

KIRT

1X327
3.95

88X300
$15.00

88X300
$15.00

71X30
$2.65

88X309
$10.00

10 00

Stout-Collings.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stout of Hollandsburg was the scene of a pretty home wedding last Wednesday evening, Feb. 23, when their daughter, Miss Maud, became the bride of Dr. Frank C. Collings.

The wedding colors were pink and white. The parlor where the ceremony took place was very attractive, the ceremony being performed under a beautiful arch decorated in smilax from which two white hearts depended. Just before the ceremony Miss Jewel Martin favored the guests with the beautiful song, "Hearts" and at the appointed time the bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Lee Webb, who during the ceremony played "O, Promise Me." The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Shelby of the M. E. church of Bellmore. The bride wore a simple but pretty gown of white and carried a bouquet of brides roses and in her hair wore beautiful orange blossoms, sent to her by her cousin, Miss Mable Rush of California, and which were so much appreciated by the bride. The groom wore the conventional black.

Immediately after the ceremony an elegant two-course supper was served. About 95 relatives and friends were present. The bridal couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents, both from home and abroad. Miss Maud is one of the leading workers in the church and Sunday school of Hollandsburg and while she will be missed in those circles perhaps nowhere so much as in the father's home as she was the only child. Dr. Frank C. Collings is a leading veterinary and the son of Mrs. Sarah Collings of Bellmore.

The evening was spent in music and in a general good time. May much happiness and peace attend their way.

The Ladies Aid society of the Parkeville church gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Mayme Rusk, bride-elect, at the home of Mrs. Earl Armstrong last Saturday afternoon. A number of useful presents were received by the bride to be.

The wedding bells rang for Miss Garnet Hopper and John M. Rutledge last Wednesday. After spending a few days at the bride's home near Catlin, they came Saturday to the groom's home.

City-Fall
IN MILL

88X30
$5.00

In Honor Miss Maude Stout.
A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Maude Stout at the home of Mrs. C. F. Ball by Mrs. Ball and Miss Carrie Stout on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 19.

The house was made beautiful in pink and white, the dining room being elaborately decorated in cut flowers intermingled with candles and pink and white carnations. Many guests were assembled including the Ladies Aid society of Hollandsburg Baptist church and many relatives and friends. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly. A poem, composed by Miss Lottie Connelly, was read which was very pleasing and appropriate. Musical numbers were given by Misses Maude Stout, Jewel Martin and Mrs. John Rein which were enjoyed by all.

At 4 o'clock a luncheon consisting of ice cream, fruit salad and cake was served in the dining room, after which each guest was given a pencil and heart and asked to write a proposal from the name of the bride and groom. Many amusing and entertaining proposals were given. The bride-elect was attired in a beautiful old rose princess costume, and received many beautiful and costly presents, including china, silverware, linen and porcelain.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nevins of Indianapolis recently visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Nevins in this place. The young couple were married in the capital city Dec. 20. Mr. Nevins is in the employ of the Nordyke-Marmon Co.

$5.00

The marriage of Miss Mary Webb to Pearl Mater took place Saturday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Webb in west York street. Rev. C. L. Airhart of near Roachdale pronounced the ceremony before a few friends and relatives. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk trimmed in insertion and lace. A delicious wedding supper was served. Mrs. Mater has been employed by the telephone company for some time and has many friends here. Mr. Mater is one of Parke county's young farmers, living near Bellmore. Autumn Mater and family of Bloomingdale were out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Mater left Sunday for their home near Bellmore.

6-7 43

... large hat curved at sides, quality ponge velv... with mesaline French plumes, best quality... the hair forms... in bandon; can be the latest shades... $15.00
... new Christmas... fine French felt... with velvet, plume and roses... with full and ribbon; can be... Price, $5.00
... A brand... of fine quality... the fitted... side crown... of silk head... ft. side with a... fine agrette and ribbon, bandon... of loops of... in all colors... $5.00
... of... of... with mirrored... on left side... blue velvet; can... the new fall... smooth felt... $6.75
... Hat, quality mirrored... on side with a... fine agrette and a ribbon, a fold... around the... made in black, lam, olive green... $5.00
... Hat, fitted handsome... velvet, finished... with... ostrich plumes... by fallie ribbon, round side crown... with butterfly... $10.00
... full rosette of ribbon on either side of bandon; can be made in all the new fall and winter shades... $10.00
... Sash... velvet, ten fine... of good... all trim... can... $7.50
... Hat... ed wit... full... all trim... $10.00
... bandon; we can furnish this hat in all colors. Price... $15.00
No. 88X308. Medium size Turban, made of fine quality ponge velv... on curls form... $5.00
... on left side, an arrow wing... ribbon falling... can be made in... be popular shades... $5.00
... Marchioness, quality mirrored... in facing of satin, cord edge, trim... handsome ostrich... quality double... ribbon, full ruche... the hair... on bandon;... in all the new... shades... $10.00
... Versailles Hat, satin finish, French... in faced with two... with cord of... own velvet, deated... and trimmed with... agrette of blue... blue, finished with... quality fallie... trimmed with soft... velvet and loops of... be had in all the... $10.00
... Hat, made... by felt and faced... pret, maline, ruche... trimmed with large... in ribbon and two... made in all the... for fall and winter... $5.00

Miss Mary E. Souder, who taught grade 6 in the Rockville public schools in 1906-7, and was compelled to give up teaching because of ill health, died at the home of her mother in Greene township last Wednesday night, of pulmonary tuberculosis. While she had been considered critically ill, death came suddenly. Miss Souder was born Feb. 27, 1876, and was nearly 35 years of age. Funeral services were held Saturday forenoon at the Parkeville church, Rev. Wm. B. Chancellor of Rockville officiating. Miss Souder was a member of Guion Presbyterian church. A large number attended the funeral services. Burial in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

black, brown, navy, cardinal, myrtle. Price.....$1.95

No. 23X328. Made of finest qual-

Mrs. Mary Rush, widow, died Wednesday, March 9, at her home in Greene township of measles at the age of 79 years and 7 days. Her death of this disease is unusual. Funeral services were held Thursday at Mt. Moriah church, Rev. Airhart officiating. Burial in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Sailor, made of the newest design silk braid, edge of brim and side crown of silk velvet, trimmed with a beautiful cogue finished with velvet, all over. Price

No. 23X331.

Sailor, old-fashioned felt binding, cord and side and velvet on Omer Titus and Myrtle Osborn were married June 16 at Crawfordsville at the home Rev. J. M. Cauldwell and by the same at 12 o'clock high noon. The parents, H. Titus and wife and H. F. Osborn and wife, son Fern O. and John Beeson, of Crawfordsville were present besides Mr. Cauldwell's family. After the ceremony the guests were ushered to the dining room where a good dinner was awaiting, to which all did justice. After dinner Mr. Beeson and lady friend took the bride and groom over the city until nearly 4 o'clock when they left for Indianapolis, returning Friday evening when a crowd met them and gave them a shower of rice and a charivari at night. This happy couple left for Leavenworth, Wash., Wednesday morning where they expect to make their future home. They will be greatly missed, but leave with the best wishes of everybody. Mr. Titus taught in the Bloomingdale academy last winter. Miss Osborn is well known as she was a teacher for three years in the public schools near Marshall and a music teacher for several years. They have many warm friends who regret to have them go so far away.

No. 23X332.

ready to fine quality trimmed shells on steel orna

No. 23X333.

of finest felt silk, with silk cord; Price

No. 23X334.

Miss, made full shirt draped w and chen Price

No. 23X335.

made of silk, velvet braid pla fancy wh name of

No. 23X336.

for a mid of shirred of drape trimmed and broad a jet ba

No. 23X337.

Ladies' Hat, made of Vienna felt silk, wire on edge, colors black, brown, navy, cardinal, champagne. Price.....75c

$3.45

New York City
ROCK'S LA

Obituary.

Sarah Elizabeth Berry, daughter of Serjeant McDonald and Julia A. Berry, was born near Hollandsburg, Parke county, Jan. 20, 1859; departed this life March 26, 1910, age 51 years 2 months and 6 days.

She was the second child in a family of nine children, three girls and six boys, a'l of whom are living with the exception of one sister, who preceeded her to the "Great Beyond" several years ago.

During her girlhood days she was converted and joined the U. B. church at Otterbein, but moved her membership to the Christian church at Byron in 1904, where it still remains. She died in the full enjoyment of a christian hope.

July 16, 1881, she was married to Telemachus Hill. To this union were born 13 children, 8 of whom are living and were present at the funeral except one—Ralph, who is in the west and could not be reached.

One year ago last November she was stricken with paralysis from which she never entirely recovered. Before her bodily ailment she labored incessantly for the welfare of her family and her greatest desire was to keep the children in school. She was not of a showy or brilliant disposition but was possess of those sturdy and enduring traits of character which go to make a good wife, a loving mother and respected neighbor. She filled her station in life, performed her mission and was contented with her lot. To her children she has bequeathed the heritage of a name unsullied by the breath of suspicion and untouched by the taint of dishonor. She has gone to claim her reward and besides her children, brothers and sister, she leaves an aged father, a host of friends and neighbors to mourn her loss.

Aged Preacher Married.

Rev. S. Ridley Beal of Catlin, age 74, was married in the county clerk's office at Terre Haute, Tuesday, June 28, to Mrs. Rachel Farner, age 74, of Ellsworth. The marriage was performed by Justice Hirsh. Each returned that evening to their respective homes and Mr. Beal reported his marriage to his daughter, Mrs. East. Thursday he brought his bride to Catlin where a company of friends gathered to welcome and congratulate them. A two-course supper was served in a beautifully decorated dining room. A company of young men called later and were given money to buy a treat. Rev. and Mrs. Beal will live at the latter's home at Ellsworth. This is his third marriage and her second.

1906-7

23X35 $2.45
X330 .75
23 $1.23
23X33 $2.17
23X33 $1.75
23X33 $1.75

Obituary.

Della May Paddock, daughter of William and Rosa Paddock, was born in Clinton, Ind., Feb. 17, 1888, and departed this life June 4, 1910, age 22 years, 3 months and 17 days.

She was united in marriage to Frank Barcus. August 12, 1905. To this union were born three children, two of whom have preceded her to the glory world. She leaves one daughter, Blanche, her husband, father, mother, four sisters, and one brother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, which is her eternal gain.

Mrs. Barcus was converted at the home of her parents in the winter of 1907 and during her last illness was happy and resigned to the will of God. She had been in poor health the last two years of her life, but she bore her sufferings with patience. During the last two weeks, she talked freely about being prepared to meet her Savior, and appreciated very much the blessings that were bestowed upon her and often said when looking at the beautiful flowers given her by her many friends that no matter how much one suffered or what trouble she had there was always something to be thankful for.

She united with the U. B. church at Clinton in January 1910. She has gone to be with her Savior. We cannot bring her back, but we can meet her in that other world where there will be no more partings and no more good-byes.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. D. Branon in the Friends church at Coloma, interment in the Hixon cemetery near Mecca. The funeral was largely attended.

Recital and Reception.

A piano recital was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Collings, of near Parkeville Saturday afternoon, July 23, where their daughter, Miss Cloe and her class in music rendered some well prepared solos and duets. Mr. Upp was there with his camera and photographed the class and teacher, after which they and about 25 invited guests were treated to ice cream and cake and fruit salad. All departed at a late hour declaring they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

A Guest.

No. 87X20. Double Side Wing, well made, makes a very neat and stylish trimming; colors black, white, cream, gray and navy. 45c

No. 87X19. Beautiful Coque Breast, 15 inches long, very desirable for fall hats; colors helio, brown, champagne, navy, red, mousse, bluette; all colors two-tone. 39c

FLOWER AND WIG

Obituary.

John Pratt, son of Austin and Mariah Pratt, was born in Parke county, Indiana, May 28, 1838; departed this inconstant life May 29, 1910, having lived 72 years and 1 day.

Jan. 1, 1875, he was united in marriage to Lydia M. Lane. This union was blessed with the birth of three children but alas, amid the inviting future that bid a beckoning hand for happy days of wedlock, strode in that grim monster death and claimed the wife, and two little hearts were left to grieve their loss of a mother who today in the day of woman and manhood gather around this casket and mourn the loss of father—Marion C. Pratt and Anna, wife of Marion Payton.

Oct. 27, 1887, the deceased took the hand of Nancy J. Blue with whom he lived the remainder of his life. As the result of this union one son was born—Roy E. Pratt, who today is left in his early days of manhood to grieve the loss of father's council. The departed leaves before the grave two sisters and one brother—Sam, Hannah and Polly.

Uncle John Pratt, as he was generally called, never united with any church but believed the principles as contended for by the Regular Predestinarian Baptist. He had reason to believe that that blood that justified the Adam sinner gave him a surety of an immortal life. He was a man of council and possess that degree of judgment that makes a successful life. He was one of the pioneers whose toiling hands made for us a country that affords the environments of happy progress. Let us draw the mantle of kindness over his earthly career and profit by the good deeds done in the body. To all who knew the deceased he has written his own life on the pages of the book of our remembrance and we have only to turn its golden pages to read his name and life among the good fathers, husbands, brothers and neighbors.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Shelby and C. R. Collings at Mt. Moriah church after which the remains were laid to rest in the old cemetery.

William A. Warrick of Waveland to Marjory Leona Butcher of Parke county.

Daniel M. Swaim to Laurinda J. Firestone, both of Parke county.

No. 87X21. Large Hackle Breasts, 16 inches long, suitable for most any shape; colors helio, riseda, navy, cardinal, mousse and brown; all two-tone. 49c

No. 87X22. Fancy of Pheasant Tail, 12 pieces, lengths, nice for small hats; colors garnet, navy, teal.

87X4

87

87X16

87X17

20

FOR O

87

XV

7X5 3.8

87

52

$7.5

87

46

WOMEN'S SILK PETTICOATS

A luxury once, but now placed within the reach of all by the extraordinary low prices at which we offer them. Select the style you want, name the color and we will guarantee that the Skirt which we send will give return it to us, and your money will be at once refunded.

Obituary

Susan Collings was born in the immediate neighborhood of Mt. Moriah church, Parke county, Ind., December 1, 1842, near which she spent all of her life except four years which were spent in the state of Illinois. She was the daughter of William and Mary Collings, who have been dead many years.

August 2, 1863, she was united in marriage to Ezra Thomas and was the mother of eight children, three of whom preceded her in death. She died suddenly at her home at Bellmore June 3, 1910, age 67 years, 6 months and 2 days.

She was of an amiable and lively disposition, a devoted wife and mother, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. Her life before her children was such as to make a lasting impression. She bore an intense love for them and their welfare, ever directing them to high aspirations in life, and suggesting those things that stand for useful citizenship and love for one another. She died in full expectation of a glorious resurrection and her hope knew no other than a full and sure realization of a Savior's love.

Funeral services were held at Hollandsburg church, June 5, Rev. Airhart officiating. Interment in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Marriage Licenses

John H. McGaughey to Francis Johnson, both of Judson.

Rev. S. K. Fuson officiated at the marriage last Thursday evening of William Warrick of near Waveland and Lona Butcher of Rockville at the home of Mrs. Goss in the presence of a few special friends and relatives.

Miss Mary Connelly and Harry McClain were married Sunday at the 'burg. Home folks gave them a reception Sunday evening at Bellmore. We wish them much joy.

John Callender, son of Isaac and Margaret Callender, was born in Ohio, Jan. 28, 1840 and departed this life July 16, 1910, age 70 years, 5 months and 18 days.

He leaves one sister, Mrs. Frances Odell, and other relatives to mourn his loss.

John, as he was familiarly known, was left when quite a small boy by the death of his father to care for his widowed mother and two small sisters, which he willingly did. He always lived with and cared for his aged mother until about two years ago when she left her earthly home to seek a home above. Her death bore heavily upon him, and he had since lived with his nephew, William Hart, never breaking up the old home to which he was so endeared.

John was always honest and upright in his dealings. Whenever his neighbors or friends were sick or needed help he was always there to lend a helping hand. But John has gone to his reward, and there are no eulogies to call out the worth of the simple life he lived.

Short funeral services were conducted at the home by M. R. Burkes, Monday morning, July 18, after which the remains were taken to the cemetery near Morton for burial.

Phillips-Batman.

At high noon today at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Batman, occurred the marriage of Emerson Phillips, county surveyor, and Miss Luciana Batman. Rev. Wm. B. Chancellor officiated. Only near relatives and a few intimate friends were present including Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Phillips of Rosedale, parents of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Henkel of Cincinnati, uncle and aunt of the bride. Following the ceremony dinner was served. A reception to a few friends will be given this evening at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Batman's.

Next Monday Mr. and Mrs. Phillips expect to leave for Seattle, Wash., where they will reside.

The bride taught in the Rockville schools for a number of years.

Allie Poe's baby which had been sick several weeks died Saturday night. Funeral Monday morning.

Allie blue, white or black, ever popular changeables in blue, red or green..... $3.50

52X152 $6.75

52X152 $6.75

52X153 $3.85

52 X 156 $5.95

52X157 $5.00

52 X 157 $5.00

52 X 158 $7.50

52 X 159 $8.50

52X158 $7.50

Petticoat, full length, made of extra light Jasper, silk, available in various colors. Price $3.50. Also available in blue, red or green. Price $3.50.

The garments here shown are cut on to you with our guarantee of satisfaction.

the most appropriate style with them the best

GOLDEN WEDDING

Of Rev. S. K. Fuson and Wife Appropriately Celebrated.

Tuesday, Aug. 23, 1910, was one of the happiest days that Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Fuson have ever experienced, that being their 50th wedding anniversary. To commemorate the event a large number of their friends from far and near, by pre-arrangement met at the Marshall Baptist church and paid their respects to the "young" married couple in a fitting manner. The day's program opened with a short address of welcome by Rev. Cauldwell at 10 o'clock followed by scripture reading and prayer by Rev. R. A. Fuson. A splendid sermon was then delivered by Rev. Mayhall to which all paid close attention. This was followed by a basket dinner, which was held in the grove at the rear of the church and the unanimous verdict of all who partook thereof was that this feature was a huge success.

A number of presents were received: $50 in gold was presented to them—$15 by Marshall Baptist church, $10 by Bethany Presbyterian church, $10 by Waveland Baptist church, $5 by Brownsvalley church, $5 by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Johnson of Indianapolis, $5 by Mrs. Sarah Carmichael of Bellmore.

Also $5 by Union Baptist church of Vigo county, $3.30 by New Market Baptist church, $3 by Freedom Baptist church, $3 by Wm. Stout, wife and daughter, $1 by a friend.

Besides the cash gifts the following presents were given: Bethesda Baptist church, a large handsome silver-gold lined fruit piece; New Discovery church, a large silver-gold lined berry dish and spoon; J. O. Stout and wife, cut glass tea set trimmed with gold bands; A. Webster and wife, gold soap dish; Miss Elsie Webster, gold candle snuffers; Rev. S. A. Mayhall and wife, china plate; Mrs. H. F. Ostorn, china plate; Miss Blanche Slayback of Crawford Industrial school, a handkerchief; Arthur Fuson, wife and daughter, gold framed clock Mrs. Lena Maris, cream dipper. Last but not least William Poe's donation in the way of corn to feed the horses of those who might drive from a distance. Sixty cards and letters of compliment and regret were received.

guarantee of satisfaction. back. coat of excellent weight black moire cloth, with a 17-inch umbrella flounce in 3 attached sections, each trimmed with 3 rows of double stitched strap-with extra black unquestionable value. No. 52X176. Petticoat of did black sateen, in

At 1:30 the company assembled in the church house where a testimony meeting was held conducted by Pastor J. M. Cauldwell, several cheerfully taking part. A splendid address was given by Rev. R. A. Fuson, a brother, followed by Rev. G. A. Fuson, a nephew. Short but very impressive talks were made by Rev. S. K. Fuson and wife and thanking everybody. They were remembered by several nice bouquets of cut flowers, so let us strew their pathway with flowers, kind words and deeds while we have opportunity. The bride wore a handsome black silk with trimmings of old gold.

Newlin-Randolph.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Laura Newlin Sunday evening, Oct. 2, at 7 o'clock when their daughter, Elizabeth was united in marriage to Elbert Randolph of Danville, Ind. Rev. S. K. Fuson performed the ceremony. The bride was dressed in white batiste and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. The groom wore the conventional color. Following the ceremony a two-course supper was served. The newly married couple left on the night excursion for Indianapolis, and will reside near Danville, Ind. Twenty-one were present, the out-of-town guests being Mr. and Mrs. Roy Randolph and son, Miss Jennie Randolph of Danville, Monroe Hill, of Decatur. Both contracting parties are well and favorably known in this community, and the best wishes of all accompany them in their matrimonial venture.—Marshall News.

Samuel A. Burnside who was for years a resident of Greene township, but recently residing in Russellville, died there Sunday morning. The funeral was held Monday forenoon. Interment at Mt. Moriah with Masonic honors. He was a member of Judson lodge. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Spencer were present at the burial.

signed with a 15-inch made umbrella flounce attached sections, set piping and trimmed with 4 rows of strappings; skirt is bound with 1-inch binding; a garment that stand good, hard wear and retain its stylish, present atticoat "Lily" of 4 attached rows of sateen. No. 52X176. Petticoat of did black sateen, in section. No. 52X181. Petticoat of did black sateen, in section. No. 52X182. Petticoat of did black sateen, in section. No. 52X183. Petticoat of did black sateen, in section.

ten underneath; the hip ure of this skirt is 74 for stout women can order implicit confidence, with guaranteed; special price

Extra sizes also in various styles and qualities of sateen, at.....98c, $1.25

No. 52X183. Petticoat of quality black mohair, with a ed flounce, bias ruffle, lined with or combined apping; this bed with a last ruffle.

etticoat sateen, striped a wide a flounce tucks and itched 2-inch an extra piece; this garment is cut and will give the desired sweep. Price

SIEK

Reunion of Seven Sisters.

An account of a somewhat unusual family reunion was sent by our old Parkeville correspondent for use last week, but the paper was so crowded that it had to go over. The reunion was in the nature of a birthday surprise dinner in honor of Mrs. Rivanna Sappenfield's 63d anniversary on Saturday, Sept. 3. This was planned by her sister, Mrs. Vina Snow of Pleasant Valley, who arranged for their other sisters to go. There are eight of them living, ranging in age from 63 to 85, and all were present except the oldest, Mrs. Rebecca Cooper of Benton county, whose infirmities prevented her from making the trip. The others besides Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Sappenfield are: Mrs. Mary Owens of Conway, Ark.; Mrs. Lavina Thompson of Greenbriar, Ark.; Mrs. Euphony Barton of Rogers, Ark.; Mrs. Nancy Woodard of Champaign Ill.; Mrs. Sarah Mitchell of Montezuma, Mrs. Vina Snow of Rockville. The first arrivals were Bert Snow and family and the three Arkansas sisters. The long separated sisters wept tears of joy as they greeted each other the first time for upwards of 30 years.

The dinner was spread on the counters in a vacant store room, the improvised table being embellished with flowers, and a most appetizing feast was enjoyed. The afternoon was past in a social way and with music on a phonograph. The seven sisters were photographed in a group by Walter Martin and also the whole company.

A family reunion was announced for Thursday, Sept. 15, near the old Bagwell homestead at Farmers Chapel. Mrs. Sappenfield was the recipient of many pretty presents and the day will be a bright spot in her memory as long as she lives. Among those present were the following: Bert Snow and family, Rockville route 3; Mrs. Sarah Mitchell and daughter Alice of Montezuma; Mrs. Mary Martin and daughter Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. James McHargue, Mr. and Mrs. Bush Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Martin, Ferndale; Mrs. Marion Blake, New Discovery; Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael, Beech Grove; Mrs. Martha Blake, Lincoln, Neb.; Misses Hettie Harney and Martha Spencer, Bellmore; Mr. and Mrs. George Sappenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Perkins, Milligan; Earl Ginn and family, Waveland; Mrs. Ed Sappenfield and little daughter Thelma, Judson; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jeffries and daughter Bertha, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Jeffries and daughter Marie of Otterbein.

ty—Fall and

Not a little interest was aroused in Rockville late Saturday afternoon, when the word passed rapidly from one to another that the famous Carrie Nation, she of the hatchet, saloon smashing fame, was in town and would speak at the court room in the evening. She was billed to lecture at the Shades chautauqua on Sunday and was asked to come here for an evening's performance. Nothing loth she came.

The court room was rapidly filled and many stood at the doors to hear her. She was introduced by Rev. Luke Williams of the Baptist church and prayer was offered by Rev. Barbre of the Christian church.

It is well nigh impossible to give even a running account of Mrs. Nation's harangue. Her subject of course was the saloon and what Carrie Nation has done to destroy it. Her denunciation of Republicans and the Republican party were unique. To that party she attributed the saloon, the sum of all villainies. She said it was established and had been fostered by it; that the hands of every Republican voter was stained with blood. In the midst of her tirade against the Republican party Mrs. Goss suddenly sang out: "Tell us what you think of the Democratic party." The speaker said it had had but eight years of power and that then it did just as the Republicans had done, but, said she, You can't blame a man if he don't do what he wants to do! She hurled a few hot ones at Republican preachers whom she seems to think far worse than an ordinary every day Republican.

Towards the close of her disconnected remarks Mrs. Nation began to advertise her book, which she had for sale, a part of which is devoted to denouncing Masoury and then she launched into a tirade against that order and finally pitched into the man who uses tobacco in any form. Here she turned her attention to Mrs. Longworth and then to her illustrious father, Theodore Roosevelt. Phew! How she ripped them. And President Taft—well, if she were responsible she should be jailed for her libelous charges. She praised the Prohibitionists but it is doubtful if they enjoyed it.

Some bad things, you know, are so bad that they become good—of their kind, and some serious things are so serious they become funny. It was so with Carrie Nation's diatribe in Rockville. While to be sure she occasionally spoke a truth, in the main her language was so violent and intemperate that nobody took her seriously but rather regarded her as a fopmaker and nobody, even those towards whom she directed her heaviest thunderbolts, took offense and all left the room thoroly pleased.

rs.

es long
at which
of the son to as are unapproved and most
the club-appreciate suble to or those we ask

of very 14-inch
be lawn
ch ruffle
brodery, ucks, an ruffle

durable specially $1.25
of very with a flounce
trimmed and a n insercombined
of the serviceable garment ted with

$1.00
of splendide, deely with which rebon lo-
a 4 secs edged lace to an extra an elab-
h skirt, $1.75
of very
with a ne which bed tucks
ch ruffle rn open-extra pro-completes de price

$1.00
of soft ned very sections ch space
e of new embroidter of 3 protects this it, which $1.50
of nice
th hand-flounce
ide very sections, ucks and e of the lace to don dust charming optional

$1.50
of fine
h a 22-
an lawn, eriences
ed with ding of
o match,
make value as

$1.25
of good with, de-20-inch with 2
a clusedged to match

4th extra
d value,
75c

75c

75c

75c

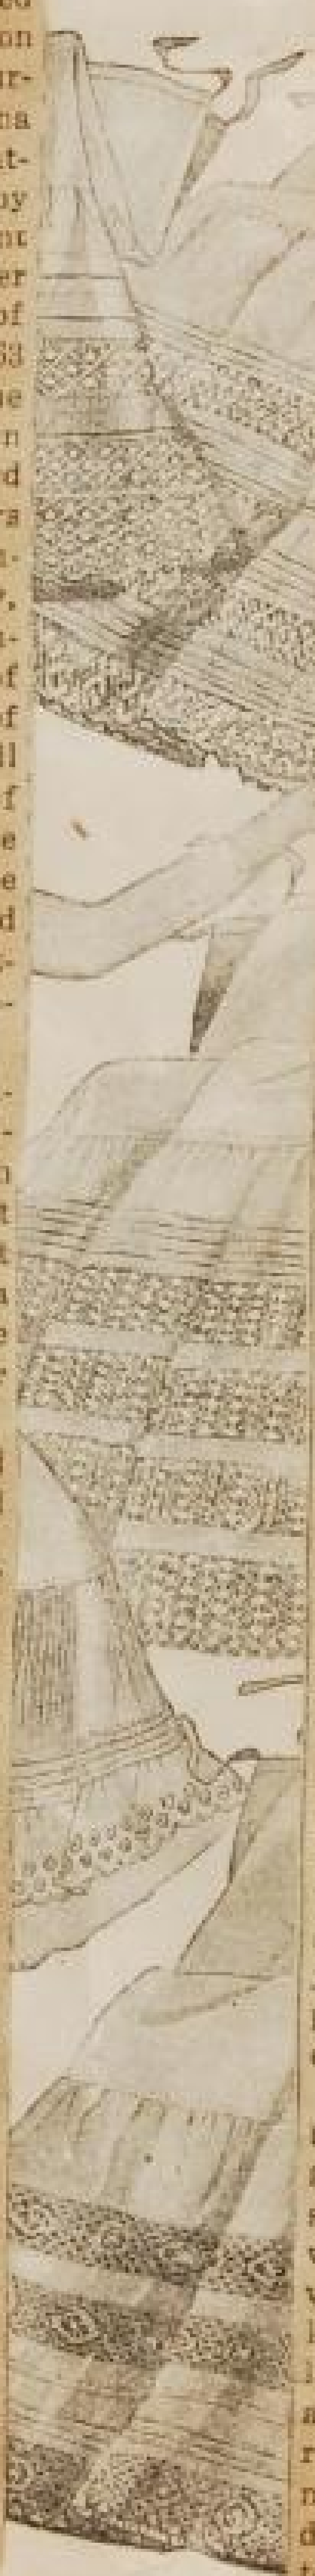

75c

20 $

20 $ 20 $

es long
at which
of the son to as are unapproved
and most
the club-appreciate suble to or those we ask
of very 14-inch
be lawn
ch ruffle
brodery,
ucks, an ruffle
durable specially $1.25
of very
with a flounce
trimmed
and a n insercombined
of the serviceable
garment ted with $1.00
of splendide, deely with which rebon lo-
a 4 secs edged lace to an extra an elab-
h skirt, $1.75
of very
with a ne which bed tucks
ch ruffle
rn open-extra pro-completes de price $1.00
of soft ned very sections
ch space
e of new embroid-
ter of 3 protects this it, which $1.50
of nice
th hand-flounce
ide very sections, ucks and
e of the lace to don dust charming optional
$1.50
of fine
h a 22-
an lawn, eriences
ed with ding of
o match,
make value as $1.25
of good with, de-20-inch
with 2
a clus-
edged to match 4th extra
d value,
75c
75c
75c
75c
75c

12 48
the 50

Sizes: 4
Notice
tions on faithful ticoats pear to these go guarante
lutely no der for a
as you
No. 20X42
fine qu
with a umbrell inch ru English on wit beading
some st extra Price,

No. 20X42
fine cr pleasing beautifu
embroid insertion
with 4
and 2
this spl
with ar
ruffle.

No. 20X42
cambrie bella trimmed insertion
terns, ing and 9 tucks same lo with at ruffle;
give per only

No. 20X42
rior qu
with a circular daintily French
edged match, dust ru French ribbon stylish

No. 20X43
rior Lou very at flute dou
rows of edged w beautifu
cienne artistic pretty ing low tection
this ex
one of monthly is very reasonable at... $3.50

No. 20X43L
Petticoat of Lou dale cambrie, which has a 14-inch flare bounce of Persian lawn combined with French tucks and 4 rows of dainty Valenciennes insertions and edging of the same dainty lace,
protected with an extra dust
ruffle; this is a very stylish, dressy garment; price... $1.95

No. 20X4
superf signed rows clonner
of the lace bounce of h ished
dust ruffle; this charming duffy creation will instantly find favor with women wishing a stylish, effective garment for street or evening wear stamped with distinct refinement. Price
only $3.95

Sarah E. Carmichael.
Sarah E. Clark, daughter of Eli and America Clark, was born near Judson, March 12, 1845, and died at her home near Bellmore, Oct. 16, 1910, age 65 years, 7 months and 4 days.

She was of a family of 11 children—6 girls and 5 boys, 5 of whom are left to mourn the loss of a loving sister.
The living are Robert Clark, Martha, wife of W. O. Phillips, Amanda, wife of Perry Phillips, America, wife of Nelson Brownell, and Mary, wife of G. W. Spencer.

The deceased was united in marriage with Dr. William P. Paxton Oct. 29, 1871. To this union one child, Mary P., was born Oct. 21, 1872. Mary was a lovable, intelligent child but not rugged and after a short illness of that dread disease diphtheria she past to the great beyond Aug. 17, 1879, at the age of 6 years, 9 months and 26 days.

Sarah was left a widow by the death of Dr. Paxton Jan. 18, 1874. She was again united in marriage with William Carmichael Oct. 17, 1883, and again
left a widow by the death of Mr.
Carmichael Sept. 13, 1901. She had since lived at her beautiful the lonely home with a constant companion in the person of May Hambell, who has served her with the faithfulness of an own child and mourns her death as that of a mother.

Mrs. Carmichael became a member of the Christian church about 50 years ago and remained a faithful member until her death. She has written a book of 65 pages, each being the actions of one year of a life devoted to the good of humanity. The book is closed and we would say as the angel

said to John on the isle of Patmos,
"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord. They shall rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

The funeral was held at the home, conducted by Rev. Barbre of the Rockville Christian church Oct. 18.
Burial beside her daughter Mary in the Rockville cemetery.

N'S WHIT

McMurtry-Grubb.

Last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the presence of relatives and friends numbering about seventy, Miss Miram May Grubb was united in marriage to Walter D. McMurtry of Marshall, Rev. C. M. Byerley of Frankfort officiating. The wedding wa a pink and white one, and the house was beautiful in pink carnations,
white chrysanthemums and greenery.

Mrs. A. M. Adams sang "O, Promise Me" before the ceremony and played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bride and groom unattended entered the parlor. During the ceremony Mrs.
Adams played "Melody of Love"
The bride was dressed in a white chiffon voile with trimmings of lace and pearls.

After the ceremony a three-course luncheon was served. The bride's table was in pink and white and had
as a centerpiece carnations and chrysanthemums.

The bride and groom received many nice presents of cut glass, silver, china and linen. They left immediately for Washington, D. C., on a two weeks trip. The bride's going-away gown was of gray material with hat and gloves to match.

Mr. and Mrs. McMurtry will be at home after Nov. 15 at Marshall.

20X428
$2.50

Mrs. J. R. Burks surprised her little daughter Eleanor Saturday afternoon, with a birthday party. Eleanor was taken up town to have her picture taken and when she returned 21 of her little friends greeted her. Thruout the afternoon games were enjoyed and later refreshments of ice cream and candy were served.

Marriage Licenses.
Oren L. Kelly of Russellville to Minnetta Blanche Odell of Parke county. Married Nov. 30, by Elder S.
K. Fuson.

20X432
$3.95

By the same on December 15, Mc-Carty M. Lantz of Judson to Hattie
M. Berry of Judson. Wm. Berry, father of the bride, accompanied the young couple.

OME XIN
ING Boxing en and ew the onials by an an, Young N e seen in but th an he on In It see resp a mew o te, ke Prate
No. 1
gr
w a you rip, f out y litt
you ren wo to esp ful ma bed hair, NG G Age
TH
A GO
W
U. S.
This Wa
And To How As For R Whil
No. 39A
Brother Will Little R
As yo
of these handy extra is bound to save a lot

VOME

James P. Stark.

The funeral service of James Preston Stark, who died Dec. 8, 1910, was held at Mt Moriah church, Dec 10, at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Reeves. Interment in the Mt Moriah cemetery.

James Preston Stark was born in Greene township, Parke county, Ind., Jan. 8, 1833. He died at his home after a short illness, Dec. 8, 1910, age 77 years and 11 months.

April 15, 1852, he was married to Mary E. Dykes and as a result of this union nine children were born—three sons and six daughters. Of this number two have departed from the stage of action Sarah Francis and Charles. Those living are William H., Mrs. Quincy McClain, Mrs. D. M. Swaim, Mrs. George Millemor, Mrs. Gilbert McClain, Mrs. Alfred Pulliam and Howard.

July 14, 1863, he enlisted in the Union army under the captainship of William D. Mull in Co. A, 115th Ind., regiment, where he encountered many of the privations wrought by this mighty conflict. Feb. 25, 1864, he was honorably discharged and returned to his home where he has successfully contriouted toward their welfare.

His occupation was that of a farmer and the well kept farm and beautiful home attest his unfaltering and industrious management. He possessed exceptionally good judgment, supported by a business ability that rendered his council efficient upon all occasions. As an accommodating neighbor he had but few superiors and possessed many qualities worthy of emulation. While the family, comrades, neighbors and friends will sadly miss him, we bow to the inevitable which will sooner or later claim us all. The deceased leaves his wife, two sons, five daughters, two brothers and one sister, together with a number of grandchildren and other relatives to mourn his departure.

The artistic skill of our muslin underwear designer finds expression in the beautiful garments which take as much pride in their construction as in their illustration. The most daintily pretty and graceful.

Obituary.

John L. Swaim was born Oct. 15, 1853, two miles south of Judson, Parke county, Ind. He grew to manhood and lived on the farm where he was born till May, 1904, when he removed to his present home in Rockville. He died at Indianapolis, Thursday, Jan. 19, 1911.

He was married to Mary E. Burford Oct. 2, 1878, with whom he lived in happy companionship for over 32 years. He united with Goshen Baptist church in 1876 at Judson and when he removed to Rockville he identified himself with the First Baptist church here and is most sincerely mourned by all as a devout, consistent christian.

He leaves a deeply stricken wife, a sister, Mrs. Frank Welch of Sand Creek; a half sister, Mrs. Margaret Ashberry of Marshall; a brother, Daniel Swaim of near Parkeville and a host of other relatives and friends.

The following tribute is paid his memory:

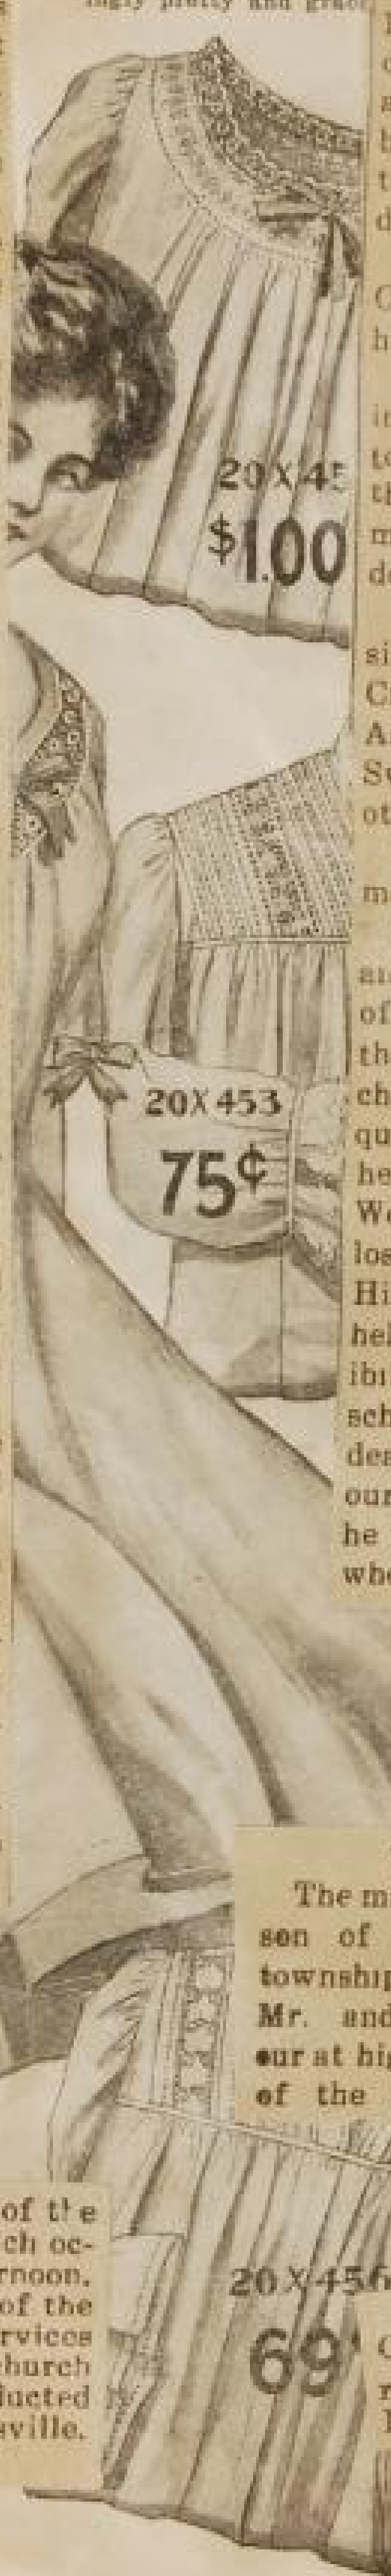

We as a church deeply feel our loss and would like to express a few words of appreciation and sympathy. We thank God for the beautiful christian character of our brother. Modest, quiet and unassuming he gained and held our sincere love and confidence. Words seem powerless to express our loss and sorrow but He knoweth best; His will be done. Our brother had held most of the offices of responsibility in our church, serving as Sunday school superintendent, trustee and deacon for years, and teacher of our Young Men's Bible class in whom he was most especially interested and who feel keenly their loss.

No. 20X455. Night Gown of excellent quality, Hubbard yoke which consists of 2 Valenciennes insertions with a 2-inch English eyelet insertion between combined with cluster of fine ruffles flowing cuff on sleeves, trimmed with Valenciennes to match; pearl buttons; exceptionally reasonable.75c

Thanksgiving Wedding.
The marriage of Samuel B. Demaree, son of Howe Demaree of Howard township, to Miss Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick McCune, will occur at high noon tomorrow at the home of the bride's parents in Marshall.

Thaddie V. Moore of Judson to Claudia B. Phillips of Rockville. Married, Nov. 24, by Rev. A. Dallas Williams of Alabama.

... .. $1.00

20X450
89c

20X45
49c

X43
.95

20X45
49c

20X4
75c

20X456
69c

WOMEN

Shower.

On Saturday afternoon, March 4, at 1:30 o'clock, the doors were thrown open at the home of Mrs. Joe Vanhuss to about 30 ladies who had responded to an invitation to attend a shower for Miss Bessie Vanhuss, who will be married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Vanhuss on Thursday, March 9, to Evert Alexander. By 2:30 o'clock all the guests had arrived and about 30 minutes was spent in games, Miss Sallie Collings winning first prize. The guests were then invited to the dining room, where the table was loaded with many useful presents, which were untied by Miss Bessie. They consisted of table linen, towels, china and granite ware. After thanking all in a very pleasing manner a two-course luncheon was served, consisting of sandwiches, pickles and coffee; ice cream and cake. The hostess was assisted in serving by Misses Nellie Hazlett and Grace Vanhuss. Hearts were given as favors, tied with pink and white ribbon. The bride-elect was dressed in blue silk and wore pink carnations. The guests departed about 4 o'clock, extending congratulations to Miss Bessie and thanking Mrs. Joe Vanhuss for the hospitality shown.

A Guest.

Obituary.

Luke Aker, a well known citizen of Parke county, and youngest son of Henry and Sarah Aker, was born October 13, 1842, near New Discovery, and lived in this county during his entire life. He was united in marriage to Lovina Martin, May 1, 1867. To this union were born 13 children. He departed this life at his home, near Bellmore, May 2, 1911, at the age of 68 years, 6 months and 19 days. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, 11 children, 26 grandchildren and one brother, John of Sullivan, with many other relatives and friends. Two infants, one sister, one brother and four grandchildren have preceded him in death.

Tuesday afternoon of last week he was found lying on the floor dead near where he had sit down to rest.

Thus a link in the family circle is broken, leaving sad and lonely the home that was once made bright by his presence. While he had suffered for the past few long years, he was patient and said he was ready to answer the call of One who doeth all things well.

Vain were the life we may part with tomorrow

If tears were our birthright and death were our end,

But Jesus has cheered the dark valley of sorrow

And bade us immortal to Heaven ascend.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Moriah cemetery by Rev. Ray Collings. Burial in the cemetery near by.

The married children are: Mrs. Mary Budd, Mrs. Martha Spencer, Charles Aker, William Aker, Mrs. Octava Scott, John Aker, Mrs. Minnie Collings of Terre Haute, Henry Aker, George Aker, Marion Aker, Mrs. Edna Alexander.

The two weeks' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ras Clore, who died at the home of her parents near Byron, was buried at Maple Ridge cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

The burial services of Gladys, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lamson, were conducted Saturday morning at Union cemetery, north of town, by Rev. C. P. Greenfield, of the Baptist church.

20X477

$125

20X480

$10

20X481

$1.50

20X

39

20X

$12

Married.

Miss Lenora Burford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burford living near Judson and Perley Whitesell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Whitesell, were married last Thursday at the home of the bride's parents near Judson. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Both young people are highly respected and have many friends who wish them happiness. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Whitesell will reside with Mrs. John L. Swaim in east Ohio street.

The art underwear shown in these illustrations of women of pride in their day gowns the most out this spring prettily 14, 15 and

No. 20X475
nainsook, yoke of wide & trimmed insertion ribbon Swiss trimmed tons; un

No. 20X476
fine nainsook, Valencienne of fine (ween, at hem with beading inserted in ing cuff trimmed to match dainty

No. 20X477
quality round yoke pretty p tions w combined which b and edge lace, d sleeves pearl buttons

No. 20X478. Night Gown of superior quality nainsook, hand somely designed with 2 wide Valenciennes insertions, neck trimmed with beading and pretty baby ribbon edged with dainty Valenciennes match insertion the same lace as form a charming sleeve; entirely dinary. Price

No. 20X479. Night splendid soft ioned chemise neck of handsor insertion, 2 rows ing and lace be low neck, and elbow sleeves, match with point embroidery cut, extremely only

No. 20X480. Night soft cambric, hi round yoke effect embroidery, set of homstitching and therstitched braid, combined with dainty baby ribbon neck and flowing cuff on elbow sleeves, trimmed with fine Valenciennes lace; pearl buttons; particularly go

No. 20X481. Night cellent cambric, round yoke, w 2 Valenciennes Hamburg head with 1/2-inch through each g and elbow sleeves, trimmed with ciennes lace to tie bow comple ment. Price on

No. 20X482. Night of the famous Ma high neck style Hubbard yoke of 4 pretty Han combined with stitching and tucks, neck fro trimmed with eed ruffle finthe stitched braid; practical gown, only.....$1.25

WOMEN'S DRAWERS

These Drawers are not cut from the ordinary homely pattern usually used. They will be found attractive and graceful. They are fitted above the hips and are widened toward the knee. All are artistically trimmed; thoroughly well made. Material cost you more than these garments made. Lengths: 23, 25, 27 inches.

Ollis Newkirk.

The funeral of William Ollis Newkirk was held at the First Christian church Wednesday, Jan. 25, at 10 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. William T. Barbre, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Alfred S. Warriner, pastor of the Methodist church. Ollis' friends have always tried to scatter flowers in his path while living and they did not forget to make their floral offerings when he was gone. The flowers that were brought were many and beautiful.

William Ollis was the son of Frank and Nancy Jane Newkirk, born April 16, 1893, and died January 22, 1911. Two brothers, Joseph Thomas, age 20, and Charles Richard, age 18, and two sisters, Anna Ellen, age 4, and Dottie Ethel, age 15, have preceded their brother to the better land.

Ollis was a quiet, unassuming, humble young man which made him beloved of all who knew him. In his long illness he was never known to grow impatient or complain at his lot in life. While the terrible disease was doing its work of destroying the physical body, his soul was growing in faith and spiritual strength. He had often expressed his willingness to die, saying that death had no fears but that his only regret was that he must leave his father and mother.

Ollis united with the First Christian church of Rockville, Sept. 20, 1908, and since that time he has always been faithful in his attendance upon the church services when his health would permit, and faithful in his Christian duties. He has been active in the church, Bible school and Christian Endeavor. Being the exception of a young man that he was, the church put so much confidence in him that he was chosen a deacon at this early age.

His friends were loath to give him up but God called and he has answered. His course was short but run well. The battle was of short duration, but victory was his. If he could speak, no doubt these would be his words:

Beside my grave, O weep not;
Nor say I'm lying there,
Turn up your faces heavenward,
Into the sunlit air;
Think how I'm far above you,
In the everlasting Spring,
In the Imperial City
And presence of the king.

Obituary

Margaret Strickler Teague was born Oct. 26, 1839; departed this life Jan. 26, 1911, age 71 years, 3 months.

She was converted at an early age and united with the U. B. church where she was a faithful and consistent member until the Marshall Baptist church was organized when she placed her membership there, remaining a member until death.

She was married to Samuel Martin Teague July 2, 1875. To them were born 11 children, 7 of whom with husband, 12 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, one sister, one half-sister and 2 half-brothers survive.

Her illness covered a period of 22 months, being confined to her room 13 months. She was patient thru her suffering realizing her illness to be fatal.

Over a year ago she made complete arrangements for her funeral and ever since has been anxiously waiting for the time to come when she should be at rest.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Pulliam, age 85, occurred at her home in Greene township last Thursday. Funeral services were held at Mt. Moriah church Saturday, Elder Ray Collings officiating.

Withron Clore, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Clore, of near this place, and Miss Dottie Odell, of near Judson, were married Monday at Rockville. They will reside in Indianapolis where the groom has employment.

Erwin-McIntyre.
Howard A. Erwin, a contractor of near Kingman and Miss Cora McIntyre, the primary teacher at Judson for several years, were quietly married by Rev. Brooks at his residence at Paris, Ill., Saturday afternoon. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

of fine
adorned all flare ree Val-
on coming and a dainty a pretty ates this at, $1.57
unde of full flare cks and button-French
.....49c
awers of ith deep trimmed led with service-
.....25c
of fine
full flare trimmed lace in-
of fine
e edging
ke band
tly gar-
.....49c
f excel-ade with tee pat-headed n of em-cluster
ed with
.....$1.25
made of having a of lawn
he tucks tly pat-deep yoke
.....39c
ly main-
BOOK OF A WER, handsomely trimmed with a solid ruffle of Valenciennes lace insertion and edging to match; finishing this very full ruffle is a lace beading and ribbon bows; a perfect fitting French band completes this handsome garment. $1.00
made of a muslin, its super-
ed finish,
ain style,
mstitched inch hem-
t value, 39c superior
with a
of lawn
through which are inserted two Valenciennes lace insertions combined with a one-inch fine Swiss embroidery beading,
through which is drawn 1/2-inch satin ribbon; a dainty lace trimmed ruffle finishes this most pleasing garment. $1.25
No. 20X509. Drawers of fine quality cambric made with a ery in all patterns, of tuck-
two rows perfect fitshes this
.....$1.00
made of eric and ruffle of of open work embroidery, headed with cluster of tucks, deep yoke band; a very practical garment.
69c
No. 20X511. Drawers of excellent quality cambric and trimmed with a 4 1/2-inch full ruffle of fine open work embroidery, combined with one-inch insertion above which ine tucks, a mpletes this ine.75c
made of very full lawn with iennes lace hich are 3
ainty edging
y lace; a es this ex-ment.75c
of good a 3-inch ruf-hich are two clusters of tucks finished with 2-inch hemstitched hem, deep yoke band25c

20 $

20X509 $1.00

20X510

20X511 7

20X512

7

20X501

20X

2

2

20X

20X50

39¢

20X
$12

CORSET COVERS.

Charles F. Burford.

Charles Fremont Burford, son of Henry and Elizabeth A. Burford, was born Oct. 6, 1856, died Sept. 1, 1911, age 54 years, 10 months and 25 days.

He was stricken Feb. 13 and suffered more or less to the end. Mr. Burford was united in marriage August 22, 1882, to Isabell E. Boyd. To this union were born four children. Deceased leaves his wife and four children—Henry I. Burford of Terre Haute, Mrs. Perley Whitesell of Rockville, Omer and Ola, who still remain at home; two grandchildren, his mother, four brothers and one sister—J. M. Burford of Panca City, Okla., S. H. Burford of Indianapolis; W. D. Burford of Lewiston, Ida., A. J. Burford and Mrs. J. L. Swaim of Rockville and a number of other relatives and friends to mourn. He will be missed in his community as a neighbor and friend.

So live that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death
Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night Scourged to his dungeon but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

Mr. Burford expired after an illness of seven months, during which time he suffered more than one could tell. He never united with any church but told several during his sickness he was ready and prepared to die and seemed ready when the time came. He always took his share in helping one in need and spent many laboring hours to help a needy friend. He spent his entire life on the farm and was prosperous. Part of the farm on which he lived was at one time part of his father's estate. He was always an ardent Republican and was one of the active members of the party.

Funeral services were conducted at his home Sept. 3 by Rev. T. B. Kelsey, formerly of Marshall and Rev. Forwood of Lewis, Ind. The latter sang a solo during the services. A choir from Sand Creek church rendered the other music.

Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mona Annis, to Mr. Enos VanHuss, which will take place Thursday afternoon, August 31, at 3.00 o'clock, at their home in Lena.

OBITUARY.

Eddie S. Scott, son of William and Mary D. Scott, was born in Putnam county, Jan. 19, 1869; died May 30, 1911, aged 42 years, 4 months and 11 days.

He was married to Belle Jack, Sept. 19, 1897, and to them were born two children, a daughter and son.

His first wife died August 19, 1905. On April 28, 1908, he was married to Maggie Lahue. On March 19, 1911, they moved to Indianapolis, where God called him home to rest. He united with the Christian church at Portland Mills, and was a member of the Woodmen camp at Judson. He was also a member of the Masonic fraternity at the same place.

The body was taken to the Mt. Pisgah church in Putnam county, where funeral services were held, conducted by Rev. Miles of M. E. church, after which interment was made in the cemetery under direction of the Masons.

Eddie was a kind and loving husband and father and a dutiful son to his aged mother. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and two children, his aged mother and one sister, besides a host of relatives and friends.

Obituary

Marion Branson, eldest son of Matthew and Mary Overpeck Branson, was born in Parke county, Indiana, June 6, 1849, and died July 13, 1911, age 62 years, 1 month and 7 days.

December 16, 1877, he was united in marriage to Sarah M. McClain and spent the remainder of his life on his father's old homestead. To this union no children were born, but he leaves to mourn his loss his companion, three brothers—George, Thomas and Ellis—and one stepbrother, John J. McClain.

The deceased's tragic and sudden death occurred by a horse kicking him over the heart and he was found dead in his barn shortly after the accident happened.

He never united with any church, but was a firm believer in the faith proclaimed by the Predestinarian Baptist church.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Ray Collings at Mt. Moriah and burial in the cemetery near by.

No. 20X525. Corset Covers of Every number illustrated and described below quality and trimming lent that you will c

No. 20X526. An and pretty Cover is made low neck and effect, trimme elaines lace in 4 Van Dyke po sections joined ing and baby r lace to match shows its value

No. 20X527. Cors nainsook, rou with two rows insertions, Jol bending and ba and sleeves tri very good value

No. 20X528. Cors unisook, low with a fine et top of which is lets, through w dainty baby ril and pretty

No. 20X529. Cors finished cambr trimmed with work embro neck and sleeves edging of Fron lace, dainty bal through beads pretty

No. 20X530. This fitting Corset C fine nainsook, 1 orately trimme pointed yoke trimmed medall insertion of th joined with through which is drawn 1/2-inch washable ribbon, neck and sleeves trimmed to match. $1.00

No. 20X531. This very pretty and attractive Corset Cover is made of fine nainsook, low neck, trimmed front and back three Valenciennes lace joined with lace 1 pretty baby ribbon, deep yoke effect, ed same pretty lace making this a mo corset cover

No. 20X532. Corset nainsook, low neck fine nainsook and tr French Valenciennes lace, forming a p effect in which are 1 cm broid red trimmed with lace the same pretty lac make this excellent

No. 20X533. This dai fitting Corset Cover extra fine quality, full front, prett with 4 insertions of designs in Valenc combined with lac ribbon run and fin ribbon bows; the lace edging on neck completes this; excel

No. 20X534. The ex design Corset Cover fine quality nainsook of which is prett with French Valenc insertions and meda wide lace insertion J lace beading, throu drawn 1/2-inch wash edging of the same on neck and sleeves this most desirable co

No. 20X535. Corset Covers of fine nainsook, low neck, and trimmed with 2 wide torchon lace insertions, joined with lace beading and baby ribbon, with a wide edging of the same serviceable lace trimming on neck and sleeves; exceptionally good value

28
39c

49c

WO

WOM

Peare-McMillin.

Wm. J. Peare of Bellmore and Miss Ola McMillin of Rockville were married just before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. A. S. Warriner at the M. E. parsonage. They took the 4:06 train for Tolleston, Ind., a town near Gary, where the groom has secured a superintendency of some sort in the steel plant.

Mr. Peare was a former coroner of Parke county and has a large acquaintance thruout the county. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee McMillin and has past all her life in Rockville. For several years she was employed in The Republican office and was the first operator on the Simplex type-setting machine. Of late she has been clerking in George T. Howell's store.

The two have had a long courtship and their friends congratulate them on its happy conclusion. May their future life be plentifully strewn with roses.

hemise is no longer looked as a like affair, but is now a man's wardrobe. It is designed about the shoulders. It is the most desirable and...

Bilbo-Loudermill.

Waveland, Oct. 2.—Sunday evening just as the clock was striking the hour of six Miss Ferrol Dean Bilbo and Mr. Hubert Loudermill, both of this place, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Bilbo. The Rev. Halle C. Burkhardt, pastor of the Waveland Christian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. The bride wore a becoming costume of brown silk, with accessories to match. Immediately after the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal couple led the way to the dining room where light refreshments were served. They have gone to Culver for a few days visit and will be at home to their many friends here in a cottage on west Main street upon their return.

55 skirt length, finished with two rows of embroidery in same neat bottom of tucked cambric. 89c

skirt length, elaborately wide Valenciennes joined through baby ribbon. $1.00 skirt length, trimmings in heading and rye neat edging. 75c

No. 20X553. Chemise of soft finished cambric, skirt length, round neck effect, torkon lace insertion, joined with lace heading and baby ribbon; neck and sleeves trimmed with edging of skirt is finished. 49c length Chemise round neck of no embroidered with one insertion lace; a through which baby ribbon, trimmed with skirt is finished. $1.00
cause of soft finished cambric, skirt length, square neck, three fine embroidery insertions combined with four clusters of pin tucks, forming a square yoke; neck and sleeves finished with one-inch ruffle; bottom of skirt with cambric ruffle cluster of tucks, 49c

Last Thursday evening at the home of the groom occurred the marriage of Aaron Harlan and Mrs. Mollie Carter. The bride wore a gray cloth suit. About 100 guests witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. R. C. Collings. A two-course supper was served.

THIS COMPLETE

BRIDAL SETS

A Miscellaneous Shower.

Special to The Journal: Waveland, Oct. 3.—Miss Etta Brown entertained Saturday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Ferrol Bilbo, who is soon to be married to Hubert Loudermill. The gifts were placed in a small cart decorated with streamers of pink and white crepe paper. It was pushed by little Margaret Louise Sharp, niece of the hostess. The gifts were accompanied by original verses, which when read, caused much merriment. Dainty refreshments were served, in which the color scheme of pink and white was carried out. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Ira Sharp and little Misses Vera Spencer and Louise Dietrich.

THIS COMPLETE Wallace L. Vaught to Wilma Marie Fritts, both of Judson.

$4.50

BRIDAL SETS.

No. 20X556. This handsome and elaborately trimmed Bridal Set of three pieces. $7.95
The Gown is made of superior cambric with Valenciennes around waist with ribbon of same color, sleeves finished with ruffle of lace to match.
The Chemise made of the same material, skirt length, finished with dainty lace trimmed ruffle; the yoke of chemise is trimmed with crown, having the side of Valenciennes full 9-inch ruffle with lace ruffle and with fine Swiss lace which is drawn with wash ribbon, finished with Fifth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy White entertained at six o'clock dinner in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. The dinner was served in three courses. The color scheme was carried out in autumn leaves of red and brown.

Elder Airhart Married.

Rev. C. L. Airhart was married at Crawfordsville on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. His bride was Miss Evaline VanCleave from near New Market. The ages of the parties are given in the certificates were 51 for the groom, and 33 the bride. The latter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom VanCleave of near New Market and Mr. and Mrs. Airhart will make their home with them for the present.

William Lanning of Judson. Nellie Settles, of Guion.

Miss Farice McCammon and Samuel Scott were married by Rev. Z. D. Maris at his home in Rockville, November 29. Friends extend congratulations.

is one of the greatest values ever offered in a matched set at $4.50
The Gown is made of fine Valenciennes, chemise style and trimmed with insertions of French lace with a one-inch heading, through which is drawn satin ribbon finished with bows, lace edging on neck and sleeves to match. The Chemise is of fine Valenciennes full skirt length to match gown, finished with ribbon bows.

20x554 $1.00

Waveland, Oct. 13. A pretty autumn wedding occurred Wednesday evening, Oct. 11, when Miss Mary Christine Barr became the bride of Mr. D. A. McGaughey, of Greensburg. The simple and impressive ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Barr, at 8 o'clock, and was performed by Rev. W. H. Fertich, of the M. E. church, in the presence of forty guests. Previous to the ceremony Miss Louie Oglesbee played "Simple Confession" by Thome, and during the ceremony she played "The Flower Song" by Lang. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride wore a beautiful costume of white French lawn trimmed in Valenciennes and cluny lace and insertion. When the guests arrived they were received by Miss Barr, Mr. McGaughey, and Mr. and Mrs. Barr, parents of the bride. The parlor was decorated in white, pink and green. Throughout the room were draped festoons of pink and white crepe paper and the flowers were pink carnations. The bridal couple stood in a bower of ferns, autumn foliage and potted plants, while suspended over them was a large white wedding bell, while the ceremony was being said. The living room was in green and red, sprays of honey suckle, red carnations and salvia being used, and in the dining room red hearts were used in profusion and large bouquets of salvia completed the decoration. Light refreshments were served by Misses Edith McGaughey, Edith Brown, Etta Brown, Ruby Sharp, Eunice Sharp, Gladys Sharp and Louie Oglesbee. Mr. and Mrs. McGaughey will be at home after Oct. 16, on a farm one mile east of Greensburg, where McGaughey is a prosperous farmer. Mr. McGaughey has won for his bride one of the most estimable and most popular young ladies of this place. She is a graduate of the Waveland high school, being a member of the class of 1910 and was also active in church work.

Hallowe'en Party.

Mr. and Mrs. William Peyton and family gave a Hallowe'en party to their neighbors and friends Monday night. Everybody went masked and had a fine time. There were three prizes given. Mis Hazel Springer received the first for being the prettiest masked, Mrs. Mae Bollman won the second for the ugliest. Ted and Jesse Peyton were the best representatives of the elephant. The house was decorated in jack-o'-lanterns. Refreshments of pumpkin pie, hickory nut cake, candy and pears, apples and olives, grapes and bananas were served in the dining room. The waiters were Mrs. William Peyton and Mrs. Gus Monroe. The rest of the evening was spent in singing and playing games and a general good laugh.

make a specialty of the best. Our faction that this de- able for you to ob- 1 Gowns: 17, 18, 1, 6 to 52 bust.

20X575
$1.50

20X577
98¢

A Shower

The L. A. S. of Parkville, gave a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Rusk, Saturday afternoon, for Miss Farrice McCammon, who was married to Samuel Scott of Waveland, Wednesday, November 29. After the usual merriment and the serving of refreshments, which consisted of candies, nuts and fruits, the bride displayed her presents which were many and very nice.

Those present were: Mesdames Tom Shalley, George Millemon, David Jack, Charles Daniels, John Stephenson and Ellsworth Rusk, and Misses Addie Thomas and Anna Spencer, who each gave salad dishes. Miss Effie Hope gave an olive dish, Mrs. Will Hazlett and daughter, cups and saucers; Mrs. Will Odell, granite dipper and tea strainer; Mrs. John Gilderland and daughters, table cloth; Mrs. Laura Hope, granite pan; Mesdames Lora Vaught, Sam Spencer and Misses Naomi and Fannye McCammon, fancy plates, and Miss Elsie McCammon, granite pan. Those who were unable to be present, but sent gifts were: Mrs. Charles Gastineau, salad dish; Mrs. Sallie Fritts, glass dish; Miss Mary Spencer, fancy plate; Mrs. Ruth Akers, granite pan, and Mrs. George Shalley, granite dishpan.

Mrs. Frank Keller, of Waveland, Ind., entertained at a miscellaneous shower, Dec. 4, for Miss Faye Hallett, who is to be a bride, Dec. 27. The decorations in the living room were hemlock and red hearts, while the dining room was artistically decorated in festoons of evergreen, ferns, and red hearts. Red and white crepe paper made a beautiful cross over the table in the dining room. The afternoon was spent in progressive conversation and fortune telling. Favors were a sprig of hemlock tied with a bow of red and white ribbon. Light refreshments were served in the dining room. The bride-to-be received many beautiful and useful gifts.

20X588
75¢

59¢

women. The garments are extremely nice for them. Sizes: 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50, 52, 54, 56, 58, 60, 62, 64, 66, 68, 70, 72, 74, 76, 78, 80, 82, 84, 86, 88, 90, 92, 94, 96, 98, 100.

20X581
38¢

20X582
39¢

20X583
69¢

20X584
39¢

20X585
49¢

12
No. 1
No. 2
No. 3
No. 4
No. 5
No. 6
No. 7
No. 8
No. 9
No. 10
No. 11
No. 12
No. 13
No. 14
No. 15
No. 16
No. 17
No. 18
No. 19
No. 20
No. 21
No. 22
No. 23
No. 24
No. 25
No. 26
No. 27
No. 28
No. 29
No. 30
No. 31
No. 32
No. 33
No. 34
No. 35
No. 36
No. 37
No. 38
No. 39
No. 40
No. 41
No. 42
No. 43
No. 44
No. 45
No. 46
No. 47
No. 48
No. 49
No. 50
No. 51
No. 52
No. 53
No. 54
No. 55
No. 56
No. 57
No. 58
No. 59
No. 60
No. 61
No. 62
No. 63
No. 64
No. 65
No. 66
No. 67
No. 68
No. 69
No. 70
No. 71
No. 72
No. 73
No. 74
No. 75
No. 76
No. 77
No. 78
No. 79
No. 80
No. 81
No. 82
No. 83
No. 84
No. 85
No. 86
No. 87
No. 88
No. 89
No. 90
No. 91
No. 92
No. 93
No. 94
No. 95
No. 96
No. 97
No. 98
No. 99
No. 100

20th Wedding Anniversary.

Looking back over the vista of time just 20 years ago today, Oct. 25, 1911, recalls the fact that the two days were identical in the same balmy atmosphere that lingered in the waning of a declining autumn and brings into the foreground of memory those present at the happy event that was consummated in the congenial union of the worthy couple—John Lear and wife. The 20th anniversary of their marriage was celebrated by giving a formal invitation to 150 of their relatives and friends from Rockville, Rosedale, Mecca, Judson, Milligan and other points who responded by their presence at the "china wedding" at the Lear home, north of Rockville a few miles.

An imitative marriage ceremony was read by Master Claud Hazlett, who with the usual other questions asked the groom if he would always furnish the bride with "pin money," and the bride, if she would always keep the buttons sewed on. The couple stood before a bough of autumn leaves and their attendants were the same as at their wedding 20 years ago and were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, who then were not married, Wallace Lear, Charlie Alexander and Mr. Hall. The bride's costume was in keeping with the styles of 20 years ago and as she said and looked as she came out to greet the arrival of her parents she felt just as young as she did then. Congratulations were extended and all of the family were present except Mrs. Alice Cox of Colorado and Mrs. Fred Mears of Lehigh, Ia. Then all repaired to the dining room to see the presents, which in a pleasing well worded speech were presented by Mrs. Pence, and were a beautiful $26 dinner set of china dishes given by relatives, friends and co-workers in the Christian church to which they belong; six Haviland china dinner plates, given by the ladies of the Royal Neighbor club to which she belongs and other pretty gifts too numerous to mention.

A 36-foot table was erected in the front yard under maple trees and was loaded with all good things to eat that deft hands could prepare from the store of an over-abundant year of prosperity.

The bride's cake, made by her niece Miss Zora Hazlett, was one foot long, 8 inches high and 8 inches wide, decorated and lettered, October 25, 1911, in autumn tints. There were 20 other cakes, the number of years they have been married.

After dinner Misses Zora and Carrie Hazlett very agreeably entertained with songs and music and were lively encored.

FLANNELETTE

The waiters came round the house with all kinds of racket in the make up of a charivari. Mr. Lear past the cigars and Mrs. Lear the candy and all the sweet cider one could drink. George Jacks presented the couple two huge watermelons and each a pear suggesting that they were a well mated pair.

The day was most enjoyably spent and all departed wishing many more returning happy years to this couple with whom time seems to have dealt lightly, whose home is blessed with a family of 5 bright children, 2 daughters and 3 sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Lear wish to express their hearty thanks to all who contributed in making their 20th anniversary a bright spot on memory's page.

M. B. year has been each season and service to the wearer, to that those who once looked at its appearance, and artistically on an almost garment. We give below a few values in Flannelette prices will be very low. You see Flannelette which we ask for.

Flannelette Night blue and pink with double yoke, effect, trimmed with band of fancy braid with scalloped collar; a pretty completes this garment, only 75c

Extra size flannelette Gown, cut in a generous manner and made of fine pink and blue stripes, deep Hubbard yoke, a fancy washable braid finishes the collar, yoke and band cuffs, only .75c

No. 20X602. Extra size flannelette Gown, having Hubbard yoke, trimmed with fancy braid, a deep scalloped collar and scalloped ruffle on sleeves to match completes this very garment for the day.....88c

Lough-Demaree.

Waveland, Dec. 26.—At the elegant country home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Demaree, near here, took place on Christmas Eve at eight o'clock the pretty wedding of Mr. Roy E. Lough of Marshall and Miss Anna Irene Demaree, in the presence of about fifty invited guests. Miss Mildred Demaree, a cousin of the bride, presided at the piano and rendered a short musical program. She beautifully rendered "Hearts and Flowers," as a prelude to the Mendelssohn's wedding march, during which the bridal party took their places at the altar, where they were met by the officiating clergyman, Rev. H. C. Riley of the Waveland Methodist Church, who solemnized the marriage, using the shorter Episcopal ceremony, while Miss Mildred played softly "Garden of Roses." Mr. Fay Lough, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Betty, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Light refreshments were served. Many useful and beautiful presents were received. Mr. Lough is a very successful and prosperous young farmer of near Marshall, Parke county, and the bride is a very popular young lady of talent and efficiency. They will make their future home near Marshall.

Flannelette Night stripes, made with yoke neck effect, trimmed with silk braid, deep pointed collar with fancy braid, comfortable, new collarless.....$1.25

Flannelette Night pink and blue the newest design, 1/2-inch tucks, silk stitching, a scalloped collar to match; excellent.....$1.50

Flannelette Night pink and blue Hubbard yoke effect, washable braid, roll-up cuffs, made of down flannel,.....50c

Flannelette Night extra pink and blue very deep Hubbard yoke, finished with 5 pcny flannelette lining collar and lined to match;.....89c

Flannelette Night extra pink and blue board style, double yoke, deep sailor collar, finished with silk scalloped edging, sleeves finished with ruffle to match, cut extra long and full.....98c

most desirable Flannelette Night Gown is made of extra quality flannelette, made with a deep Hubbard yoke, back and front, having deep sailor collar, finished with silk scalloped edging, sleeves finished with ruffle to match, cut extra long and full.....98c

No. 20X600. Flannelette Night Gown, in dainty pink and blue stripes, yoke back and front, having a square neck effect, trimmed with one-inch embroidered, through which is very beading, a deep drawn 1/2-inch ribbon, a deep scalloped ruffle completes this very pretty and serviceable garment, sleeves trimmed to match, only.....99c

58

Miscellaneous Shower.

New Market, Dec. 13.—Last Saturday Miss Myrtle Bayless and Mrs. Florence Bayless gave a shower at the home of the former near Brown's Valley, in honor of Miss Pearl Reynolds, whose marriage to Mr. Leo Thompson will occur at Rockville this week. The dining room was beautifully decorated in green and red streamers, extended from the corners of the dining table to a large bell in the center directly

WOM

No. 20X62

Pajama stripes, white pants

No. 20X63

Pajama pink in trim buttons, double

No. 20X64

skirt, white, band, deep all very skirt, or

No. 20X65

skirt of stripes, lashed at cuffs on necks edging; ment, by

No. 20X629

Flannelette Under-skirt, in pink and blue stripes, deep yoke band, finished at bottom with scalloped edge; a very neat garment, only .25c

No. 20X630

Flannelette Under-skirts in made with Dyke trichon lace skirt, on

No. 20X634

skirt of stripes, band, finished with 10-inch excellent

No. 20X632

skirt of pretty effects, finished with scalloped and desirable only

No. 20X633

skirt of fine pink, finished with desired this one only

No. 20X63

Undershirt top and are navy

No. 20X63

Undershirt fancy with desirable

above it, which made a very pretty effect. A two course luncheon was served. The assistants in the dining room were Misses Golda Bayless and Eva Gentry, and Mrs. Mattie Gentry, Cora Bayless and Florence Bayless. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by twenty-five guests. Quite a number were absent on account of the weather being in keeping with the occasion, "a continual shower." A program of music and songs was rendered by Misses Lola Ward, Myrtle Bayless and Pearl Reynolds, after which Miss Golda Bayless read a very entertaining prophecy, which caused much laughter and applause. The bride-to-be was the recipient of numerous and useful presents. Immediately after reading the inscriptions accompanying the gifts she was greatly surprised by being showered with rice.

Married at Rockville.

On Wednesday at the matrimonial parlors of Justice J. E. Bryant of Rockville occurred the marriage of Miss Pearl Dean Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reynolds of west of Waveland, and Leo L. Thompson, son of Mrs. Mattie Thompson, of three miles north of Brown's Valley. The nuptial event was witnessed only by a few intimate friends. The newlyweds have gone to housekeeping at the home of the groom's mother. They are both well known and highly respected young people of the southwest part of the county. They have the best wishes of hosts of friends.

Odell-Farrow

On Tuesday, December 19th, at high noon, at Greencastle, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Laura Farrow and Samuel B. Odell. Mrs. Odell is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Farrow of Morton, who are wealthy and influential people of that locality, and Mr. Odell is one of the most prosperous farmers of Judson. After an extended wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Odell will be at home to their many friends at the beautiful country home of the bride, about one and one-half miles from Morton. The best wishes of all their friends are extended to the newly married pair for happiness and prosperity in their wedded life.

ND CR

Keller-Hallett.

Waveland, Dec. 27.—This afternoon at three at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Hallett, of Bluff Mills, five miles north of here, occurred the marriage of Miss Faye Hallett and Roscoe Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Keller of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Whitman of Wallace, pastor of the Lutheran Church, near that place. It was witnessed by the immediate friends and relatives. The bride was handsome in a dark blue chiffon Panama dress and wore a hat to match. The newlyweds expect to reside for the present with the groom's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keller. Congratulations are now in order.

Claudia Lanning Call

Claudia A. Call, wife of Albert Call, daughter of Thomas and Eliza Lanning, was born April 18, 1881, and died December 22, 1911, age 30 years, 9 months and 4 days. She became the devoted wife of Albert Call, Sept. 20, 1899. To this union was born the infant daughter, Mary Louise, who now survives.

The deceased was the youngest of her father's family. She leaves to mourn her departure, two sisters, Mary Spencer, wife of J. H. Spencer, and Susie Akers, wife of Charles Akers; two brothers, Enos Lanning of Rockville, and James Lanning of Notom, Utah, and a bereaved mother and husband

The deceased never made a public profession of Christian religion. Those who knew her best have sufficient evidence that she was a Christian woman. In her home she was a devoted wife, and sought to make those around her happy. She was considerate and had an indisputive character, giving each their equal right, believing that sharing mutually in each other's friendship gave sunshine and happiness to all around. Thus ends the life of a good wife, daughter, sister and neighbor.

Funeral services were conducted at the house at eleven o'clock Sunday and at Mt. Moriah church at twelve o'clock by Rev. C. R. Collings and S. K. Fuson. Dearest loved one, you have left us, And our loss we deeply feel;

But 'tis God that hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal. For this world is sad and lonely Since you were called away; Home is not what it used to be Since, dear one, you have passed. Yet again we hope to meet you, When the storm of life hath passed, Where in heaven with joy we'll greet you, Where no farewell tears are shed.

ENTS

60X: $1.9

OX 628

49¢

20 X 629

25¢

98¢

X 633

8¢

Obituary

Thomas Payton, son of Antony and Margrett Payton, was born May 12, 1832, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert La-follett, January 23, 1912, at the age of 79 years, 9 months and 11 days. He was united in marriage to Mar-tha Ann Stout, May 6, 1852, and lived with her a devoted husband until death. To this union were born ten children, James A., Mary F., William H., Sarah J., Nancy, George, John A., Ella, Ora and Omer. The deceased united with the Regular Predestinarian Baptist church at Mt. Moriah, July 7, 1866, and lived a faithful and attentive member until death. For many years he served as trustee of Mt. Moriah church and cemetery. He was public spirited and devoted much time to beautifying the church property, and was instru-mental in making Mt. Moriah cem-etry one of the most beautiful cemeteries in Paker County. Al-though criticised a great deal for his efforts he lived to see them ac-complished, and he will be greatly missed at Mt. Moriah. For a num-ber of years he was considered the leader in the singing at Mt. Mor-iah. Not only will Uncle Tom Payton be missed at church, but he has been one of the most at-tentive members of the Danville Association, and from time to time he and his good wife have ridden facing the cold and the storm to some distant meeting, that they might enjoy the blessings of Christian worship. His home stood ever open with a welcome to his friends and brethren. He was an earnest defender of the doc-trines of the Predestinarian Baptists and was often heard to express his hope of a better life. Since his wife died he had been much griev-ed, but bore his troubles with Christian fortitude. Thus ends the life of a kind and loving father, grandfather, brother and friend. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Airhart and C. R. Collings at Mt. Moriah, after which the remains were laid to rest in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Mrs. William Collings

Mrs. William Collings, who re-sided in the east end of town, died quite suddenly on Wednesday, after a few hours illness. She was seventy years old, and was appar-ently in her usual health, having helped to fix a stove which was out of repair, after the stove was fixed she complained of feeling ill and laid down, medical aid was summoned, but she grew steadily worse, passing away in a few hours. She is survived by her husband. Funeral services were held at Mt. Moriah church, at 10.30, Thursday morning, interment in the cemetery near by.

Obituary

Sarah Jane Collings, daughter of Abraham and Mary Collings was born April 2, 1848, and died Jan-uary 16, 1912, aged 63 years, 9 months and 14 days. She was married to William N. Collings, August 26, 1869. To this union were born six children, three girls and three boys, Celia, Elbert, Jesse, Mary, Manford, and Ruth. All except Mary, who died Novem-ber 28, 1881, are living to mourn their loss. Besides she leaves a husband, one sister, three brothers and a host of relatives and friends. She was a good wife, an affection-ate mother and a good neighbor and friend. She never united with any church, but has always lived a Christian life, bearing her suffer-ing without a murmur or com-plaint. Funeral services were conducted Thursday at 10.30 o'clock at Mt. Moriah, by Rev. C. R. Collings.

Little Waneta Lee, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Friend, who reside near "Old Hickory," is dead. Death came to her almost suddenly on last Wednesday morning, Feb. 7, at 7:30. The grim reaper snatched from Mr. and Mrs. Friend their dar-ling baby, aged 4 months and 8 days. The little one never possessed a strong constitution but had gained rapidly within the last month, and on Tuesday it took violently sick and died in its mother's arms before the doctor arrived. It is thought its death was due to congestion of the stomach. Though this little jewel had been in the home but a short time, yet its lit-tle life was centered in the hearts of each member of the family who have the sincere sympathy of all their friends. Interment was made on Fri-day in the Ladoga cemetery.

MIS-US

od Reina, shield
... $1.95
thes Back,
... 95c
Pants, ab-lace trim-antiaoptic,
... 50c
100 Sacque
& and blue,
sh and lace
... 30c
In Long
... 49c

No. 60X704. Infants' Wrapper of Dular Cloth, round collar and cuff finished with crochet edge; colors pink, blue and white. Price.....39c

Machine-Quilted
.....15c

Daisy Cloth
lun, with silk rice.....21c

d Lawn Pillow
stitched ruffle.
.....49c

illow Case of brodery ruffle.
.....69c

kid Moccasin, shirred, ribbon
ink, blue and
.....59c

ululoid Teeth-with Worsted
a. Price.....49c

eding Bib of checks, made Price.....29c

Hand-Crocheted
intious, and ex-
.....40c

lue Cashmere
nd-embroidered
ery pretty and
.....$1.25

Hand-Crochet
heavy, white,
mling.....59c

No. 60X716. Infants' Knit Bootees, white, with pink or blue trimmings.
Price29c

Nes, pat-
.....49c

er Fleece eru, em-
.....29c

wl, extra and pret-
r in silk.
.....$1.25

in Fine or blue
.....59c

ine Flan-
.....95c

ted Bibs, and lace
.....39c

of Fine med with e edging
.....75c

Crochet with blue lainty.....49c

ton Shoes, colors
.....49c

Turkish designs;
.....15c

OX700
1.95

704
9c.

6

713 4!

X719
.25

X723
5c.

60X720
59c.

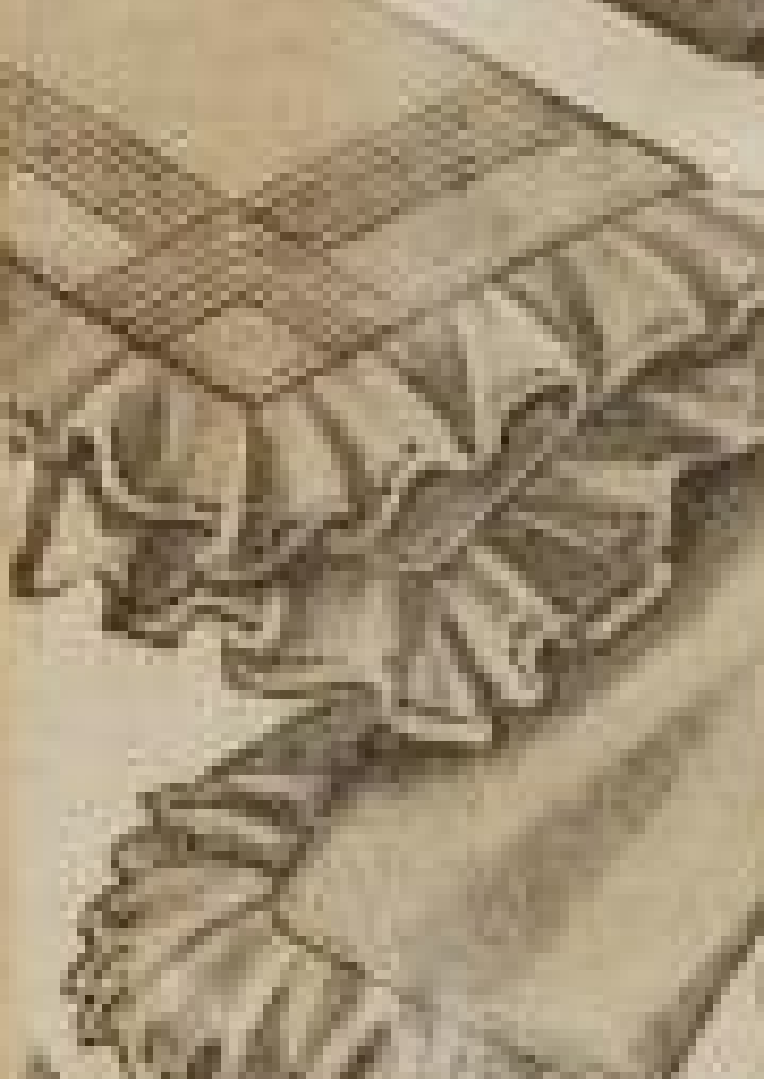

Mrs. Lizzie Randolph died on last Friday evening at her home in Danville, Ind., after an illness of almost a year. The remains were brought here and taken to the home of her mother, Mrs. Laura Newlin. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. S. K. Fuson. Mrs. Ran-dolph had many warm friends in Marshall, who sympathize very much with the bereaved family.

60X725
49c.

OX721
98c.

65c.

60X7
59

60X750

39c.

Born—Thursday, June 22, to David Jack and wife, a son. The infant was buried at Mt. Moriah cemetery, Thursday afternoon. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved parents.

Hymeneal

On Wednesday afternoon, May 8, at three o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hazlett in Bridgeton, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Zora Frances, to Howard Ross Tolley, of Washington, D. C.

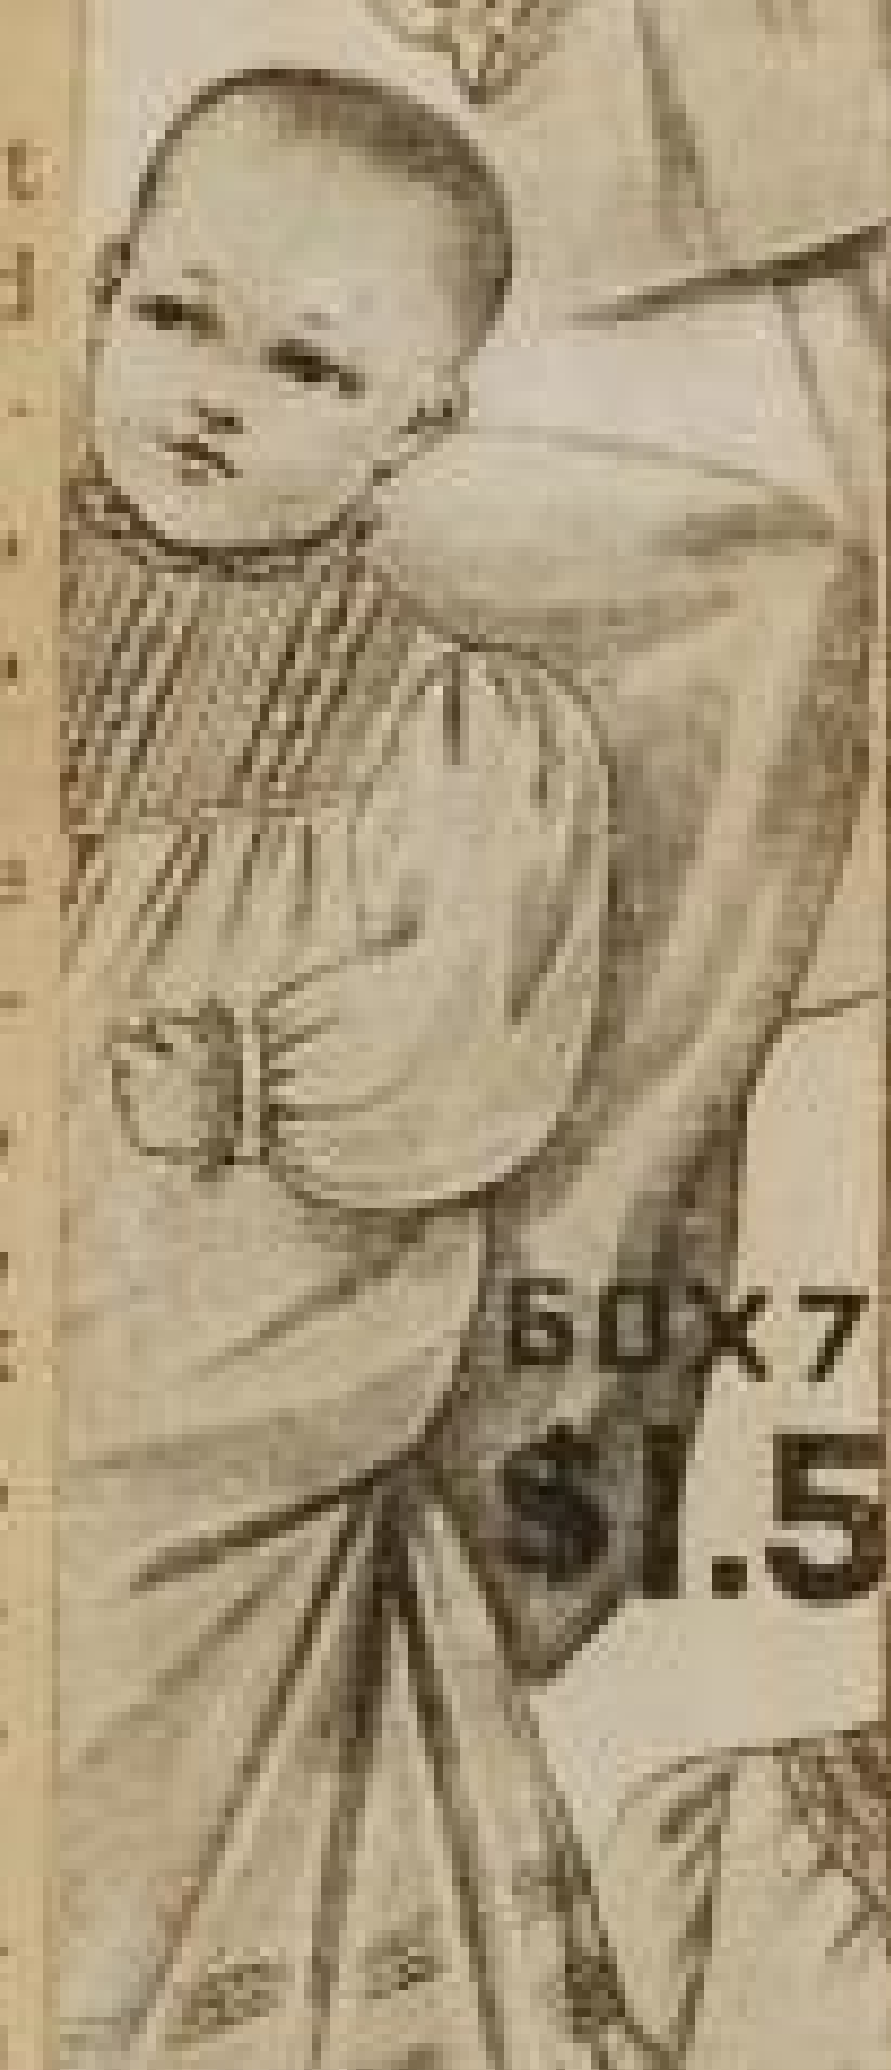

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Blanche Seller rendered a beautiful musical program, ending with the Wedding March, to the strains of which the bridal pair, unattended, entered the parlor and took their places beneath a canopy of palms, ferns and potted plants, where Rev. C. R. Airhart performed the ceremony, the ring service being used.

The bride's gown was a dainty creation of white messaline, and she carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies and white swansonias. At the close of the ceremony, which was witnessed by about ninety guests and relatives, the bridal pair proceeded to the dining room, and were seated at the table with Mr. and Mrs. Hazlett, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Airhart, Miss Mona Tolley and Chester Hazlett. The decorations in the dining room were very artistic and pretty in the bridal colors of pink and white, festoons of smilax being suspended from the ceiling to the four corners of the table, which was embellished with a beautiful center piece of pink carnations and ferns. The same color scheme was carried out in the two-course supper which was served.

The bride received many beautiful and useful presents of silver, linen, cut glass and china. Her going away gown was of tan whip cord, tailored, with hat to match. Mrs. Tolley has many friends in Rockville and throughout the county who will long remember her for her gracious service with her talents both in music and elocution, and one and all wish her happiness in the new home which her husband has prepared for her in Washington, D. C., where he holds a position in the Coast and Geodetic Department of the government.

60X752

29c.

60X7

$1.5

60 6

INFANTS' LONG SLIPS AND DRESSES

Eliza Buchanan

Mrs. Eliza Buchanan, wife of Josiah Buchanan, very quietly passed away at the family residence, at Judson, Indiana, March 30, 1912, aged 66 years, 5 months and 26 days. She was united in marriage to Joseph Buchanan, November 4, 1874. To this union was born three children, two sons and one daughter. One son and one daughter preceded her to the better world. She leaves a husband, one son, two brothers and three sisters, and many friends to mourn her loss.

The subject of this sketch united with the Old Bethany Presbyterian Church at the tender age of sixteen. She was dismissed from this church at her own request to become a charter member of the Judson Guion congregation at its organization, May 2, 1875. She was a faithful member of the church, also of the Womans Missionary society and Sunday school from the time of their organization. Both of these organizations will miss the wise counsel and enthusiastic helpfulness of this dear saint of God. She was an affectionate wife, a loving mother, a constant, loyal friend, a zealous lover of humanity and God. She will be missed in all the relations of life; but our loss is her gain. This is a time of sorrow for us, but a time of victory for this lovely christian woman. She sleeps in Jesus. We must say, "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord." The earthly life of our sister has closed in the death, but words of hope come to us from God, words sweeter to us than the evening bells, saying "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from hence forth, yea sayeth the Spirit, that they must rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

The funeral services were conducted from the family residence. A large number of people were present from near and far, indicating their respect for one they knew, and their sympathy for the bereaved husband and family. A choir from Marshall rendered some appropriate music. W. M. Northam, pastor of the church, conducted the services, and offered the opening prayer, thankfully acknowledging the power of God in character, life and death of his respected parishoner; and in fervent supplication that the support and consolations of the gospel might sustain and cheer all whose hearts are burdened with sorrow and sanctify their afflictions, that they might live the life and death of this saint of God.

sleeves lace trimmed; skirts also cut extra full and have a 4-inch hem, 98c.

of and in-office; 39c of yoke ching
tion, fine
edge, $1.75
of long,
and 29c of ainty fine
and teched
1-inch 49c as of tuck-with oulder
so on full, wide $1.25
as of th a hem-lace
and e in-mmed
ing,
$1.50
nalu-
with s and user-50c
s of pure user-
and reep-fine $1.50
s of made
and lashed med, lace-
fine 75c
s of point bbon, lace-
or a $1.50
s of made k and
and very 69c
s of made pin,
and very hem-98c s of ming
y ine and ately laser-fine retty
$2.50
of de-pin
and cut

60X761
38c.

98c.

INFANTS' Obituary

LOSHSK

Mary J. Stout, daughter of James and Rhoda Stout, was born near Bellmore, Ind., December 31, 1835, departed this life June 28, 1912, aged 76 years, 5 months, and 28 days. She was married April 7, 1852, to Gray Connelly, and to this union was born three children, James H., William H., and Rhoda, who died at the age of eleven years. She leaves a husband, two sons, seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren, two brothers, W. P. and J. O. Stout, of Hollandsburg, and one sister, Rebecca F. Rush of Los Angeles, Cal., to mourn their loss. She united with the regular Predes-tinarian Baptist church at Mt Mor-iah, October 11, 1908, of which she was a faithful member. Funeral services were held June 30, at Mt. Moriah, by Elder C. R. Collings, after which she was laid to rest in the cemetery nearby, to await the resurrection morn.

No. 60X coats an un ruffle, tucks;
 No. 60X coat qual- med v ing ar broide
 No. 60X coats on a deep and ing

No. 60X775. Infants' Long Petticoats of Fine Nainsook, with wide band with deep

Mrs. Roy Lough Dead

Mrs. Roy Lough of Marshall formerly Miss Anna Irene Demaree, daughter of Howard L. Demaree of Byron, died at Culver hospital, Crawfordsville, Monday at the age of twenty-two years. Mr. and Mrs. Lough were married on last Christmas day, and her death has saddened the whole community where she was well-known and very popular. She had been critically ill since Friday night, and was taken hurriedly to the hospital by automobile on Sunday, in hopes to save her life by a Ceasarian operation, which was successfully performed, but it was too late to save her life and she passed away at four o'clock in the morning. The remains were brought to her late home on Monday, and funeral services held Tuesday, with burial at Bethany cemetery, east of Marshall. She is survived by her husband, her father and two brothers, John and Samuel, and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Canine of New Ross, and Miss Bertha Demaree, who lived at home.

No. 60X779. coats of rior qual waist; ski embroder, tucking a embroder.
 No. 60X780. coats of made on with two r ity Valenci and five-in petticoat.
 No. 60X781. coat of N waist, silk with two r lace insert
 No. 60X782. coat, a pr extra full, dainty Val cluster of deep lace to 3 years
 No. 60X783. coat of Fine Nainsook, made with a waist, skirt cut full with four deep tucks, ruffle of three inches with deep hem-stitched hem and lace trim- tion

No. 60X784. Infants' coats of Fine Lav waist, with clus- rulle of fine end 1 to 3 years.....
 No. 60X785. Infant coat of superior- sook, cut extra with insertion an of tucking and embroder; sizes 6 months to 3 years.....96c

County Surveyor Harry L. Davies of Marshall, and Miss Maude Phil- lips of Judson, were married in Greencastle, last week Wednesday. Both young people are well and favorably known in Parke county, and their many friends offer con- gratulations and best wishes for happiness and prosperity.

50Y775 James S. Norman

James S., son of William and Nancy Norman, was born on a farm near Bellmore, Ind., August 22, 1852, and died at his home in Parkeville, July 4, 1912, aged 59 years, 10 months, and 12 days. He was the youngest of a family of eight childre, all except one sister being dead. His boyhood was spent on the farm where he was born, his early education being obtained in the district school near his home. After taking a preparatory course he entered the Indiana School of Medicine, from which he graduated in 1872. After graduating he came to Parkeville and entered the practice of his chosen profession, where he has enjoyed a continuous and success- ful practice for almost forty years. As a physician he was recognized as a man of great ability.

In early life he united with the Evangelical Lutheran church, under the pastorate of the Rev. John Good. At the time of his death he was a member of the Masonic Fraternity, a social member of Modern Woodmen of America, and a member of the Parke county Medical Association. During his last sickness, which dates from the first of April, he was a great sufferer, yet he bore his suffer- ing with as much patience and fortitude as is given to man to command, while all that medical skill, tender hands, and loving hearts could do was done for his relief.

Doctor Norman was a kind and considerate neighbor, and will be sadly missed in this neighborhood. He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife, two sons, Leonard I. of Evansville, and William O. of Parkeville, one sister, Mrs. Rachel Switzer of near Bellmore, and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Sat- urday morning, at the residence, Rev. Markin, officiating, and in- terment was made in Little Rac- coon cemetery, north of Parke- ville, according to the burial rites of the Masonic Fraternity and Modern Woodmen of America.

60X $1.2

"Aunt" Jane Nutgrass died at her home here Sunday morning at ten-thirty. She was the oldest resident of Greene township, Ha- she lived until the eighteenth o- May she would have been eighty- six years old. She had lived in her little home here for over 25 years and although urged to go to live with her relatives her prayer was that she could remain there until called away. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Ray Collings at the home and burial in Raccoon cemetery.

60X 7
 50X7 7
 7
 60X 775 $1.5
 X782 X8 75c 1.5
 60X 9
 60X 98

Special Catalog New York City—Fall
Obituary

Mary Jane Page was born near Shelbyville, Shelby county Kentucky, May 18, 1826; was married to William Nutgrass in April, 1844 and came to this State in 1848. To this union were born eight children, three of whom, George, Alfred and Mrs. Henry Zorger, preceded her to the other shore. The others are, James Nutgrass jr. of Morton, and Mrs. Sarah Beatty of Jessups, who are twins; Mrs. John Alexander, Mrs. James Alexander, and Mrs. Ike Lowry of Rockville. There are thirty-five grandchildren, sixty-two great grandchildren.

Aunt Jane, as she was familiarly known, never united with any church, but had a preference to the Predestinarian Baptist faith. She was a great reader of the "Divine Book," and read it through a number of times. She always said she trusted all to God and was ready to go at his call, and while she never got entirely helpless she often wondered why it was that she was spared so long in the feebleness of old age, yet she trusted to Him that all was for the best. Her final illness lasted five weeks and was endured with great resignation and fortitude. Aunt Jane will be missed in this community, for she was a good and kind neighbor.

Funeral services were conducted at the house by Elder C. R. Collings. Burial in Raccoon cemetery.

Jacob Collings received the sad message of the death of his brother, David Collings, in North Dakota, recently.

Word was received here Sunday of the death of Harrison Nutgrass. He was once a resident of Judson. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Enos Lanning, a well-known and prominent citizen of Greene township, died Monday after a long illness, at the age of sixty-one years. He is survived by his wife, two sons, William and Charles, and three sisters, Mrs. Lou Johnson, Mrs. Emily Johnson and Mrs. Sarah Sutton. The funeral was largely attended from the Lutheran church near Waveland, on Wednesday. Rev. Airhart conducted the services.

Only a Dog

By Berton Braley

Somebody poisoned my dog to-day,
 Though he never did anyone ill,
 And so he is through with his canine play,
 And his wagglety tail is still.
 No more shall I walk in the fields with him
 Along at my side to jog,
 And—I don't care if my eyes are dim—
 Somebody poisoned my dog!

He was homely, I know, as a dog could be,
 And only a mongrel, too;
 But I loved him, and he loved me,
 As people and dogs may do.
 Nothing on earth could disturb his trust,
 Or his love and his faith befog,
 And now he lies here in the dust—
 Somebody poisoned my dog!

He crawled to my feet, and he licked my hand,
 And then with a gasp he died;
 And—though some people can't understand—
 I patted his head—and cried!
 For it isn't funny to lose a friend
 From off of this "earthly cog,"
 And he was loyal unto the end—
 Somebody poisoned my dog!

I wonder how anyone could have done
 This poor little fellow harm;
 But here he lies—his race is run—
 Though his body's still soft and warm.
 My life is lived on a peaceful plan,
 My pace is a quiet jog,
 But—I wish I could find the snake of a man
 Who poisoned my little dog!
 —In Cincinnati Post.

60X800
79c

50X804
$1.50

60X806

Married—August 17, Monte C. Phillips and Lola Mikeis. They will make their home at Montezuma, where he has opened a dental parlor. We extend congratulations.

Broodery trimming, size 6 months to 2 years.....$1.25

No. 60X806. Children's Dress of Hoop, excellent quality, in the popular Norfolk style, plaited back and front with belt, a most serviceable and pretty dress; suitable for boy or girl; 2 to 3 years.....98c

No. 60X808. Children's Dress of white lawn in the popular Russian modes, plaited front and back, front daintily trimmed with three rows of insertion; a most serviceable and pretty dress, suitable for boy or girl, 2 to 3 years.....98c

No. 60X809. Children's Dress of made of hand- French daintily lace, rows of months.....$1.25

No. 60X810. Children's Dress of fine white lawn, in half-hard style, dainty little pointed yoke of fine tuckings and point de Paris lace insertion, very full skirt with deep ruffle of lace and seven rows of fine tucking; size 6 months to 3 years.....$1.95

60X803
98c

60X809
$1.25

60X810
69c

60X811
$1.95

