses every one must be the latest style;
She don't ride horseback any more, nor climb the apple tree—
She went away as Mary Jane, but come back Jeanne Marie.
Her hair is all in crinkles now—she calls 'em Marshall waves;
She's up in all the etiquet, real stylish she behaves.
Her ma and me are mighty proud o' all she's learned—but, gee,
We sometimes wish for Mary Jane instid o' Jeanne Marie!

WOMEN SUIT

69 $11

Obituary

Harriet, daughter of Samuel and Theodosia McCammon, was born Sept. 7, 1856, and departed this life Nov. 2, 1907; age 51 years, 1 month and 25 days. She was united in marriage to Dr. James I. Norman, Feb. 10, 1886. To this union one son, William O., was born. Deceased was of a family of six children. Two brothers, William and Joseph, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Sturgeon, still survive her. She was a member of the Christian church at Parkeville for a number of years, where she was a constant attendant as long as her health permitted. She was a firm believer in the religion of Jesus Christ and her last words were a prayer. In early life she became imbued with the principles of truth and virtue, which are the brightest gems in the diadem of a wife and mother. She had been a constant sufferer for the last five years. She was a kind and loving wife, an affectionate mother and a good neighbor. To the father and son she has left a rich legacy of a life of devotion to their welfare and happiness. She was ready at all times to aid the needy and distressed, and many acts of kindness are known to neighbors and friends. All that human skill and attention could accomplish was done for her, but of no avail. We devoutly recognize the hand of a Father who knows the best way and time to take His children home. The Divine Reaper knows what fruit is ready for the heavenly garner. Ere her garments brushed the dews on Jordan's banks, she stepped across the stream and is now at rest in the jewel walled city "over there". The funeral was held at the home, Sunday afternoon, Eder J. C. Ashley officiating. The scriptural lesson was taken from I Cor. 15 chapter. Text taken from James 4:4. "For what is your life? It is a vapor that appeareth for a little time and then vanished away." The Parkeville church choir rendered several appropriate hymns, after which the body was laid to rest in the Raccoon burying ground to await the final resurrection. W.

Word reached us last week of the death of Mrs. Branson of Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Branson was the mother of Mrs. Wm. Brubeck with whom she has made her home for a long time. She lived in Marshall for some time and all who knew Mrs. Branson will remember she had been a cripple from rheumatism for a long time, not walking any for about 30 years. The relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

528 1.00

$10.00

No. 69X525. A very Fall and Winter Suit with a three-quarter jacket measuring 3... The material is wear cloth, in black with white thread through. The jacket made fly front and ted coat back, pocket, coat sleeve, waist with satin skirt is made in effect. On each gore is a double feet starting from knee and ending scallop of the material very serviceable one that will be used at the extreme lar price of...
No. 69X526. An stylish new Eton Cheviot in black... The jacket is most cally trimmed with braid and fancy details finished with narrow the front effect for double-breasted ve back of Eton is tri correspond with fe stylish sleeve and Princess girdle. T is one of the new high platted mod quality is a splen and Winter web wonderfully dressy very specially price...
No. 69X527. One of son's newest model newest fabric, a known as Cheviot lot. This is stut wide wail cheviot, color is a very serviceable dark gray suitable for Fall and Winter wear; the length of coat is 30 inches; the style double breasted and shows a fancy stitched strap on either side of front which ends in a midg feet; this str a fine piping outer edging, seam back in strapping to with front. T a dressy effect ping of the n velvet points trimming; the trimmed to cor jacket is throughout. skirt is made panels at top bounce effect between each gore. A striking beautiful suit, and one that is sure to meet approval at $11.75
No. 69X528. A very handsome Fall Suit made of an all-wool darkish gray broken plaid material. The coat is 37 in with fly front and ted coat back fancy button trim at either side of collar is of velvet coat is handson lined to waist. is one of the v Fall models made new double platt the same platted shown at front. In material, styl ish this suit i great value at it price of...
No. 69X529. A won wool Broadcloth ors, black, blue... The coat is ma very swagger bl the front is doubl and shows the either side of hat back is fitted to and shows the pl front. The turn lar is of velvet v mings of wide a braid; the cuff is to correspond; the of satin serge. is made in the top-gore side-plat correctly cut and ly hanging. The ceptional value that has ever been offered in a broadcloth suit at...$10.00

Obituary

Rebecca, daughter of Johnson and Mary Collings, was born in Parke county, Ind., Feb. 15, 1837; died Oct. 8, 1907, aged 50 years, 7 months and 22 days. She was united in marriage to James S. Collings, May 3, 1877 and as a result of this union one son was born. Again we are confronted with the unmistakable evidence that the winter of death which chills the vitals of human beings producing that sleep which renders its victim unconscious of all that has to be endured while sojourning in this world, has entered another happy home and has smitten another human flower which bloomed forth in this bright beautiful world fragrant with the odor of flowers, tuneful with song of birds, resplendent with the glories of earth, sea and sky. The deceased had six sisters who have preceded her to the city of the dead. She was a woman of sterling character endowed with all the attainments so essential in securing and retaining that love, admiration and respect in the social realm. She could converse upon all topics of the day with a fluency that characterized a woman of mature judgment. Her home occupied a wide latitude in her affection and she always strived to make it worthy the name. Her love entwined about the heart of a loving husband the tendrils reached out and found lodgment in the affection of a loving son. Her every effort was for their advancement and welfare and they realize their loss with great severity. Her voyage upon the sea of mortal life has terminated; she has encountered the breakers that will sooner or later submerge us all in death. The beautiful flowers of peace have clustered around her mortal remains; she is at rest. The cares and anxieties of this life are over; she has passed into that repose that knows no earthly awakening to sleep peacefully until called up to die no more. May He who has declared that He is the way, the truth and the life, permit the bereaved father, son and all those who mourn to repair beneath the inviting shade of His eternal love where they can find rest from the scorching rays of trouble that now rend their hearts, and that the effulgent light from the lighthouse of heaven would permeate the somber cloud that has now overspread their vision and enable them to say, "The Lord giveth; the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord". She leaves a husband, son, daughter-in-law, one grandchild, together with three brothers and an innumerable host of relatives and friends to mourn her demise. A short burial service was conducted by Elder D. Dodimead at Mt. Moriah at 1 o'clock, Wednesday, afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest in Mt. Moriah cemetery. The funeral will be preached at some future time.

Obituary.

James Shelby, oldest son of John and Sarah Ann Collings, came to this mortal sphere September 10, 1856; passed from the stage of action October 20, 1907, age 51 years, 1 month and 9 days.

He was born and reared upon a farm and at the age of 21 years left a hospitable parental roof to make his way in the world. May 2, 1877, he took unto himself an amiable wife in the person of Miss Rebecca Collings. They established a home and together lived happy for a period of 30 years. One son was born to them—Elder Chauncy Ray Collings. Deceased was confined to his bed September 26 with typhoid fever and was a patient sufferer for over four weeks. During the latter part of his illness there was hopeful evidence of recovery until a few days prior to the end when he was stricken with a weak action of the heart and in spite of all that could be done it succeeded in closing his mortal career.

His occupation was that of a farmer and the well kept farm and beautiful home where he lived is a shining monument to his unflinching industrious management. As a financier he was successful, possessing exceptionally good judgment, supported by a business ability that rendered his council efficient upon all occasions. He was a close student and was well informed upon all subjects. Contention knew no place in his daily life, yet he unswervingly adhered to what he believed to be right. He was a man of sterling integrity and as an honest, upright and accommodating neighbor and citizen he had no superiors. First he did right because of the actuation of the principal that it is right to do right, because it is right; second, he lived right because his footsteps were guided by the lamp of heaven that leads in no other than the right and acceptable way. He always avoided an ostentatious life and adhered to moderation thruout the course of his mortal career. While he was public spirited he exercised a conservative deliberation in taking hold of public improvements, but when convinced that it was a benefit to his fellowman would lend aid sententiously toward pushing it along.

$12.75

WOMEN'S SUITS

On this page we offer at one all-around price the greatest values and the widest range of choice that has ever been known in suit selling. The price of each and every one of these suits is $12.75, whatever your choice may be, whether broadcloth, cheviot or all-wool mixture, whether Eton, Norfolk or three-quarter-length suit. Write for any suit on this page and you are sure to get the best offered for the money.

No. 69X550. A very serviceable Fall and Winter Suit in Lanesville cheviot in black, blue and brown. The all-wool suit is made with fly front, fancy patch pockets, fitted strap coat back, richly satin lined to waist, the skirt is made in a very attractive Fall model with platts back, front and center sides. Wonderful suit at.....$12.75

No. 69X551. A Top Coat of a very handsome all-wool English mixture, dark gray mottled plaid effect, fly front and three-quarter fitted back, showing fancy double seams, fancy collar is of blue and white broadcloth in a beautiful combination; lined across the shoulders with self-material in overcoat fashion; all seams beautifully bound; patch pockets; full flaring gored skirt with platts front and back. A wonderfully stylish and serviceable suit. Our price...$12.75

No. 69X552. This Suit is a charming Norfolk is a charming Norfolk model, made of a beautiful all-wool mixture, in dark gray coloring, showing the new overplaid effect, beautifully strapped front and back, properly

K552
2.75

Death is mysterious. We may theorize upon it, yet amid it all we are forced back to the conclusion that by the disobedience of one man sin entered into the world and death by sin. This is what has cut our neighbor and friend down, its blighting consequences closed his eyes which once looked upon the beautiful scenes painted upon the canvass of time; it has compelled his journey thru the valley of the shadow of death into that quiet and undisturbed repose to sleep until the Savior shall come to receive his precious jewels and take them home where sickness, pain and death are unknown and goodbye is never heard. May the God of Heaven comfort the heart broken son, the aged father in his declining years and all who mourn on account of their loss. The deceased leaves a son, daughter-in-law, one grandchild, a father, one brother, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Funeral services were conducted by Revs. C. S. Airhart and Dodimead, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Mt. Moriah cemetery.

J. B. M.
$12.75

WOMEN'S SUITS

No. 69X575

Mrs. James Hocker.

Cora E. Wright was born in Hollandsburg, July 19, 1874; died May 8, 1908, age 33 years, 9 months and 19 days.

She grew up with such opportunities as were common to the young people in her time and community. She was quiet and unassuming in her disposition and bore her afflictions with great patience.

On Dec. 23, 1891, she was married to James Hocker. To this union were born two sons, Frank and Howard. These with their lonely father and the widowed mother of the deceased, who is now bereft of the last member of her immediate family, mourn their irreparable loss.

Cora was a kind and loving companion and a devoted mother, always trying to teach her boys to grow up into honest and upright men. She took a great interest in the Sunday school and wanted her children to be present and take part in the Sunday school work. Cora was religious in nature, but never united with any church still her hope and trust was in her Savior.

After a lingering illness with consumption at an unexpected moment she quietly and peacefully fell asleep in Jesus.

The funeral was held from the church at Hollandsburg on Sunday. A very large attendance. The services were impressive, conducted by A. H. Dooley. The entire arrangement for the service, was made by the deceased even to the selection of hymns, which were appropriate and well rendered. The floral demonstrations were most beautiful. The selected pall bearers were David Spencer and wife, Fred Swaim and wife and Bert Hocker and wife. The remains were interred in the Mt. Moriah cemetery, being laid beside her father.

The marriage of Mrs. Maggie Lahue yesterday (formerly Maggie Keller) by Squire Bryant, recalls the famous Clara Shanks murder in Sugar Creek township and the consequent long and exciting trial of her brother, Dan Keller and wife Nancy and herself as an accessory, at Terre Haute where all were acquitted. The trial was held in the winter of 1896, and several of those prominent in it have past from earth, including Mrs. Nancy Keller, one of the principals, S. D. Puett, attorney, George Thomas, Dr. McKay, Rev. John H. Newlin, and Mrs. Shanks, mother of Clara, important witnesses in the case. The mystery of the girl's tragic death has never been solved. Shortly after the trial Maggie Keller was married to Lahue, who has since died.

The marriage of Miss Leona Elinich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Elinich, of Nyesville to Pearl Sneath of that place occurred at the Catholic parsonage Monday morning at 9:30. The ceremony was performed by Father McCool. Miss Maude Grinley was the bridesmaid and Harry Skelton, the groomsman. The bride was dressed in a blue silk traveling suit and wore a hat to match. The bridesmaid was dressed in brown silk. They left on the 10:30 train that morning for Brazil, returning today. They will make their home in Rockville.

This little village was greatly shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Ley Nevins. Mr. Nevins has the pathy of the entire country in his bereavement.

Married.

By Justice Bryant at his office on April 28, Eddie S. Scott and Maggie Lahue, both of this county.

Obituary.

James Oliver Collings was born Aug. 24, 1838; died October 21, 1908 at his home in Crawfordsville where he had lived for a number of years.

He was first married to Mary Ellen Funkhouser with whom he lived about 30 years. The doors of their home were opened to the two orphan children of her two brothers. The boy Wallace grew to manhood and is now settled near Coloma. The little girl died some ten years before the death of his wife on Nov. 8, 1896.

In the fall of 1903 he again married Emma Warbritton and happily together they trod the rough path of life. He for several years had been stricken with disease and at times suffered almost greater than he could bear, but his last illness was only a few days and at noon Wednesday his spirit responded to the beckon from on high.

He was a member of the U. B. church where he loved to worship and in his strong day was constant in attendance. He leaves in loneliness a brother George, the one surviving member of a family of 14 children, besides a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral at Mt. Moriah church on Friday by Rev. Sherrill.

69X577
$15.00

69X57
$14.5

69 $16

No. 69
Wom suit, and tight strat inch a b and tight show trim lined vet new plait ter prom value

No. 692 broad navy coat of t that from over vest fancy ls ck band trimm med Jacket Prince lish beauti very dress

No. 69X
new E Suit, tweed dark legs. ls 30 and g front, with hands throughout. The suit is made in one of the very new side plaited flaring models. A very remarkably up-to-date suit of exquisite material and especially priced by us

No. 69X579. A Fall S shows the new sty lum jacket. This of a very beauti wool shadow plai ture, the color e tion is light gr dark gray; the f the jacket show pretty trimming of inlay, strappings braids; the collar an show the velvet tri the poplin fits bet over the hips and In plaits at fron back; the lining satin; the skirt b elaborate and new,
ing successive plait and back, with strappings to comple
trimming. A corre desirable fall suit; r able value for.....

WOMEN'S

25

Obituary of Lenna Crooks.

Lenna, daughter of George and Nora Crooks, was born Oct. 16, 1872, died at the home of her aunt, Lucinda Ames, Dec. 20, 1907; age 35 years, 2 months and 4 days.

Her father died when she was but five years of age, leaving her in the care of a widowed mother and kind friends. Since her father's death she has always made her home with her aunt, who was as faithful and devoted to her as if an own child. She was never strong physically, but was never hopeful of gaining a more normal condition of health. She joined the M. E. church at Rough and Ready school when about 15 years of age, during a series of meetings held there by Revs. Welch and Blake, and lived a happy, contented and sweet christian life to the end. She graduated from the common schools, receiving the honors of both township and county of a large class of graduates. She afterward attended school at Danville, Ind. She had a sweet voice and when in health loved to entertain her friends by playing and singing her favorite songs. During her last long illness she was patient, forbearing and thoughtful, thinking more of the comfort of those about her than of her own suffering. Her aunt from Missouri came to visit her after she took sick and thought to remain with her until the end, feeling that she could not last long. But after remaining from her own home as long as she thought she could she said to Lenna, "I will have to leave you and go to my home. I want to go to the cemetery where my own loving daughter was laid only a short time ago. I can not see her, but I want to see the grave where Bessie lies." Lenna, thoughtful and calm, said: "No, aunt Fanny, Bessie is not in the grave. It is only the cold lump of clay that lies there. Bessie is not in the grave." Can we not console ourselves, dear friends, with the same thought of Lenna? It is but the cold lump of clay that we consign to the grave. Lenna is not there.

It would be impossible for us to picture the life of this dear young girl and do it justice. One instance will serve as a picture which will reflect the character of her whole life. While attending school the teacher offered a prize for the most perfect scholar in department. Lenna won this prize. Her teacher said, "It was so easy for Lenna to do right that the prize was easily won. Not only at school but at all times it was easy for her to do right. She was known only to be loved, and friends once gained were never forgotten, acquaintances once formed never grew old.

But the brightest flower,
Will wither and fade,
And the dearest friends
In the grave must be laid.

Using her own language she says, "No, not in the grave." Then look up, not down. Her spirit has gone to meet its God. Her body only is resting under the sod. Weep not, then, 'tis only a step, only a step across the river, and you know not but what that step will be taken tomorrow, and you will be reunited never again to part. For they never say goodby in heaven. Death reaps its harvest in silence. "For behold, I say unto you watch." Let the door be on its hinges in your home. In the chill before the dawning, between the night and morning, I may come. But why do we weep? God has said "There is no suffering there." Truly, we can say of Lenna: Thou art gone to the land of the Holy.

In the vale of sweet Beulah thy spirit's at rest,
Why should we wish thee recalled from thy slumber,

The home of the happy, the pure and the blest?

Gone! Yes, gone, but not forgotten and while we offer these tributes of respect we do it feeling that it is not the last offering we can give, nor the last tribute of respect we can pay. Every pleasant thought and every kind word spoken of her is a tribute of respect. Every sweet scented flower planted upon her grave is a token of respect. And when a monument is placed at the grave to mark her silent resting place it is a tribute of respect. Yes, gone. After the chilly blasts of winter will come the beautiful spring time. The earth will be carpeted in living green, the trees will put forth their green foliage and the music throated birds will sing their sweet songs of praise among their branches and the flowers will blossom as brightly as ever. She will see and hear them not, she will not return. The home is broken up and sorrow reigns where once was joy. She will be missed.

Yes, we miss thee, dear Lenna as oft we assemble

Our household together for prayer or repast.

We miss thee at morning, we miss thee at noontide,

But most do we miss thee when night gathers fast.

We look toward the spot, we were wont to behold thee,

And naught but thy vacant chair meets our sad gaze,

But the eye of affection by memory aided

Reveals thee to us thru our sorrowing days.

We miss thee, dear Lenna, at morning and noontide.

But in the calm evening we miss thee more still,

Yet God in his mercy saw fit to remove thee

He knows what is best, we bow to his will.

She left no message but her pure, simple, noble life. And such a life! Who can picture it?

Sizes in Suits:
Best Measure 32 to 44 inches.
Skirt Lengths 37 to 43 inches.
No. 89X209. A very handsome Fall and Winter Suit of rich quality pan cherise, in black, blue and an exquisite shade of brown. The coat is made 38 inches long and is a beautifully tailored tight fitting model. By front, back and front seams are adorned with artistic tailored strappings stitched in exquisite manner and showing tapering lines at waist; the collar and cuffs are of the plating tailored sort and the coat is richly lined all the way through with heavy quality satin. The very new model skirt shows successive clusters of four deep

Pen falters and tongue ceases her thoughts to express it. During her long suffering which began in August all was done that kind friends and loving hands could do to prolong life, but the Great Ruler who doeth all things best, said: "It is finished. Your life work is ended. I have need of thee, come up higher." Her mother was a constant attendant at her bedside all thru her last sickness. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge at Rockville, and with that, like everything in life, she loved the order and loved its members. In her death the order has lost a worthy member and the mother a devoted and loving daughter. She leaves a mother, a step-father, step-brothers and an innumerable host of friends to mourn their loss. Will we meet her?

Will we know her,

When we step beyond the line?

When the angel calleth to us,

'Tis for us the end of time.

Surely, surely we will know her

When we meet her over there.

If we live our lives as spotless

As dear Lenna, young and fair.

Now has come the solemn evening.

Comes the shroud and comes the bier.

All are standing 'round in silence.

But we mark the falling tear.

She is placed within her coffin.

Now dear friends we weep and cry,

One more look before the parting.

Now we say the last goodbye.

The funeral services were held at the house by Rev. Z. D. Maris of Rockville. Six of the Daughters of Rebekah came out from Rockville to act as pall bearers. Their tribute of respect was a beautiful bouquet of flowers which was highly appreciated by the family. The family had a beautiful wreath with the name Lenna and the step-brothers and step-sisters a pillow with the word sister. Miss Jennie Ames of Brazil also gave a beautiful memento of flowers. These were all of beautiful designs and were highly appreciated by the family.

After the funeral services the remains were taken to the Rockville cemetery for interment. There with the beautiful ritualistic services of the Daughters of Rebekah she was gently laid to rest until the great resurrection morn, when the graves will give up their dead. Then we shall meet again and know as we are known.

W. D. R.

The Holog is a most attractive feature and is of the new Scotch Tartan plaid taffeta, showing blue, red and green combination of colors. The skirt is a stylish gored flaring effect, showing plaits front and back; a marvel of richness, beauty and style. $19.75

WOMEN'S DRESS

Sizes 32 to 37 to 43 inch

No. 69X625. A long shirt waist dress of blue tulle with deep plaits and a band of embroidery down front; sleeves with deep plaits front and ed side gores rich and beautiful bargain.

No. 69X626. A dressy Princess quality tulle and front of elaborately and a reproduction of skirt is made and very elegant with lace to waist. A choice for party or winter, and dress ever so our price...

No. 69X627. A fall and winter dress of white shepherd plaid full and the prettily piped. The sleeve is having deep is an all around made in a splendid bargain.

No. 69X628. A white net; decolette with the material. The waist is sleeves in front trimmed with insertion; tulle; the full and wide flounce effect with cording and insertion entire dress lawn. A high neck with elaborate and dressy. Our price $15.00

No. 69X629. Here is a wonderful suit of lawn in fast color, black and navy blue; the waist is made with rows of deep cuff. It is a gored model, simple and a dress that is just for fall and winter. A marvelous value at $1.50. We have made special tions on this suit in sizes 44, 46 and 48. The skirts are made fuller than regular sizes. Price $1.50

Elinich-Harrison.

The wedding (of Miss Bessie Elinich and Lealie Harrison was solemnized last Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Elinich at Nyesville. The ceremony was performed by Father McCool of St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bridal couple with Miss Nellie Elinich as bridesmaid and Neil Blackmore as best man, entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Jewel Downs of Washington, D. C., and took their place in the corner of the parlor which had been decorated in autumn leaves and chrysanthemums.

The bride was dressed in white satin and the bridesmaid in embroidered swiss.

Only a few relatives witnessed the wedding.

At 8 o'clock the home was thrown open to a reception, the house being decorated in autumn leaves. The bridal party received the guests.

Mrs. Jennie West and Miss Lucy Scanlan dispersed punch to the guests and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the ladies of the Whipple Dry Goods Company store and Miss Gleethel Carter.

The presents were displayed in the sitting room and were many and beautiful.

The bride is the daughter] of Mr. and Mrs. John Elinich and a former clerk at the Whipple Dry Goods Co. store. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Harrison and a salesman for Tad Johnson.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Crooks and son Murrill, Mr. and Mrs. Downs of Washington, D. C., Miss Elizabeth Shanks of Fountain county, Mrs. Overman of Guion and Mike Sowers of Kingman.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison left on a wedding trip to Chicago and will return here Saturday. They will reside in the George Starks home in south Market street.

The funeral of Wesley Weaver who died Saturday, was held at the M. E. church, Monday at 11 o'clock. The service was conducted by Rev. O'Brien. Burial at Bethany cemetery.

Rev. A. H. Dooley.

Rev. A. H. Dooley was born in Shelby county, Ky., April 26, 1829. His parents moved to Parke county, Ind., when he was but 10 years of age. He was converted to Christ at the age of 20 years, united with the Baptist church in August, 1850, preached his first sermon in the Goshen Baptist church near Judson, Ind., in July, 1853; was ordained to the gospel ministry August 2, 1854. He was married to Miss Mary Connelly April 8, 1852. This good wife preceded him to the glory world, January 1, 1907. Having no children of their own they reared two foster daughters, Mrs. Elvina York and Mrs. Sadie Lanning. The ties of love that has bound these foster parents and children together all these years were no less than are the ties of filial kinship.

In 1854 Brother and Sister Dooley moved to Boone county, Indiana, and his first pastorate was at Elizaville where he faithfully served for 12 years. He has served as pastor 19 different churches in the following associations: Indianapolis, Logansport, Judson, Whitelick, Monticello, and Freedom. In these years he has baptized 412 converts, while thousands of lives have been helped by his ministry.

Brother Dooley was a man that stood in character, habits, ideals and in the whole of life, high above any and everything narrow, selfish and unbecoming a christian gentleman.

Among his brethren in the gospel ministry he was a constant inspiration.

The last years of his life were no less useful than the fruitful years of middle life. He remained cheerful, active and helpful until the last moment of life. On leaving the casket in which lay the remains of his good wife he said tenderly: "Good bye, Mary, soon I'll be with you." And thus in less than two years his promise was realized.

Brother Dooley died after three weeks of illness and intense suffering on Nov. 8 at 2 o'clock a. m., 1908; age 79 years, 7 months and 2 days. Thus closes a life which has blessed the world with the richest legacy that men ever leave. Blessed be his dear memory.

A brief service was held at the residence of Eos Lanning in Rockville at 8:15 Monday morning, Rev. Wm. B. Chancellor offering prayer and Reva. Vanleave and Fuson assisting in the other services. The regular funeral services were held at Hollandsburg church, Rev. S. K. Fuson delivering the funeral sermon and Rev. W. H. Vanleave assisting. Interment in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

X627 .95

X130 .50

X133 7.50

69X $1.50

Jessup-Payton.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Payton, southwest of Waveland, Sunday, at half-past two o'clock occurred a pretty October wedding by which their daughter, Miss Grace Lee Payton, became the bride of Mr. Fred E. Jessup, of near Jessup. One hundred and fifty guests witnessed the beautiful and impressive ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Isaac C. Whitlock of Terre Haute. Before the ceremony Miss Rose Connor, of Waveland, presiding at the piano played "Fire Light Dreams," and as the bride and groom entered unattended she played the Lohengrin wedding march. While the bride and groom led the way to the dining room, where dainty refreshments were served, the tune was Mendelssohn's march. The home was decorated throughout, the color scheme being pink and white. Autumn leaves and flowers being used. In the dining room purple and white pansies, the colors of the Royal Neighbors at Judson, were used in the decorations. The favors were white bells tied with white and pink ribbons. When the ceremony was being performed the bride and groom stood in a large bay window, which had been canopied with floral designs, the most attractive of which was a large pink and white star encircled by a crescent moon of the same colors. The bride wore a becoming gown of white silk embroidered batiste trimmed with bands of stitched silk. Those assisting in the dining room were Miss Jessup, a sister of the groom, and Mrs. Harmless, a sister of the bride. They will be at home on a farm near Rockville after November 1.

Rusk-Porter.

Wednesday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of Rev. S. K. Fuson in Marshall occurred the marriage of John Rusk and Miss Monna Porter, in the presence of a few friends. The groom is the son of George Rusk, and is a prosperous young farmer. The bride is the daughter of Ben Porter and a very attractive young lady who has many friends in this community. Both are highly respected young people and we wish them a happy journey thru life. The bride was attired in gown of white brilliantine. Her going away dress was a tailored suit of blue with hat to match. They left on the 5:25 train for Scotland, Ill., for a short visit, after which they will be at home to their friends on a farm near Browns Valley.—Waveland Independent.

Obituary.

James Madison Odell was born August 6, 1828, on the old sixteen section, south of what is now known as East Rockville. He was the son of William and Jane Odell. He was of a family of 11 children, 4 sons and 7 daughters, of whom only 4 are now living—Nancy Hall of Wichita, Kan., Harvey C. Odell of Patoka, Ill., Ellen Jerome of Montezuma and Harriett Caldwell of Terre Haute.

He was married to Lucinda A. Crooks, August 21, 1851. To this union were born seven children—six sons and 1 daughter, four of whom are now deceased—Eva, wife of E. A. Phillips, William C., two dying in infancy, Charles E. and Author E. The wife, Lucinda A., departed this life August, 21, 1881. The deceased was again married to Frances Beech Aug. 9, 1882, with whom he lived until his death which occurred at his home, Nov. 24, 1908., at the advanced age of 80 years, 3 months and 18 days.

Mr. Odell's parents emigrated from Mercer county, Kentucky, to Indiana in an early day, settling on Ottercreek in Vigo county. Later they moved to the New Discovery neighborhood where they lived until their death. Mr. Odell united with the Baptist church at New Discovery in the year 1850 and was baptized by Elder Peter Swaim. He remained a member of New Discovery church until 1877 when he had his membership transferred to Hollandsburg church.

Mr. Odell was a devoted husband and kind father, living a consistent christian life until his death. He is survived by three sons, Dr. J. L. Odell of Montezuma, J. H. Odell of Waveland and Bruce, who is still at home. He is also survived by one step-daughter, Lucinda Beech and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at the house Wednesday at 2 o'clock p. m. by Rev. S. K. Fuson. Interment in the Barnes cemetery.

Jacob W. Collings, agent of the estate of John W. Weaver, late of Parke county, will hold a public sale of live stock, hay, grain, etc., farm machinery, implements, harness, kitchen furniture, etc. Thursday, Feb. 11, at 10 a. m., at the late residence of the said John W. Weaver, one mile southwest of Judson.

WOMEN'S FASHIONABLE

to 29 in. to 43 in. in to-day necessity of skirt. Unlaced are and de- skirt or- that is not story after examine it, ay be re- at our ex- our money refunded.

very smart now shade in a con- light and the model box-plaits enter sides; either side as have an ice effect, e knee and a smart the mate- king skirt e sure to$4.50

very smart wood broad- and navy; in a 25- and plaited plaits are hung and in a deep flaring to skirt that e amongst rable Pan$6.50

ere is a wonder we ask; it did quality all around ed, fitting ly at the ide with a weep; you seen this d at our$5.00

Skirt of lity broad- blue and is made its front, ck; the al- es are made plait which effect and th buttons. excellent elegant e to be ap-$7.50 This same e measures$8.00 handsome Skirt of chiffon Panama, made in a very stylish side-plaited model with alternating gores showing box plaits ending above knee and strap effect; some of the gores are also adorned with fancy trimming and but-completes his hand- This is a quality perfectly our price$7.75 e is a an excep- tional hang- is made sion of the plaits y to the whistling, giving an ex- ceptionally graceful ef- feet. The material is in all-wood Panama, black and navy; the skirt is beautifully fin- ished and offered at a popular price$4.50

627 95

9X130 4.50

79X133 $7.50

69X6 $1.2

SEPARATE

SK

No. 79X
black made side-pl er-rib straps all in A very well the p-

No. 79X1
grey A very give a show further startin
This with plugs button seams splendid

No. 79X1
tweed with under Sassy trimm above A very factual edging bound back service

No. 79X cherish navy new showing on the trim of the pl ly has stylish printed

No. 79X1
Satin
It is shown showing peter

No. 79X1
stylish dark made style, green platts inside straps rial; fines ton. bound ing of

No. 79X145. A wonderful shirt of broadcloth, made in 18-gore platted style, platts are stitched to above knee and flare at bottom. One of the season's newest effects.
Currently hanging and beautifully finished. An absolute wonder, $3.95

A Surprised Party.

Wednesday, Sept. 16, was the 48th anniversary of S. R. Beal's initiation into the mysteries of free masonry and the brethren at Catlin heartily seconded by the Sisters of the Eastern Star, planned and executed a surprise supper in honor of the occasion. Brother Beal was down town much interested as were many others in an address by a wandering Indian evangelist on Indian customs and beliefs which took place in front of W. R. Pence's store. It required considerable generalship to get the old gentleman away from the Indian and up to the surprise. "Let's go home, Ridley," said his wife, who was a confederate in the surprise business. "Well, go home if you want to, I'm going to stay here till the Indian gets thru." "But I'm getting chilly out here in this night air; let's go home." Ridley gave her his pocket handkerchief to use as a wrap and continued his duty as an auditor at the Indian lecture. But generalship finally prevailed and the old gentleman was ushered into the the presence of about 50 of his friends, big, little, old and young, most of them members of F. & A. M. and O. E. S. and the surprise was genuine—nothing bogus about it whatever; and nothing bogus about the two large tables which the Sisters had loaded with about every triumph of the Hoosier kitchendom. Upon one of the tables stood a frame covered with shining tinsel, supporting the square and compass enclosing the letter "G" over arched by the letters "O. E. S." all the work of Mrs. Addie Montgomery, who was highly complimented on the design and workmanship.

After the banquet we repaired to the sitting room and sang two very appropriate songs and heard four short, excellent addresses by Messrs. Levi Nevins of Bloomingdale, S. R. Beal, who extended heartfelt thanks to his visitors, J. H. Richardson and Bro. Downey, minister of the M. E. church, a very enjoyable evening with all.

We closed by singing a parting hymn and at a late hour with mutual good wishes and pleasant good nights.

F. A. M.

79X141
$295

Death of Mrs John S. Smiley.

Isabelle Smiley, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Dunn, was born July 2, 1840 in Monehan county, Ireland. She came to America with her parents when 7 years old. Her father died on the sea during the voyage.

She was married to John S. Smiley Jan. 26, 1860.

She united with the Associate Presbyterian church when about 17 years old, and was a faithful member until her death, Sept. 27, age 68 years, 2 months, 25 days.

Of eight grown children two daughters preceded her to their eternal home. The living are: Mrs. James Heslar of Marshall, Mrs. J. H. Spencer of Rockville, Wm. Smiley of near Marshall, Thomas M., of Liberty, Mo., John and Henry, near the old home. Besides these she leaves her husband, one sister and 7 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the residence at 10 o'clock Tuesday, Rev. Pierce of Waveland officiating. Interment in the Portland Mills cemetery.

79X142
$350

A farewell dinner was given at W. D. Beauchamp's, Sunday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Beauchamp, who are preparing to move to Indianapolis, in a short time. Over one hundred persons were present and enjoyed the good things of life at the well filled tables. Your correspondent was unable to be present, but from all reports it was a most enjoyable occasion. We are sorry to see our old friends and neighbors leave us and hope they will be satisfied in their new home.

79X145
$395

About 28 ate dinner at William Glasson's Sunday, in honor of Mr. Glasson's 51st birthday. Mrs. Glasson and children prepared the dinner and there was plenty of everything good. Those present were, Charley Jenkins and wife, John Glasson and wife, Aunt Lizzie Glasson and Mrs. Ellen Mote of Bloomingdale, Sam Chesser and family of Rockville, Ed Weatherford, wife and mother, Jim Hutton and wife, H.F. Osborn and wife, Tad Canino and family, John McMurtry and son Walter. The time arrived too soon for departure and we hope Mr. Glasson will have another birthday, Dec. 13, 1909.

X15
75

153
75

1908

SEPARATE SKIRTS

Sizes in Skirts.
Waist Band 22 to 29 in.
Lengths 37 to 43 in.

No. 79X150. A stylish skirt of black taffeta, made with box plaits front, center, side and back, between these plaits are clusters of tiny darts, ten in number, giving a very stylish new effect. The taffeta is of the finest quality, style up to especially priced $7.75

No. 79X151. A skirt of as chiton broad gracefully hanging shows cluster front, center, and back, black, brown. The quality is beautiful, the style refined and elegant; a skirt in which you will feel well dressed, and very special at our price, $10.75

No. 79X152. A skirt of beautiful quality black tulle, made over a taffeta drop lining. The style is a 20 plaited effect with box plaits front and back. The drop lining is finished with a dust ruffle at bottom, and is a wonderful effect. Price $9.75

No. 79X153. A very handsome skirt of rich quality chiffon taffeta, made very wide, style shows box plaits on either side and cluster plaits front and back. Beautifully trimmed at bottom in point effects with five bands of the taffets. One of the handsomest new season's skirts and sure to please at our price $11.75

No. 79X154. A very beautiful of imported over an elegant silk drop. The skirt shows box plaits front and back and fifteen tiny plaits on center sides. Deep dust ruffle on drop skirt. A beautiful hanging model. Our price $13.50

No. 79X155. A very beautiful of imported over an elegant silk drop. The skirt shows box plaits front and back and fifteen tiny plaits on center sides. Deep dust ruffle on drop skirt. A beautiful hanging model. Our price $13.50

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Justice Bryant on September 19, the contracting parties being William J. Clark and Okle Hazlett, both of Milligan. Quite a number of the young couple's friends and relatives were present.

Married.
Langdon Pruett and Miss Laura Thomas, both of Parke county, were quietly united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin in Rockville on the evening of Oct. 4. Their many friends extend congratulations.
Rev. F. E. Fisher of Judson, at the time in Rockville to supply the Baptist pulpit, officiated

Joseph W. VanHuss to Cloe Hazlett, both of Greene township.

Edna Akers and William Alexander were united in marriage Sunday evening by Rev. Downey at the M. E. parsonage in Bellmore. The best wishes of their many Otterbein friends go with them.

Married, at the home of Rev. S. K. Fuson last Wednesday, Miss Stella McClain of near Browns Valley to John Wright of the same place, in the presence of 10 or 11 witnesses. May peace and happiness be theirs.

William Alexander of Parkeville to Edna Akers of Bellmore.

Obituary.

Robert Freemont Bruin was born June 2, 1864, at the old Bruin homestead near Guion, Parke county, Ind., and died Sept. 13, 1908, at the same place, having spent his entire life there.

He united with the Guion Presbyterian church Sept. 13, 1886, living a consistent christian life just 22 years to the day. He was one of the trustees of the present church at the time it was built and was a deacon at the time of his death.

He united in marriage to Cora Cook, March 30, 1887. To this union were born nine children—six boys and three girls, all of whom with the wife live to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, a wise counselor, and a true friend. There also mourn for him one brother and three sister, besides numerous relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Ulay, after which the F. and A. M. took charge, the deceased being a member of that fraternity, and W. M. of Judson lodge No. 518 at the time of his death. Beautiful and impressive ceremonies were conducted at the family cemetery by the order, in charge of W. M. Elmer Deitrich of Waveland lodge after which the body was laid to its last long rest.

"In that low green tent whose curtain never outward swings."

In the death of Mr. Bruin Parke county loses a most valued citizen. Being a man of large size, whose heart and smile were in proportion, he made friends wherever he went. In politics he was a Democrat. In business, straightforward and honest. In character, the plainspoken, he was kind and considerate. To his family, just all that a father could be. He was anxious that his children should all receive liberal educations and would sacrifice anything to that end. He is gone. His chair is vacant. All that remains is the sweet, sad memory of a life well lived, a book that is closed, a chord that is broken.

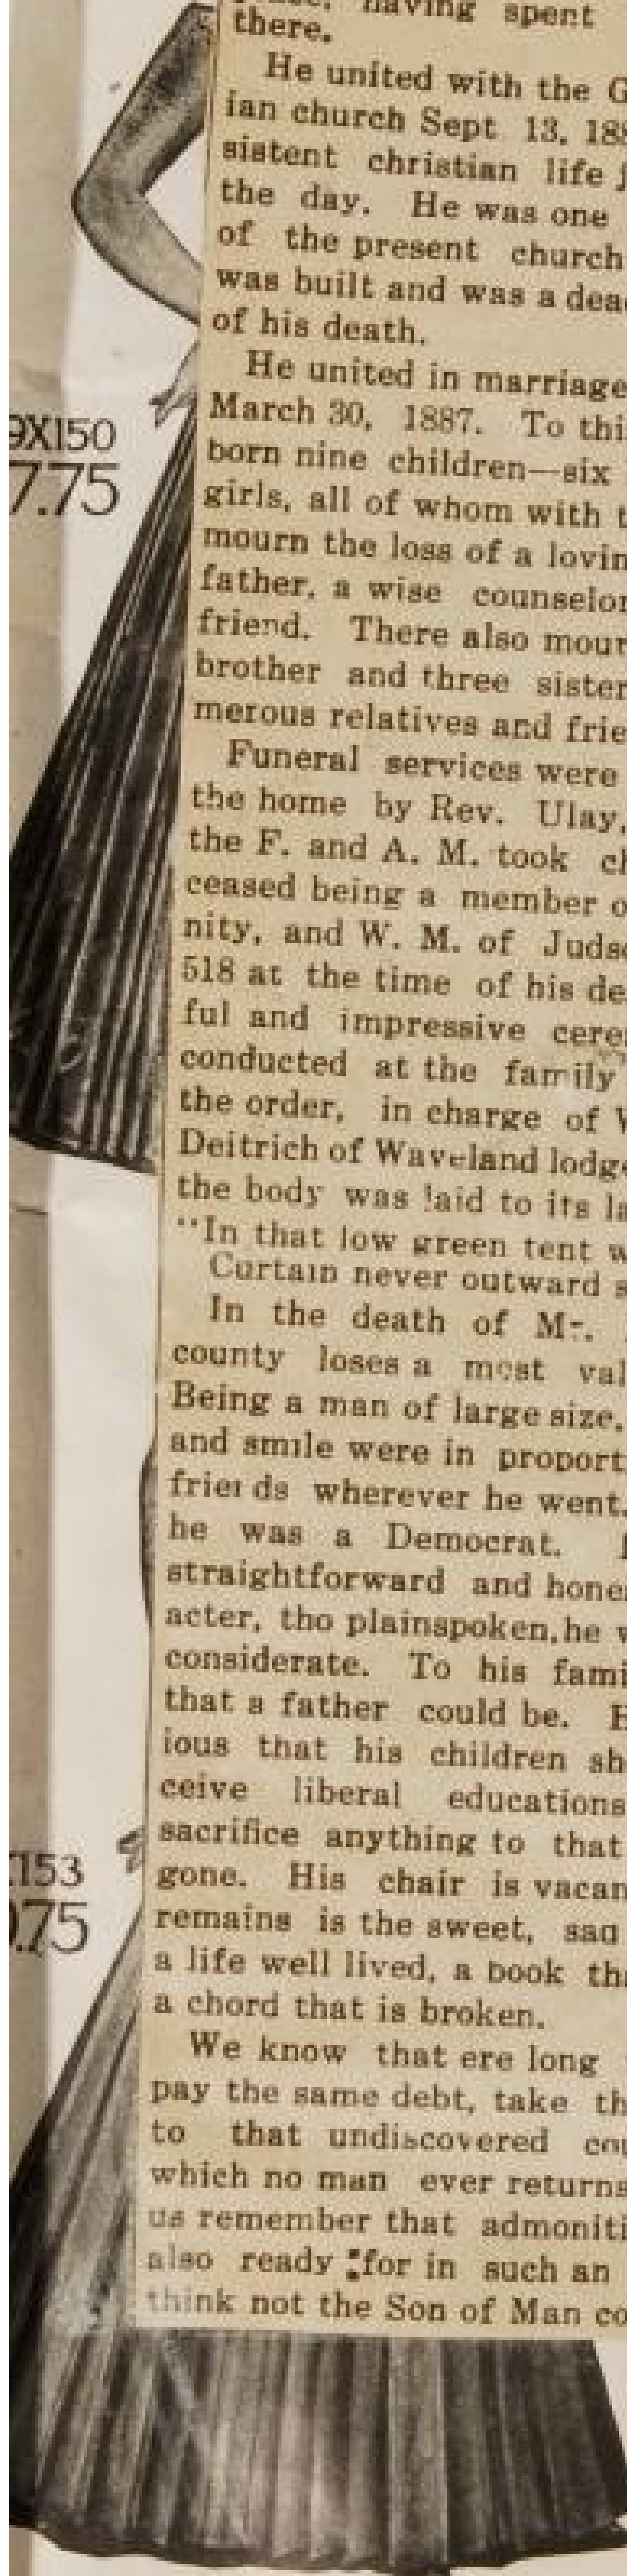

We know that ere long we will all pay the same debt, take the same trip to that undiscovered country from which no man ever returns. Then let us remember that admonition, "Be ye also ready for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

79X154
$11.75

$13.50

79X150
7.75

79X153
11.75

30

JUNE WEDDING.

The Whipple-Adams Marriage a Brilliant Social Event.

The marriage of Miss Elsie Helen Whipple, only daughter of Mrs. Francis R. Whipple, and Frank M. Adams, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, took place last Wednesday evening at Memorial Presbyterian church in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.

The pulpit platform was massed with palms and ferns, among which 14 large lighted candles cast a soft light during the ceremony. Also there were white lilies among the green and bouquets of lilies were attached to the ends of the pews.

While the guests were assembling Miss Stark rendered a splendid program of music as follows:

- "Spring Song" - - - Mendelssohn
- "Nuptial March" - - - Gullmant
- "Melody in F" - - - Rubinstein
- Introduction to 3d act "Lohengrin" - - - Wagner
- "Serenade" - - - Schubert

At 8 o'clock the bridal procession was formed and began to advance down the left aisle as the organ broke into the strains of Wagner's "Bridal March" from "Lohengrin."

In order came the four ushers, the four bridesmaids, matron of honor, maid of honor, two ring bearers carrying huge baskets of roses, and then the bride alone. The attendants took positions at the sides of the altar while the attending ministers advanced from the left of the pulpit and Mr. Adams and his best man, Brown Katzenbach, from the right, meeting the bride at the altar. During the ceremony Miss Stark played softly the "Venitian Love Song" by Nevin.

The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. S. E. Henry of Bedford, Ia., a relative of the groom, assisted by Rev. Wm. B. Chancellor, pastor. Both bride and groom repeated the vows in clear, distinct tones.

After the ceremony the bridal party left the church to the lively notes of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

Married--Wednesday, Feb. 17, at the home of the bride by Rev. Cornelius Airhart, Fred Crooks and Miss Edith Swain.

White... fine quality; entire front exquisitely designed and trimmed with insertions of German Val lace, French tucks and open work and blind embroidered cluster tuck collar; new dulced w back; sizes No. 70X508. medium w Madras W (ty); the entire front, which is attractively designed and artistically embroidered, is embellished with graduated clusters of French tucks and side platts, plaited back; shoulders and tucked gauntlet cuffs are joined by beading; open back; sizes 32 to

The bridesmaids were: Miss Maud Parkhurst of Peru; Miss Etta Brubeck of Rockville; Miss Paula Beauchamp of Terra Haute; Miss Kathryn Brubeck of Rockville; matron of honor, Mrs. John E. Linebarger; maid of honor, Miss Edna Trueblood of Indianapolis; ring bearers, little Misses Susan Perkins of Indianapolis and Louise Brockway of Rockville. The Beta Theta Pi colors, pink and blue, prevailed in the gowns of the bride's attendants, the groom being a member of that Greek letter college fraternity. Misses Parkhurst and Brubeck wore pink silk mousseline gowns and Misses Beauchamp and Brubeck, blue of the same material. The matron and maid of honor wore white mousseline. The bridesmaids carried arm bouquets of pink roses; the matron and maid of honor, white roses.

The bride was beautiful in an embroidered white satin gown, with lace veil and a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a large arm bouquet of white daisies.

The ushers were Messrs. Frank Willey of Cincinnati, Joseph McKibben of Terra Haute, Ray Adams of Indianapolis and Nick Dodson of Terra Haute.

Immediately after the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Francis R. Whipple. In the receiving line were Mrs. Whipple, the bride and groom and all the attendants. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity and many guests availed themselves of chairs placed on the lawn, which was especially lighted for the occasion with electric lights. During the reception and while refreshments were served an Indianapolis harpist played.

The wedding gifts were displayed on tables upstairs arranged in groups of silverware, china, cut glass, &c. They were numerous and very beautiful. Among them were a set of heirloom coin tablespoons presented to a former bride of the family in 1830 and never used. Two $1,000 checks, one from the bride's mother and one from the groom's father, were interesting presents.

The bridal couple by slipping down the back stairway managed to elude their friends who greatly desired to speed them on their way and stepping into an auto were driven to Terra Haute by F. R. Calvert. Before leaving for a trip east they lunched with a number of friends at the Terra Haute house.

$1.00

70X50 89c

70X50 $1.0

OX528 1.95

70X50 $1.50

70X508

WOMEN'S DRESSES

A Beautiful Home Wedding.

On Saturday night, August 29, about 50 immediate relatives and friends gathered at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Petheram in Minshall to witness the marriage of their daughter, Sarah, to John W. Thompson, both of the Minshall neighborhood.

Promptly at 7 o'clock Miss Grace Hopper was seated at the organ and began playing the Bridal March from Lohengrin. The parlor door was opened and Rev. Maris walked into the sitting room where the guests were assembled, followed by George Petheram brother of the bride, and Miss Mabel Thompson, sister of the groom. Rev. Maris officiated in the beautiful ring ceremony and pronounced them man and wife. After congratulations the guests were invited to the dining room where a large table was prepared with all the delectable dainties that excellent cooks could devise, and to say the least, ample justice was done to this part of the program.

The bride was beautifully attired in Persian lawn and is one of Minshall's most highly respected young ladies, an active worker in the church and Sunday school, a faithful member of the Aid society and at present Most Excellent Chief of Silver Leaf temple, Pythian Sisters at Bridgeton. The groom was attired in the usual black and stands high in the community as an honorable and upright young man. The room was beautifully decorated with streamers attached to the center of the ceiling and extending to either side of the room forming a canopy of blue and white. Quite a number of beautiful and useful presents were given by the friends. The guests were entertained by vocal and instrumental music until a late hour, when they departed, wishing the bride and groom a long, happy and peaceful journey thru life. A Guest.

The quiet wedding of Lillie Newlin to William Strickler occurred last Wednesday evening at the bride's home in Indianapolis in the presence of about 14 guests. Myrtle Osborn played the wedding march and furnished the music for the evening. A rice supper was spread and everything past off very nicely. Several useful presents were received. The bride and groom were born and lived near Marshall until recently. Mr. and Mrs. Strickler have the best wishes of Marshall and community friends who hope for them a happy life voyage.

Killed by Lightning.
Our Parkeville correspondent sends this fuller account of the accidental death of Alex Lamb, reported in the Guion letter:

Alex Lamb was instantly killed by lightning during the electric storm last Friday about noon near Guion, where he was at work assisting in hay making on the farm of Jesse Strong. He was going to the barn with a couple of mules, riding one of them which was also killed. His widowed mother lives at Rosedale and he was a brother of Fred Lamb of Judson from whence the funeral took place, Saturday. He was buried at the Judson cemetery. He was a single man and had been working for the Strong's a couple of years.

By Z. D. Maris, Dec. 24, at the home of the bride's mother in Rockville, Harry Hunt and Bertha Boyd, both of Rockville.

Obituary

Edith Webb, daughter of Harry and Laura Webb, was born June 12, 1883, and departed this life Feb. 12, 1909, age 25 years and 8 months.

She was married to Pearl Mater May 25, 1904, and to this union was born one son, Jesse P., now 3 years of age.

Altho not a member of any church she told her friends all was right. She suffered patiently all thru her afflictions. Father, mother and two sisters waited sadly thru the last moments. The father and mother of the lonely companion came back home and remained to the last, giving the paternal devotion which only true fathers and mothers know how to give. She was a loving companion, a devoted mother and a kind neighbor. She will be sadly missed but we feel that our loss is her eternal gain. Sleep on, dear Edith, until the resurrection morn where we all hope to meet you in that "home, sweet, home."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Airhart, after which she was laid to rest in the Mt. Moriah cemetery.

French tucks and insertings of Goulpe lace; back cluster pin tucks, attached collar and 3/4 length sleeves are also tucked; button back; sizes 32 to 44. Price... $2.25

Black with clas-and button bottoms, attached with gauze of waist, to 44... $2.25
new model either white beautifully deof French effect and in-back clas-attached collar finished with stitch body of
to 44... $2.25
new and ex-all-wool Bot-ling shirt, in red and light back and front
each side plait;
of front plait;
cuffs and new finished with of same ma-table soft collar and that open 2 to 44... $2.25
Same style as black or white
..... $1.95
No. 70X527B. Same style as above in white linen. $1.95
No. 70X528. A very desirable and effective new Tailored Model of All-Wool Nuns' Velling in either clever four down tated side, tucked
and cuffs of new sleeves tucked.
This waist can be ordered either open front or back;
sizes 32 to 44. Price... $1.95
No. 70X529. A very new and stylish Scotch Plaid Granite Cloth Waist, in a pretty combination of navy, red and green plaids, also in white; front with two 1-1 side plait; ornamented and buttons; stitched colves and cuffs pearl buttons;
size 32 to 44.
..... $1.95
very hand-Nuns' Vell-the front ef-red with pin dots, French and hem-dotted back;
finished with lined cuffs; stitched stock white, light open front;
Price... $1.95 extra good the Waist, or white; ently designed tucking and plaits; plaited collar, and with tucked open front; Price $1.95
very new dressy model white (white front elabowith a and attached ch Val lace; embellished dots, French dots, back sews finished cuffs; open
..... $3.50
and dainty "Velling in front declusters of insertings of Goulpe lace; back cluster pin tucks, attached collar and 3/4 length sleeves are also tucked; button back; sizes 32 to 44. Price... $2.25

70X52
89c

70X502
$1.00

70X528
$1.95

70X532
$3.50

70X5
$1.50

508 50

Obituary.

32 Lealie Edith Martin, second daughter of John M. and Catharine Martin, was born in Union township, Parke county, Aug. 7, 1871. She departed this life, Tuesday, Feb. 23, 1909, at the age of 34 years, 6 months and 16 days.

Lealie grew up with exalted views of all that was noble and good. There was never a cloud to chase away the sunshine of her beautiful life. In the winter of 1885-'86 when only a little girl of 11 years, she united with the United Brethern church at Farmer's Chapel, where she lived a consistent member, until in the year of 1908 she removed her membership to the Missionary Baptist church at New Discovery where she lived a devoted member until her death.

She was united in marriage to Rarie Collings March 3, 1892. To this union were born eight children, all of whom survive her but an infant who died in the year 1907. Just in the morning of her life the Heavenly Father called her home to meet loved ones gone before. Truly her sun went down in the morning of her life and she fell asleep here on earth to awake in Heaven. We call this dying, but Christians do not die. They only go from one of God's rooms to another for Christ has said, "In my father's house are many mansions if it were not so I would have told you: I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am ye may be also."

Lealie has only stopped living here in this world and has gone to live with Jesus in heaven, where there is no more pain, no sin, nor sorrow.

She was a good neighbor, an affectionate wife and a kind and loving mother, always taking great interest in her home life. A long lapse of time will pass before her visit to earth will be forgotten by father, mother, brother, sisters and especially by her children and by the many relatives and friends, who held her in such high esteem.

Has Lealie's light gone out? No, it is only out here but beyond the grave is eternal light and life evermore. It is brighter than ever. Is as blessed to shine here, but more blessed to shine in heaven. It can shine farther and brighter there. "For we know that all things work together for good to them that love the Lord."

She leaves a father, mother, two sisters, one brother, husband, seven children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss but their loss is her eternal gain.

No. 70 Ch not qu die des tac lace pflg. Fro whi flon dem shlr Val 32
No. 70 exs whlt a ve from tuck is Val. mot tact and back
No. 70 sola mod hand inset onth tuck tact med ton
No. 702 Orler throt desig yoke and with and collar shoy yoke: Price
No. 70X Plaid all ti lugs, green green ored Frem side effect gilt t tucks piped stock with pipin
No. 70X White silk, pin Val. blouse with net a taches length lace 32 to
No. 70X fine of variety beauti destlin season with French bow ti 6-inch sizes 3
No. 70X5 Cluny new through yoke with bodice, of new med to sizes 32 to

Obituary.

Raymond Farris Bain, son of John and Cora Bain, was born April 27, 1899, near Bellmore and died at the home in Tangier, Feb., 13, 1909, age 9 years, 9 months and 16 days, leaving a mother, four sisters and five brothers to mourn his death.

Three years ago the grim reaper death visited this family, robbing them of the protection and guidance the dear husband and father, John Bain who died April 7, 1906.

Raymond was of a cheerful, affectionate disposition making friends wherever he went.

At the age of 3 or 4 years it was noticed that he was not as strong as other children, and altho he had all the care and love that willing hands could give, this developed until he was deprived of the free use of his limbs. While he could not join his little friends in their games, there was never a time when he did not enjoy their company, and the bright, patient little hero that he was never complained but enjoyed their pleasures to the fullest.

Altho we will see his cheerful face among us no more the influence of his short life will live on helping us to be more cheerful, patient and kind.

All health that heretofore has been denied All happiness, all hope, and all beside. Of childish longing, now he clasps and keeps. In voiceless joy—the little boy that sleeps—in Jesus.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by the Rev. Noah Dixon, Sunday afternoon at 4 P. M. The little body was taken to Russellville for interment, Monday.

70X552 5.00 70X $2.

70X $3.

70X556

70X557

Obituary.

5.90

Albert Wesley Wallace, the little son of Charley and Ellen Wallace, was born November 18, 1908, and departed February 22, 1909, age 3 months, 4 days.

Altho deserted by one who knows not the sweetness of true fatherhood he was cared for by the young and tender mother and grandparents. Everything that loving hands could do was done, but without avail. The sweet one will be greatly missed out Jesus says, "Suffer the little ones to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of heaven."

Funeral services were held at Liberty Baptist church at 11 a. m. Rev. Z. D. Maris and the angel baby was laid to rest at Friendly Grove cemetery.

70X5 5.0

Cuthbert to His Friends.

To the Editor—Sir:—As I am about to make another move you will please send The Republican to Jefferson, Ore., instead of this office. Jefferson is a small town, 16 miles from Salem, the state capital. My son Courtland now lives over at Oakland across the bay from here, but will move to Jefferson also. I have a ranch at that place. We will set out an orchard this fall of two or three thousand fruit trees, mostly peaches as they come in bearing full crop in two years, a sure crop, quite profitable and there is always a ready market for them. As for myself, I do not expect to be able to do any of the work, as I am quite tottery and feeble again. My health has been very poor for the last six months. I have been to the top of the ladder and now am about down to the bottom rung, it seems to me, and at most any time I feel that I will have to hand in my checks, step down and out. I will add, I am ready at any time the Lord says come. My son Court will oversee the ranch for me and I will sit around and boss, as I cannot be on my feet long at a time.

I have a nice home here in San Francisco. I will leave my wife with it to sell and then she will go to Jefferson also. I and my brother Charles have quite a tract of fine timber land in Washington, which is quite valuable and is increasing in value daily as timber is getting to be a serious matter and quite scarce.

Now in a few days it will be eight years since I left Hollandsburg, Parke county, but to me it does not seem four, so many things to draw attention. To me the great ocean has got as common to look on as Big Raccoon to you people. My home here is between the ocean and bay and one can see either from my house. I have only lived 18 months at any one place since coming to the Pacific coast. The old saying is "a rolling stone gathers no moss," but I must say not so in my case. I have been quite successful and have gathered some little and if I was young I think I could make all kinds of money.

We still have a nice little shake-up right often in the way of an earthquake, but they have got so common we pay no attention to them, only when a dish is knocked down and broken and then the housewife growls a little.

No doubt you have been reading about our corrupt city, the bribe givers and bribe takers and the dynamiting of Galliger's fine mansion in Oakland, a witness against the united railroad man Calhoun of this city. If this is not anarchy I do not know what to call it.

WOMEN'S DRESSES

I see by The Republican you Parke county people get the new Tuberculosis hospital for which I congratulate you. I also hope you will get those railroads you speak of. You people will have to dig up and be liberal to get these enterprises. It takes money to make the mare go.

I will close wishing you success and best wishes for all my many friends of old Parke.
W. H. Cuthbert.
San Francisco, Cal., June 2.

Women's Black Pean... a very smart and... effectively de... a pin tucked vest... side platts form... which is ornamented... scallops and silk... back; new sleeve... a deep tucked cuffs;... with turnover and... front; sizes 32 to... $2.95
Women's Black Soft... a Waist, a very... active new model;... with graduated... oles and clusters of... forming full blouse... back; new sleeves... tucked gannet... cuff; stock collar; open front;... sizes 32 to 44. Price... $2.95
Note.—This waist can be had

Obituary.

Elizabeth Emma Steele was born Feb. 24, 1833, and departed this life Feb. 10, 1909, at the age of 75 years, 11 months and 17 days.

She was born in the city of Dublin, Ireland, and at the age of 18 came with her father, Samuel Steele, and two sisters to America and lived in New York city.

She was married to Robert Henry Peare Dec. 30, 1852. To them were born 12 children, 8 of whom with their father had gone on before and were ready to welcome her at the "pearly gates."

Nearly 35 years ago she was the means of the family moving from New York city to Indiana, her sole aim being to have her boys reared far from the temptations of a great city. This state has been her home ever since, the last 11 years having been past in Parke county.

She loved the home of her adoption and especially enjoyed the beauties of the rural life.

She was reared in the Methodist church, her maternal grandfather being called to preach by its pioneer, John Wesley.

She joined the church in 1876 and was converted at the same time and has ever since been a devoted Christian, trying to do her duty as she saw it. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy" was to her a commandment.

Christian church officiating.

She is survived by 5 daughters and 2 sons—Mrs. Horace McCarty, Mrs. Mattin, Mrs. Isaac Keltner, Mrs. W. Harrison, Mrs. William Glasson, Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. Samuel Chesser, and Mrs. Grace and Charley Kent.

Women's Wrappers... ed cashmere, made in... handsome model and ef... trimmed with lace in... wide edge; colors... and black; sizes... $5.50

Women's Wrappers... dette, good quality... very neat patterns; ex... skirt and prettily tail... at; colors gray, navy... and black; 34 to 46... 29c

No. 72X282, Women's Wrappers... of German flannel, excellent... quality, and in a pretty variety... of patterns on light blue, gray... wide... waist... $1.95

Fred Odell and Miss Margaret Crooks were married by Rev. O'Brian at the parsonage last Wednesday evening.

House... Sacques or dress... nelette, made in pretty kimono... style and effectively trimmed... with Persian border; colors... navy, gray, black; 34 to 46, 75c

70X552 $5.00
70X5 $2.95
70X577 $3.95
70X57 $3.5
70X582 $5.90

34

W Mrs. Edith Mater, wife of Pearl Mater, living five and a half miles southeast of Rockville, died last Friday, Feb. 12, age 25 years and 8 months. Mrs. Mater was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb of this place, and was born southeast of Bellmore June 12, 1883. She was married to Pearl Mater, May 25, 1904, and to this union was born one son, Jesse Pearl. Mrs. Mater had been in poor health for some time with lung trouble. The funeral was held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Mt. Moriah church conducted by Rev. Airhart of Roachdale. Burial in Mt. Moriah cemetery. She is survived by her husband and son and many relatives.

No. 7 Kn hea dou pen red 34

No. 7 Wo hgt stir cuff red 34 to 44

No. 72X252. Women's Knitted

Worsted Blouse Sweaters, made in jaunty double-breasted style, with turnover collar and cuffs. Colors white, red and black. Sizes 34 to 44. Handsome model. $2.25

Died—At her home in Judson, March 10, Mrs. Martha Peyton, after an illness of several weeks. "Aunt" Marth, as she was familiarly known, was held in high esteem, above all for her christian qualities in visiting and administering to the sick. The large concourse of relatives and friends that attended the last rites, was evidence of the above. Funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. Airhart, at Mt. Moriah Friday and interment in cemetery there.

No. 7 Wo ma col hea bel 34

No. 7 Wo fit out Same

No. 7
Gr Ver wit col als
black and white; sizes 34 to 44; handsome model. $1.75

No. 72X256. Women's Knitted

Worsted Blouse Sweaters, made high neck in very attractive collar. Colors white, red and black; sizes 34 to 44; very swagget. $3.50

No. 722

Knitted Wool Sweaters, made V neck in very handsome designs, pretty turnover cuffs and ribbed belt; colors white, red and black; sizes 34 to 44; very swagget. $3.50

No. 7
Kni ton coll butt navy pret

Died—At her home southeast of town, March 18, Katie Vanhuss of tuberculosis. Funeral was conducted here Friday and interment at Mt. Moriah.

children and by the many friends, who held her in such high esteem. Has Lealie's light gone out? No, it is only out here but beyond the grave is eternal light and life evermore. It is brighter than ever. Is it blessed to shine here, but more blessed to shine in heaven. It can shine farther and brighter there. "For we know that all things work together for good to them that love the Lord."

No. 70X
Blue or variet blath destin season with French bow th 8-inch sizes 3

No. 70X5
Cluny now through yoke with V bodice, of new med to sizes 32 to 44. Price. $5.90

72X251
$2.25

72X25
$1.75

72X259
50

Obituary

Melissa, daughter of William and Elizabeth Bullington, was born Jan. 3, 1846; died at her home in Hollandsburg March 21, 1909, age 63 years, 2 months, 18 days.

She was of a family of nine daughters and of the nine but three are living—Mrs. Ball of Hollandsburg, Mrs. Adams of Rogers, Ark., and a half sister, Mrs. Nevins of Rockville.

She was married to James O. Stout August 17, 1885. To this union were born two children—Ina and Parke, Ina having preceded her mother to that home above Sept. 3, 1901. Parke, having reached the age of 20 years, has lost a true, devoted, loving mother. No sacrifice was too great for her to make for the comfort and happiness of her darling boy, and our hearts go out in sympathy for him today. Not only was she a true mother to her own children but to the children of Mr. Stout's former marriage. She has helped to make and keep their father's home a home of love and comfort to them, and him, a home where they were always welcome and to Lawrence she indeed was a mother, for he knew no other, and in her sickness asked that some of the children might be with her as she seemed to realize it was her last and she often spoke of how good and kind her husband and the children were to her and said she did not feel she could ever repay them. Altho not a member of any church she professed a hope in Christ years ago, and was a firm believer in the Savior of the world, and of the doctrine taught by the Predestinarian Baptists. Thru all her sorrow and suffering her faith never wavered, submitting her will to His, knowing that all would be well in the "Sweet bye and bye." She leaves to mourn her departure a husband, one son 6 step-children, 10 step-grandchildren, 3 sisters and a host of relatives and friends, and we can say with the Psalmist, David of old, and by the teaching of our Lord and Master that we know that "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Airhart and Rev. S. K. Fuson at the Hollandsburg Baptist church, after which she was laid to rest in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Marriage Licenses.

Loran C. Hutton to Dessie Davies, both of Parke county.
Walter Settles to Pauline Owens, both of Parke county.

72X2
$1.5

X2
8

X2
55

72X2
$3.5

72X251

72 5

New York City—Fall

Obituary.

Floyd Bain Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, was born Oct. 3, 1898; died March 26, 1909, age 10 years, 5 months and 23 days.

Early in the morning of the fatal day, he went to the barn to attend to the lambs. After being gone longer than usual his father went to search for him and found him lying unconscious near one of the horse's feet. He lingered until 3:30 when he passed peacefully away. Floyd, as he was familiarly known was faithful to every charge, always ready to leave his play to obey any call from his parents. He was the pride of his mother's heart, obedient to his teacher, kind and loving to his schoolmates. He leaves his father and mother, brother and sister besides a host of friends and neighbors to mourn his sad and sudden death.

Altho Floyd is gone he still lives in our hearts and we know that his pure little soul is with the one who loves him far better than any earthly parent ever could love, but it is hard to think so now.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church at Hollandsburg last Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Interment at Mt. Moriah. Rev. C. O. Sherrill of Otterbein U. B. church officiated.

Obituary

Rebecca Sutton, daughter of William and Mary Sutton, was born in Union county, Ind., Oct. 19, 1826, died at her home near Parkeville, March 19, 1909, age 82 years and 5 months.

She was united in marriage to Josiah R. Davis in 1859, who departed this life in 1862.

She had been a member of the Christian church for 61 years, having been a faithful attendant until her health failed. Altho she had been afflicted for a number of years she bore her sickness with great patience. She was of a modest disposition always ready to do any act of kindness. A life well spent, what more can we say? Gone, yet living on, her noble life an inspiration for all that is good and holy. Shall we say come back to us? No, rather we will go to her, follow her path, to the great beyond.

She leaves to mourn her loss one sister, two brothers, one step-son and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by M. R. Burks at the home of the deceased Saturday. Burial in Bethany cemetery.

A Birthday Dinner.

A most delightful birthday dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sapp at their country home in Rough and Ready neighborhood last Sunday, the occasion being in honor of their daughter Ivah's 11th birthday. A surprise was planned and carried out completely. The honor guests were Ivah's classmates and teacher of the past school term. At the noon hour the 28 persons present enjoyed the bountiful three-course dinner prepared by the hostess. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Olin Nevins and Mrs. Emily Keeler. The children spent the afternoon in playing games and searching for Easter eggs which had been hidden in the grass for them. Ivah received several nice presents, among them a handsome Bible from her parents.

Rough and Ready, April 12.

6-7 35

WOMEN'S WRAPPERS

to which we describe here slouchy house make one feel should a pen to "drop artistic, up- as well as economy. We value the best we have ever offered.

No. 72X275. Women's House Sacques of German flannel, in handsome Persian patterns, bell, deep colors under; sizes 34 to 46. $1.25

Mrs. H. O. Brattian died at the home of her parents near Indian Springs, May 8. She was the wife of the pastor of the Christian church. They moved here last December. She had not been well for several years but her last illness began in January. Three small children are left motherless. Rev. Brattian has the sympathy of a host of friends here and elsewhere in this time of bereavement.

No. 72X278. Women's House Sacques of German flannel, good quality, in very pretty patterns on light blue, navy and gray grounds, made with sailor trimmed with novelty thered at back with very scricicable and de garment; sizes 34 to 46. $1.25

Mrs. Mary Kent, living one mile southeast of here who had been sick for 9 days with pneumonia, died early Sunday morning of heart failure. She was 68 years old, and was a woman loved by all who knew her. Funeral services were conducted at her home at 1 o'clock Monday, Rev. Barbro of the Christian church officiating. Burial in the Rowe cemetery near Nyesville. She is survived by 6 daughters and 2 sons - Mrs. Horace McCarty of Catlin, Mrs. Isaac Keltner, Mrs. W. P. Harrison, Mrs. William Glasson, Mrs. Alex. Hooker, Mrs. Samuel Chesser, Wallace and Charley Kent.

Women's Wrappers of flannelette, in beautiful designs, on navy, gray and black skirts cut very full bounce and waist trimmed with satin; sizes 34 to 46. $1.50

Women's Wrappers of cashmere, made in handsome model and trimmed with lace in wide edge; colors navy and black; sizes 34 to 46. $3.50

Women's Wrappers of flannelette, good quality, in neat patterns; ex-skirt and prettily tailored; colors navy and black; sizes 34 to 46. $1.95

No. 72X282. Women's Wrappers of German flannel, excellent quality, and in a pretty variety of patterns on light blue, gray wide waist satin $1.95

Fred Odell and Miss Margaret Crooks were married by Rev. O'Brian at the parsonage last Wednesday evening.

Women's Wrappers of flannelette, made in pretty kimono style and effectively trimmed with Persian border; colors navy, gray, black; sizes 34 to 46. $1.95

72X281 $1.50

72X277 98

72X276 550

72X275 3.50

72X282 $1.95

72X280 59

WO EID GAI

Obituary.

Margaret Irene Wilson, little daughter of John and Sarah Wilson, was born in Parke county, Aug., 27, 1907, and departed from this life Monday May 31, 1909, at the age of 1 year, 9 months and 4 days.

Her sickness was of many days duration she having been ill since last Christmas. Our hearts are filled with sadness and we cannot understand why such a happy home should be made so sad by taking the bright light that cast sun shine into the lives about her, but God in his wisdom knew best and has taken her across the mystic river, away from sorrow and pain, where she will be waiting to welcome father, mother, brother, and friends home to that and of fadeless beauty and where we will part with her no more. Just another golden sheaf has been garnered from out the golden grain by the angel reaper who comes as gently as the wings of Heaven. It has been taken to a land of eternal summer where all is fair and bright, and where no storm clouds ever gather. We shall find it garnered there.

Margaret has gone to be a treasure in our Father's kingdom where she shall shine in wondrous beauty safe thru all eternity. She has gone into that peaceful slumber which shall hold thru all the busy change of hours: she has gone into that sweet rest where all pain and sorrow have vanished with the night. Her spirit now walks in Glory light. She was "But a lovely blooming flower, a frail smiling solace of the hour," but the Lord had the need of this floweret and He has taken it to transplant; where it shall bloom in fields of light. Not in cruelty and wrath did the reaper come but 'twas just an angel visited this green earth and took this tiny flower away where we shall find her again in the fields of light above, for Christ has said, "Suffer little children to come unto me for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

She leaves a grandfather, grandmother, father, mother, a brother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

The funeral service was held at Farmers Chapel, June 1 at 1:30 p. m. Interment at the Martin cemetery, Rev. C. O. Sherrill officiating.

Married For Third Time.

David Shirk, a wealthy farmer living near Kingman, Fountain county, indulged in his third matrimonial venture yesterday, when he was married to Miss Mary Clore of Waveland at the Hotel English. Attorney W. D. Headrich, who was formerly a minister, performed the ceremony.

Mr. Shirk's new bride is fifteen years younger than himself. He has grown children. Yesterday morning he slipped away from his family in Fountain county, met the bride at New Ross, and came to Indianapolis.

"Not a single member of my family has ever dreamed of this marriage," he said, "and I'll bet I'll not get off with less than $5 worth of treats when I get home."—Friday's Indianapolis Star.

Death of P. D. Johnson.

Phleming D. Johnson, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the eastern part of the county, died at his home in Bellmore Sunday morning, in his 87th year. He was highly respected and in his younger days served at times as assessor and trustee of Green township where he spent most of his life.

Funeral services were held at Hollandsburg Tuesday. Interment at Mt. Moriah cemetery.

By Justice Bryant, May 29, Joseph V. Phipps and Cordia Alberta Ball, both of this county

Several from here attended the funeral of Mildred Rainbolt at Judson Tuesday. The family have the sympathy of the community.

Marriage Licenses.

James I. Norman of Parkeville to Delia Whitted of Judson.

72x30 Cecil Harlan of Bloomingdale to 98 Mary Thomas of Judson.

Mrs. Bert VanHuss of Greene township died of typhoid fever Monday.

No. 72X
Saque down, lar, satin alk and H

No. 72X
Saque elder with no sles tily t of bl with red, g 34 to

No. 72X of fin extra ed co pocke blas frogs red, g 34 to

No. 72X
very hande beaut ed bu worst trim comf house

No. 72X of fl made kimo beat black frogs red, 34 to

No. 72
Saque down point pliqu and and gray 34 to

No. 72
Saque elder salle pliqu and gray 34 to

No. 72
Saque down croc color blue

No. 72 chet are made of the best quality wool and crocheted by hand, with the finest quality peerless lamb's wool sole; colors red, light blue, black and pink; sizes 4 to 8. 98c

N IN GA LU
TH AN

72x
1X
90.

7
$

72x 79

MISSES' AND GIRLS' WEAR

EVERY DRESS, COAT OR JACKET IN OUR GIRLS' OR MISSES' DEPARTMENT IS SELECTED WITH THE SAME CARE AS IS USED IN OUR MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

WHY DO WE COMPLAIN?

(Contributed.)

Life to some seems naught but wo,
And oft we grumble that its thus and so,
Thinking not of the good, but always the bad,
Thus making our lives seem dark and sad.

How apt we are to often think,
As we walk besides troubled water's brink
And feel the warm touch of tears that flow,
That God is unjust to deal with us so.

While here below we meet and part,
How oft it causes an aching heart,
We meet alike our foe and friend,
As we wander on to our journey's end.

Oft times we pause and wonder why
We so often fail when hard we try
To live a life unbiased and true,
As we plod this weary journey thru.

When the problem is solved and the answer given,
We shall then learn from the judge in heaven
As he scans the path which we have trod
That too oft we've failed to trust in God.

Oh! weary pilgrim, let's take heart,
And hand in hand renew our start
To make of life what it ought to be—
Dear Lord, for help, we call on thee!

When our pathway seems the darkest,
And our faith in Thee is put to test,
When the darkest clouds hang low above us,
May we have unfading faith in Jesus.

"Yes I shall know my mother's face
Among that throng in white:
And we'll together walk the place
Where Jesus is the light.

Yes, I shall know my mother there,
Her sweet face I shall see,
And we shall praise God for his care
Thru all eternity."

WE LAY US DOWN TO SLEEP.

We lay us down to sleep,
And leave to God the rest:
Whether to wake and weep
Or wake no more be best.

Why vex our souls with care?
The grave is cool and low—
Have we found life so fair
That we should dread to go?

We've kissed love's sweet, red lips,
And left them sweet and red;
The rose the wild bee sips Blooms on when he is dead.

Some faithful friends we've found,
But they who love us best,
When we are under ground
Will laugh on with the rest.

No task have we begun
But other hands can take;
No work beneath the sun
For which we need to wake.

Then hold us fast, sweet death,
If so it seemeth best
To him who gave us breath
That we should go to rest.

We lay us down to sleep;
Our weary eyes we close;
Whether to wake and weep
Or wake no more. He knows.

WARRANTY ALSO ACCOMPANIES EVERY DRESS, COAT OR JACKET IN OUR GIRLS' OR MISSES' DEPARTMENT.

71X
$5

Man comes into this world without his consent; he leaves it against his will. In his infancy he is an angel; in his boyhood a devil. In his manhood he is everything from a cur up. In his duties he is a fool. If he is a poor man he is a poor manager and has no sense; if he is rich, he is dishonest but considered smart. If he is in politics you can't place him as he is an undesirable citizen. If he goes to church he is a hypocrite; if he stays at home from church he is a sinner. If he donates to foreign missions he does it for a show; if he doesn't he is a tightwad. When he first comes into this world everybody wants to kiss him; before he goes out they all want to kick him. If he dies young, there was a great future before him; if he lives to be of a ripe old age he is in the way and only living to save funeral expenses. This life is a funny road, but we all travel it just the same and get ours.

On that long journey Mrs. Evans had lost her first-born, a little girl of two years. Her words were always few when she told of it. "She took sick with fever of a Saturday noon, and we see right away that there wa'n't much to be done. The whole train camped there on the bank of the Truckee River. They was all mighty good to us. I can't ever forget how good they was to us, ner how the children 'd come and peep in the wagon and holler 'peck-a-boo, little Alice!'—but she'd jest lay there and turn her little hot face from side to side on my breast, and say 'Mother,' and moan, and say 'Mother' and moan again. I never put her out of my arms for a minute till they told me it was all over. That wa'n't the worst to bear though. It was to go on and leave her there—such a little, tender, skairt thing as she was, so afraid o' the dark and to be alone, and of every noise—and then to go on and leave her there alone on the bank o' the Truckee River, and to dream every night that I heard her crying and calling 'mother!'"

71X 205
$9.75

Be Ready.

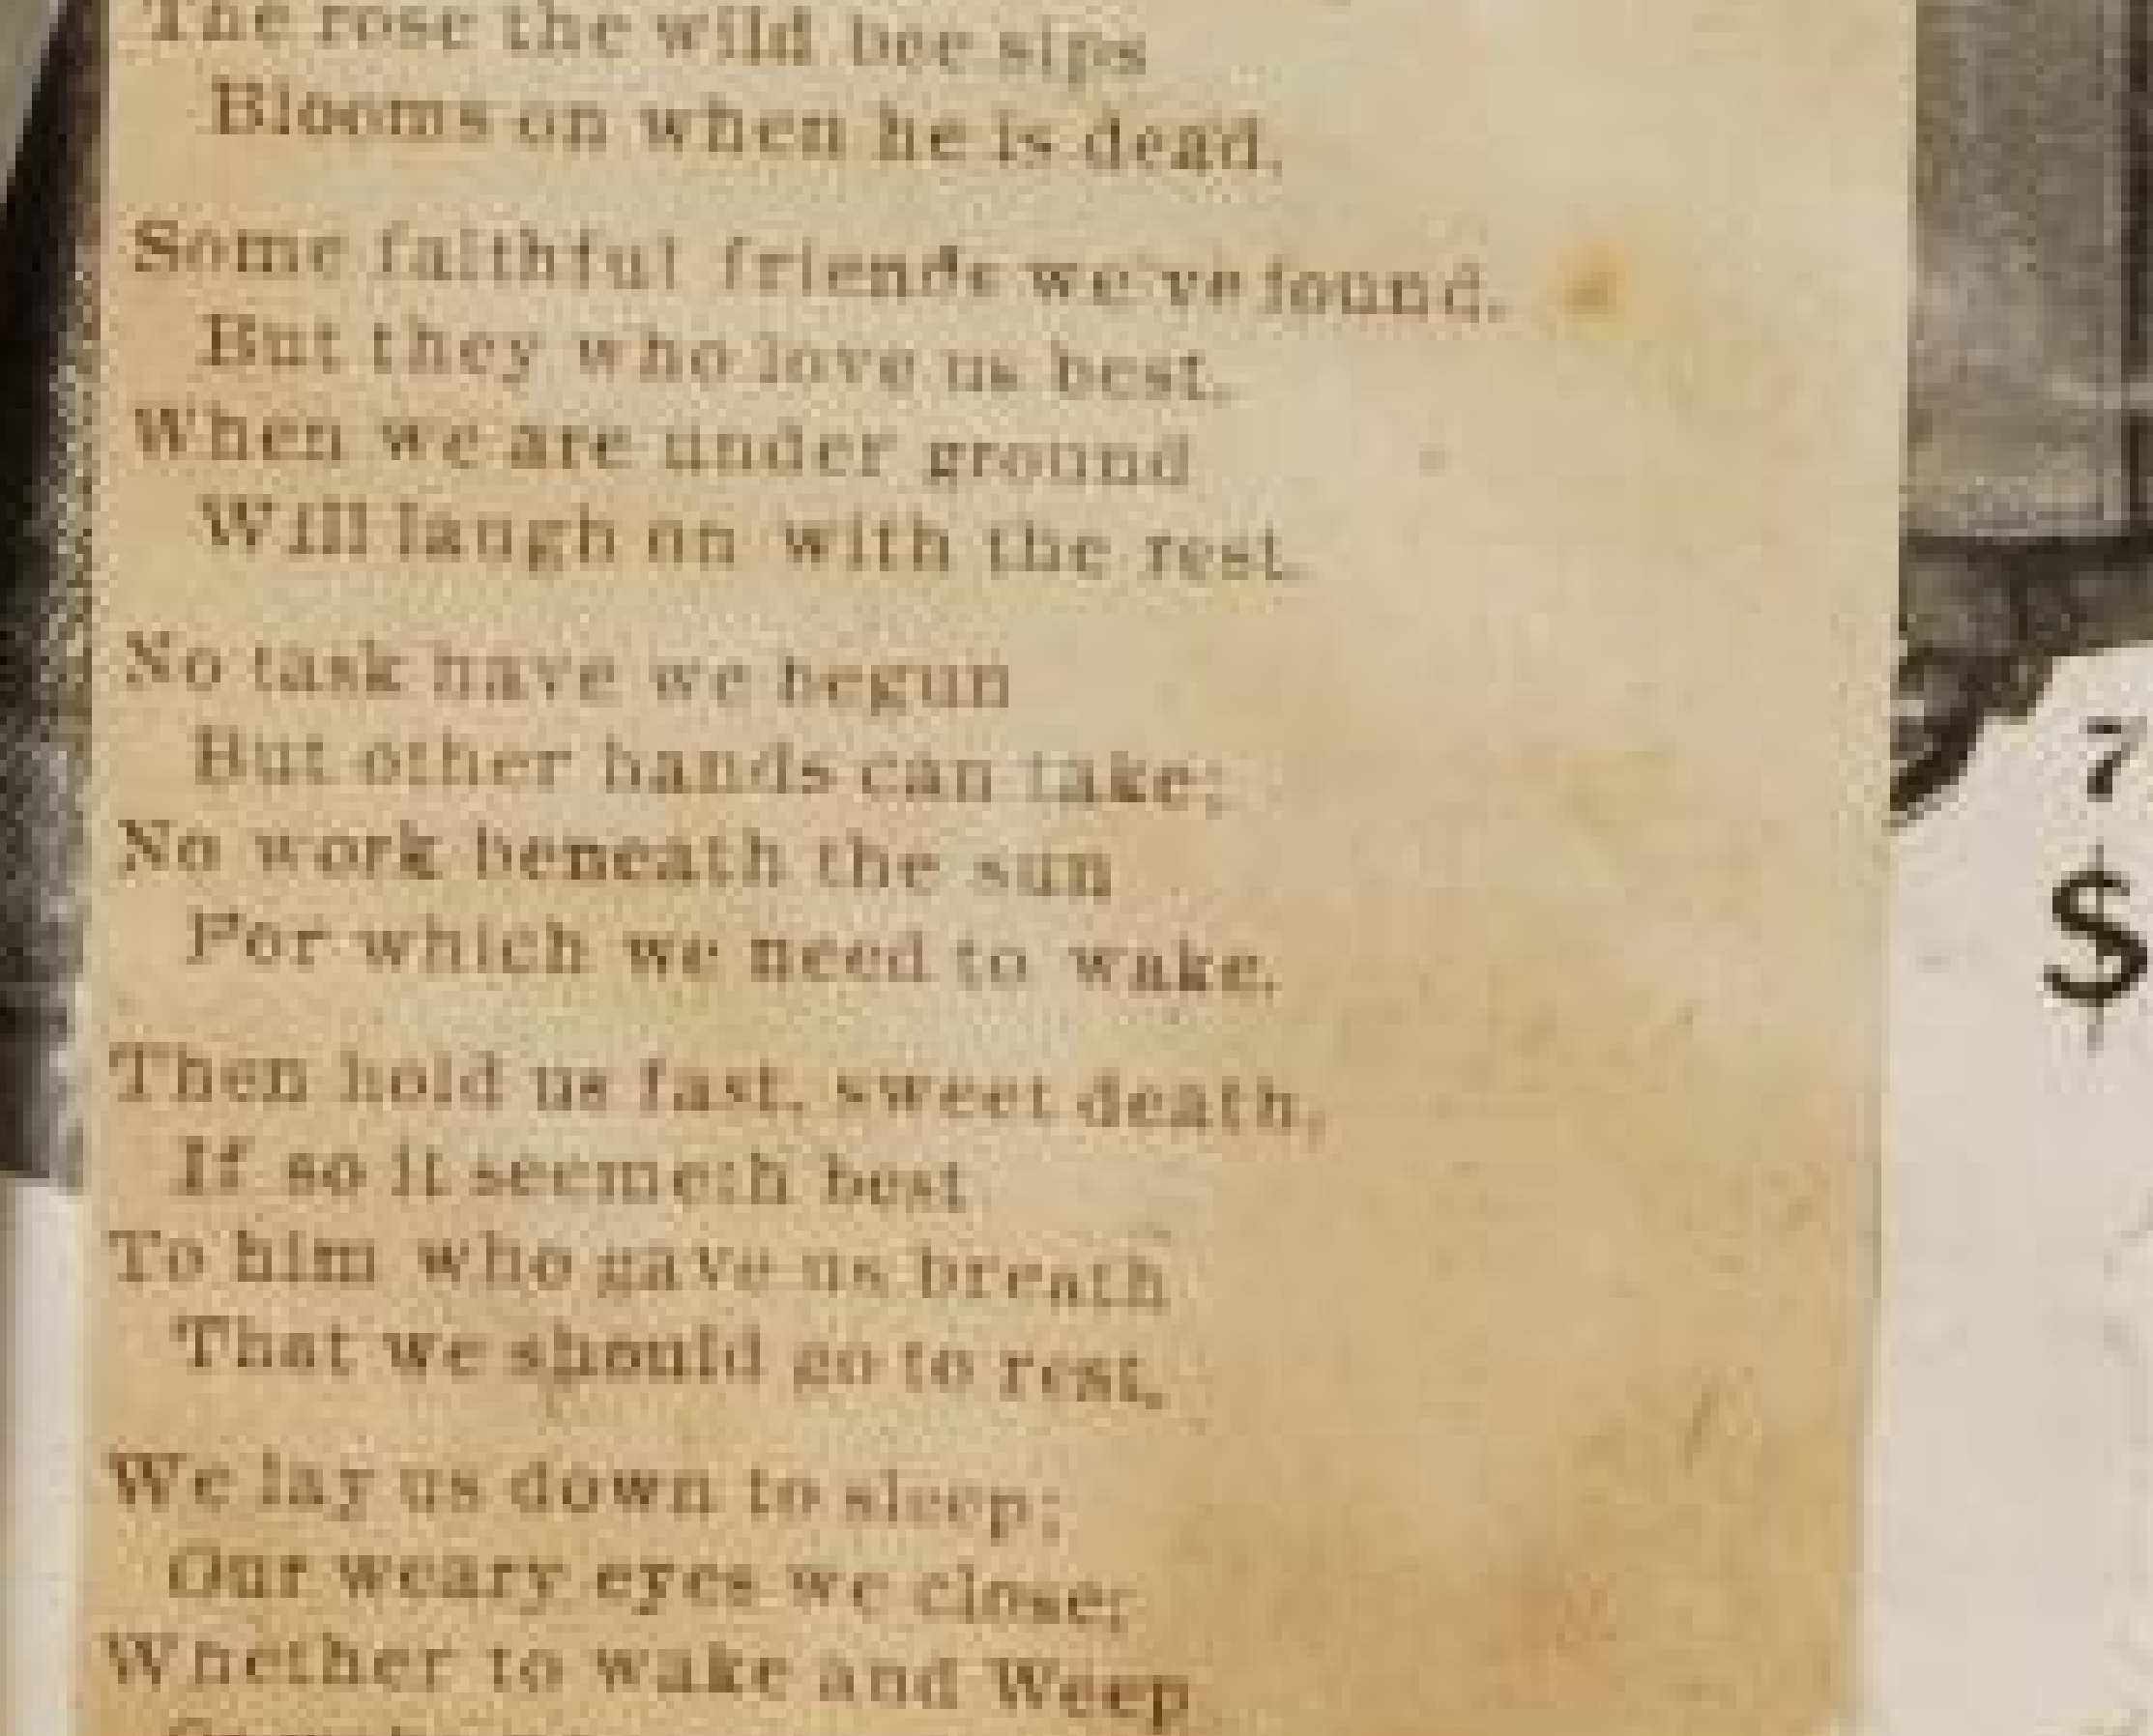

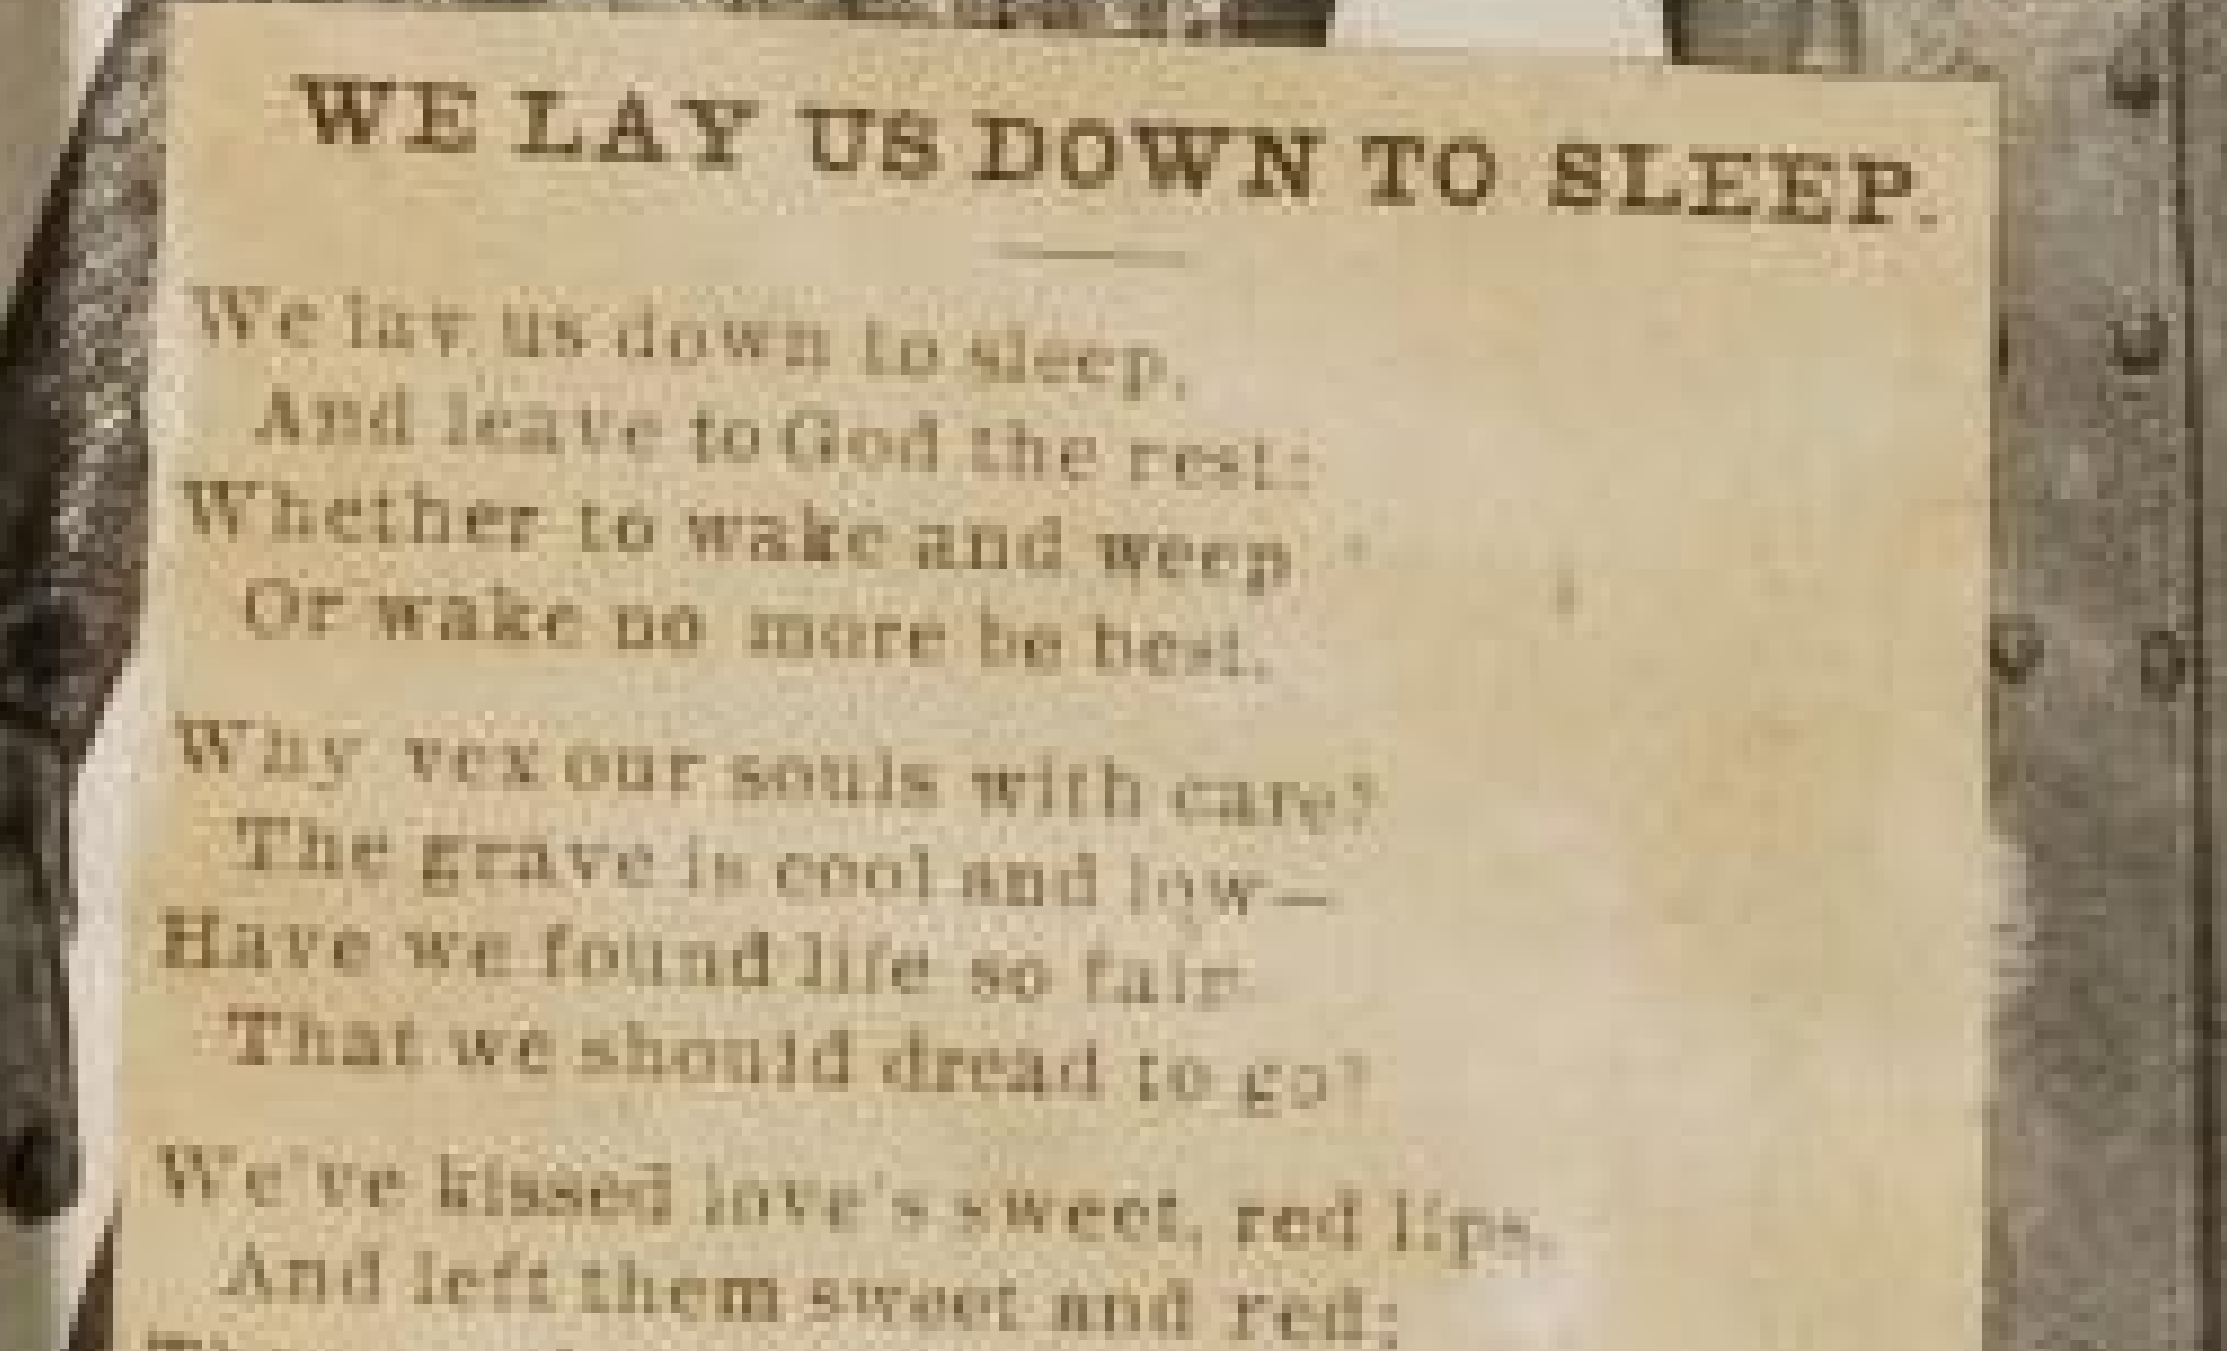

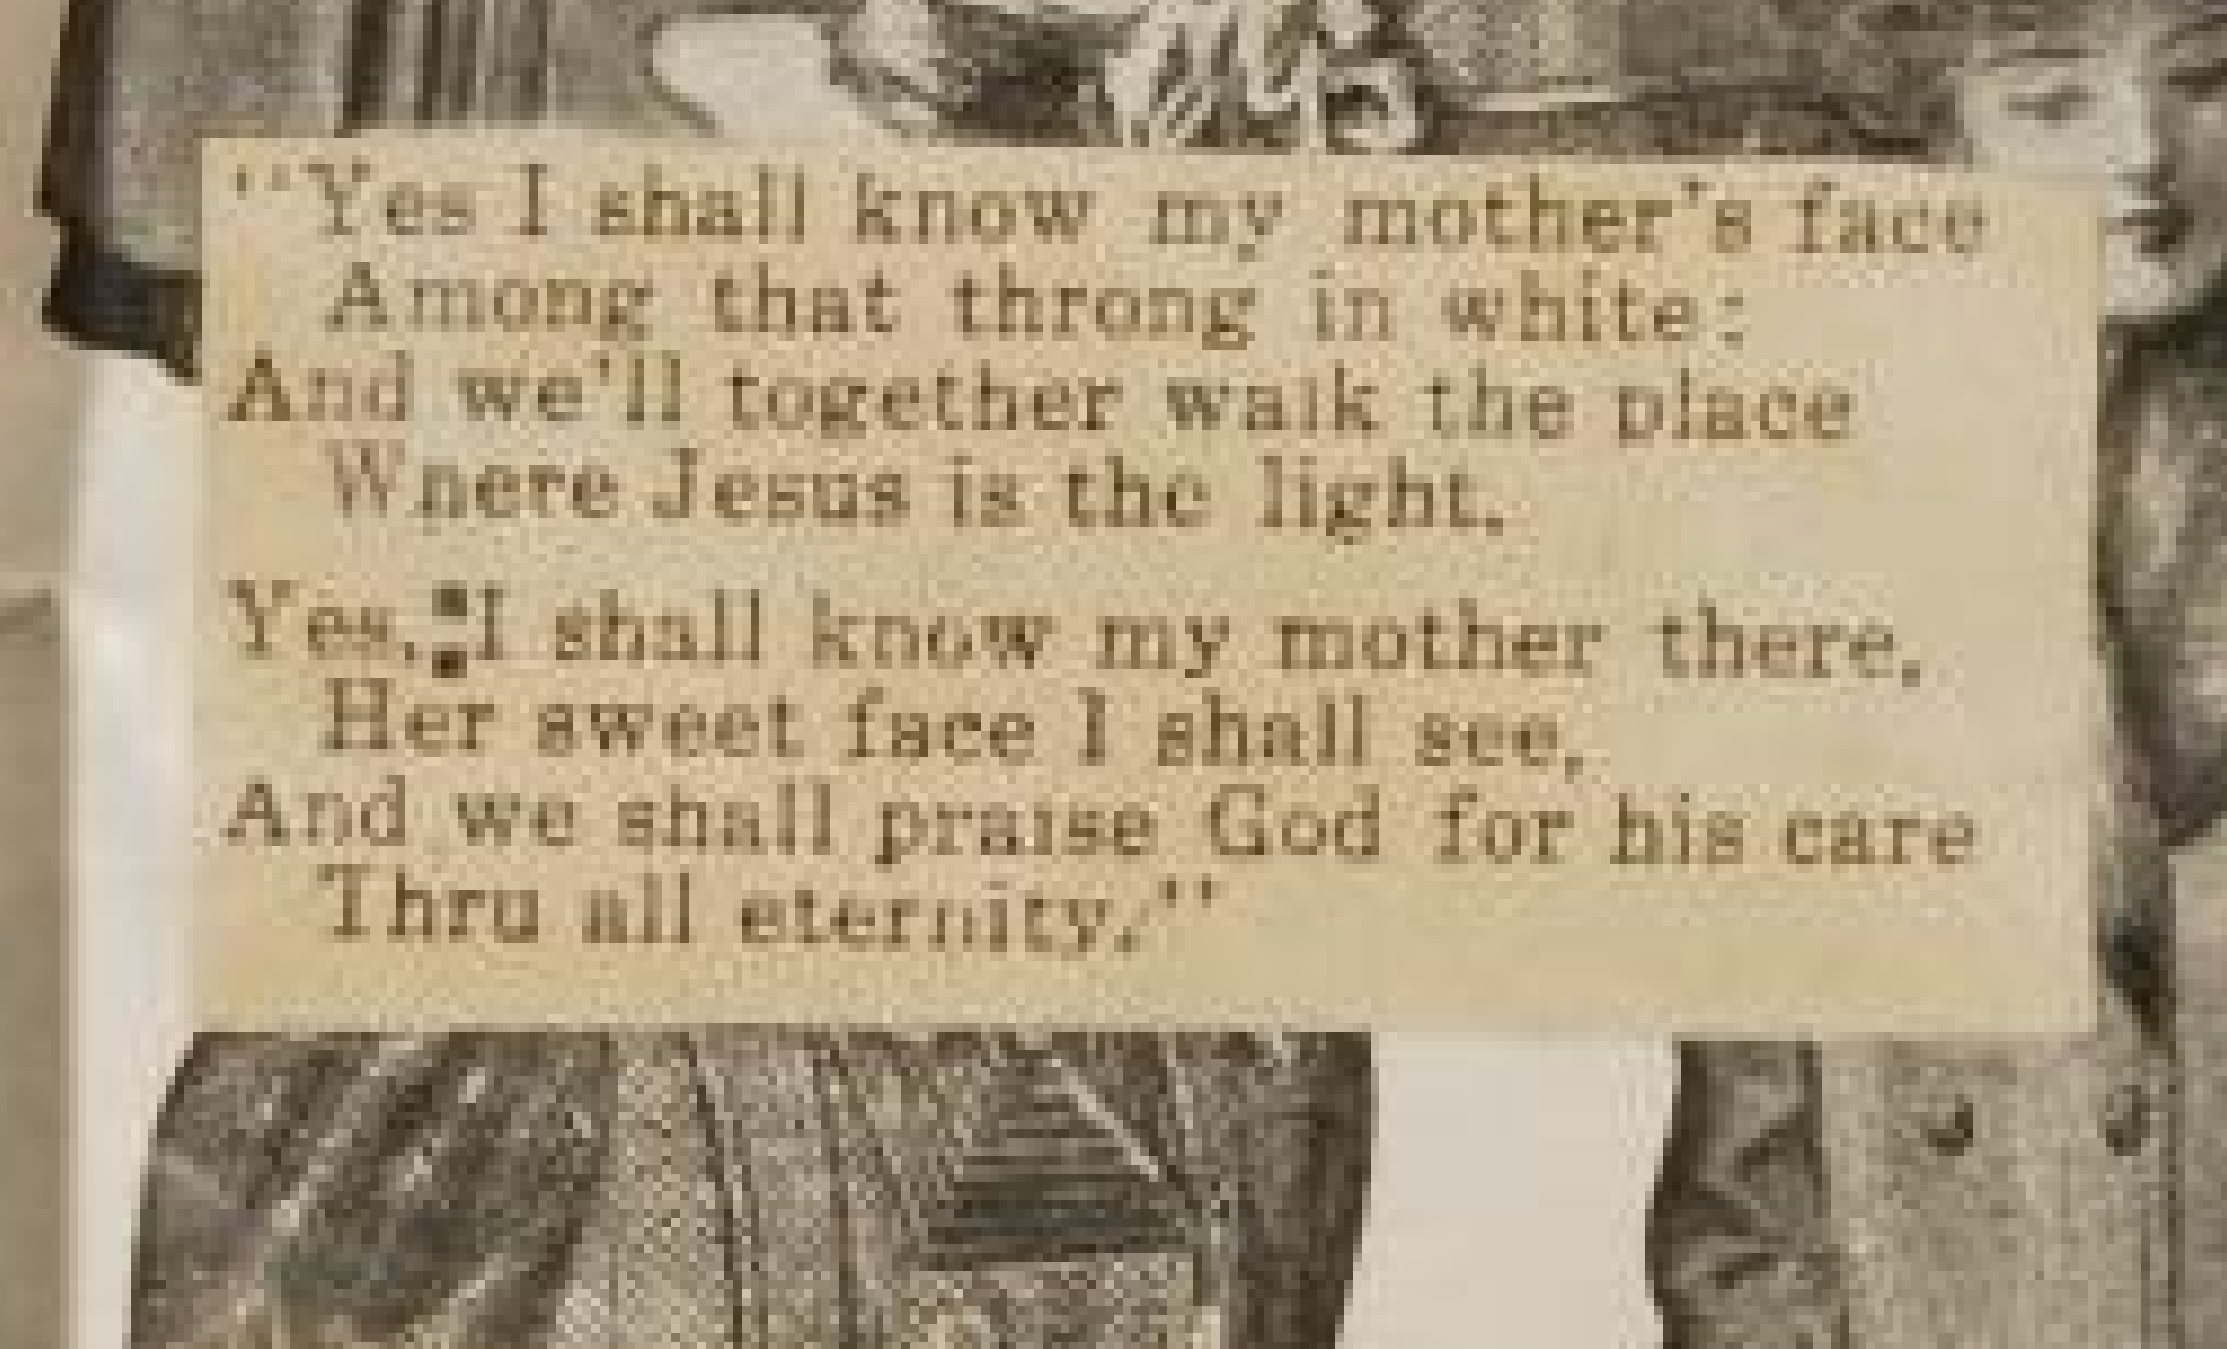

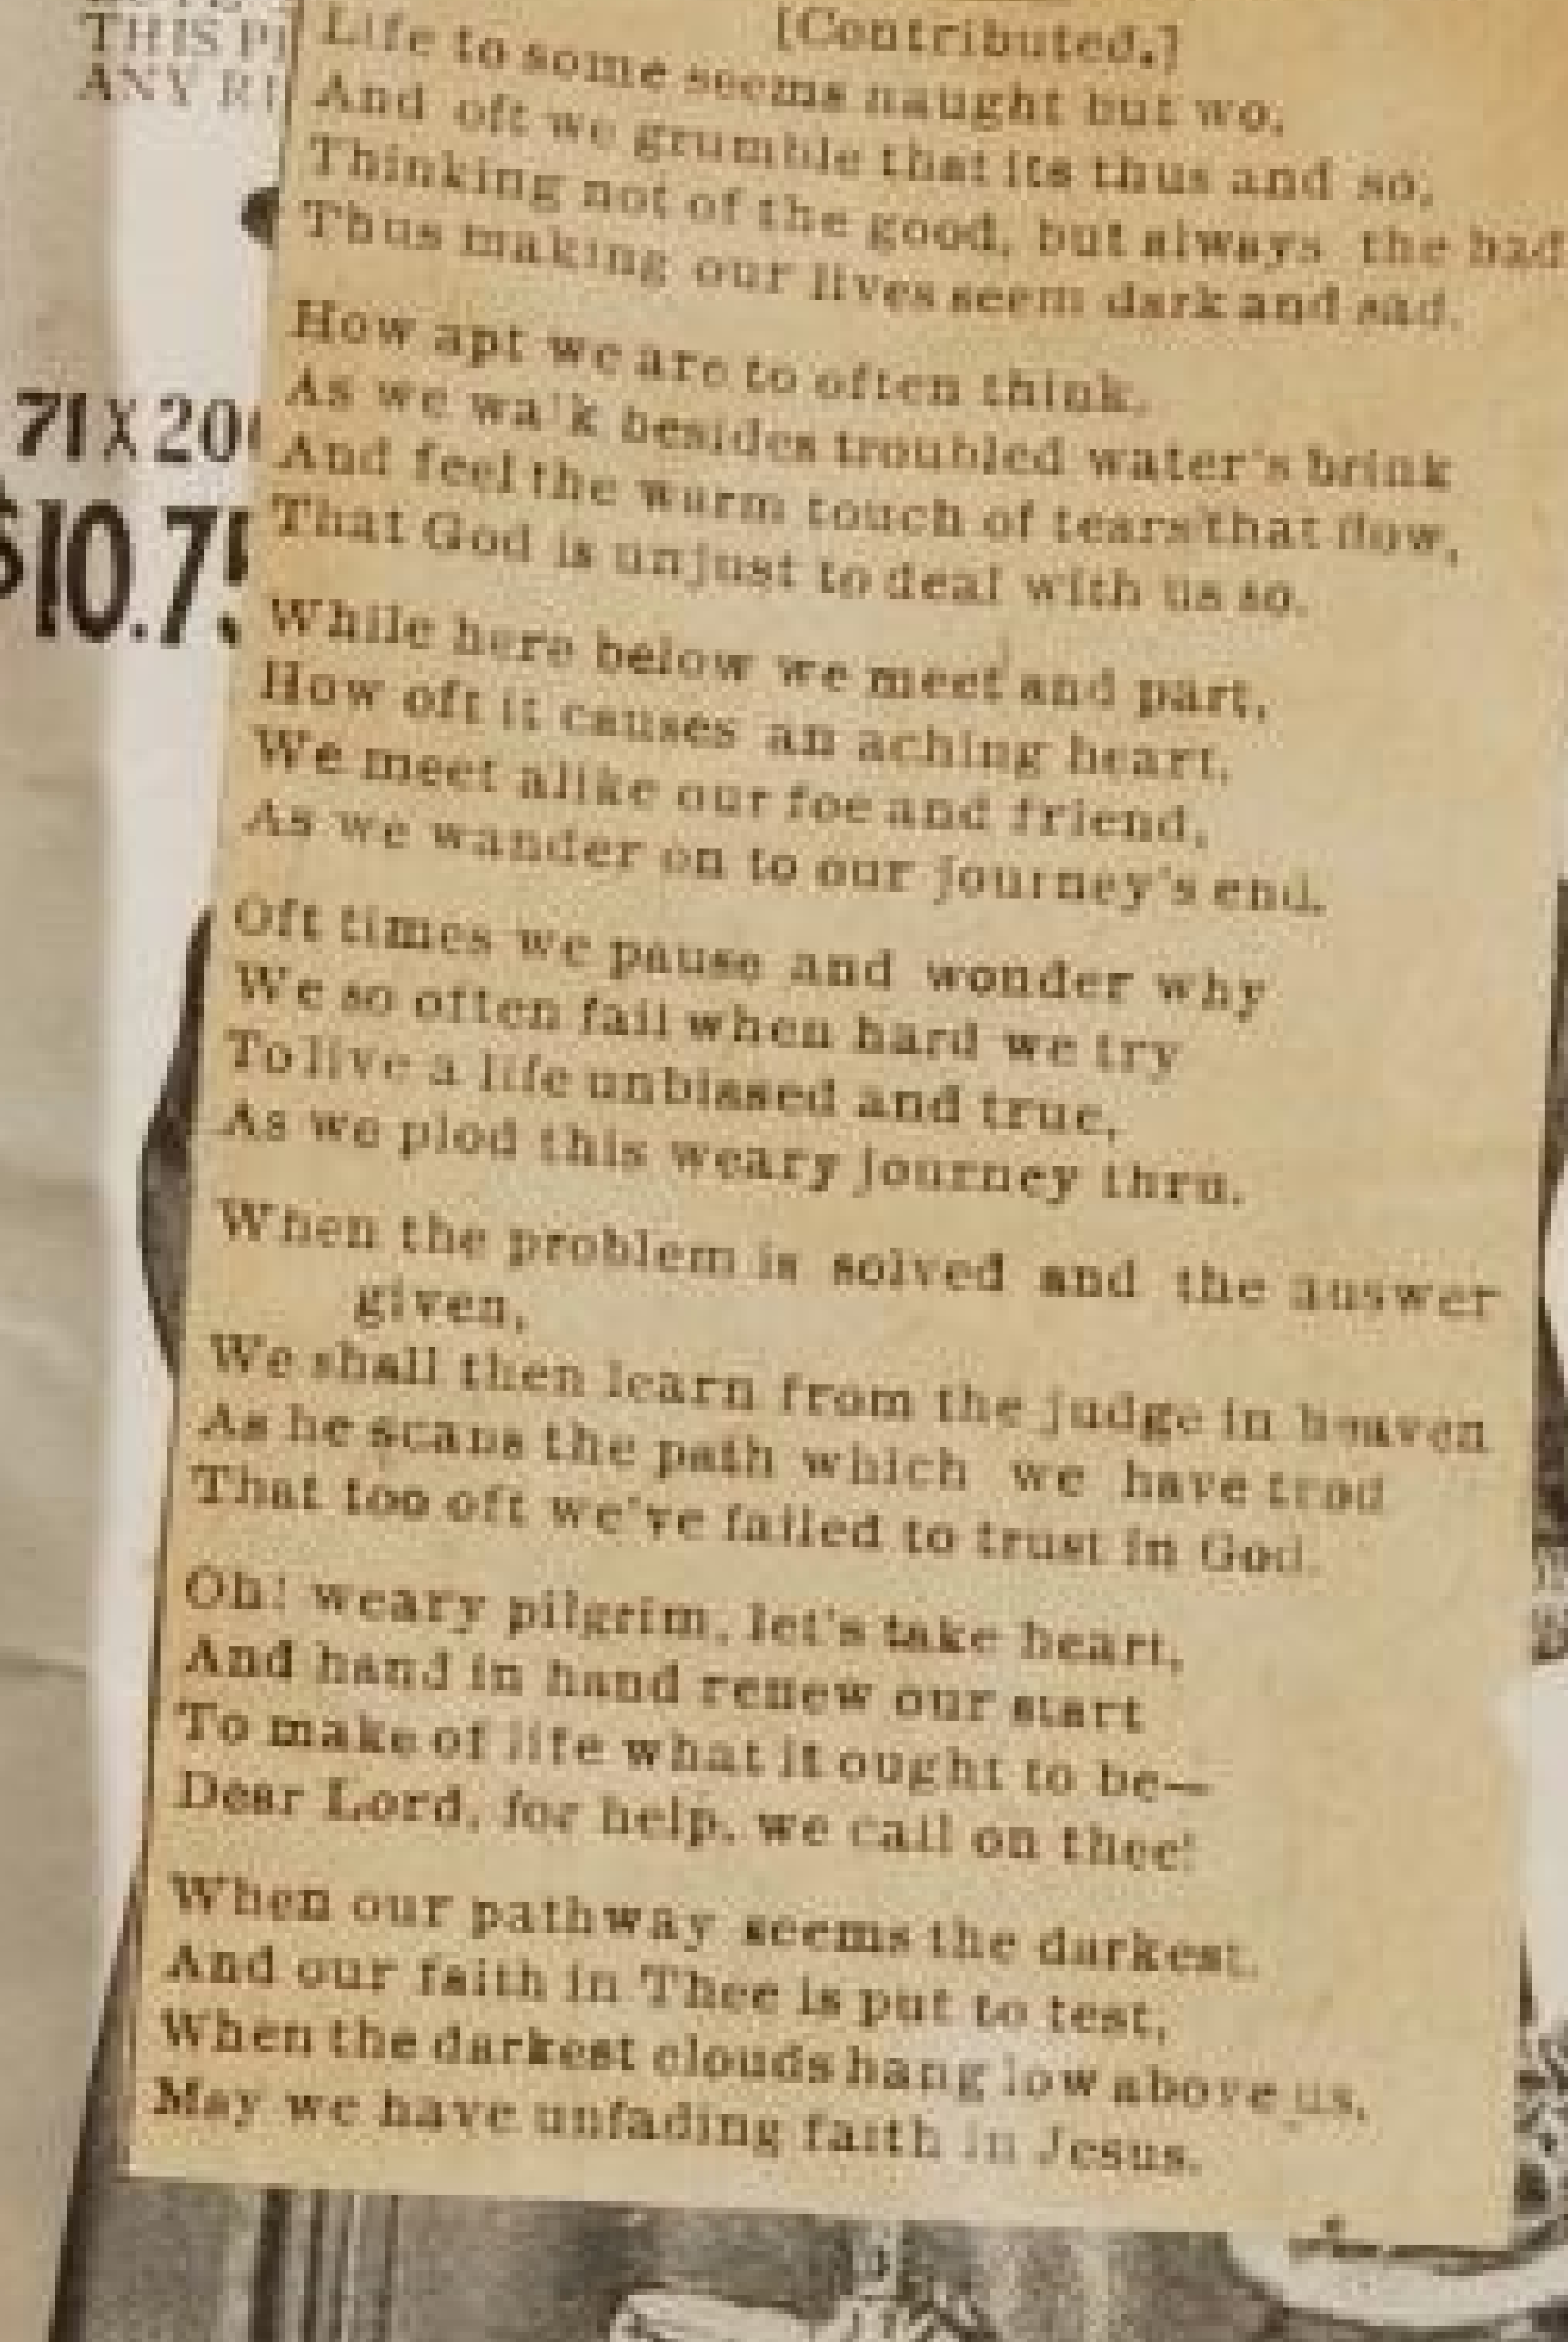

Many a boy has failed—it's true—
Not because he'd no chance to do,
But rather because, when the chance to him came,
He waen't prepared to make use of the same!
This old world of ours so active and steady,
Is not going to wait for a boy to get ready!
When she's a job for some fellow to do,
She's not going to stand and wait long for you!
There are other boys, p'raps on the very same street,
Who are ready and waiting to spring to their feet!
And while they're succeeding, all due to their pluck,
Don't go off complaining of having ill luck!
But if you'd succeed, too—get busy, keep steady,
For your time will come—and it pays to be ready.

—Adelbert F. Caldwell.

$10.00 quality all-style just front of three stitched forming jacket stitched strap side forms jacket effect front, effect with braid and ornamented with full box back;

stitched hands arm a deep strap forms back, unusual style;
red, brown, and oyster, $10.00 penities of the styles, guaranteed strictly rainproof, in assorted colors and styles, in tan, Oxford and olive...$7.50 up

IN OUR GARMEN... LUTE... THIS P... ANY R...
72X
9 72X
$
79

Obituary.
 Ida Myrtle, daughter of Wm. H. and Jane Sheets Cuthbert, was born Jan. 2, 1875, at Hollandsburg and died at the home of her brother, Dr. F. S. Cuthbert, at Kingman, Ind., Aug. 9, 1909, age 34 years 7 months and 7 days.

She was married to Franklin L. Cox July 26, 1897 and they lived happily together for 1 1/2 years when he was called to the home Beyond after a few hours illness. One child was given to this union—Franklin Cuthbert, who survives his mother. Her mother having past away in just a few months after the death of her husband and the father being in ill health, going to California, she and her son moved to Chicago to be with her brother while he was in school. Since then she has resided in that place being anxious to give her son a good education and herself being an instructor in music.

She was united in marriage to B. B. Tschischeck, June 17, 1909, who has been continuously by her bedside during her seven weeks illness. She leaves to mourn a broken hearted husband, one son, an aged father, two brothers and a host of friends.

A short funeral service was held at the Cuthbert residence on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning the body was taken to Bellmore where it was laid by the side of her husband.

In Memory of a Babe.

Corless Earl, little son of Benjamin and Estella Berry was born January 24, 1909; died August 1, 1909, aged 6 months and 8 days.

The little fellow was sick the greater part of his life up until the past month or so, when he seemed as tho he was going to be spared to bless the home with his ever laughing face and bright smiles, which he always had for everyone he knew. But our hopes were all so quickly blasted when that terrible disease, cholera infantum took hold of him, and his little soul soon flitted away to the God who gave it, and so to the Father's will we humbly bow, believing that He doeth all things well. Home will not be the same with Corless gone; we will listen in vain for his little voice, there will be no tiny hands held out to welcome us, no little baby to fill our arms, and it will be so lonesome every where, for the little form is still, and the bright little eyes are closed forever.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Sherril, at Portland Mills. Burial at the Cecedar cemetery.

L. K.

The reunion of the Stout family was held August 1 at the home of J. O. Stout in Hollandsburg. About one hundred were present. Mr. Stout's large house was thrown open from cellar to garret. The tables were set on the lawn and they were laden with the good things of this life. After the meal hour the photographs of Mary J. Connelly, W. P. Stout, J. O. Stout and Rebecca F. Rush, the only survivors of the immediate Stout family, were taken in a group. Also a photograph of all present. Visitors from a distance were: Rebecca F. Rush and Mable Rush, her daughter, Los Angeles Cal., Laura Beal and family, Brazil, Ind., Dora Connelly and Thelma Foster, a daughter, Lake Charles, La., J. L. Payton, Carlisle, Ind.

In the evening ice cream and lemonade were served by the hospitality of J. O. Stout, who knows how to do things. Cigars were also on tap.

The friends past the day in visiting and renewing acquaintance. The day closed by a kindly shake of the hand. All expressed themselves as having had a good day together. So closed the first anniversary of the Stout family.

A Visitor.

Sunday was Porter Beauchamp's 6th birthday and he was reminded of the fact by a gathering of young people who came into visit him. A fine dinner was prepared and ice cream was served in the afternoon.

Marriage Licenses.

John Sidney Pickard of Waveland to Lucinda Beach of Parke county. Married August 25 by Elder S. K. Fuson.
 Clate Presslor to Myrtle Keller, both of Parke county. Married August 25 by Justice Frank M. Bryant.

Mrs. Rachel Hutton died Monday morning, Sept. 27, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Ewbank at Kingman. She was brought to Marshall Tuesday, and the funeral services were held at the Baptist church Wednesday at 10 o'clock, Rev. S. K. Fuson officiating.

No. 71X225. Mackin proof, m serge pl sleeveless ed platted lar, pate garnet at 58; sizes

No. 71X226. Beefe, t double-br box back collar, co cuffs, far fective et or self-fa and red;

No. 71X227. made of line, dou inverted t extremely broadcloth and two ly pretty with crus cloth, finis new slee and embr pockets, ed; an ex 14 years; green. P

No. 71X228. Coat, and pretty shr front and collar, insid with velvet and trimmed with braid, coat sleeve with turn back cuff of velvet trimmed metal but 6 to 14 y

No. 71X229. Coat of al tailor-mad back, tri strap, col with thre shades of with two double-bre with turn match col blue, brow 6 to 14 y

No. 71X230. of crasie effect, de fancy bu with broa braid and with tur and lined certied so brown an Price ...

No. 71X231. Coat, ma double-br fu pearl less, insid trimmed braid, co cuffs to n pockets, colors bl 6 to 14 years.....$2.75

STYLISH CO

71X226 $2.90

71X2 $5.

71 $

KILLED IN THE FIELD.

Horses Run Away—Corn Husker Caught Under Wagon.

Lloyd Burks, age 19 years, was almost instantly killed Nov. 18 about 10 a. m. by the overturning of a wagon load of corn near Muncie, Ill. He was the son of Henry H. Burks of Judson, who had been living in Illinois for a number of years until near a year ago when he purchased the Craig farm near Judson where he now resides. Lloyd had been working near Muncie, his old home, until about a month ago when he went to husk corn for John Noble about three miles north of Muncie. At the time of the accident Orrin Wade of Muncie, who was husking corn near by, on looking up from his work, saw Lloyd in the rear of his team and just at this instant one of them kicked as tho it was kicking at him. Just then the team whirled and started to run off. The wagon was overturned and as the team dashed past Wade, dragging the double trees, Wade left his team to look for Lloyd and found him pinioned under the front of the wagon. He called two other men who were working in the same field to help him lift the heavy load from the body. But it is thought he was dead before the second man got there as the coroner's inquest later showed that his neck had been broken and he was also crushed in the abdomen and bowels.

The body was brought to Judson Saturday morning and from there taken to Mt. Moriah church where a short but very appropriate funeral service was conducted by Bro. Moses Burks, after which the remains were deposited in the cemetery near by.

Lloyd was a splendid young man, a good worker, a good and careful hand with horses and his tragic death is a shock to the entire community in which he lived and was known. His mother has been dead several years and is buried at Fairmount, Ill. He is survived by his father, one brother and three sisters, as follows: Henry H. Burks of Judson, Harry Burks of Ogden, Ill., Mrs. Mabel Jordan of Knightstown, Ind., and Misses Hazel and Clara Burks who live with their father near Judson.

The following young men of Muncie followed the remains to their last resting place: Orrin Wade, Rolla Bantz, Charlie Condon, Wesley Condon, Major Waddell, and Floyd Sandford. Too much can not be said of the kind and courteous treatment by the friends and neighbors of Muncie to the relatives from Indiana.

ork City—Fall and

71X252
$5.90

McCampbell Weatherford. A wedding, charming in its simplicity, was solemnized on Thursday eve, Nov. 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Weatherford, northeast of Marshall, when their only daughter, Ruby Fern, and Roscoe McCampbell, twin son of John H. McCampbell, were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. Pierce of Waveland, pastor of Bethany church, of which the young couple are both prominent members.

The bridal couple, unattended, came into the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Leila McCampbell, when the ceremony was performed under a wedding bell with a background of honeysuckle green. After the ceremony the bridal couple went to the dining room and with their guests in other parts of the house were served to bounteous refreshments, after which every one took advantage of the opportunity to felicitate the young folks on the happy venture they were making.

An array of beautiful and useful gifts, of which the bride and groom had been the recipients, interested the guests until time for leave-taking.

On the Friday evening following, the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McCampbell gave a reception at their home southwest of Marshall to the young couple and the relatives and close friends were again privileged to mingle together and extend their good wishes to the newly wed. They will reside on the farm adjoining the McCampbell home on the south.

Wedding Announcement.

Invitations are out announcing the wedding of Miss Sattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Keen of Milligan, to Will Jacob of Marion, Ind., to take place at the Lutheran church near Milligan, Oct. 31.

Miss Keen, a charming and attractive young lady, is a graduate of the Rockville high school, a member of the class of 1903. She has been very successful as a teacher, having taught near Marion for the past few years. She accepted a position in the Converse high school this fall, but Cupid conquered, hence a resignation.

Mr. Jacobs is a highly respected young man and holds a responsible position with the Pennsylvania railroad company.

Both are popular young people and the announcement will be of much interest to their many friends.

S ES

straddle Coat a very fine the pretty brown and lined box round effectively full box sleeve with pockets, special $45.00

two-piece wool chevtrimmed raid, shield full pleat trimmed to skirt, deep and brown;
$3.95

Dressy Coat of excellent ey, collarless ured, tailor either side six beautiful inlaid with with braid, sleeve, patch wing; colors castor, red; $3.90

ty Dress of e blouse ef-plains on yoke of con-broadcloth blouse strapeyelets and skirt, bishop match yoke, throughout, white and 6 to 14
$2.75

No. 71X264. This practical Coat for girls, is made of an all-wool cheviot, strictly military effect, with storm collar of broadcloth, trimmed with braid, breasted buttons, each with lap throughout, blue, 4 years, $5.00

of Mel-effect, trimmed edged with silk shoulder ops pret-ed skirt, belt of dress brown, $2.95

length Box
l kersey, six fancy ilk braid fect, cola row of full box like front turn back ts; colors and cas-remark-$3.95

A Beautiful Wedding.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strange near New Discovery, was the scene of a pretty wedding Thanksgiving night, when his sister, Margery Della, was united in marriage to John Maxwell Rogers of Terre Haute, in the presence of about sixty guests, at 6 o'clock. Miss Irene Laughlin of Annapolis rendered "Hearts and Flowers". To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Maud Stout of Hollandsburg, the bride on the arm of her father, Daniel Strange of Rockville, preceded by her little nieces, Eula May and Mary Bell Strange, as flower girls, marched down the stairway to the altar, where they were met by the groom and Rev. S. K. Fuson. Here the impressive ring ceremony united them in marriage.

The bride's dress was a beautiful creation of white mull and lace. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses, and the only jewels worn were a brooch and ring, worn by her mother just 40 years ago at her own wedding on the same date. The little flower girls wore white silk and carried baskets of white carnations and smilax. The house was decorated in white and green, the dining room being especially beautiful in white carnations and smilax. Here an elaborate wedding repast was served.

Many beautiful presents in silver, cut glass, linen and china were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left for a wedding trip to Chicago and northern points, after which they will go to their home in Canton, Ill.

Out of town guests present were, Mrs. Rogers of Terre Haute, mother of the groom, Dr. J. C. Reeder and family of Montezuma, Miss Laura Spencer of Waveland, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sellars of Bridgeton.

No. 71X275. Box Coat; made of lustrous velvet, strap fully trimmed with back, at front of cuff, patch of velvet buttons; blue, blue 14 years;

No. 71X276. Military wool che front with storm collar turn-back embroidered coat face which gives comfortable and brown

No. 71X277. for girls, cheviot, scalloped with sout plaits down box shield buttons, trimmed with mannish p years; price

No. 71X278. length Box all-wool in effect, in trimmed coat trim stitched at finished with trimmed w tene bra form a yof of coat; co cuff trim ping of co maroon, c sizes 6 to

No. 71X279. for girls wool kerse trakhan, form yoke military h inverted p exactly lik coat sleeves match coll self-facing and brown price$6.90

No. 71X280. This Coat is unquestionably the most popular of the season for the popular all-wool grey and white notch collar, still form a deep yoke, six velvet buttons front of coat don inverted plait f strap ornamented velvet buttons, cut sleeve, patch pock years; price

No. 71X281. Girl's Box Coat, made kersey, Empire fr effect, attached at yoke, two tailor-st from yoke down fr ornamented with loped collarless with velvet, f sleeve with turn-match collar, lap p buttons, self-facing castor, brown and to 14 years; price

Rock City—Fall

STYLIST

Mrs. Ridley Beal.

Once more the stern reaper death has been in our midst, another loved one has just fallen in its path, this time ends and eternity begins. Sarah A. Hursong was born in Illinois Sept. 5, 1842. She united with the M. E. church in her early life in which she lived a consistent member.

She united in marriage to Frederick Cooper March 22, 1860. To this union were born two children, Nelly C. and Naomia M. who survive her.

After the death of Mr. Cooper she was united in marriage to Rev S. R. Beal July 5, 1900, and was stricken with the fatal malady which ended her earthly career Dec. 19, 1909, age 67 years, 3 months, 14 days. She bore her intense suffering with great patience and often times was heard saying, "Oh, Lord, have mercy."

In vain we listen for the familiar voice and look for the familiar form, but the voice is hushed and the form has vanished, not again in this early life shall we have or see her. As the day ebbed away on Dec. 19 she answered the call of the Master, and with the "boatman pale" she crossed the river and entered the rest of Paradise. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth, and their work do follow them."

Sister Beal was a member of the Bridgeton chapter Order of Eastern Star, and when Catlin chapter No. 350 O. E. S. was organized she moved her membership here as a charter member.

Short funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at the family residence by the Order of the Eastern Star and Rev. Z. D. Maris of Rockville. The mourners and a few friends accompanied the mortal remains to Sanford, to the Episcopal church. Rev. Z. D. Maris was assisted there by Wm. H. Halberstadt of Terre Haute, after which her remains were laid to rest awaiting the resurrection morn F. A. M.

Obituary.

Dorothy Virginia Lee, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee of Chicago, formerly of Rockville, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boatman, Rosedale, Sunday night Dec. 19, 1909. Little Dorothy was born Aug. 25, 1909, being 3 months and 24 days old. She was a bright, sweet babe and had been a sufferer for over five weeks until the death angel released her from her suffering and her sweet little life went out and her spirit went to the God who gave it. Short services were held at the cemetery at Mt. Olivet, Catlin, where her little body was laid to rest till the resurrection morn. J. M. B.

71X Miss Grace Ensor of Bellmore, was married to Mr. Scott last Thursday in Rockville. $6

Approaching Nuptials.

Invitations are out announcing the wedding of Miss Ethel Carver to Marion E. Martin, to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Carver in west High street on Wednesday evening, Nov. 3, at 8 o'clock.

6-7

71 $1

IX3 8.5

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Dr. Cuthbert's Auto Upsets and One is Killed—He is Injured.

Last Friday evening news reached Rockville of the first fatal automobile accident that has occurred in Parke county wherein Mrs. David Proctor, nee Jennie Peare of Morton vicinity in Putnam county, met her death and Dr. Cuthbert of Kingman, her brother-in-law, was injured. Mrs. Proctor and her adopted son Paul, about 13 years of age, were going to Kingman to spend Christmas with the Cuthberts. The doctor met them at Bloomingsdale. The story of the accident is thus told by our Sylvania correspondent who lives near where it occurred:

"One of the saddest accidents that has befallen this vicinity for a long time happened one-half mile south of this place near 5 o'clock last Friday afternoon. Dr. Fred Cuthbert had been to Bloomingsdale to meet his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Proctor of Portland Mills in eastern Parke county, who was on her way to Kingman to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Cuthbert, when on the "Hodson hill" he ran too near the verge of a five or six foot grade, causing his automobile to turn bottom up, catching the doctor, Mrs. Proctor and a boy beneath it pinning them to the ground. In about 15 minutes Charley Woods and two other young men came along and found them. They soon released the boy but could do nothing for the doctor nor Mrs. Proctor. They called for help which was soon there and the doctor, who was severely bruised, was removed from the wreck, but Mrs. Proctor was dead when taken from under the machine. The unfortunate victims were taken to the home of Perley Mendenhall. In the meantime Wm. Leonard telephoned to the coroner who arrived about half past 8 o'clock and held an inquest, after which all were removed to Dr. Cuthbert's home in Kingman.

"The doctor says he was running at a slow rate of speed and when he came to the top of the short, steep hill he shut his machine down but the weight of it took it down on to the narrow grade and just as it came to a standstill it turned over the embankment with the above mentioned results. The grade at this place has always been too narrow and is considered dangerous, especially when the ground is frozen and slick. The doctor's injuries are not serious and it is thought he will be able for duty in a short time. The boy sustained slight bruises about the lower limbs. The report sent the Indianapolis News from Bloomingsdale was nearly all wrong. The doctor and his wife have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad misfortune."

Mrs. Proctor was the older sister of Dr. R. C. Peare and ex-coroner W. J. Peare of Bellmore. Great sympathy has been generally expressed for the families concerned as there was an added feature of distress in the fact that an anticipated happy Christmas was suddenly turned into mourning.

No. 71X302. This stylish Suit for Misses is made of broadcloth, black, blue and brown, in the new 28-inch box coat style, with semi-fitted back and fly front, double stitched seams, collarless effect, trimmed with braid, coat sleeve, coat lined throughout with satin; the skirt is and flare and knee, all and bound and ex- and winter ses... $7.99

By Z. D. Maris, Dec. 23, at his home in Rockville. David S. Collins to Lillie L. Thompson, both of Parke county.

The marriage of Harry A. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Baker, to Minnie E. Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Porter took place this forenoon at the home of the bride's parents Rev. A. P. DeLong, officiating. Only the near relatives of the two families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Baker left on the 10:30 train for Chicago where they will make their future home.

ALL ER

Misses' Suit with tweed side to the half fitted waist, double patch pockets with turn guaranteed skirt is plaited of knee, deep all seams at the un... $8.50

art Norfolk wool Scotch in pretty 28-inch box plaited finished with square collar-braid, man- with but- about with irt, finished and inside covered of great value... $9.75

Misses Prince wool Scotch in plaid; the coat is in the jaunty 38-inch length half lined with excellent quality satin, semi-fitted back with a 28-inch vent, double stitched seams, box fly front, velvet collar with notch revers, mannish pockets, coat sleeve; beautiful skirt, two inverted stitched plaits down front, gored plaits below the back; 14, 16, 18 best tailored suit price... $11.50

very fine Broad- in new 28-inch coat, beautifully tailored, half fitted back with stitched seams, 9-inch vent with rippled side seams, shapely box fly front with notch collar and mannish pockets, coat sleeve trimmed with tailored buttons, coat lined through- out with silk tuffeta; the skirt is the new fitted effect... $11.50

71X300 $5

71X300 $8.50

71X304 $12.50

71X303 $11.50

71X305 $12.75

Obituary.

Forest Cline Bain, son of John and Cora Bain, was born Sept. 31, 1904, near Hollandsburg, and died at his home in Tangier, Dec. 6, 1909, age 5 years, 2 months 5 days.

His father and one brother preceded him to the other shore. He leaves a mother, four sisters and four brothers to mourn his loss. Forest was a very bright and cheerful little boy who always had a smile and a word of greeting for everyone he knew and was a favorite among his playmates. In his sickness, which lasted about four weeks, the little fellow manifested great patience thru it all.

Altho we will see his cheerful face among us no more, the influence of his short life will live on, helping us to be more patient and kind.

Mrs. Bain and family wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their help and kindness during little Forest's sickness and death.

effect from waist to bottom of skirt, effective colors in blue, black and gray; skirt perfectly made and finely finished, lengths 34 to 49 inches... $3.95

FALL

71 X $3

71 X 328 $4.95

Obituary.

Ina Bain, daughter of John and Cora Bain, was born Aug. 3, 1888, near Bellmore and died at her home in Tangier, Dec. 23, 1909, age 21 years, 4 months 20 days, leaving her mother, four brothers and three sisters to mourn her death.

She had been with her aunt for three years and went home to help care for the sick members of the family who had typhoid fever and not being strong was stricken with the same disease and lived only five weeks, bearing her sickness with great patience. She was a kind and loving daughter.

Only two weeks and three days before her little brother Forest past away. Her father and one other brother, Raymond, have also preceded her to the other shore. Funeral services were held at J. K. Harbison's near Portland Mills. Interment at the Cecedar grave yard.

The marriage of Miss Mae Kennedy and Frank Hutton was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, southwest of Marshall, Rev. S. K. Fuson performing the ceremony that made them man and wife. Both are well known and highly respected young people of this vicinity, and the best wishes of all are extended them for a bright and happy future and many years of conjugal bliss.

Miscellaneous Shower.

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Grace Ball at the home of Mrs. Ethel Shalley and Misses Beulah Moore and Maude Stout, on Saturday afternoon, February 12.

Many guests were present including the Ladies Aid society of Hollandsburg Baptist church and many relatives and friends.

The house was tastefully decorated in red and white and red hearts. A very enjoyable social time was spent, after which refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake. Many beautiful and valuable presents were received.

Wedding Reception.

Wednesday, Feb. 16, Miss Grace Ball and John Rein, accompanied by Willie Newgent and Miss Beulah Moore, went to Terre Haute when the former couple were quietly married by Rev. D. C. Carnahan at his home, 122 south 15th street. Upon their return at 8 p. m. a reception was given them by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ball the bride's parents, at their home in Hollandsburg.

A large company of guests were awaiting them.

The guests, including many relatives and friends, assembled in the parlor, which was beautifully decorated in pink and green, where the bridal couple received congratulations. The bride was beautifully attired in Copenhagen blue mesalline silk, while the groom wore the conventional black.

After receiving congratulations the bridal party was invited to the dining room where a two-course supper was served. The dining room was tastefully decorated in cut flowers, a large canopy of pink and green being suspended above the table while the table was beautifully decorated in pink and white carnations and white roses.

Many beautiful and valuable presents were received, including chinaware, silver and linen.

Mrs. Rein is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ball being actively engaged in Sunday school and church circles. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rein, a prosperous farmer of Parke county.

SKIR

71 X 327 $3.95

88 X 30 $15.00

8 X 30 5.00

71 X $2

88 X 30 10.00