

Obituary

Mary Ellen Nutgrass, daughter of Benjamin and Margaret Dice, pioneers of Parke County, was born April 29, 1856, and departed this earthly life to enjoy the fuller expression of a more spiritual life with the father in heaven at 1 p. m. Sunday, November 28, 1915, at the age of fifty-nine years and seven months.

In early girlhood she was married to William Pittman who preceeded her in death many years. To this union was born two girls; one died in infancy, the other, Namie, grew to womanhood.

Later she was married to William Nutgrass of Parkeville, where she lived until his death, some years ago.

She then moved to Judson where she bought a home to which she was very much devoted.

She was very efficient in domestic house keeping and her services were sought by many in the community of Judson.

Her sickness was of short duration and was borne with much patience and fortitude.

She leaves to love her memory, three sisters, Mrs. Martha Godden, of Clinton, Mrs. Ests French, of Florida, and Mrs. Alice Berry of Judson, to this sister she was very devoted. She leaves many nieces and nephews and two grandchildren, Mrs. Loree Hann and Samuel Frieze, of Frankfort, Ind., and one great-grandchild.

Her entire life was lived in Parke County where she was well known and respected for many good and womanly qualities.

She had been a member of the Judson M. E. Church for about fifteen years.

We can say in the words of the master, "come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give thee rest." Funeral services took place at the home in Judson, Tuesday November 30, at 11 a. m. conducted by the Rev. England with burial at Raccoon cemetery, near Parkeville.

Ivan Vail Carrington of Parke county, to Marojrie Helen Peyton, of Greene township.

Wedding Bells

Again the wedding bells rang out their cheerful melody here in Marshall, and this time for Miss Essie Baldwin, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baldwin, who was married at the parental home on last Tuesday evening at four o'clock, to Mr. Claude Fisher of Mecca. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the bride, Rev. W. J. Gerlach of the Presbyterian church. Only the members of the family were present to witness the happy and solemn event. After congratulations had been extended to the happy pair, all sat down to the splendid wedding supper which was served in three courses, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Fisher, who is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baldwin, of our village is possessed of splendid and charming characteristics. She finished her course in our public-schools here, graduating with honor from the high school in the class of 1912. After completing her school work here, she attended the State Normal at Terre Haute, and pursued a partial course preparatory to the work she assumed later, and in which she was engaged up to within a few days ago, viz; reporter on the staff of the Rockville Tribune.

Mr. Fisher, the lucky young man who was so fortunate as to win the heart and hand of one of our finest young maidens, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Fisher, of Mecca, and is a young man of good qualities and character. He represents the requisites of a good husband, and will doubtless make good in the responsibilities he has assumed.

The newly wedded pair will start to house keeping at once in Mecca, where the groom has a house all in readiness and waiting for his bride.

They started for their new home shortly after the wedding supper, where their friends will find them, and to which all callers will receive a gracious welcome.

The numerous friends of the bride and groom unite with the writer in wishing them a delightful journey through life, with naught but pleasant scenes along the way, the constant smile of heaven and the odor of fairest flowers to cheer and bless them as they travel on.—Marshall News.

RED SS DS

Newest and ss Goods. upon n.

...ings, the
...th hair line
... green and
... price per ... $1.00

...ings in gray
...reat demand
...shown here
...he width is
...per yard 49c

...s but one of
...line dully of
...ground is
...is red; the
...nd the price
...$1.50

...ks in gray
...and dressy;
...width 36
...49c

...all silk and
...es; light in
...a charming
...at price per ...$1.00

...in the new
...y beautiful.
...h overplaid
...width is 36
...yard is 49c

...in a great

...the latest color combina-
...tions, suitable for whole suits,
...waists and children's dresses; will
...give excellent wear and will be one ...of the favorite fabrics of the sea...son; width 36 inches; price per
...yard .....75c

No. 9X82. Silk and Wool Plaids are ...strongly in evidence for the coming ...season; we have an immense vari...ety in grays, olive, browns, reds,
...blues, etc., all worked out in beau...tiful color combinations. The width
...is 38 inches; price per yard....85c

No. 9X83. Worsted Plaids, small ...broken plaid effects, green and blue
...combinations; an excellent fabric
...for wear; 36 inches wide; price
...per yard.....49c

9X7
$1.00 PER

9X78 49¢ PER

9X79
$1.00 PER YD.

9X81
75¢ PER

9X83
49¢ PER YD

Miss Anna Spencer of Parkeville, and Orval E. Gordon stole a march on their relatives and friends and were quietly married in Danville, Ill., October 7. The Times extends congratulations and best wishes for happiness and prosperity.

COLORED DRESS GOODS

Our values fashion we attain

ORDERING price, color

- 40-inch All staple pla weave, F street sha
- 52-inch All street sha
- 52-inch All street sha
- 52-inch All street sha
- 52-inch All street sha
- 42-inch Pe
- 46-inch Pe
- 52-inch Pe
- 52-inch In

- 50-inch All Per yard
- 36-inch All Per yard

- Worsted
- 52-inch Pe
  - 56-inch Pe

- 36-inch Pe

- 36-inch Plat
- 41-inch Plat

- 41-inch Silk

- All
- 42 inch. Fine Imported Goods. Per yard... 98c
  - 46-inch. Per yard... 1.35

- 36-inch All shades. Per
- 40-inch. All shades. Per

- 37-inch Shepherd
- Other qualities up to (per yd.)... 1.50

- ALABATROSS.
- 36-inch All Wool Albatross, street shades. Per yard
  - 46-inch All W Per yard

- 38-inch All W Per yard
- 44-inch All W Per yard

- PRUNELLA.
- 43-inch Prunella, in street shades. Per yard 98c

Obituary

Nancy J., daughter of Thomas and Susan Dykes, was born October 9, 1860, and died November 9, 1915, aged fifty-five years and one month. She was married to Richard Cave Mitchel, January 23, 1878. To this union were born three children, all living, Daisy, of Carlisle, Ind., Bessie, of Judson, and Fred of Logansport. Mr. Mitchel died November 12, 1885. She was married to Ellsworth Rusk, April, 1888. To them were born five children, of whom three are living, Mamie, of Rosedale, Paul of Judson, and Hazel, the youngest, at home. These, her children, with eleven grandchildren, her husband and one brother, are left to mourn her loss. She was a faithful wife, a loving and devoted mother, a good neighbor and a kind friend.

She united with the Christian church at Parkville, under the ministry of Ezekiah Williams, by primary obedience, December 10, 1886. It was very cold, the creek was frozen over and they cut away the ice to gain a access to the water for her baptism. To these vows, so solemnly taken, she was ever faithful, being a constant attendant on the service and ordinance of the Lord's house. She was a member of the Ladies Aid, and with them wrought for the master. Surely she has done what she could. She loved the songs of Zion and among her last requests was that they come and sing to her. Josie is gone, but not lost, across the gloom of the grave comes to us the words of Jesus, "I am the resurrection and the life, if any man believe on me though he were dead yet shall he live again. Oh death where is thy sting. Oh grave where now thy victory! Thanks be to God who giveth us The Victory Through Jesus Christ Our Lord."

The funeral was held at the Christian church at Parkville, conducted by Rev. William T. Barbre, of Rockville, with burial in the Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Special to The Journal.

Waveland March 21.—The two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Keller died at the home of her parents here at eight this morning after a short illness with pneumonia.

ALABATROSS.

- 38-inch All Wool Nuns' cream. Per yard... 98c

- ool Nuns'
- ool Nuns'
- ool Henrie

- and Wo yard

- ool Broad
- 54-inch All Wool Broad
- 54-inch All Wool Broad

- ool Chev
- ool Chev
- ool Chev

- ool Chev
- ool Chev

- ool Storm Serge in cream. Per yard 59c
- 42-inch All Wool Storm Serge in cream. Per yard 75c

Obituary

ess Goods les we s t weave s.

ORDERING

- POPL: In street
- SICILIA: hair Sicilians, er yard..... er yard..... er yard, in navy

- BRILLIAN
- er Brilliantines

GOODS FOR 1

- 1 Wool Albat Per yard.....
- 1 Wool Albatross in evening Per yard..... 79c
- 1 Wool Henrietta in evening Per yard..... 49c
- 1 Wool Henrietta in evening Per yard..... 75c
- 1 Wool Henrietta in evening Per yard..... 98c
- Wool Nuns' V
- Wool Nuns' V
- and Wool La
- Per yard.

JACKET CO

- Wool Jacket C
- Wool Jacket C
- Wool Jacket C
- Wool Jacket

AND CREAM

- Wool Albat Per yard.....
- Wool Albat Per yard.....

- ool Nuns'
- ool Nuns'
- ool Henrie

- ool Nuns'
- ool Nuns'
- ool Henrie

- and Wo yard

- ool Broad
- 54-inch All Wool Broad
- 54-inch All Wool Broad

- ool Chev
- ool Chev
- ool Chev

- ool Chev
- ool Chev

- ool Storm Serge in cream. Per yard 59c
- ool Storm Serge in cream. Per yard 75c

Joseph C. Buchanan, one of Parke County's well known, highly respected and influential men, died at his home in Judson, last Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock, following an operation, from which, owing to his advanced years, he was unable to rally. Mr. Buchanan's illness was of but a few days, and his death was a shock to his many friends. He was a man who commanded the respect of all who knew him.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 1.30 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church, by Rev. Gurlach assisted by Rev. J. H. Sherrill of the Judson Baptist church and Rev. W. R. Graham of Memorial Presbyterian church at Rockville. During the service appropriate music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wilson, Miss Pauline Gantley and J. A. Linebarger.

The remains were conveyed to their last resting place in the family burying ground on the Buchanan farm, by the six nephews, Roscoe and Oscar McCampbell, Ora and Ray Weatherford, Fred Buchanan and Parke McCampbell.

Isaac M. Collings

Isaac M. Collings, son of Johnson and Mary Collings, was born March 17, 1851 in the state of Iowa. He was one of a family of thirteen children all of whom lived to be grown except one; but one by one death has claimed them until only one brother, Walter, is left.

The subject of this sketch was united in marriage with Sarah E. Rush, March 24, 1872, who preceded him in death, April 13, 1910. To this union were born five children, two of whom are left to mourn a father's loss, Lottie Belle, wife of Thomas Shalley of Parkeville and Rice of near Hollandsburg, Anna, Edward J. and an unnamed infant daughter, having passed away many years ago.

On April 20, 1912, he was united in marriage with Mrs. Etta Blake who is left bereaved.

Besides the widow, brothers and children he leaves two grandsons and a host of relatives and friends. His death, due to neuralgia of the heart, occurred at his home in Bellmore, on the morning of December 28, 1915, aged sixty-four years, nine months and eleven days.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Moriah church, at 11.00 o'clock, Thursday, December 30, by Rev. Airhart, with interment in the cemetery nearby.

- ool Chev
- ool Chev

- ool Chev
- ool Chev

the excell selecting ner in W ig the sampl business so im t color in the

- Serge in cr
- Serge in cr
- ream. Per
- ream. Per
- cream. Per
- cream. Per

BEST DRESS EASON.

inches wide of grey; the mail plaid.

effect at a small cost. Price per yard..... Madral Plaids are the new ombre; they come in grey, blue, red and green effects; they are 47 inches wide. Price per yard.....

Riverside Worsted is a new worsted in greys, brown, blue, red and green for a whole ches wide.

w heather and s, reds and b

Price per yd check suitin

e of green and ric for child

ists; the wid

ard..... and worsted;

e waists and s; they com blues and gr vide and the le. Price per a handsome ric blue and width is 36 in

in two shades at cross-bar

a very stylis width is 42 in black worsted showing; a hand excellent work the price per e popular shade add of red and inches wide.

me in blue, red and green grounds, with black bars; they are 36 inches wide. Price per yard..... Tourist Cloth for Suits, Long Coat comes in greyish effects with large ble plaids; the width is 54 inches per yard.....

SIEGEL

Obituary

Sarah E. Collings, daughter of Thomas Shelton and Mary Ann Aydelotte Stark, fell peacefully asleep on the morning of January 13, 1916, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Smith Montgomery near Rockville, at the age of seventy-one years and twenty-seven days.

She was the eldest child of her father's family of nine children, three daughters and six sons, Sarah, William, John, Charles, George, Kate, James, Margaret and Edgar.

She was born December 16, 1844. She looked forward always with much pleasure to the celebration of her birth, it being her wedding anniversary as well. Less than a month before her death she celebrated her seventy first birthday. In keeping with an old custom, she had as her guest on that day her life long friend, Miss Catherine Sage. On her last three birthdays she had her little granddaughter Rebecca Jean Collings with her also it being her birthday as well.

The death of Mrs. Collings breaks another link in a long chain of a special friendship which commenced between the grand-mothers of herself and Miss Sage, was continued between their mothers and then between themselves.

On December 16, 1868 she was united in marriage with Harvey D. Collings with whom she lived for thirty-one years, he having preceded her in death December 2, 1899. To this union were born six children, Clara, Charley, Mary Sallie, Jesse and Frank.

Mrs. Collings was a devoted wife and mother, loving her home dearly, she was never so happy as when in her home with her family about her.

Of late years her health has been poor and she seldom left home. During these late years of her life she took much pleasure from her grandchildren, of whom there are seven, Clarence, Ralph, Merle, Claude, Doris, Donald and Rebecca Jean, for whom she had the deepest devotion.

During her husband's lifetime she resided on a farm near Bellmore, since his death she has spent most of her time in Bellmore, she, with her brother James Stark and her daughter Sallie making a happy home and she enjoyed very much her brother's presence in the home.

By her death, her children and grand-children have lost a loving and devoted mother and grandmother, her friends and neighbors a true friend and neighbor and the community one of its best women.

She leaves to mourn her loss, three sons, Charley, Jesse and Frank, two daughters, Mary and Sallie, Clara having died in infancy, seven grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Spotsard Webb, and Mrs. William Barnes, four brothers, William, John, George and James Stark, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

In girlhood she united with the Canaan M. E. Church and continued her membership in the same organization when the church was moved to Bellmore. This union with the Christian people became one of her fondest possessions in her last days and gave to her a joy that nothing else could give.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 11.00 o'clock, at her home in Bellmore, with interment in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

-Fall and Winter Catalogue-1906-7

Elizabeth Gastineau Smith

Elizabeth Gastineau was born August 9, 1870, and departed this life November 13, 1915, at the age of forty-five years, three months and four days. She was married to W. N. (Toney) Smith, December 24, 1888, and to this union were born two children, Wallace E., who died July 8, 1890, and Fred Smith.

She united with the Christian church in Kentucky when she was a girl. While she never united with the church at Rockville, she was always ready to help the church when called upon. She is survived by her husband, one son Fred, three sisters, Mrs. Lora Vaught, Mrs. Nannie Warren, Mrs. Florence Mayfield, and four brothers, Charles, James, Ed and Luther Gastineau, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gastineau. Our consolation is in the thought that our loss is her gain.

Funeral services were held at the First Christian church, Monday morning, at 10:00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. T. Barbre, with interment in Rockville cemetery.

ESS

Book of Black Prices, and you require.

- Panama Is carry it in tv
- 50-inch All W
- 36-inch All W
- Arma... is t
- In jet black a
- 42-inch All W
- 46-inch All W

- 37-inch All
- 50-inch All

- 38-inch All
- 44-inch All
- 44-inch All
- 44-inch All
- 44-inch All
- 40-inch Silk

- 36-inch All
- 46-inch All

- 38-inch Silk
- 42-inch Silk

- 27-inch Mour
- 30-inch Mour
- 36-inch Mour
- 36-inch Mour

ALL

- 36 inches wid
- 36 inches wid
- 36 inches wid
- 36 inches wid
- 42 inches wid

- 38-inch All W
- 38-inch All W
- 45-inch All W
- 45-inch All W

- 38-inch Moha
- 38-inch Moha
- 44-inch Moha
- 44-inch Moha
- 44-inch Moha
- 46-inch Moha

- Fine Imported
- Fine Imported

GRANITE CLOTH.

Whelchel-Canine.

Special to The Journal. Waveland Jan. 18—In the presence of seventy-five guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Canine, four miles west of Waveland, Paul Whelchel and Miss Kitty Canine were united in marriage

Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock, the officiating minister being Rev. Dell Cauldwell of Crawfordsville.

Before the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Esther Whelchel, sister of the groom, sang "I Met You, Dear in Dreamland," Miss Lael Whelchel, another sister of the groom, playing the accompaniment. The latter played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bride and groom entered from the stairway, taking their places before an archway that had been erected in the parlor. The ring service was used in the ceremony.

The bride wore an attractive gown of chiffon batiste with silver net and beading and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The home had been attractively decorated in a color scheme of pink, white and green. Ferns were distributed thruout the parlor and the dining room was decorated in pink and white, the centerpiece for the dining table being of pink roses and greenery, while pink candles in silver candlesticks were placed on the table. The refreshments carried out the color scheme and the favors were pink and white bows.

Assisting the bride's mother in the parlor was Mrs. Will Cason of Veedersburg while the assistants in the dining room were Mrs. George Lohman, Jr., Misses Lael Whelchel, Hazel and May Bayless.

We Mourn, duplicate please st.

- 40-inch All Wool
- 52-inch All Wool
- 52-inch All Wool
- 52-inch All Wool
- 52-inch All Wool
- Broadcloth
- 54-inch All Wool cloth
- 54-inch All Wool
- 54-inch All Wool
- 54-inch All Wool

- Black Chevrons
- We secured the sale at the follow
- 42-inch All Wool
- 46-inch All Wool
- 52-inch All Wool
- 52-inch All Wool
- 54-inch All Wool
- 54-inch All Wool
- 54-inch All Wool

- Black Storm Sc everyday usage, give the best val
- 36-inch All Wool
- 48-inch All Wool
- 50-inch All Wool
- 50-inch All Wool

- 54-inch Fine Engl
- 54-inch Fine Engl

- Fine Imported a fine black costu
- 46-inch All Wool
- 48-inch All Wool
- 50-inch All Wool

- Our latest impor their high satin are very moderate.
- 40-inch All Wool
- 42-inch All Wool
- 44-inch All Wool

- Black Stefflans wear We carry t
- 50-inch Mohair Stef
- 54-inch Mohair Stef
- 54-inch Mohair Stef
- 54-inch Mohair Stef

- French Poplins offering great value
- 58-inch All Wool
- 42-inch All Wool
- 46-inch All Wool

50c
98c 49c 75c
98c
1.25 1.50
1.25
39c 79c 99c
.25
75c 90c
.25
.50
.00
.00
.50
.00
.50
9c 9c 5c 8c 9c 9c 9c 5c
3c 50 rd rd

Special to The Journal.

Waveland, March 18.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, fifty-five years old, wife of Henry Smith, died at six-thirty this morning at the Shades hotel after an illness of four months with dropsy and leakage of the heart. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have had charge of the hotel at the Shades this winter. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ketchem and was born at Greensburg. She was married to Mr. Smith at Linden thirty-four years ago. They moved to the hotel at the Shades last fall. Mrs. Smith is survived by her husband, two children, Forest of Waveland, and Mrs. Rose Wilkison, of Urbana, Ill., three sisters, Mrs. Carl Scripture of Frankfort, Mrs. Rhoda Keith of Andrews, Ind., Mrs. Taylor of Madison, and two brothers, Robert Ketchem of Andrews and Samuel of Greensburg.

The deceased was a member of the Christian Church. Funderal services will be held from the Freedom church at two-thirty Sunday afternoon with burial in the Freedom cemetery. Rev. O. F. Stewart will have charge.

Britton-VanHuss

The marriage of Miss Laura Grace VanHuss, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine VanHuss, and Edgar Clay Britton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Britton, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday evening, June 29, at eight o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. T. Barbre of the Christian Church, Rockville.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Ralph Britton, brother of the groom. The minister entered the room followed by the flower girls, Elsie and Elizabeth VanHuss, nieces of the bride. Then followed the bride and groom. During the ceremony, Ralph Britton played softly, "Concert in D Minor."

The bride wore a very becoming dress of white crepe de chine with Valenciennes lace, and carried a bridal bouquet of carnations.

After congratulations refreshments were served in the dining room. The house was tastefully decorated in ferns and roses.

The bride and groom are both graduates of the Rockville high school, class of 1909. Mrs. Britton has been a successful teacher in the county since graduation.

Mr. Britton taught two years, then entered Wabash College, completing three years work there. In his senior year he went to Michigan University, at Ann Arbor, where he received his A. B. degree in 1915. The year 1915 and 1916 he did post-graduate work in the same school. In September, Mr. and Mrs. Britton will return to Ann Arbor, and Mr. Britton will continue his work for his Ph. D. in chemistry.

For the summer they will remain on the farm with Mrs. Britton's parents.

Pre-Nuptial Function

Mrs. Ora Jeffries and Mrs. Joe VanHuss entertained last Wednesday afternoon, at the home of the former in Greene township, with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Grace VanHuss, bride-elect.

The afternoon was delightfully spent in enjoying social conversation, contests and music. Mrs. Enos VanHuss and Mrs. Virgil Vaught were the prize winners in the contests, the prizes being granite spoons.

Miss Grace then displayed her many pretty and useful gifts and in her usual pleasing manner expressed her appreciation.

Over fifty guests were present. Refreshments consisting of cakes and ice cream were served and a jolly time was enjoyed by all.

$1.00 PER YD

Burned to Death

William Choate and his twelve year old son, Byron, were burned beyond recognition when the log cabin in which they lived east of Hollandsburg, burned to the ground about two o'clock Tuesday morning.

Mr. Choate had been in Rockville and returned home about nine o'clock. The son and a boarder, Jack Mershon, had gone to bed. Choate prepared some supper for himself, and Mershon was awakened some time later by smoke and found the cabin in flames. He fought his way to a window, broke the glass and got out. His coat was burned from his back. It was reported that he said he saw Choate come down the stairs from an upper room, and then go back; it was presumed that he went for the boy. Leslie Bulion was the nearest neighbor and with others hastened to the scene, but Choate and his son were so burned that only the size of the bodies showed which was which. A few years ago Mrs. Choate was killed in a runaway accident. The only survivor of the family is a daughter, Mrs. Claude Tuttle of Bellmore. Mr. Choate was a candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, before the primary last spring.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Airhart, at New Discovery church Wednesday morning, with interment in New Discovery cemetery.

Married—Saturday at Rockville, Lawrence Sutton and Daisy Weaver. We extend congratulations.

$1.00 PER YD

Austin Phillips to Bessie Rivers, both of Judson.

possible with the love will of No. 7 full de eve ric No. 72 high Plat out combinations: gray ground with helb old No with white white 20 in No. 7X1 the Pers throu direct any 21 in No. 7X1 silk white white and for inches No. 7X1 ful ed green white colors No. 7X1 good in all well tions 20 in No. 7X1 pure bars work cadet, inches

X151 PER YD

YD.

55 PER YD

7X151 $1.00 PER YD

7X151 69¢

7X156 9¢

ILAC

INER

- Obituary

Claudia Chleo Hazlett, daughter of John and Alice Hazlett, was born October 12, 1889. She was the oldest of a family of seven children. At the age of thirteen she united with the Portland Mills Christian Church under the pastorate of J. C. Ashley. August 30, 1906, she was united in marriage to Byard G. Collings, at the age of sixteen years. Five little girls came to bless and brighten their home; four are left without a mother's hand to guide them, Frances Grace, Nellie May, Edith Blanche and Naomi Alberta, Mildred Anna having preceded her mother to the heavenly home, July 2, 1914. After moving to this vicinity she placed her membership with the Parkeville Christian Church, of which she remained a faithful member until death. The church has lost one of its most valuable members, as she always filled her place in church and Sunday school when health would permit. At the time of her death she was superintendent of the Cradle Roll Department of the Sunday school, with an enrollment of twenty-eight members. Claudia was of a kind and loving disposition and being always thoughtful of others rather than self, she tried to hide her suffering from those who loved her best. Everything was done to relieve her suffering that loving hands could do. Claudia, as we all loved to call her, will be missed in the community and in the church, as well as in the home, but the heartbroken family mourn not as those having no hope, for her faith was strong in Christ as her Savior and the testimony that was ever on her lips gave evidence of the life she was striving to attain.

She leaves to mourn her loss a heartbroken husband, four daughters a father and mother, two sisters Rachel and Marjorie, and three brothers, Leo, Orville and Frank, besides a host of relatives and friends.

After an illness of twenty-three days of untold suffering with appendicitis and inflammatory rheumatism, she departed this life, May 27, 1916, at the age of twenty-six years, seven months and fifteen days.

Funeral services were held Monday, May 29, at the Parkeville Christian Church by Rev. S. G. Smith of Ladoga. Burial in the Portland Mills cemetery.

Best value in the country, good strong and durable quality. 29c yard. 35c yard.

Mrs. Sarah Sutton died at the home of her daughter in Danville, Ind., Sunday night, at the advanced age of ninety years, two months and fifteen days. Funeral services were held at Mt. Moriah Church, Tuesday. Rev. Smith conducting the service and burial was made in the cemetery nearby. Mrs. Sutton was formerly a resident of Judson.

Large assortment specialty samples... Celebrated Satin; Wear Guaranteed.

EPART

at the door of the... side of New York... all the above just as... as you can; that... nds of letters reques

SPECIAL LINING

Wear Guaranteed. per yard... ACK MESSALINES.

COLORED SILK

Best fashionable fabric... lines, Peau de Cygne... silks. Plaids seen... ta and fall costumes... many stripes, check... sold for shirt waist... popular lines as fol

COLORED TAFFETAS

Best all pure Silk Taff... et or evening st... per yard... ch extra strong T... id grade for dress... ings, at per yard... ch, very much heav... n, excellent wearing... all colors, at per... Taffeta, good dre... lite, light blue, pink... red, cream, etc.

EPE DE CHI

Best worn exten... le made prep... ed offer very

23-inch all p... other desira... per yard... 24-inch, ver... in all desira

EXTRA WID

10 inches w... blue, pink, b... ice of... 4-inch, very... colors as it

D LIBERTY

all silk, all... yard... very fine g... ard

D PEAU D

7, 20 inches... and evenin

COLORED PEAU DE

Quality No. 1--19-inch all... colors... Quality No. 2--19-inch, very... satin finish, in all the bes... ing shades, at per yard.

-36-INCH

black, whit... evening sb

D LINING

al offerings... 19-inch, in... light blue, F... det, Albee, b... ack, etc., at... 6 inches wid... per yard

RED MESSA

all silk, fine... per yard... 27 inches wide, yard

COLORED CHINA

23 inches wide, all colors... 27 inches wide, all colors

Obituary

The death angel entered the home of Frank E. Smith at 4.30, Wednesday evening of last week, and claimed as its own Lula, the dear wife and moth-

Lula Frances, the daughter of John W. and Mary E. Alexander, was born October 1, 1867, and departed this life December 13, 1916, at the age of forty-nine years, two months and twelve days. To this union were born three children, Lottie, Dorothy and Russell. She leaves a husband, two daughters, one son, father, mother, five sisters, two brothers, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Lula was a faithful wife and a loving, indulgent mother. She united with the Christian Church at Parkeville in the year of 1909, and was a true Christian in all the walks of life and from the beginning of her last illness she often expressed her desire and readiness to leave this world of pain.

But though earth's fairest blossoms die And all beneath the skies is vain, There is a brighter world on high, Beyond the reach of care and pain.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. Smith at Parkeville, with burial in Raccoon cemetery.

Obituary

Mary Jane Geller Ross was born January 5, 1860, and died January 16, 1917, aged fifty-seven years and ten days.

She was the daughter of James and Margaret Geller and was born at Mecca. Mary Jane Geller became the wife of George Washington Ross October 28, 1880, and to this union there came seven children, five girls and two boys, four of whom have preceded her into the land of peace and rest, June, wife of William Perrin, being the last departing one, leaving behind five motherless children, one of whom, Virginia, has since made her home with her grandparents. The children surviving are Frederic, Walter Ross of Detroit, Mich., Archie Scott and Jewel Avaline, who are yet at home. Mrs. Ross was baptized into the Church of Christ, March 19, 1889, and has since tried to be a staunch supporter of her belief and faith in the Christ Jesus.

Trouble came to the mother-heart and mind as it comes to us all. There comes a time to all of us when we ask of ourselves, is life after all worth the living. Mothers and fathers and fathers deprived of their children, husbands of their wives, wives of their husbands, and the most sad of all, children of their most needed mother, love and council at the most needed time. Why? This most bewildering question to our generation is only answered by the Creator of all life, mankind being created in His image, glorifying the Master's name when man reaches what was intended for him to be.

Our beloved one fought bravely, all must do. Birth, life, death are all beautiful. Birth, creation, growth, death, peace and love.

quick as it... ry for equal... yourself at... he range of... or color are and evening... 29c... grade... 49c... quality... 50c... and heavier... 75c... 27 inches... $1.00... $1.00

AT SILK

29c... 30c... 49c... 69c... 49c... 89c... 75c... 95c

LKS.

the following... 49c... 59c... 69c... 89c... $1.00... $1.00

Obituary

Taffeta... $1.25... 85c... 45c... de Cygne... 50c... 85c... 69c... 75c... $1.00... 98c... 75c... 88c... 95c... Brocade Satin... $1.50... Brocade Satin... $2.25 constantly changing, will be cheerfully at please state col... our prices range yard.

D PLAIDS

ELVETEENS best makes of Vel... will find, by com... must lower, quality all and all desirable... 75c... grade Silk Velvet... black, Per yd... $1.00... Warp Velvet, in all... The evening shades... Per yd... $1.25... Dress Velvet, All... $1.50

VELVETS

ELVETS

Silk Velvet... 75c... Silk Velvet... $1.00... Silk Velvet... $1.25... Silk Velvet... $1.50... k Velvet... $1.75... k Velvet... $2.00

THE

Dress Velvet... $1.50... Dress Velvet... $2.00... fine grade... $2.50

AON VELVETS

$1.00... $1.25... $1.50

MS.

light, black and all... 49c... A very... appearance and... our all-silk velvet... colors, Per yd... 75c... of Black and Col... yard... $1.00

Dora Cannon Adams, daughter of Randall P. and Mary J. Cannon, was born November 24, 1850, in Parke county, Indiana. Died at her home near Marshall, Indiana, January 15, 1917, aged sixty-six years, one month and twenty-two days. She was the fourth child of a family of ten children, of whom there are living, five brothers and one sister, Thomas, John, William, James Albert and Mrs. Linnie Ware.

When fourteen years old she gave her heart to the Savior and became a member of the church near Muscatine, Iowa, which place at that time was her home. In 1873 she became a member of Bethany Presbyterian Church and for forty-three years has given the organization her untiring and cheerful assistance in all of its branches, and through it all living such a devoted Christian life as to lead others to better and higher things.

On October 16, 1873, she was united in marriage to David N. Adams, this union being blessed with two sons, Claude and Frank. A niece, Phronia Heslar Dooley, who, when young, was left an orphan, also came into her home and was loved as a daughter. For twenty years this was a happy, loving family, when on March 20th, 1893, the husband and father was called to his Heavenly home. Then with her unflinching faith in God, she went forward giving all her love and tenderness to her children, to her grandchildren, to her relatives and friends. To all of these and to her church she gave the full measure of her life, and in return for all this love and self-sacrifice, she gained that which is far more precious than gold, the utmost love of her family and the tender affection of all with whom she came in contact.

She leaves with sad hearts her sons and families, her church, her neighbors and friends. But the evening of her life came, the Master of the Vineyard called, she has gone to receive the crown of righteousness, and is waiting with smiles of welcome at the pearly gates of the land where there is no parting.—Marshall News.

Obituary

James P. Nutgrass, son of James and Sarah Nutgrass, was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, in 1837, and moved to Parke county, Ind., with his parents when seven years of age, he being the last of a family of ten children.

In 1862 he was united in marriage to Margaret Larue who still survives. To this union were born five children, Alfred, Eva, Charlie, Martha and Sarah. He had thirteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

He united with the Christian Church at Rockville in 1864, later moving his membership to the Christian Church at Parkeville.

He departed this life January 5, 1917, at the age of seventy-nine years, six months and sixteen days, his death being the first of his family.

and white stripes.....12 1/2 c

DR

rfully se wever, t ce, so th ntity of

Marriage Announced
The marriage of Walter B. Royse, son of Rev. and Mrs. Clarence D. Royse, and Miss Lucile Burks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burks, which was solemnized in Chicago, May 25, 1918, was announced publicly last Thursday, afternoon at a party given by the bride for a dozen or so of her girl friends. Mrs. Royse is a graduate of Rockville High School and Oxford College, Ohio. She is one of the town's many accomplished young women, and for the past year was a successful teacher in the Gary schools. Mr. Royse is a DePauw man, leaving college about a year ago to enter the service. He holds the commission of second lieutenant, and is now at Camp Upton on Long Island.

GING

Best ks and h Hea able fo

Carl Peffley, 16-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vorhees Peffley of Raccoon township, was accidentally killed on Tuesday evening, by the discharge of a 22-calibre rifle, which he was carrying while riding his bicycle. Funeral will be held this, Thursday, afternoon.

DUCK SUITINGS.

Duck Suitings, in plain

HENRIETTA FINISH SATEN

Printed I

NEN FINIS

Linen Fi ll the new ns, cadet, li and ox-bl

SILK CH

in a fu es ..... hes wide, i le for stre
r, yard ...

a full range of The best quality, vard .....

DOTTE

Dotted Sv all range of shades yar

POP

a highly Cotton Poplin, looks like and mpagn lium

ce per yard .....

MERCERIZED CHECKS.

h Mercerized ck checks, al

cks, with whit
ing. Price per ya

MERCERIZED SATEN

black grounds, res or dots and ns; 27 inches wide black, yard

ast black, 18,
ick.....

TEA CLOTH

in colors, also nd striped de colored gros yard.....

ED CALICO.

effects, on navy or ches wide, 18

QUILTING

Patchwork effects; 25

RTINGS.

white gro
in all the correct styles

K WARP PONCE

A fabric that will wear as any of the higher-priced

Married—By Squire Bryant at his residence, June 22, 1917, Claude W. Adams of Rosedale, to Madge Hen- non of near Rosedale.

this givit expe of n

The C Fabr in cr red, tle, Alice

Danisl popu wide per

Carme comj same inche

We Domes

designs is always new. We also have a full line of the ever-popular polka-dot printing on white

Design spot tan per per

Fast c 28 inc
30 inc
36 inc
31 inc

27-inc
han 27-inc.

and white stripes.....12 1/2 c

OF LADIES' RIDING HABITS

Obituary

Edna Mae Collings was born in Crawfordsville, Ind., September 25, 1902, and departed this life July 8, 1918, aged 15 years, 9 months and 13 days. She was the daughter of Virgel A. and Minnie B. Scott.

She was married to Dial W. Elam on November 26, 1917. To this union was born an infant daughter, Evelyn Mae, on July 4, 1918. She was preceded to the great beyond by her father and infant child. She was taken into the home and hearts of Mr. and Mrs. James Collings at the tender age of three months since which time her welfare has ever been first in their lives.

She was a kind, loving and affectionate daughter and wife. She will be greatly missed in the home and by all who knew her. To know her was to love her. Although there is a vacant chair, which can never be filled, our loss is her eternal gain. Funeral was conducted at Mt. Moriah church, Wednesday morning, July 10, by Rev. C. R. Collings, after which the body was laid to rest in the cemetery near by.

Thomas, son of William and Nancy Burnside, was born April 27, 1845, and departed this life July 11, 1918, aged 73 years, 2 months, 14 days.

He was of a family of eight children, three boys and five girls, three of whom survive him.

At the age of nineteen he answered his country's call and enlisted in the war of the Rebellion, joining the service May 16, 1864, at Indianapolis. He was discharged Sept. 24, 1864, from Co. E, 137th Inf. While in the service he suffered an attack of typhoid fever as a result of which he was permanently disabled.

April 16, 1868, he was united in marriage to Mary Margaret Ramsey. To this union were born two children, Joseph William and Mattie, both being with him during his last illness.

He was a member of Judson Lodge No. 518, F. & A. M., and during a long life adhered to the teachings of this ancient order.

He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife, one son, William, one daughter, Mattie Boyd of Rockville; three sisters, Mrs. Cynthia Smiley of Judson, Mrs. Sarah Smiley of Rockville, and Mrs. Jane Moore of Greencastle; three grandchildren, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Phillip and DeLyla Boyd, two great grandchildren, Catharine and Thomas Hunt, and a host of other relatives and friends.

During a long life he showed, by his daily actions, that he was a firm believer in the idea that all men are brothers and as a friend and neighbor was without a peer. He bore his last illness with great fortitude, never complaining, dying as he had lived, a devoted husband, a loving father, a helpful neighbor and a true friend.

Waveland, June 14.—Mrs. Jesse Burford of this place, died at Culver Union hospital at Crawfordsville, this evening at five o'clock. She was taken to the Crawfordsville hospital two weeks ago, last Monday, and was operated upon Tuesday for gall stones. Her condition began to improve immediately after the operation, and continued to do so until this morning, when she received a serious set back, which resulted in her death this afternoon.

Mrs. Burford was born and raised in Waveland. After graduating from the Waveland high school her parents moved to what was known as Indian Territory. Here Mrs. Burford taught in the Indian schools. She returned and was married to Jesse Burford, and has lived here since. She was almost fifty years of age.

She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Josephine Milligan and one brother, Will D. Milligan, of Byron. Mrs. Burford has been a member of the Presbyterian church here for many years, and has been actively engaged in its work.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Obituary

Helen Irene, the only daughter of Clark and Daisy Alexander, was born July 13, 1915, and departed this life February 21, 1917. She was a bright and loving child to all who knew her. During her sickness she seemed not to suffer much. God called her from us and she went away. She leaves to mourn, her father, mother and six brothers, two brothers having gone on before. Short funeral services were held by Rev. W. R. Cady and interment made in the Eagle cemetery.

Jesse Peyton, a corporal in Company C, and Miss Elsie Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson, south Grant avenue, were united in marriage this morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. E. Moss, pastor of the Christian Church, at the office of County Clerk E. A. Rice. Mr. Peyton and Miss Nelson had arranged for the marriage ceremony to occur April 12, the date being changed because of the coming departure of the company.

Byard Collings and Georgia P. Robinson, both of Judson, were married Tuesday, June 11, by Elder S. K. Ferson, at his residence.

Noss Nola Peyton and Chester Sowers of near Guion, were quietly married at Rockville, Saturday. We extend our congratulations.

Saddle made of the finest cloth in or black. the correct away style front, out-its and coat lines extend-ment. The shed in the regulation rid- with correct be knee over room.

tailored as garment. Our $25.00 only.....$10.75

EQUESTRIAN SUITS.

a combination thing suits and The these pic- e the garment on horseback, nner of button- to convert the into a walking 00X651B shows it appears with p. buttoned and the suit ready to be used as a fashionable walking suit, golf suit, etc.

No. 69X651. Equestrian or Pe-side of that ul and str- own as Ly- in either nls material ropriate and purpose in-suit is the tight fitting so well on ed through coat back vet collar; divided style for riding astride with front flap arrangement so that when you dismount you can instant-

form the skirt into a walking skirt by sim- ing the flap over and g it up the side as in the standing illus- sizes in these suits 32 to 42 bust meas- special price...$22.50 skirt only.....$10.50

1B. This is also an or Pedestrian Suit used on horseback as 0' used by simply unbut- toning and turning back the flap. This suit is made of a handsome stylish English mix-order in -breast- away pat- b pockets; silk lined.

The Skirt for riding astride is newest, most sp- le. This same suit before been sold for $35. Sizes 32 to 44 assure. Our special price to you...$19.00 Separate Skirt only.....$9.00

69X651

Mrs. William R. Stark

Mary Mildred Fulwider was the oldest daughter of David and Pauline Fulwider. She was born in Virginia, September 3, 1852 and came with her parents, to Parke county when three years old. She became a member of the United Brethren church at an early age.

June 19, 1873, she was married to William R. Stark. To this union in 1875, Bertie came, but only came to brighten the home three months and two days.

On August 11, 1918, the mother departed after only six days of illness, at the age of sixty-six years, leaving the husband, three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Betty Taylor, Mrs. Anna Lewis and John of Rockville, Mrs. Anna Teague and William of California to mourn their loss.

Mrs. Stark was a loving wife, a good neighbor and will be greatly missed by all.

Funeral services were largely attended at the First Christian church in Rockville, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Bratton of Rosedale, with interment in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

No. by the ladies wear; wear in 12 yd. Quality Quality Quality Higher the price finer the quality.

Quality piece ..... 1.75 French Lawns, 47 in. wide, 40c, 50c, 60c, 75c and $1.00 yard.

Obituary

Lucinda Collings was born on the old home farm, near Marshall, where she spent her entire life, on March 14, 1841, and died May 8, 1917, at the age of seventy-six years, one month and twenty-four days.

She joined the Goshen Baptist Church, January 26, 1866.

She was the last of her family and was one of the oldest of the Collings family.

Funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon at 2.00, at Mt. Moriah, conducted by Elder S. K. Fuson.

No. 16X7. Imported Swiss Mull, a very sheer white fabric and makes up beautifully for evening wear; 32 in. wide 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c, 40c and 50c per yard.

No. 16X8. Soft Finished Cambrics, for ladies' and children's wear; 36 in. wide, 15c, 20c, 25c and 35c per yard.

No. 16 Finished sheer fabric nicely; 32 in. wide, 15c, 20c, per yard.

White Sheer Med White men Yarn White dress Yarn White Yarn Import dots Yarn

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Weaver entertained quite a number of their friends and neighbors Friday night. Music was furnished throughout the evening by Dr. Baldwin and Mr. Brown on the violin. Mr. Brown sang several solos, which were appreciated by all. Refreshments of apples, pop corn, bananas, and candy were served in abundance. All left at a late hour wishing the Weavers success in their new home in Terre Haute.

Checked nainsooks, for children's wear, 25 to 27 in wide. Yard ..... 10c, 12 1/2c Striped Dimities, in small and medium checks, 27 in wide. Yard ..... 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c Checked Dimities, 27 in wide. Yard ..... 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c

White Linen Finish I Yard .....
White Plaid Lawns, 1 in. wide. Yard .....
Novelty Lace Strip styles. Yard .....

NEW WHITE

States. Send for sam

No. deira bleach use, using finishing yards $2.00 bolt.
No. Diaper ally selected cotton, 10 yards in a piece.
18 in. wide, piece ..... 60c
20 in. wide, piece ..... 70c
22 in. wide,
24 in. wide,
27 in. wide,

ROCKVILLE, Ind., April 23.—(Special.)—Dan Swaim, 60 years old, died last night at his home as the result of injuries received while dynamiting stumps on his farm yesterday afternoon. He was found unconscious at 6 o'clock in the evening in the woods near his home by his son Edgar and removed to the home. He was alone while at work and it is thought he was near one of the stumps when a charge exploded. He had lived in the county for 25 years and besides the son is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Nora Jacks, Mrs. Mary Crooks and Misses Edith and Ina Swaim and the widow. The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning at Mt. Moriah Church with burial at Mt. Moriah Cemetery.

Sarver-Green.

Tuesday morning, Rev. W. H. Kerr, of the Christian church united in marriage at his home Luther A. Sarver of New Market and Miss Flossie M. Green, of New Market. The young couple will make their home on a farm near that place.

Obituary

Deacon John Collings, the subject of this sketch, was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, April 24, 1829; died at his home January 26, 1917, aged eighty-seven years, nine months and two days.

At the age of four years, he with his father's family, came to Parke county and settled on the farm he owned at his death. He was united in marriage to Sarah Ann Connelly, September 18, 1850. To this union were born six children, two having died in infancy. Mary, James S., David S. and Eliza lived to reach the age of manhood and womanhood. James S. and Mary, with their mother, have gone on before.

He united with the Union Baptist Church at Hollandsburg, March 5, 1859, and in December of the same year was chosen Deacon, and as long as health permitted served the church faithfully. He loved his church and all departments of church work, and was often called upon to sit in council with other churches. He often expressed himself as being blessed in having his children to care for him in his declining years and while we will all miss him, perhaps his son, who was caring for him in the old home since the death of his daughter, will miss him most, as well as the grand-son who so faithfully helped care for him during the spring and summer that is passed.

He leaves to mourn his departure two children, five grandchildren, five great grandchildren and three step-grandchildren whom he loved.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

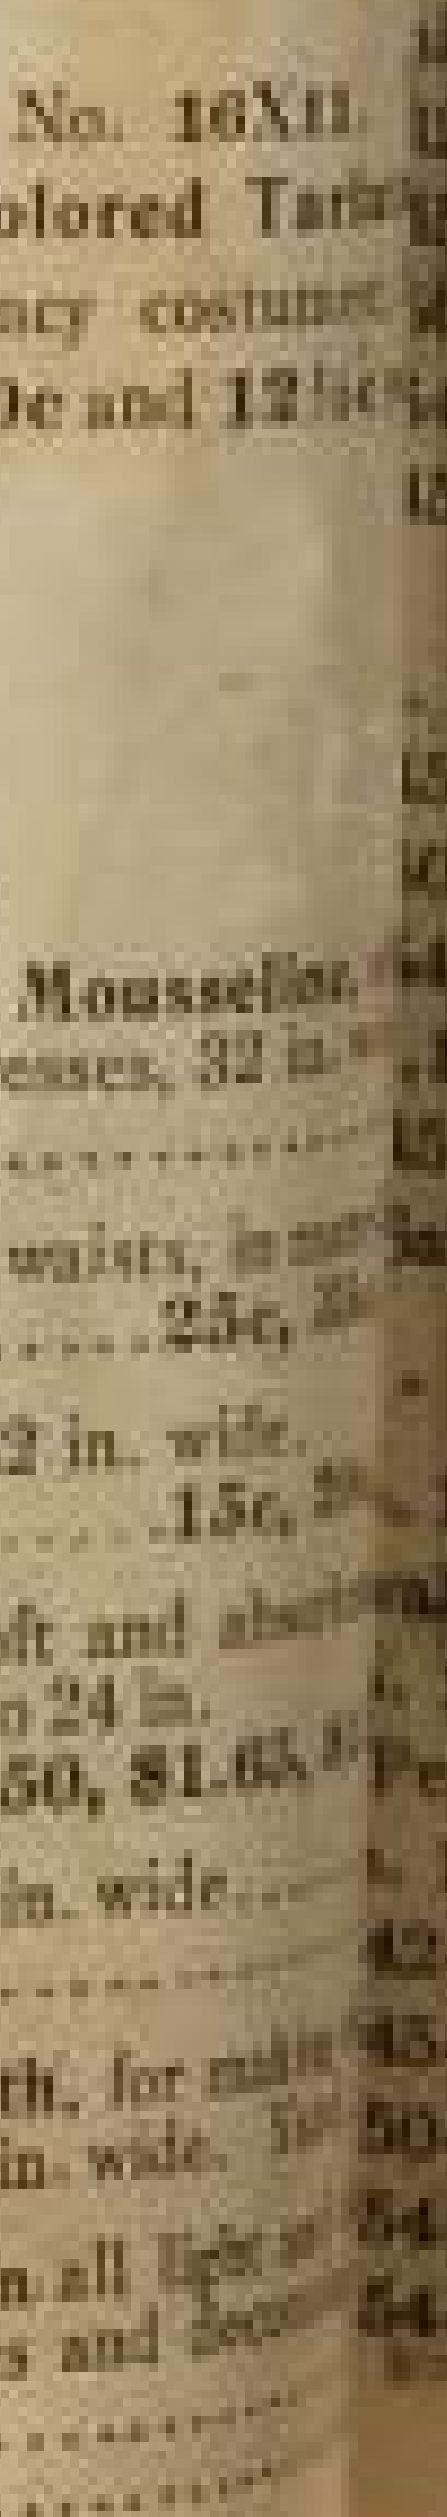

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. K. Fuson, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Mt. Moriah cemetery.

No. 16X6. sheer soft fabric and ladies' wide yard pieces. 36 in. wide, piece ..... 36 in. wide, piece ..... 36 in. wide, piece ..... 30 in. wide, piece .....

No. 16X11. Colored Tarts fancy costumes 10c and 12 1/2c on Mousseline dresses, 32 in. .... 25c soft and absorbent in. to 24 in. $1.50, $1.65, 25 in. wide ..... Cloth, for making 36 in. wide. 50c

SIE

Obituary.

Cynthia, daughter of William and Nancy Burnside, was born April 29th, 1840, on the old farm east of Judson, entered by Mr. Burnside at an early date, and died at her home in Judson, September 17th, 1918, at the ripe age of 78 years, 4 months and 19 days.

The country was new and undeveloped and her childhood and youth were lived as were those of her neighbors, amid deprivations and hardships, incident to life in a new country.

She was united in marriage to Robert Smiley, September 19th, 1861. To this union six children, of whom five remain, one having died in infancy, Nancy Jane Odell of Judson, Sarah Margaret Burnside of Morrocca, Indiana, Melissa Ellen Hazlett, George Leeman Smiley and Laura May Collings of Judson, Indiana. These, together with seventeen grandchildren and five great grandchildren, are left to mourn their loss.

Of the eight children of William and Nancy Burnside, but two are living, three having passed away within the last year. Mrs. E. Jane Moore of Greencastle and Mrs. Sarah Smiley of Rockville still survive. Robert Smiley died July 22nd, 1884. Sister Smiley united with the Christian Church at Parkeville during the Ashley meeting in 1890 or 1891, coming to us from the Associate Presbyterian Church near Portland Mills, Indiana. She lived a quiet consistent christian life to the day of her death. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid and like Mary of old, did what she could. She contributed to the Red Cross by knitting for the soldiers. She lived a retired, uneventful life, content with her surroundings and happy in the society of her family and friends. She met the grim monster without murmur or complaint, and she sank quietly to rest. Her memory will be cherished by those who remain.

As one by one the roses fall, so are we passing to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns; death reigns over animated nature. In the midst of life or in death, let us look up. Jesus says, "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me though he were dead, yet shall he live." So we look on the face of the departed and say farewell till we meet again.

16X270. Made of good quality of bleached muslin, linen finish. Each... 12 1/2c Same in Hemstitched, 45 x 36. Each... 13 1/2c

MUSLINS.

- 16X274. Bleached Muslins, yard wide, in all the best brands and exceptional quality. Per yard... 7c, 8c, 9c, 10c, 12 1/2c 16X275. Unbleached Muslins, yard wide, standard makes. Per yard... 7c, 8c, 9c, 10c 16X276. Bleached Sheetings and Pillow Casings.
24-in. Bleached Pillow Casings. Per yard... 14c, 16c
36-in. Bleached Pillow Casings. Per yard... 16c, 18c
48-in. Bleached Pillow Casings. Per yard... 18c, 20c
60-in. Bleached Pillow Casings. Per yard... 19c, 22c
66-in. Bleached Sheetings. Per yard... 19c, 22c

Best Qualities

MA

- Lining Taffeta, 11 in black, white and at the very special Lining Taffeta, 36 white and colors, PJ 36-inch Peau de S... be handled the...
retain in addition...
brilliantly, luster...
Choice of 35 new...
Yard...
6-inch Grand Duck...
All the new shades...
6-inch Full Beated...
"ery." All the...
Black. Yard...
6-inch Shadow SE... percaline. Choice... shades; also fast...
6-inch Chased F...
the new Fall...
Yard... at Black Percale...
10c, 12 1-2c.
EMERCERIZED SA...
6-inch Rainbow Li... mercerized sateen, in...
of colors. Yard...
MOON...
6-inch Moonbeam...
mercerized sateen...
Yard...

MUSLIN

PILLO

- 16X270. Made of good quality of bleached muslin, linen finish. Each... 12 1/2c Same in Hemstitched, 45 x 36. Each... 13 1/2c

Obituary

Claude, son of John and Lula Scott, was born near Jerome, Howard county, August 7, 1899, and departed this life June 30, at 3 o'clock, aged 18 years, ten months and twenty-three days. Claude, as we all called him, lived with his parents near Ferndale, Parke county, Ind., and during his brief illness he often spoke of going to Lebanon, Ind., to visit his brother Frank, when he got well. Two brothers, Lee and Charlie are deceased, he leaves a father, mother, three brothers, Frank of Lebanon, John and Dewey at home, and six sisters, Mrs. Loa Cosby of Crawfordsville, Mrs. Maude Charlesworth of Waveland, Mrs. Nora Charlesworth of Oxford, Ind., Della Cotten of Wallace, Ind., and Susie and Alma at home.

He was a kind and loving son and brother, but we feel that our loss is Claude's eternal gain. He had a kind and welcome word for one and all, to lend a helping hand to any of his neighbors.

The funeral services were held at Farmers Chapel, Tuesday morning, at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Ray Collings of Rockville.

For interlining of coats, jackets and capes, in plain white, gray or black; 70 inches wide. Yard... 39c

LINEN CANVAS FOR STIFFENING.

... 25c

... 15c

Yard, 10c, 12 1-2c

... 22c, 24c

... 24c, 24c

... 26c, 26c

... 28c, 28c

... 14c, 17c

... 15c

... 17c, 21c

... 19c, 24c

... 23c, 27c

... 25c, 29c

... 27c, 31c

... 11c

... 15c

... 18c

... 11c

... 12 1/2c, 17c, 19c, 23c

LIN

ings of us at... niples of Linin

LIGHT LINING.

Lining, a very su... n, in black and all

WN LINING.

ing, the best mere... money in the m... slors. Yard...

SCREENS AND VE

ilk finished; adap... top skirts or linings... and evening shades... team or white. Ya... lish Morocco. Yard

FRAL LINING.

ing; a washable... substitute for sath...

tin, in black, white... rs, at 75c yard; a... yard...

teen, black, white and... rd... 55c

SERGE LININGS.

r jacket or coat li... des...

TTED WAIST LI

realine Waist L... fitted. All sizes... white, light grey

T GUAR

TS AND BED

- 63-in. Bl... 49c
72-in. Bl... 54c
81-in. Bl... 62c
90-in. Bl... 69c
No. 16X27... 74c
45-in. Pil... slim,
48-in. Pil... 59c
54-in. Pil... 65c
63-in. Sh... 69c
72-in. Sh... 74c
81-in. Sh... 83c
90-in. Sh... 95c

No. 16X27

- 27-in. Bl...
36-in. Bleached... 15c
36-in. Sateen-Finished Twills. Per yard... 18c
27-in. Unbleached Drilling. Per yard... 11c
30-in. Heavy Unbleached Ducks. Used for sails and covers. Per yard... 12 1/2c, 17c, 19c, 23c

No. 16X

- Per ya...
No. 16X...
Per ya...
No. 16X...
Per ya...
No. 16X...
Fancy...
No. 16X...
27 in. w...
36 in. w...
45 in. w...
54 in. wide. Per yard...

MRS. SUSIE HORTON.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., May 6.—(Special.)— Mrs. Susie Horton, 53 years old, died last night at her home in Judson, after a few weeks' illness of complications. Mrs. Horton is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mary Michels of Brownsvalley, and two sons, Clyde and Roscoe Horton, three sisters, Mrs. Lucy Russell, Mrs. Minnie Ivy of Rochester, and Mrs. Effie Durham of Marshall, and a brother, W. C. Morcroft of Terre Haute. Funeral services will be held at the residence at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Mr. Kennigston.

- 15c, 21c, 25c
20c, 23c, 25c
18c, 21c, 25c
39c, 49c, 59c
49c 45c 55c 70c
50c

E CAN

... 59c

... 69c

... 59c

black.

... 12 1-2c

ENS.

... 25c

Yd. 15c

... 12 1/2c

light

1 yard

... 17c

each... 2c

... 25c

... 15c

Yard, 10c, 12 1-2c

... 22c, 24c

... 24c, 24c

... 26c, 26c

... 28c, 28c

... 14c, 17c

... 15c

... 17c, 21c

... 19c, 24c

... 23c, 27c

... 25c, 29c

... 27c, 31c

... 11c

... 15c

... 18c

... 11c

... 12 1/2c, 17c, 19c, 23c

15c, 21c, 25c

20c, 23c, 25c

18c, 21c, 25c

39c, 49c, 59c

49c

45c

55c

70c

50c

Smith-Foxworthy.

Ladoga, September 12.—Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel G. Smith, occurred the marriage of Miss Beulah Smith and Ray Foxworthy. The ceremony was read by Rev. Samuel G. Smith, the bride's father in the presence of about one hundred guests.

The home was prettily decorated in pink, white and green. Large pink and white asters, ribbons and bouquets being used. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Nellie Winkler sang, "O Perfect Love" with Mrs. Eva Harshbarger as pianist. Mrs. Harshbarger played the Lohengrin wedding march for the entrance of the bridal party, which came down the stairway. First came the minister, then the groom and best man, Frank Foxworthy, brother of the groom, then the maid of honor, Hazel Smith, sister of the bride and the ring bearer, Lucy Margaret Bittenbender, of Monte Vista, Col., niece of the groom, followed by the bride. They took their positions in front of a large mirror, surrounded by pink and white asters. In the living room and during the ceremony Mrs. Harshbarger played Mendelson's Wedding March, and as the bridal party retired, Mrs. Nellie Winkler sang, "Because".

The bridesmaid was gowned in dainty pink silk mull trimmed in beads and velvet. She carried a beautiful bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Lucy Margaret Bittenbender, ring bearer wore a dainty white dress with ruffles and lace, white stockings and shoes, pink sash and hair ribbon, carrying the ring in a large white lily.

The bride's gown was a beautiful silk and crape de chine, trimmed in silver lace and hand embroidered in pearl beads with Georgette crepe sleeves, a tulle veil with pearl head band, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The assistant hostesses in the parlor were Misses Ruth Smith, Mabel Crane, Christine Foxworthy and Laurel Foxworthy, Glenn Smith and Dwight Keim.

Mrs. Hodshire was assisted in the dining room by Misses Mabel Graybill, Ione Taylor, Letta Raines and Nina Stanley.

The minister and his wife followed by the bride and groom led the way to the dining room, where refreshments of ice cream in shape of white cupids on pink wedding bells, white and pink angle food cake, coffee and after dinner mints were served.

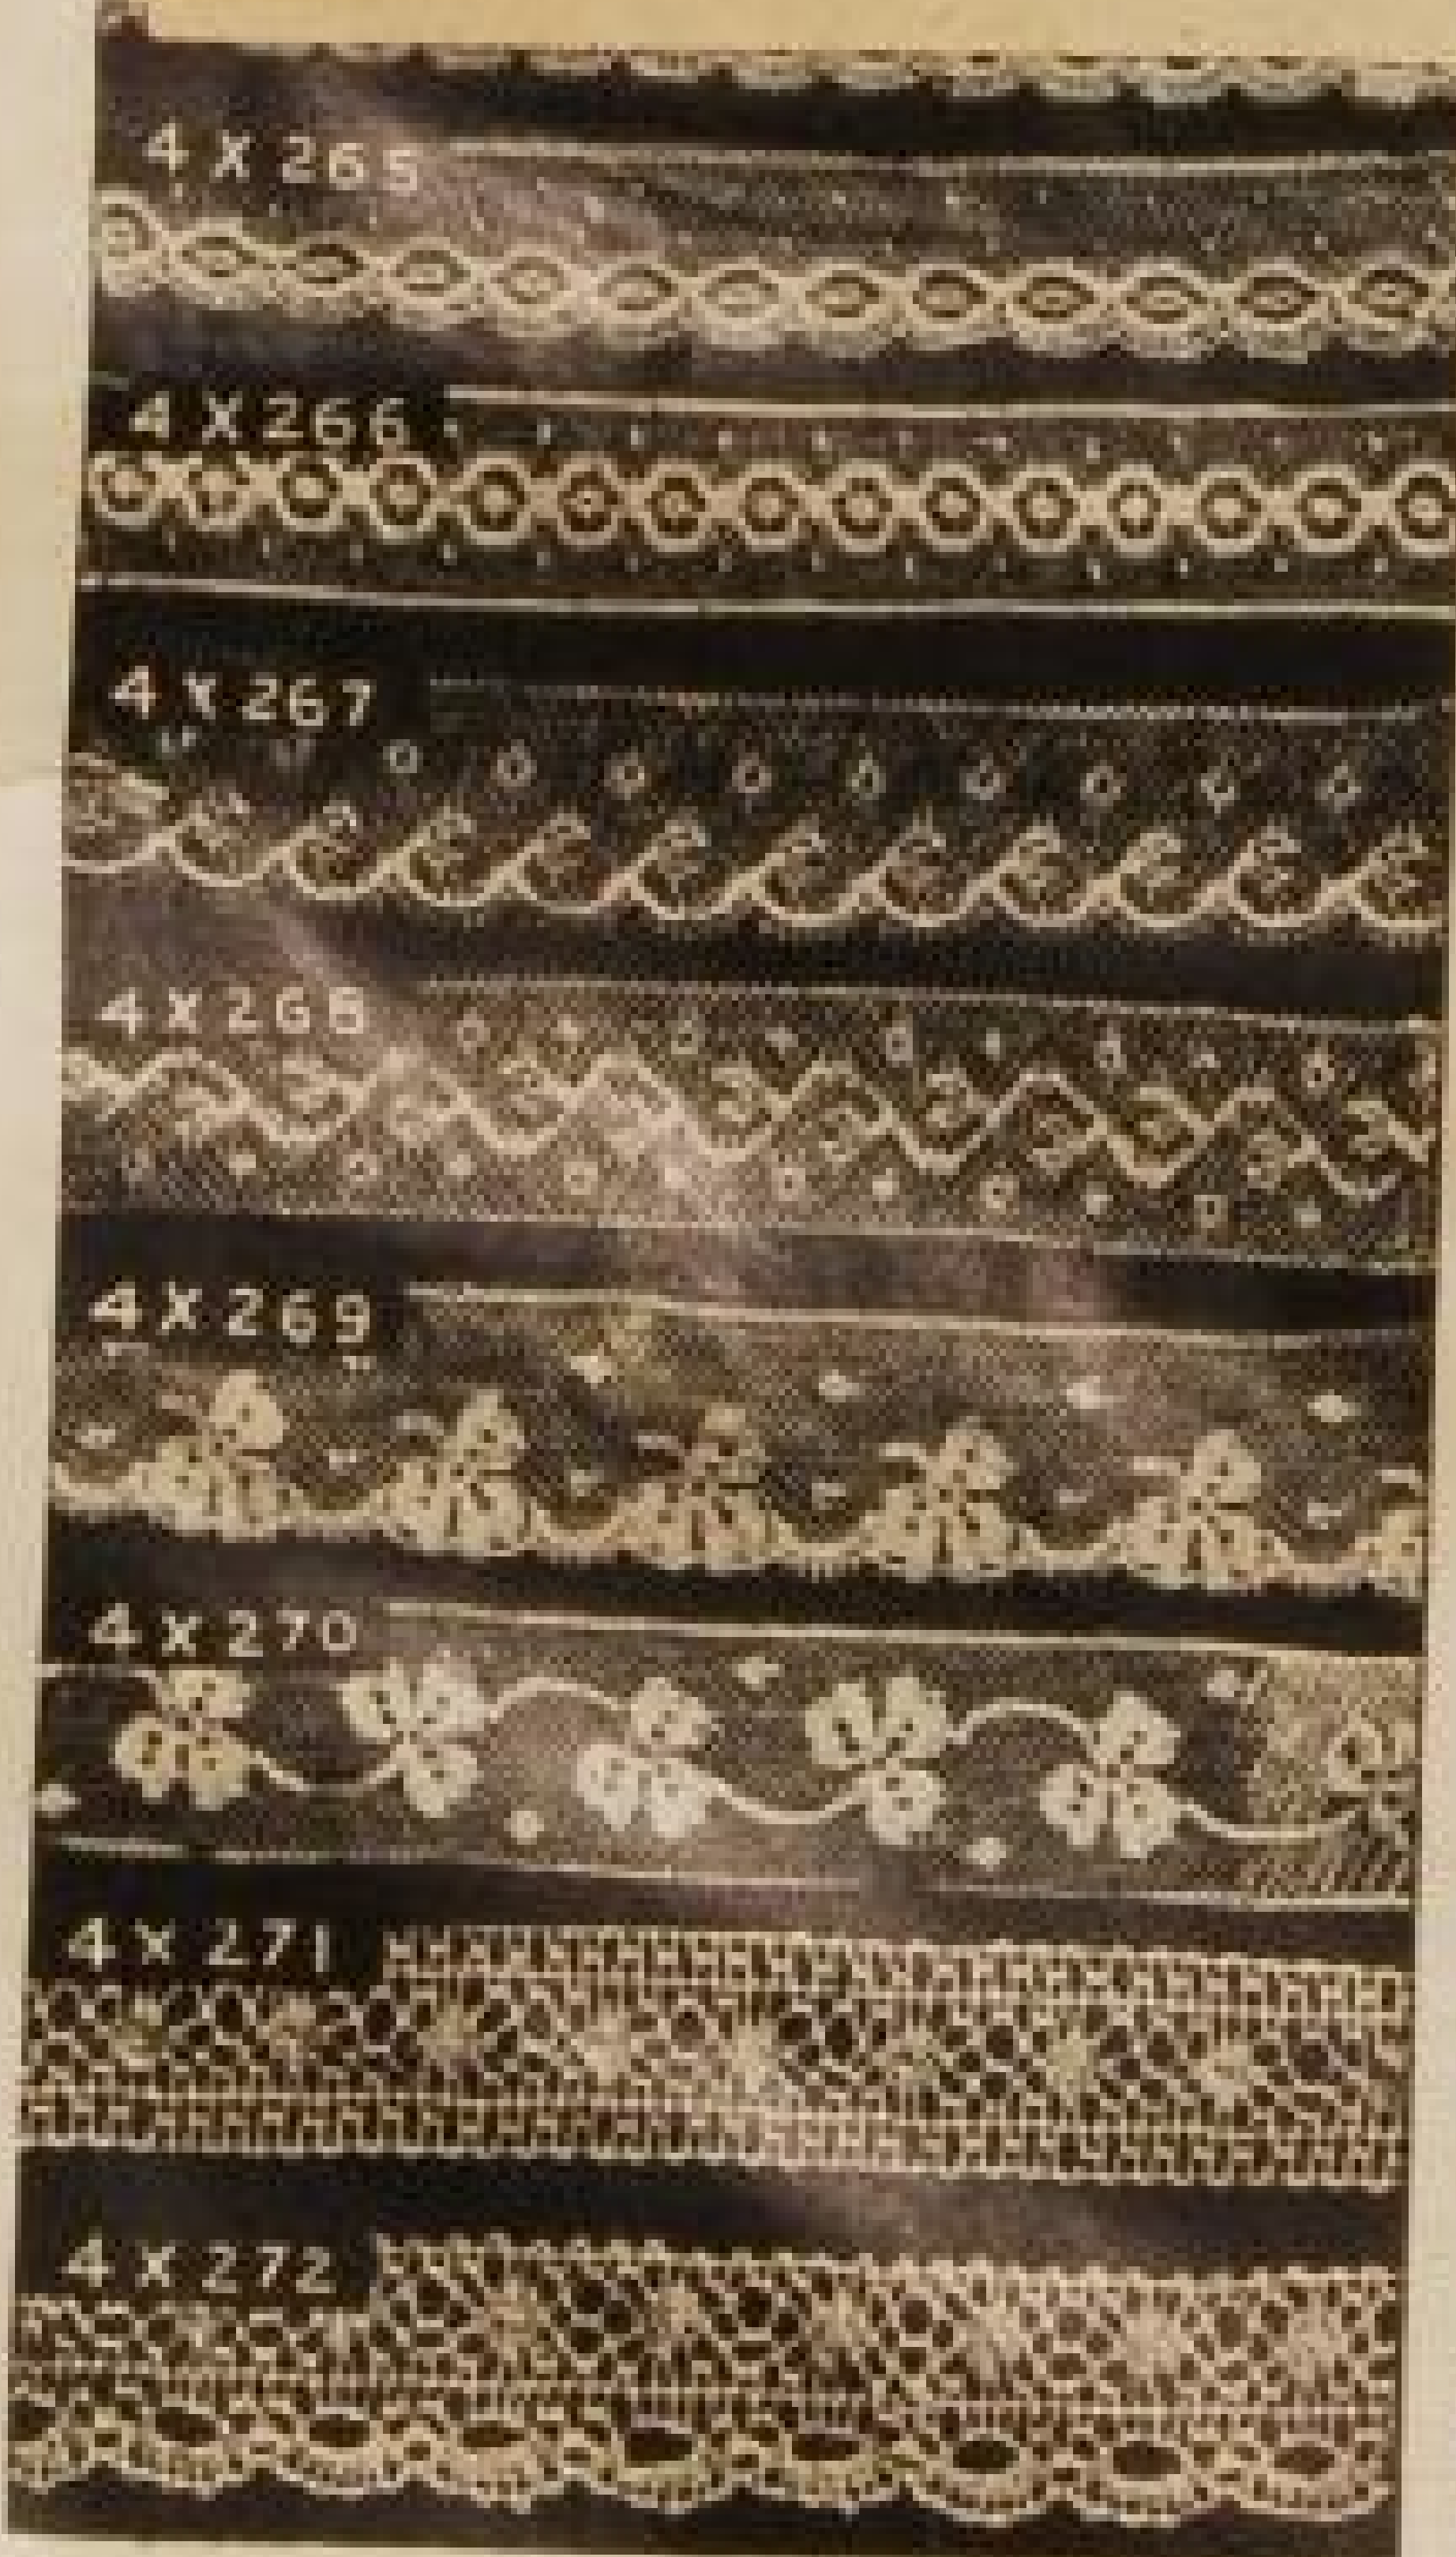

The bride gave the singer and pianist each a silver individual tea strainer inlaid with gold and gave each of the girls in the dining room a dainty silk handkerchief.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received of cut glass silverware and linen.

The bride's traveling suit was dark purple chiffon broadcloth, dark purple velvet hat and dark gray kid shoes and gloves.

The bride and groom left for a short wedding trip to Niagara Falls, and on their return will stop at Cleveland, Ohio, for a few day's visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Linn. After Oct. 1st they will be at home to their friends in Ladoga.

NEW LACES

- 98c No. 4X265. 1 1/2-inch, 100 doz. yards. Matches Lace Edge No. 4X267.
No. 4X266. French Valenciennes Lace Edge, 3/8-inch wide, 49c per doz. yards; 1/2-inch, 59c doz. yards; 1 1/4-inch, 79c doz. yards; 1 3/4-inch, 89c doz. yards; 2 1/4-inch, $1.20 doz. yards.
No. 4X270. French Valenciennes Lace Insertion, 3/8-inch wide, 49c doz. yards; 1/2-inch, 59c doz. yards; 1 1/4-inch, 79c doz. yards; 1 3/4-inch, 89c doz. yards. Matches No. 4X269.
No. 4X271. All Linen Torchon Insertion, machine made, 1-inch wide, 6c yard; 1 1/4-inch, 9c yard. Matches Lace Edge No. 4X272.
No. 4X272. All Linen Machine Made Torchon Lace Edge, 1/2-inch wide, 4c per yard; 3/4-inch, 5c; 1-inch, 6c; 1 1/4-inch, 7c; 1 3/4-inch, 8c; 2-inch, 11c; 2 1/4-inch, 14c; 2 3/4-inch, 15c.
No. 4X273. Imitation Torchon Edge, 3/8-inch wide, 3c per yard; 1/2-inch, 4c; 1 1/4-inch, 5c; 1 3/4-inch, 6c; 2-inch, 7c; 2 1/4-inch, 8c.
No. 4X274. Imitation Torchon Insertion, 3/8-inch wide, 3c per yard; 1-inch, 5c; 1 1/4-inch, 6c. Matches Lace Edge No. 4X273.
No. 4X275. Imitation Torchon Edge, 1 1/4-inch wide, 7c yard; 1 3/4-inch, 8c; 2-inch, 9c; 2 1/4-inch, 11c; 2 3/4-inch, 14c.
No. 4X276. Imitation Torchon Insertion, 1-inch wide, 6c yard; 1 1/4-inch, 9c; 2 1/4-inch, 14c. Matches Lace Edge No. 4X275.
No. 4X277. Real Torchon Edge, 2 1/4-inch wide, 49c yard; 3-inch, 69c.
No. 4X278. Real Linen Torchon Insertion, 1 1/4-inch wide, 39c per yard. Matches Edge 4X279.
No. 4X279. Imitation Torchon Edge, 1-inch wide, 3c yard; 1 1/4-inch, 4c; 1 3/4-inch, 5c; 2-inch, 6c; 2 1/4-inch, 7c.
No. 4X280. Imitation Torchon Insertion, 1 1/4-inch wide, 3c yard; 1 3/4-inch, 4c; 2-inch, 5c. Matches Lace Edge No. 4X281.
No. 4X281. Real Linen Lace Edge, 3 1/4-inch wide, 3c per yard.
No. 4X282. Real Linen Lace Insertion, 3 1/4-inch wide, 3c per yard. Matches Edge No. 4X281.

Overpeck-Biddle

The marriage of Miss Tressie Biddle of Hollandsburg, to Harry Overpeck of New Discovery, was solemnized at the home of the bride, Thursday evening, August 23rd, at eight o'clock. The ceremony was performed by an old friend and pastor, Elder S. K. Fuson, in the parlor, the bay window being beautifully decorated in vines, ferns and large jars of queens lace and black-eyed susans. Directly in the center was a large floral bell. As the clock struck the appointed hour, Mrs. A. E. Thomas of Indianapolis, took her place at the piano and played the "Flower Song," by Lange, immediately changing to the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, for the entrance of the bridal party. The little flower girls, Ruth Dae Stout, sister of the bride and Mary Frances Thomas, a cousin, were the first to enter the room. They were dressed in white and carried those beautiful wild flowers, the "Black-eyed Susans." Then came the bride and groom. During the ceremony, Mrs. Thomas played Barcarolle, from the "Tales of Hoffmann," and then Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" was played during the congratulations.

After the many friends of the bride and groom had given them their best wishes and congratulations, they proceeded to the dining room where a two course supper was served.

The dining room was effectively decorated in patriotic colors, above the bride's table, the American, British and French flags were suspended.

After the refreshments were served, the bride and groom proceeded to cut their respective cakes, the charms therein causing much enjoyment.

The bride wore a simple but lovely gown of white voile, with collar and sleeves of net, the hems of each being held in place by pearl beads.

The young couple are very highly respected. Mrs. Overpeck is an active Sunday school worker in the Hollandsburg Baptist Church. She is also a splendid musician, both instrumental and vocal. Mr. Overpeck is a successful young farmer. They will reside with the former's parents for a while. Our very best wishes go with them for a long and happy married life.

A Guest.

May 13, 1874, he was married to Martha E. Hill, who died October 24, 1884. Three children were born, one dying in infancy, a daughter, Stella, wife of Wallace E. Cox, who lives near her father's home, and a son, Lt. Commander Nelson H. Goss, U. S. Navy, who is at present aide to the Commandant at the League Island Navy Yard, Philadelphia, Pa. Nelson H. Goss graduated at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and since his graduation has continued in the service of his country, and has by reason of faithful service and ability, while yet a young man, risen to his present honorable position and rank.

June 23, 1889, John Goss married Ida Belle Vail. One daughter, Lois Goss, a graduate of DePauw University, who lives at the home, blessed this marriage. John Goss was happy in his home life. He was a loving husband and a kind father, and leaves of his immediate family besides his wife, son and daughters, brother and sister, his grand children, Ronald D. Cox, Mary Davis Cox, Dwight W. Cox, Alice Ruth Cox and Beverly Goss, to mourn his loss.

Early in life he joined the Church of Christ at Bellmore, and consistently lived a Christian life.

As a business man he was successful. He acquired what he had by industry, thrift and honest endeavor. He worked with his mind as well as with his hands. His opinions on horticulture, agriculture, political and business matters were well considered, sound and convincing. They were sought after and valued highly by his neighbors and friends. He was a man of strong personality and character. He was earnest in whatever he undertook. He studied matters carefully, formed his opinions and judgment of men deliberately, and when his opinion ripened into conviction it could not be shaken. He did the right "as God gave him to see the right."

He valued his friendships as priceless jewels—and fastened himself to his friends as by bonds of steel. His life was at their service.

John Goss was a manly man, honest, capable and conscientious.

His voice was always heard, his energies and talents always expended in any cause in which he believed. He had faith in his country, faith in its people, and faith in his God.

ES of lace-photographs and show descriptions ant widths out of one liberty of handsome at the same

White Oriental 38c per per yard, 2-inch wide, matches Lace

White Orient-
4 wide, $1.69
4X300.

Edge, in 4-inch wide, 23c per
per yard.

Insertion, in 1or, 1½-inch
This matches 304 and Edge

White Oriental wide, 85c per

Lace Edge, yard; 2¼-inch 2¾-inch wide,
15c per yard;

¾-inch wide,
tion, 1¼-inch 1¾-inch wide, 11c yard-t Valenciennes side, 12c per 8c per yard; 6-ard, Insertion, yard; 2¼-inch

s matches Lace

t Valenciennes wide, $1.65 per
c per yard.

tt Valenciennes le, 9c per yard;
r yard; 3¼-inch 4-inch wide, 21c

tt Valenciennes
h wide, 5c per
. 9c per yard.
ch wide, $1.95
wide, $1.00 per Lace Edge No.

Cluny Edge in inch wide, 7c per c, 8c per yard;

per yard; 4-inch 4; 4¾-inch wide, see Insertion in inch wide, 7c per e, 8c per yard;

3¾-inch wide, 11c per yard; 4¼-inch, 12c per yard; 5-inch wide, 15c per yard. This matches Lace Edge No.
4X310.

No. 4X312. Cream Chantilly Edge, 2½-inch wide, 10c per yard; 3¼-inch wide, 12c per yard; 3¾-inch, 15c per yard; 4¾-inch wide, 19c per yard.

No. 4X313. Cream Chantilly Lace Edge, 2½-inch wide, 6c per yard; 3-inch wide, 8c per yard; 3¼-inch, 10c per yard; 4¾-inch wide, 12c per yard;
5¼-inch wide, 18c per yard.

4X300

4X301

4X302

4X303

4X304

4X305

06

07

08

09

10

11 12

13

4X313

Obituary

Jewel Dooley was born near Byron, the daughter of Moses and Artie Mitchell, July 3, 1898, and slipped quietly from the sleep of the living to the last sweet sleep of death, in Indianapolis, August 5, 1918, at the age of 20 years, 1 month and 2 days.

Jewel's childhood was spent on the farm where she was born, attending the neighboring school she graduated with, Howard township, 1914. During her girlhood and until failing health overtook her, she was a member of the Byron Christian Sunday School, and while her name was not on the roll of any church, the beauty of the life she led gives assurance to her friends that it was on the roll above.

She possessed a quiet, loving and gentle disposition and early in life she gave her affections to a young man in every way worthy of them, Clifford Dooley, to whom she was married, December 27, 1916.

They and their friends looked hopefully forward to many years of useful happiness for them, but it was not to be, for God, in a wisdom we may not understand but to which we submissively bow, has willed it otherwise.

During the last few months of her life, her health failed rapidly but her suffering which was great, was borne so cheerfully and uncomplainingly, her smile was ever so ready, that it was difficult for those nearest her to realize the seriousness of her condition.

About seven weeks ago, she was compelled to take her bed, and on July 16, was moved to the Methodist hospital at Indianapolis in the hope of receiving benefit, but without avail.

Death is always sad, but to many it is especially so when the one taken is in the bloom of youth, yet is there not some compensation in the thought that to those who thus die, is vouchsafed the heritage of eternal youth in the memory of their friends.

Those of Jewel's friends who may remain in half a century will be old with faces seared by the suns of fifty summers and snow flecked by the blasts of as many winters, yet in their memories Jewel will live, not old and withered as are they, but young and beautiful. Eternal youth, the boon for which mankind has always sought, is hers and cannot be taken from her.

From the many expressions which have come to me, I am sure I speak for the entire community when I

Grace Cree Davidson was born in Hamilton, Scotland, May 13, 1884, and departed this life September 26, 1918, aged thirty-four years, four months and fourteen days.

In early life she became a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Mecca, where she spent her girlhood. Later this membership was transferred to The Methodist church at Rockville.

At the age of twenty-two years she was married to Dr. T. J. Collings, December 6, 1906.

To this union were born two children, Donald Leon, who is now ten years of age and Rebecca Jean who has not yet reached her sixth birthday.

To those who knew her best, Mrs. Collings seemed to typify all that was lovely and sweet in womanhood, modest and retiring in her disposition, unaffected in her manner, yet always ready to sympathize with those in sorrow and to extend a helping hand to those who were in need. She was of an optimistic temperament. She at all times took the cheerful view of life, over looking the dross and unlovely and seeing only that which was noble and uplifting. She was always true to her friends, once a friend always a friend with her. She was a kind neighbor, a loving wife and sister and a devoted mother. Loving her children with an intense devotion and giving to them the best of herself, time, energy and effort to the end that theirs might be a happy childhood. Not only might this be truly said of her as a mother but also in regard to her entire home life, which was in every respect an ideal one.

Home to her was the most precious, the dearest place of all. A place where love, joy and happiness reigned supreme.

She had, apparently, always enjoyed the best of health until a year or two before her death. When she began to fail, the decline was so gradual that it was scarcely noticeable to her loved ones, and when the end came it was a great shock to all.

During her illness she said but little in regard to her passing into the Great Beyond, but from her manner of living we feel certain that she had no fear whatever of death, her only regret being the separation from her loved ones.

She leaves to mourn her departure, a husband, two children, her father, two sisters, two brothers and a host of friends.

We feel that were she living, she might fittingly say with the poet:

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,

- No. 4X364. White Point Venice Festoon Cluny Combination Lace, 3 3/4-inch wide, $1.45 per yard; 4 1/4-inch wide, $1.85 per yard; 5 1/4-inch wide, $2.25 per yard; 8 1/4-inch wide, $2.65 per yard. Medallions, 5 1/4-inch wide, $1.85 per yard; 7 1/4-inch wide, $2.50 per yard, and an all-over to match, 18-inch wide, $9.50 per yard.
- No. 4X366. White Baby Irish Festoon, 3-inch wide, 75c per yard.
- No. 4X367. Narrow Baby Irish Lace Edge, 5/8 inch wide, 19c per yard; 1 inch wide, 27c per yard. Insertion, 1/2 inch wide, 19c per yard; 1 inch wide, 26c per yard; and a galloon, 3/4 inch wide, 19c per yard.

Obituary

Obituary
 Margaret Ann Hennon, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Hennon, was born near Dresden, Muskingum county, O., Aug. 7, 1852, and died at the home of her brother, J. W. Hennon, in Roschdale, March 6, 1919, aged 66 years, 6 months and 27 days.

She was married to Samuel M. Adams, Dec. 27, 1887, who preceeded her to that celestial home, Jan. 8, 1897. She leaves two brothers, J. W. Hennon, at Roschdale and Howard E. Hennon, living near Rockville, and many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a faithful and consistent Christian woman, being a member of the Presbyterian church, and had labored more for the comfort and welfare of those about her, often neglecting her own personal wants. "Aunt Mag," as she was familiarly called, was a friend to everybody, and will be very much missed in the community. No more appropriate expression of her worth and character could be made than to say, "She lived for others."

Funeral services were held at 1 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, at the residence, conducted by Rev. S. K. Fuson, with burial in Rockville Cemetery.

Blanche Buckler was born October 19, 1885, and departed this life February 13, 1920, aged 34 years, 3 months and 24 days.

The deceased was born in Bellmore, Ind. Here she spent her girlhood days and attended school. At the early age of fourteen she united with the Methodist church of Bellmore, and remained a conscientious member through life.

On the 23rd of August, 1903, she was married to Albert Lee Spencer. To this union were born eight children, Eugene, Robert, Ramona, Ruth, Mary, John, Maynard, and Cash M. all of whom survive her.

Blanche was a quiet unassuming little woman whom everyone loved, and she will be sadly missed in the community. She always held the interests of her family dear to her heart and went cheerfully about her tasks to make home a bright, happy place for her husband and children.

Blanche leaves a husband, eight children, a brother, two sisters, a half brother and a host of friends and other relatives to mourn her departure and their great loss.

Funeral services were held at the secedar church, February 15th at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Nolan of Marshall, with interment in the cemetery near by.

ERIES

amples of em-strations are ect from the tern exactly.
 will find the l. Should we tern, we will betituting one in the same price.

Irish Point
 1do, yard...15c

Teneriffe Net
 1do, yard...15c
 wide, yd...10c

Irish Point
 1do, yd...12 1/2c

English Eyelet
 4 1/2 inches
 .....10c

ur de Lis and set Edging, 1
 .....8c
 wide, yd...8c

Baby Set 1do...12 1/2c
 wide, yd...12 1/2c

English Eyelet
 1do, yard...12 1/2c

English Eyelet
 1do, 3 1/2 inches wide, yard...25c

No. 62X264 Comb...

Obituary

Mary Clementine Odell, daughter of Jacob and Nancy Crooks, was born near Judson, Parke county, Ind., Sept. 18, 1834, and died at her home, Sept. 17, 1920, aged 86 years. All her life was spent on the farm where she died. On October 28, 1852, she was united in marriage to William Leonard Odell, who departed this life on January 8, 1879.

To this union three children were born, name'y, William M. Odell, Mary A. Connelly, who preceeded her mother in death October 8, 1887, and John Odell. While she never united with any church yet her faith and hope were in her Heavenly Father, and she expressed herself many times as being ready, willing and anxious to meet her Saviour.

She leaves to mourn their loss, two sons, William and John, and a daughter-in-law, who have always been near her and tenderly cared for her during the prolonged illness, five grandchildren, one granddaughter having died in infancy, six great grandchildren, two granddaughters-in-law, with many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the home, Sunday morning, by Rev. E. M. Bowles pastor of Holandsburg Baptist church, with burial at the Barnes cemetery.

Veining Edge,
 1/2 inches wide,
 wide, 30 yards
 .....7c

Irish Point In-wide, yard...8c

Ribbon Bead yard...35c

Edg wide,

black,
 light cham-

1do, 3 1/2 inches wide, yard...35c

Swiss Baby
 wide, yard...8c
 1/2 wide, yd...7c

rench Blind and ting, 5 1/2 inches
 .....25c

1do, wide, yd...25c

English Eye-et Edging, 8 1/2
 .....27c

1do, wide, yard...13c

rench Blind Set wide, yd...15c
 wide, yard...15c

Rose Bud Baby
 wide, yd...23c
 .....12 1/2c
 .....10c

Point
 .....5c
 yelet robes
 .....12 1/2c

1do, wide, yard...12 1/2c

Obituary

Margaret Ann Hennon, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Hennon, was born near Dresden, Muskingum county, O., Aug. 7, 1852, and died at the home of her brother, J. W. Hennon, in Roschdale, March 6, 1919, aged 66 years, 6 months and 27 days.

She was married to Samuel M. Adams, Dec. 27, 1887, who preceeded her to that celestial home, Jan. 8, 1897. She leaves two brothers, J. W. Hennon, at Roschdale and Howard E. Hennon, living near Rockville, and many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a faithful and consistent Christian woman, being a member of the Presbyterian church, and had labored more for the comfort and welfare of those about her, often neglecting her own personal wants. "Aunt Mag," as she was familiarly called, was a friend to everybody, and will be very much missed in the community. No more appropriate expression of her worth and character could be made than to say, "She lived for others."

Funeral services were held at 1 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, at the residence, conducted by Rev. S. K. Fuson, with burial in Rockville Cemetery.

Obituary

Elvin Fred, son of Fred and Nellie McBride, was born in Parke county, near Bloomingdale, April 23, 1917, and departed from us November 6, 1919, aged 2 years, 6 months and 14 days.

It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His all wise providence to remove from us a very dear and beloved child, and transferred him from his earthly home to the Heavenly home. We acknowledge our irreparable loss and realize how sadly he will be missed in the home and by his many friends. Swiftly and gently the summons came—God's finger touched his and he slept.

Though Elven was sick only a short time he was ever bright and cheerful in response to his parents wishes. Besides his father and mother, he leaves to mourn their loss three sisters and one brother, Susie, Minerva Ellen Jessie D. and John William, a grandfather, two grandmothers and a host of friends and relatives.

Funeral services were held at the parents' residence, northeast of Rockville, Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. S. K. Fuson, with burial in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

62 X 266

WINIFRED SMITH.

The body of Winifred Smith, 14 years old, who died Monday at San Antonio, Tex., is being brought to Terre Haute and will arrive today. The funeral will be held Sunday at the residence of her brother, Raymond Smith, 1736 North Third street.

This community was greatly shocked last week, when the announcement came of the death of Dr. G. C. Price, of Judson, which occurred in France. Friends extend their sympathy.

1do, wide, yard...12 1/2c

62 X 250

62 X 26

62 X 251

62 X 2

62 X 252

62 X 3

62 X 253

62 X 2

62 X 254

62 X 2

62 X 255

62 X

EMI

We of en illustr graph the g patter descri the stated out of take t tuting hands width price.

Ithamer Harlan.

Thamer Harlan, son of Goldsmith and Asenath Harlan, was born in Hol- landsburg, March 10, 1851; died at his home near Bellmore, just at the close of day, Dec. 6, 1919, age 68 years, 8 months and 27 days.

He was one of a family of nine children. The father, mother, two sis- ters and one brother preceded him in death.

He was united in marriage to Dul- cerna Ader, Dec. 1870. To this union were born two children, a daughter Mrs. Dosie Hetu and one son Clyde. Thamer was of a pleasing personality, kind and courteous to all and was ever ready to lend a helping hand wherever needed. His life among his neighbors and in the community was one of in- tegrity and worthy of emulation. He leaves to mourn their loss his wife, two children, two sisters, three broth- ers and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. R. Collings at the home after which the body was conveyed to Mount Moriah cemetery for interment.

No. 62

Point and English Eyelet Flour 16 3/4 inches wide.

yard

Obituary

William Henry Barnes was born on the home place, near Judson, June 11, 1852. He was the second of three children born to Edward and Serepta Barnes, all of whom have, preceded him to the spirit world.

On December 29, 1875, he was united in marriage to Katherine Stark, to which union was born eleven chil- dren, four of whom died in childhood, all the others, except Hubert, being present at the funeral.

Mr. Barnes was a member of the Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star Chapter, and took a very active part in the affairs of both.

He was taken to the Union hospital at Terre Haute, Sunday, October 27, and died there Tuesday, November 19, 1918, at midnight.

Funeral services were held Thurs- day afternoon, at one o'clock, at Jud- son, and were very largely attended. Elder S. K. Fuson officiated and in- terment was made in Bethany ceme- tery.

Inset 9 1/2 inches wide.

yard

Obituary

John William Sutton, son of William and Sarah Sutton, was born August 11, 1857, in Greene township, Parke coun- ty, and departed this life December 8, 1918, at Altus, Okla. On March 4, 1880, he was united in marriage to Marie Christian Mottern, and to this union were born three children, Harry Raymond, Roscoe and Ruby Hazel. He attended the Lutheran church and spent his school days at the school house next door. Mr. Sutton was a good man, a kind neighbor and faith- ful husband and father. He will be greatly missed, but we feel that our loss is his gain. He leaves to mourn his departure, his widow and three children.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. R. Collings, Friday at the Lu- theran church, at eleven o'clock, after which he was laid to rest in the Lu- theran cemetery.

Miss Charlotte Bertha Schweitzer and Jess M. Burford of Waveland, Ind., were married at 9 o'clock yesterday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. Schweitzer. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. LeRoy Brown, pastor of the Washington ave- nue Presbyterian Church, in the pres- ence of the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Burford left shortly after the ceremony on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends at 1508 South Eighth street.

Quincy McClain

Quincy McClain, son of John J. and Margaret McClain was born Novem- ber 3, 1864, and departed this life August 20, 1920, aged 55 years 9 months and 17 days.

On August 10, 1882, he was united in marriage to Mary A. Stark, and to this union was born one son, Hubert, of Dana, Ind.

When Quincy was ten years of age his father passed to the Great Beyond leaving him and his mother to fight the battle of life alone. He was not identified with any church but was a firm believer in the doc- trine advocated by the Predestinar- ian Baptists. He was anxious to get well and enjoy the company of his family and friends a few years long- er, but was reconciled to go if it was his Maker's will.

He leaves to mourn his departure a broken hearted wife and a lov- ing son who did all that human hands and loving hearts could do for his comfort. He also leaves a host of relatives and friends. But while the friends and loved ones mourn the passing of this good man, they mourn not as those without hope, for we know that the Master hath said "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live again; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." And so, as truly as the sun shall rise in the morning af- ter the darkness of the night, so shall he arise from the valley of the shadow of death in the glorious state of life eternal, having left be- hind him all the pains and sorrows of earth; for the soul of man dies not, but must return to the God who giv- eth life. So in the contemplation of his larger, freer life would we find comfort and solace from our grief.

Short funeral services were held at his late home, Monday afternoon, and the remains taken to Mt. Moriah church, where funeral services were held, conducted by Rev. C. J. Al- hart of Crawfordsville, and inter- ment made in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Charlie Thomas of Greene town- ship, and Laverne Roberts of this place were married last week. We extend congratulations.

73

73

SI...

City—Fall

MRS. BERTIE MAY HADLEY.

1906-7

99

Obituary
 Sherman W. son Daniel and Serepta Cox, was born November 24, 1879 and died at his home in Hollandsburg, October 23, 1919, aged 39 years, 10 months and 29 days.

He was united in marriage to Frances Shalley, October 28, 1900. To this union were born three children, Fred, Goldia and Grant. Almost his entire life was spent in the community in which he died. Although he had been afflicted for a number of years and was compelled to use a wheel chair for the last twelve years, never for one moment did he lose interest in his business affairs or in the welfare of the community in which he lived.

He united with the Union Baptist church at Hollandsburg, under the pastorate of Rev. Ray Banks, February 7, 1915, and attended services whenever health permitted, and that same religion carried him through the trying days and hours with a smile, and caused him to say that the victory would soon be won, and "I am happy in Him."

He leaves to mourn their loss, a wife, three children, two brothers, one sister, with a host of near relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the Hollandsburg church, Sunday morning conducted by Rev. C. R. Collings, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Aldrich of 1501 North Sixth street entertained with an attractive party yesterday afternoon at her home in celebration of the birth anniversary of her daughter Virginia, who was 8 years old. Games and contests were the diversions of the afternoon, after which the little guests, including 10 of Miss Aldrich's most intimate friends, were served refreshments. Pink and white was effectively demonstrated in the table appointments and mints, ice cream and cake of these colors were served.

Charles Schafer Sinka, 20, machinist, of Tampa, Fla., to Wilma Josephine Heins, 15, stenographer, of 1421 South Center street.

Obituary

La Mont Maxine, little son of William and Garnet Rein, was born March 21, 1916, near Hollandsburg, Ind., and died at his home in Clinton, August 17, 1920.

Just as the day was breaking into evening shades, the little life was wafted into the beautiful Beyond, at the age of 4 years, 4 months and 26 days. Little words spoken, little acts, little heartaches will be cherished by us all, as the purest of gold. But with an abiding faith that says, "God in Heaven reigns," makes us love to think of the words of the Savior, when he said:

"Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Funeral services were held last Thursday at the Hollandsburg church, conducted by Rev. C. R. Collings, with interment at Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Mrs. Bertie May Hadley, 38 years old, 1522 Woodlawn avenue, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the Union Hospital following an operation. She is survived by her husband, Albert Hadley; two sons, James and Hamilton, and two daughters, Verlepa and Josephine Hadley. The funeral will be held at the residence at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Burial will be in Highland Lawn Cemetery.

Obituary

Mary Dixon Mater was born in Parke county, Indiana, August 5, 1851. She died in Indianapolis, June 27, 1920, aged 68 years 10 months and 22 days.

Her parents emigrated from Kentucky and were among the pioneer settlers of Parke county. Mary, who was one of six small children, was 10 years old when they were left motherless. At the age of thirteen little Mary became a member of the Missionary Baptist church of Hollandsburg, in which faith she lived the remainder of her life. At the time of her death she was a member of the Tuxedo Baptist church of Indianapolis. At the age of sixteen, she was married to John S. Modesitt. Their three children are Mrs. Minnie Kigg of Indianapolis, Walter Modesitt of Rockville and Mrs. Della Scott of Seattle, Wash. The family lived for a time in Iowa and afterward moved to western Kansas. Eventually, mother and children returned to the old home in Parke county, and in August, 1891, Mrs. Mater was married to Thomas Webster Mater. To them was born one son, Loyal Dix Mater. After the death of Mr. Mater, the mother and her unmarried son went to live in Indianapolis. Their happy companionship was interrupted by the son's seventeen months of service overseas. This was the greatest trial of her life, she was wont to say. As a war mother, her anxiety, patience, loyalty and trust were characteristic of the stout-hearted, Christian woman she was. Always upward looking, her influence was felt in many ways. She was a child of God, a believer in good works. She loved to read good books. She made friends wherever she was, and the world is better for her having lived. She loved the church, and often voiced her regret that so much of her life had been lived in a place where no church was within reach, and that when she was near a church her affliction had made it impossible to attend. She kept up the home department study of the Sunday School lessons up to the time of her death.

Those who survive her are two brothers, I. M. Johnson of Fruita, Colo., C. W. Johnson of Sawnee, Okla., four children three step children, C. O. Mater and Georgia Wabb of Rockville, and Carrie Foster of Ridge Farm, Ill., ten grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren are also left to cherish the memory of this beloved mother.

Married—At Rockville, Saturday, January 11, by Rev. C. R. Collings, Preston Lowe of Browns Valley, and Mrs. Anna Weaver of Judson, we extend congratulations.

SERIES

- Irish Point trimming, 12% inches wide, yard..... 25c
- Own All-over 20 inches
 ..... 50c
- Irish Point 18 in. yd. .... 50c
- Tucking All-over, 22 inches
 ..... 61.00
- English Eyelet
 5. 10 1/4 inches
 ..... 25c
- wide, yd. .... 10c
- and Swiss Eng-
 10 inches wide,
 ..... 50c

WILINGS

i-07.

RATED.

- both Vell, 1 1/2
 on three sides shades: black, grey, cham-
 st. violet, light under, 1 1/2 yards
 ..... 50c
- ..... $1.00
- Mourning Vell, tched on three
 ..... 50c
- and Velvet-Gem-
 in black, white,
 apple, 18 inches
 ..... 30c
- ow Ribbon Edge
 1 1/2 yards long,
 ..... 95c

RATED.

- lines in black,
 75% grey, light
 5, olive, chamunder, garden
 rose and reseda,
 1.... 15c and 25c
- t Veilings in Dotted Hairlines
 in black, white,
 apple, 18 inches
 ..... 10c to 50c
- sh colors outside low prices to

- Silk Velling in own, navy, tan, k and light blue,
 rd..... 22c
- ie Chiffon Velling crown, navy, tan, k and light blue,
 rd..... 20c
- Bridal Illusion, rd.... 25c to 35c
- rd.... 50c to 75c
- ard. 75c to $1.12
- Mourning Vells,
 uch.... 50c to $2.00
- h.... 75c to $2.50
- ..... $1.25 to $5.00
- ..... $1.25 to $4.00

translucent ribbon, crepe
 5 from 35c 12 from 1 1/2 ire.

62x350

73x50

73x

NEW IN N

- No. 5X150. Stock, full folds of match, in cardinal or
- No. 5X151. Embroidered
- No. 5X152. Stock of Mousseline de Soie, with bands of ribbon set with pearl ornaments, Jabot of silk knots; this stock is boned and made to light fit
- No. 5X153. piece, correct white,
- No. 5X154. platted up with ruching
- No. 5X155. part of white,
- No. 5X156. Stock, tabs edging shawl, wh
- No. 5X157. Stock, d erod in black or the immediate neighborhood in which she was born. Upon the death of her husband she with her son, James T., came to Rockville to live. Upon the death of James last November, she was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Hazlett where she could have all the care and untiring devotion needed by one who was in early life Mrs. Jack joined the Christian church at Portland Mills. She retained her membership here until she moved to Rockville when she transferred it to the Christian church at that place. She was an earnest Christian and during her last illness was often heard to repeat the prayers that meant so much to her, and Charles
- No. 5X158. and mak line and collar w velvet ki blue, wh
- No. 5X159. Family belt, front, a bordered violet, w
- No. 5X160. embroide
- No. 5X161. ruching t and Chenise
- No. 5X162. blue, lavender, white. Price... 25c
- No. 5X163. Ascot Tie of fine Damask, pin back or pull through. Price... 25c
- No. 5X164. Floured Crepe de Chine, and 2 yards
- No. 5X165. light
- No. 5X166. A floral d form buds under, wh
- No. 5X167. Collar with match the strictly ta black, lav
- No. 5X168. fine renal attached; worn on
- No. 5X169. in straw ruche, in white, cas
- No. 5X170. fancy hie with stea ment in
- No. 5X171. Ice Lace Price ...
- No. 5X172. two tabs ered ring black or
- No. 5X173. Venise, e lar attac for both
- No. 5X174. bordered Venise lace
- No. 5X175. White Hemstitched Col- lar and Cuff Set, a neat finish for any waist. Price... 25c
- 5X176. Washable Stock of Old glish eyelet embroidery..... 50c

MRS. EMMA F. HALL.

Mrs. Emma F. Hall, 25 years old, died at 4 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of her mother, 1201 North Seventh street, after an extended illness. She is survived by the widower, Evan Hall; two children, Ruth and Howard; mother, Mrs. Carrie Vanosdal, and brother, Blaine E. Vanosdal, with the American army in France. The father, Cash Vanosdal, died a few weeks ago. The funeral will be held at the home at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Burial will be in Highland Lawn Cemetery.

Sarah Ellen Jack

Sarah Ellen Jack, daughter of Uriah and Eliza Sage Hoeker, was born February 25, 1839 and departed this life June 13, 1920, aged 81 years, 3 months and 19 days.

She was married August 23, 1855, to Adam Sellers Jack, who passed away July 21, 1908. To this union were born five children: James T., who died November 16, 1919, Mary E., who died in infancy and Oliver B. Jack, Nancy J. Spencer and Mahala Alice Hazlett who survive.

Mrs. Jack was born in Greene town- ship and for seventy years lived in the immediate neighborhood in which she was born. Upon the death of her husband she with her son, James T., came to Rockville to live. Upon the death of James last November, she was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Hazlett where she could have all the care and untiring devotion needed by one who was in early life Mrs. Jack joined the Christian church at Portland Mills. She retained her membership here until she moved to Rockville when she transferred it to the Christian church at that place. She was an earnest Christian and during her last illness was often heard to repeat the prayers that meant so much to her, and Charles

She has suffered much through the greater part of this year and has always been very patient. Quite a large number of friends and relatives, both in this neighborhood and near her former home, mourn her untimely death and extend to the family their sincere sympathy.

Obituary

The deceased, Ella Margaret, daughter of Amanda and William Clark, was born June 5, 1903, at Marshall, Ind. She died October 28, 1918, aged 15 years, 4 months and 23 days. This is the third daughter of which this family have been bereft, two sisters, Daisy Dean and Mary, a baby, having died before. She is survived by the father, mother and three brothers, Charles Smith, living south of Clinton, Elmer Ray, who is now in France, and Jonathan T., who is still at home. She was a bright child intellectually, and with very pleasant manners, therefore, a favorite with her schoolmates, several of whom will sadly miss her.

She has suffered much through the greater part of this year and has always been very patient. Quite a large number of friends and relatives, both in this neighborhood and near her former home, mourn her untimely death and extend to the family their sincere sympathy.

MRS. WILLIAM A. SMITH

Florence Alma Smith was born near Hollandsburg, Parke county, Indiana, on February 4, 1857; passed into the Valley of the Shadow on the night of November 11, 1919, aged 62 years, 9 months and 7 days.

She was a daughter of Willard M. and Maria Odell Jerome, both parents now deceased. Her life until womanhood was passed in the neighborhood of her birth; here she attended the public schools and was identified with all the social activities of the young folks.

On September 23, 1874, she became the wife of William A. Smith and their union was blessed with six children, three sons and three daughters. The death of a son, Claude, on February 4, 1893, at the age of six years, marking the first break in the happy family circle. The five children who, with the husband and father, are left to mourn the death of this beloved wife and mother are the sons, Charles F. of Bridgeton, and Lee of Rockville; and the daughters, Mrs. Effie Heber of Mecca, Mrs. Gladys Rigdon of Bridgeton, and Miss Carrie Smith at home. Five grandchildren and three brothers, Edgar Jerome of Rockville, Albert Jerome of Montezuma, and William Jerome of New York City, are left in bereavement.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Smith lived in Bellmore until 1895, when they moved to Bridgeton, where they have resided continuously since. Here Mrs. Smith, by her many admirable traits of character, won the love and esteem of a large circle of friends. She was a woman of mild, even temperament, patient under trials, a kind-hearted, sociable neighbor. She was devotedly attached to family and home. Home to her was the abiding place of love and here was where she gave of her best. Loving, unselfish, self-sacrificing, forgiving, she was always doing some service for some member of the family, always planning for their comfort. A prudent, careful housewife she was a good manager and an untiring worker. While living in Bellmore she united with Union Baptist church at Hollandsburg and later when she took up residence at Bridgeton, affiliated with Bridgeton Baptist church. When health permitted she was always to be found at her place in the sanctuary, earnestly testifying to her faith and trust in her Savior. Devout in her religion she early taught her children the precepts of right living.

Her last illness was lingering with untold suffering; loving hearts and tender hands ministered to her, doing all that could be done until her gentle spirit was released.

A worthy woman has gone to her reward. Like St. Paul of old she could say, "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me."

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. S. K. Fuson of Rockville, at the family residence, at 11 o'clock, last Thursday morning. A quartet composed of Mrs. Edward Killion and Mrs. Bert Whitesell, James Grey and Fred Usefman sang several of the old time hymns with Virgil Smith, accompanist. The mortal remains were then taken by motor hearse to Mt. Moriah cemetery, to be laid to rest to await the resurrection morn. The bearers of the pall were Charles and Lee Smith, Edgar and Albert Jerome, William Heber and Oscar Rigdon. The services were largely attended. Many beautiful floral offerings testified to the love of friends.

STYLES WEAR

Obituary
Moy A. younger daughter of John P. and Florence L. Martin, was born in Union township, Parke county, Ind., May 15, 1894, in which county she continued to reside until her death, November 15, 1918, aged twenty-four years, and six months.

She received her education in the public schools, although her health was frail, she possessed unusual ambition and completed her education in the High school.

On August 26, 1914, she became the bride of Charles Millemon, this union was blessed and brightened by two little sons, Clyde Martin and Cecil Merle, who have sustained the greatest loss that comes to them in life, the loss of mother.

May was of a loving and gentle disposition, bearing her affliction with great patience and cheerfulness. She was a kind neighbor, lending a helping hand whenever her health would permit.

She was a loving wife and daughter, and a most devoted mother, in her frail condition, she manifested much patience and kindness toward her children; she was highly esteemed in the community in which she lived, but it is in the home and family circle that she will be missed the most.

She realized that the close of her life was drawing near, and talked about it calmly with the loved ones, who gave her such devoted care, and from her manner of living, we feel certain that she had no fear of death, her greatest regret being her separation from her loved ones.

Death is always sad and especially so when the one is taken in the bloom of youth, but we submit to the one "who doeth all things well."

She leaves to mourn her departure, two dear children, a kind husband, a loving father and mother, a devoted sister and a number of aunts and uncles, besides other relatives and a host of sympathizing friends.

A dear one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at Mt. Moriah, conducted by Rev. Brattain, of Rosedale, with interment in the cemetery, near by.

Miss Mary Jane Jarvis and Joseph Esterbrook of El Paso, Tex., will be married at 4 o'clock Wednesday in St. Louis. Miss Jarvis is a charming young woman with a large circle of friends. She made her home for the last seven years with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Deere, 1110 North Ninth street. Mr. Esterbrook, who is the son of Mrs. M. Esterbrook, formerly of Terre Haute, has for some time been making his home with his mother in Texas. He is now in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railway Company. Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Esterbrook will spend a short time in St. Louis. They will be at home after Nov. 1 in their newly furnished apartments, 2405 South Seventh street.

Brooks Thompson Overpeck
Brooks Thompson Overpeck, the little son and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Overpeck of New Discovery, died suddenly Tuesday morning from an attack of membranous croup. Private funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. R. Collings, during the service the following obituary was read:

We are again reminded by the relentless hand of death, that the Master's plans must be executed even though it takes the lives of such priceless jewels as this bright little boy, from father, mother and friends.

Brooks Thompson Overpeck came to bless the home of Harvey and Blanche Overpeck, on July 12, 1915. For three years, seven months and 27 days the gentle child lived a beautiful life, fraught with the lessons of love and unselfishness that lead to the gate beautiful, and his mission being fulfilled on earth the pure, white soul winged its flight back to him who gave it on March 11, 1919.

Besides the parents, those left in bereavement are his grandparents, Mr. L. M. Overpeck and Mr. and Mrs. Hiner Thompson. Also two uncles, two aunts and a wide circle of sorrowing relatives and close friends.

He grew into a hearty, plump, rosy cheeked little boy, unusually bright, loving and lovable. His illness was brief and severe, due to the dread membranous croup. The devoted parents did everything possible to relieve the little sufferer, the best medical skill and all that kind, anxious loving hearts could do was done, but in vain. Just why a sunny faced little child should be taken away from parents, relatives and friends and leave them with broken hearts we cannot say. It seems to be a part of the divine plan; perhaps another angel is needed in the bright land of Paradise, for are they not angels of God in disguise? The promises to the little children are such that we have no fears for their future life. It is the separation, the vacant little chair, the childish prattle which we hear no more, that touches our hearts and makes us sad and lonely. Father, mother, grandparents and relatives, when you give the last good bye to little Brooks today, remember it cannot be long until you can greet him with good morning in a brighter clime, where sorrows and sufferings never come.

made of washable full width, 2 1/2 inch stitched ends, light blue, violet, etc. Price $1.75

Stock with tabbed buttons and black or white. Price 50c

Silk Stole, 50 inch wide, black only. Price $2.25

Eye Plaiting, also various colors, black or white. Price 50c

Ties, made of plaid and solid color, some worn, used for waistcoats and suits, black, light blue, pink, etc. Price 25c

5X204, only extra variety of Scotch d. sombre shades, 1k. Price 25c as 5X204B, extra. Price 48c

Stock, lower part foulleline de Sole set beads, upper line with ruching in blue, lavender, etc. Price 50c

Side of liberty silk trimming, neck-very full, two black or white. Price 33.25

as 5X207, with same material, Price 33.25

Collar, flat turn-with boys' suits, by maids, nurses sizes 10 1/2 to 15. Price 15c

Capulet, 1.19

Embroidered silk plaited Price 50c

Embroidered can be fastened with buttons, made in center. Price 10.95

Stock, made of edged with fancy Venise lace, studs, finished at crepe de chine or with little rib-ender, light blue, etc. Price 95c men hand hem-bar and Cuff Set, made straight or divided in center. Price 50c

Col- pe and Lisse, white. Price 25c

Lisse, white. Price 25c

Price 19c

Price 25c

No. 5X225, Box containing six (6) different styles neck ruching, 1/2 yard in each piece, just right length for neck. Price 24c

5X225

5X218

5X222

5X224

5X224

WILLIAM J. SMITH.
William J. Smith, 59 years old, died at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Union Hospital. The body was prepared for burial and taken to the home, 410 Eighth avenue, and survived by the widow, Mary; two sons, Nicholas and Pearly Smith; three daughters, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Waldo Money and Mrs. Thomas F. Hanley; one brother, one sister, two half-brothers and sisters and four grandchildren. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Second Christian Church. Burial will be in New Harmony cemetery.

5X21

5X219

Obituary
Beulah Opal Smiley, daughter of Andrew and Luella Smiley, was born near Judson, Indiana, June 30, 1899. She departed this life November 21, 1918, aged 19 years, 4 months and 21 days.

When thirteen years of age, she with her parents and family moved to Dana, Ind., for better school advantages. This favor she greatly appreciated and threw her whole soul into the school work. She was a good student, ranked among the first in her classes, commanded the highest respect of her teachers and classmates, and later made school teaching her chosen profession. She graduated from Dana High School in the year 1917 and later entered Indiana State Normal, where she was granted both the A and B certificate for faithful effort. She was one of the teachers in the public school at Russellville, Indiana, where her demise came.

Opal, as she was more commonly known, early recognized her duty and responsibility to herself and her Lord and to humanity, and when only fourteen years of age, gave her heart to God, and joined the church. Since that time she has lived a faithful and consistent Christian life and was especially active in Young Peoples' work. She seemed to catch a great portion of the spirit of her Master and like Him, enjoyed making sacrifice for the sake of making others happy, and especially those of the family.

She had no fear of death and seemed to have some kind of a presentiment of what was coming, and some time ago expressed to her mother the desire that if the angel of death should visit their home she hoped she might be the one taken and not the mother, so the home would not be broken up.

She leaves behind, loving parents, one brother and four sisters, two grandfathers and grandmothers, besides aunts and uncles and many dear friends.

Her relatives and friends should be greatly comforted by her great Christian spirit and by the faith she had in her Saviour, as shown to the end by her singing, as her last, her favorite song, "God Will Take Care of You."

Short funeral services were held at the home, conducted by Rev. A. D. Merrill, after which the body was laid to rest in Portland Mills cemetery.

The L. A. S. and some invited guests gave a miscellaneous shower at the church in honor of Mrs. Jesse McMullen, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. McMullen received a number of pretty and useful gifts. Refreshments consisting of fruit salad and wafers, were served by the L. A. S., after which Mrs. McMullen served the crowd with ice cream and a jolly time was had by all present.

WOMEN'S

Ordering Gloves is wanted, send send you as ne their perfect style

$1.00

One Clasp Embroidery; Pair, $1.00

T O U

only Glove

every resp values in /

Edith No. 8x

0 gloves, at t $1.50 gl ton length

$1.50

Two Clasp
Glance, in black, Pair, $1.50

Two Pearl Clasp,
Real Kid, P.K.
Glance, in white or black. Pair, $2.00

No. 8X326
Two Clasp modes, 1 gray; per

No. 5X16
fancy front, braided violet,

No. 5X162
embroid

No. 5X163
ruching and Cher... blue, lavender

No. 5X164
Asc pin back or

No. 5X165

and No. 5X326

per

Clasp Glac

& national women fro

States. P offered.

black, whi

y

No. 8X32

Clasp Suede, Paris Embroidery
black, white and colors. Pair, $1.50

Kid, Two Pearl Clasp, Real Kid, P.K.
Glance, in white or black. Pair, $2.00

Lieutenant Clarence Collings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collings and Miss Eva Jeffries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Jeffries, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, near Judson, Wednesday evening, July 2, at nine o'clock.

Rev. C. D. Royse of Rockville, performed the ceremony in the presence of about one hundred and twenty-five relatives and friends.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ina Hazlett sang "I Love You Truly," after which Mrs. Dottie Clore played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, to the strains of which, the bride and groom accompanied by Rev. Royse and two little flower girls, the Misses Doris Pauline Collings, sister of the groom, and Edith Jeffries, a cousin of the bride, formed the bridal party, which descended the stairs to the room where the ceremony was performed.

During the ceremony and congratulations which followed, Mrs. Clore played "Love's Golden Dream". The bride wore a beautiful white organ-die dress, and carried pink roses, her bridal veil of white maline being caught with sweet allysum.

The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, and the color scheme of pink and white was carried out.

The bridal table, at which were seated the bride and groom and their parents, was decorated with long sprays of smilax, and lighted with pink and white candles. Brick ice-cream and cake were served. Punch was also served, Mrs. Robert Strange and Mrs. Howard Clark assisting. Music was played throughout the evening.

The bride showered the young ladies with her bridal bouquet, to determine who would be the lucky one to marry inside of one year.

Mr. Collings is a graduate of Purdue University and is a promising young farmer, Mrs. Collings is a graduate of Bellmore high school, and is a highly respected and accomplished young lady.

The bride received a large number of beautiful presents, including china, silver, cut glass, aluminum, etc.

A Friend.

Swain-Wimmer

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening, at 9 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wimmer, near New Discovery, when their daughter, Dora, became the bride of James Edgar Swain, son of Mrs. Daniel Swain, of near Rockville.

The marriage was performed by Elder S. K. Fuson, in the presence of about forty guests, the ring ceremony being used.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, a wedding supper was served. The young people, who are very popular among their friends, will be housekeeping at Bloomington, and both attend Indiana University.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome gifts.

2. The Glove modes

33. The Real Kid in black

8X re bl
5.
8X re ing 9 to

1. Wom ish Glac of or tan 5. Wom ish Glac
ick red 16. Wom
11 Out na

06-7 WC

No. 8X350
$1.00

WOMEN'S KID GAUNT
No. 8X350 Women's Kid Driving Glove, made of dark material. Pair...

No. 8X351 Women's Driving Glove, best quality black. Pair.....

No. 8X352 Women's Driving Glove, deep cuff; sizes,
5 to 7 1/2. Pair.....

WOMEN'S MOCHA GLOVES.

No. 8X353 Women's 1
Clasp Mocha Glove
black or grey; sizes,
5 to 7 1/2. Pair.....

No. 8X354 Women's 1
Clasp Mocha Glove
black or grey; sizes,
5 to 7 1/2. Pair.....

No. 8X355 Women's 1
Clasp Genuine Mocha Glove, full P. K.; new embroidery in black or grey; sizes 5
to 7 1/2. Pair.....

No. 8X367 Women's 2 Clasp Cashmere Gloves, light weight or black, slate or model; size
5 to 7 1/2. Pair.....

No. 8X368 Women's 2 Clasp
Gloves, or plaid design in black, slate, or red. Pair.....

No. 8X374 Women's 2 Clasp
Gloves, black only; sizes, 5
to 7 1/2. Pair.....

No. 8X375 Women's 2 Clasp
Gloves, lined throughout.
Pair.....

No. 8X376 Women's 2 Clasp
Gloves, in black, white or red. Pair.....

John Francis McMullen

Once more we are forcibly reminded that "life is uncertain and death is sure;" once more does our little hamlet and community give its toll of accidental victims; again as friends and neighbors and schoolmates do we bring our tribute of love and friendship and place it upon the bier of one who but yesterday stood shoulder to shoulder with us in the battle of life.

John Francis, son of Jesse and Alice McMullen, was born near Waveland, May 12, 1903, and met an untimely death on the railroad crossing near Sand Creek, May 19, 1920, aged 17 years, and 7 days.

The broken ties of family friendship are evenly divided now, the father, a brother, Everett, and sister, Mary, are left to mourn, while the mother, a little brother, Omer Harold, and John, await them in the great beyond.

John was converted and joined the Baptist church when twelve years of age. Although seemingly of a careless disposition, yet underneath it was a sincerity of purpose quite apparent to those who knew him best. "The outward, wayward life we see; the hidden springs we may not know."

John was handy at most kinds of work. When his mother lay sick he did a great deal of the cooking and house work. John was regarded by his parents as an obedient son. When the step-mother came into the home the bonds of love and friendship were mutual; waving for the last time a fond adieu when he started on that ill-fated trip.

He had just completed his second year of high school. Here it was that his congenial manners and pleasing personality won for him the esteem and confidence of his teachers and school mates which is attested by their presence, their flowers and their tears which memory bids them bring today.

"None knew thee but to love thee; none named thee but to praise." But the family present here today, the neighbors and school mates are not the only ones that will miss him; the little sister who went with him so much and who barely escaped being part of a double tragedy will not forget the happy days of youth they spent together.

Let us extoll his virtues and condone his errors; the maelstroms of life, the warnings of danger are still ahead; we catch the message which those poor dumb lips would speak today, we glimpse the dawning of a better day.

extend to the family our deepest sympathy. We mingle our tears with those of the loving young husband; two fathers and two mothers for she made no distinction between her parents and those of her husband; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Myers, Doris and Ruby, three brothers, Earl, Glenn and Donald, sister in law, and brother in law and grandfather and two grandmothers. One brother, Ernest, died in infancy, and precedes Jewel to the great beyond.

D GLC

Owing to the continued 16 Button Length enables patrons

VES.
Glove
-blood
...98c
s Kid Pique,
$1.00
$1.25
olor

HMERE

No. 8X371
Finish Ca fancy silk model; size

No. 8X372
Taffeta Gb stock, 5 1/2

VES

Clasp "Doub le and colors

Clasp "Doub le embroidery; 1

Obituary

Howard Ephraim Hennon, son of Joseph J. and Sarah Hennon, was born near Dresden, Muskingum Co. June 3, 1863, and died at his farm home, August 16, 1919, aged 56 years, 2 months and 13 days.

In early life he came to Bedford, Ind. and in the schools of that city, he received his education. While quite young he had measles which developed into pneumonia. He survived the attack of this most dreadful disease by a very narrow margin, but was left weakened for life in that his hearing was greatly dulled. In his younger manhood, he was engaged in the printing business at Bedford and Roachdale for a number of years and all his life was a great reader, keeping himself well informed on the current happenings and for many years was a regular contributor to our county papers.

His brother, Samuel died in Indianapolis about ten months ago, and his sister, Maggie at Roachdale, about five months ago. An only surviving brother, J. W. Hennon, lives at Roachdale.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his widow, two daughters, Madge and Margaret, two sons, James and Max, and one grandson.

The deceased, because of disease in early life, was compelled to meet life's duties and responsibilities, greatly handicapped. He has gone from us leaving a stainless name, and the priceless heritage of a kind husband, a good father. He has gone to that home prepared for him, for did not Jesus the Christ say to all of us, "I go to prepare a place for you and if I go I will come again and receive you unto myself."

Funeral services were held at Mt. Olivet church, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Elder S. K. Fuson, with interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery near Catlin.

Mrs. Mariah Jerome

Mariah E. O'Dell, daughter of William and Jane O'Dell, was born September 11, 1834, and departed from this life, November 29, 1918, aged 84 years, 2 months and 18 days.

March 18, 1856, she was united in marriage to Willard M. Jerome. To this union were born eight children, Florence A., Oscar N., Charles H., Edgar, Rosa E., Albert L., Elmer and William E., four of whom are living. Mrs. W. A. Smith of Bridgeton, Edgar of Rockville, Albert of Montezuma, and W. E. of New York City. She is also survived fourteen grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

She united with the Union Baptist church at Hollandsburg, at the organization of that church about fifty years ago. She was a good Christian woman, a true and affectionate wife, a kind and loving mother, and leaves a host of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

A short funeral service was held at the residence in Montezuma by Elder S. K. Fuson, assisted by Rev. Williams of the Methodist church of Montezuma, after which she was laid to rest beside her husband and companion in Rockville cemetery.

e, 12 and portation 12 to our

Kid Gloves
...$2.00
Kid Gloves
...$2.75
Kid Gloves
...$3.50
in black or ...$3.25
in black or
...$3.75
Cape, in ...$4.50
e, in black
...$4.75

MOCHA ED

S. en's Best Silk Lined seat in fit, ance, warm
in black, air... $1.50
SH CAPE CIAL. in 1 Large nish Cape y and ser-value. 5 1/2
as or reds.
... $1.19

No. 8X373
75c

Clasp Fine
This silk ssibility of objection to ere gloves ack or slate;
..... 75c

Silk Gloves,
...$1.00
and $1.50
Silk Gloves
...$1.25
Silk gloves
...$2.25

New York City

Harriet Emeline Wright

Harriet Emeline Wright, daughter of Lorenzo Dow and Lucinda McGilvery, was born near Hollandburg, Indiana, July 24, 1848 and departed this life July 12, 1920, living almost 72 years in this community.

She was married September 3, 1865, to Levi Wright. To this union were born four children: Willie, Rosa Motherhead, Cora Hocker and Lottie, who together with their father, have all passed into the great beyond awaiting her coming.

After the death of her daughters, she took the place of a loving mother in helping to care for her grandchildren.

She united with the Missionary Baptist church of Hollandburg, about forty-seven years ago, under the pastorate of Elder S. K. Fuson, and was a member of this church until her death.

She always had the welfare of her community at heart, and no one ever came to her door and asked a favor, but what it was granted if in her power.

She leaves to mourn her loss, four grandchildren Frank Hocker of Rockville, Mabel Huxford of Brazil, Margaret Trump of Hollandburg, and Edward, who lived with her, besides other relatives and a host of friends.

After five weeks of suffering she so quietly passed away that those about her felt there were no billows near the harbor she was entering, for Jesus has said: "Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 7 at 10:30 A. M. at the Hollandburg church, conducted by Elder S. K. Fuson.

Obituary

Nellie Erma Lambert, youngest daughter of James and Lou A. Lambert, was born March 6, 1886, and departed this life February 20, 1920, aged 33 years, 11 months and 12 days.

She was converted and baptized in 1910, and later united with the Free Methodist church and lived a faithful, consistent Christian life. She was a bright and shining light in the community where she lived, always pleasant and congenial and bore her suffering with patience, ever looking to Jesus who is the author and finisher of her faith.

She leaves to mourn her departure, and aged father and mother, one brother, Charles, and one sister, Mrs. Maude Boatman, besides a great number of other relatives and close friends.

Funeral services were held at the home in Rosedale, Saturday afternoon conducted by W. H. Lowe, with burial in Rosedale cemetery.

ND M

MEN'S SILK

8X424. Men's C stent clasp at wr ay or brown shad 8X425. Men's ing, gray, brown 8X426. Men's ith silk lining, dar 8X427. Men's ry comfortable at

MEN'S BUCK

8X428. Men's C loves 8X429. Men's rice 8X430. Men's B eight 8X431. Men's F

MEN'S FLEEC

8X432. Men's L
8X433. Men's L
8X434. Men's I
8X435. Men's I
8X436. Men's I
8X437. Men's F

MEN'S, WOMEN'S, WOMEN'S ASTRAC

No. 8X438. Men's A special
No. 8X439. Men's F
Lined Gloves, with I

Emily Lanning Johnson

Emily Lanning Johnson was born June 19, 1843, and died December 17, 1920, aged 77 years, 5 months and 28 days.

She was the eleventh of thirteen children, born to Thomas and Catharine Lanning, who had migrated from North Carolina, at an early date.

Very closely connected with the Lanning family was that of David and Sarah Johnson, who had come from Kentucky. Three of the Johnson sons marrying three of the Lanning daughters as follows: Wm. C. Johnson to Lucinda Lanning, Jas. M. Johnson to Matilda Lanning, and John H. Johnson to Emily Lanning, the subject of this sketch. The last named couple were married November 6, 1863. For more than 56 years they lived in happy companionship, then the husband was taken nineteen months before the wife was called, each being the last survivor of their respective families.

Into this home were born six children, two of them dying in early childhood.

The surviving children are Mrs. Ida B. Gross and Geo. T. Johnson of Bellmore, Mrs. Cora L. Bain of Russellville, and Earl D. Johnson of Chalmers, Ind. There are nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

When a bride of nineteen years, she came to live in the home of her mother-in-law. The house was not large but it was wide enough for the two families. Not only for them, but for the large number of relatives who were wont to come to the old home for frequent visits and happy reunions. Not one of the nieces or nephews living today but will testify to the cordial welcome and loyal treatment always received at the home of Aunt Emily.

As the mother and father grew old and feeble, Aunt Emily gave them the love, kindness and devotion of a true daughter. Her highest ambition seemed to be to make it as pleasant as possible for them and their children and grandchildren, always willing to sacrifice for the happiness of others. She was of meek and quiet disposition and we never heard her speak unkindly to one of the family or relatives. She was one of those cheerful, even tempered, devoted woman of whom Solomon said, "Her children rise up and call her blessed and her husband praiseth her."

She was laid to rest in the family lot at Mt. Moriah cemetery, Rev. Airhart officiating.

MISS MAY CALL

The funeral of Miss May Call, 29 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Call of 413 Sixth avenue, who died Wednesday evening at her home, will be held at 2 o'clock today. The funeral will be private, with burial in Highland Lawn cemetery. She is survived by the parents, three brothers, Harry, Charles and Seth, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Good and Mrs. R. L. Evinger. Miss Call had been active in the work at the First Baptist church since becoming a member, when she was 15 years old, and for the last 20 years had been connected with the firm of Davis, Reynolds, Davis & Jordan. She was employed by Mr. Jordan when she was taken ill.

No. 8X421. Men's Strong Gauntlet Gloves, good value ..... 50c
No. 8X422. Men's Driving Gauntlet Gloves, water-proof ..... $1.00
No. 8X423. Men's Fine Heavy Dog Skin Gauntlet Gloves, splendid wearers..... $1.50

1905 IRLS' LIVE LOVES.
Lined El... in dark...
Lined El... and brown...
Lined El... dark brown...
TOP KID M...
Fur Top... town, Pa...
INED K...
Lined El... made, ex...
ED K...
Fur Top... patent cla...
Pair...
Fur Top...
reet color...
VS' WOO...
179... love...
al ar...

GLOVES AND MITTENS—Continued

Mrs. S. K. Fuson.

The large circle of friends and acquaintances of Mrs. S. K. Fuson, beloved wife of Rev. S. K. Fuson, were grieved to learn that she had past away at her home in Rockville. Known to almost every one thruout this part of the country, on account of Brother Fuson having held pastorates at various times in so many Baptist churches her death creates a distinct sense of loss to all, and brings a realization of the fact that one of the truly good christian women whose influence tells so greatly for good in the lives of those with whom she has come in contact, has past away. Her going will leave a vacancy in the hearts of all and the people of the Marshall Baptist church, of which she was a valued member, will long hold her memory dear.

The sympathy of everyone goes out to her bereaved companion.

Sarah Jane Parker was born in Crawford county, Illinois, April 20, 1842, and died at her home in Rockville, Ind., June 27, 1921, age 79 years, 2 months and 7 days.

At the age of 18 months death deprived her of a mother's care. When she was four years of age her father died also, leaving the little daughter to the care of relatives.

Altho educational advantages and opportunities were not hers to enjoy to any extent, yet her childhood days were brightened and cheered by the loyalty and devotion of her constant friend and playmate, Stephen K. Fuson. As they grew in years their devotion to each other never wavered, and on the 23d of August, 1860, they were united in marriage. To this union were born two boys and two girls, all of whom died in infancy, leaving the father and mother even more deeply united in heart and mind. During the more than 60 years of married life that they have been permitted to enjoy together neither of them has left undone aught that could add to the happiness of the other.

In December, 1860, she professed her deep and abiding faith in her Savior and united with the Baptist church near her home in Illinois, changing her membership to other Baptist churches as they changed their location, until in 1870, they removed to Indiana, in which state they have since resided. At the time of her death her membership was with the Marshall Baptist church.

During the years of her husband's college work in preparation for the ministry, as well as the many years in which he has served as pastor in various places, she has found much joy in the work of the Lord in which he was engaged and urged on by her great faith and her intense love for her Master, she has always been ready to make every sacrifice and undertake any task that loving service required. She was true and faithful to every relationship in life, with never-failing kindness and consideration for all, and counted as her friends all who knew her sterling qualities. She was ever ready to sympathize with those in sorrow, and to lend a helping hand. Home to her was most precious—a place where love, joy and happiness reigned supreme.

Altho a sufferer for many years and thereby deprived of many of the pleasures of life, she never murmured but remained cheerful to the end. On account of her physical condition it had been a constant prayer of both herself and husband, that she might go first, in order that he might be able to continue his devoted care of her until her release should come. Very often in her last illness she commented on God's goodness in permitting them to live so many happy years together, and almost her last words to her husband were, that altho she regretted that he must be left alone yet she rejoiced that she would soon be with her loving Savior in the "home over there."

Until a few days before her death her mind had been remarkably clear so that she herself made all the plans for her funeral, even to selecting the songs and the singers, the minister who should preach the funeral and the text she desired to have used.

Everything that a loving and devoted husband and faithful friends could do to prolong life and add to her comfort in any way was done, but all in vain. Thru the sorrow of her going there runs a triumphant note of gladness, for it is well with her soul and she has heard the blessed salutation: "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord!"

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church conducted by Rev. Charles Barnes of Terre Haute, assisted by Rev. Raleigh Smith and Rev. S. A. Bender of Rockville. Burial in the Rockville cemetery. The singers and flower girls were members of the Baptist church of Marshall.

Women's Heavy Golf Mittens, medium weight, cuff, grey or cardinal.

WOMEN'S FANCY DOUBLE MITTENS.

Women's Plain Heavy Double Mittens, excellent value, black.

Women's Double Saxony Mittens, fine wool lining, black.

Women's Double Saxony Mittens, fine and soft, black.

Women's Double Saxony Mittens, with fancy open-work, black only.

WOMEN'S PLAIN SINGLE MITTENS.

Women's Single Pure Silk Mittens, excellent value, black only.

WOMEN'S SILK MITTENS.

Women's Fancy Double Mittens, cuff, satin bow at wrist, $1.00, $1.50.

Women's Heavy All-Silk Mittens, fancy back and cuffs, with black silk lining, best value in stock.

Women's Silk Double Mittens, special price.

Women's Silk Double Mittens, throughout, fancy back and cuffs.

CHILDREN'S GOLF GLOVES

No. 475. Child's glove of fine, heavy, solid navy.

No. 476. Child's glove and nice state of navy.

No. 477. Child's variety of color, grey, navy, and white sizes.

WOMEN

No. 478. Women's black, navy.

No. 479. Women's glove in excelsior grey.

No. 480. Men's Automobile or Driving Gauntlet, fine selected stock, English cut thumb, for one color. $3.75

No. 8X491. Men's Automobile or Driving Gauntlet, splendid wearing quality, leather lined, black or tan. $1.50

No. 8X505. Men's Plymouth Rock Buck Driving Gauntlet Gloves, extra deep cuff, per pair. $1.50

DOUBLE

Wool Mittens, only, 19c Wool Mittens, fancy, black, 25c Wool Mittens, hands, 25c

ANGLE

of fine Saxony brown and 19c
of fine Saxony brown and 25c
Wool Mittens, plain, and navy, 15c

S.

Wool Mittens, plain, with and navy, 25c
Wool Mittens, fancy for babies up to 15c
Wool Mittens, fancy for babies up to 19c
Wool Mittens, quality of color, white, 25c
Wool Mittens, fancy white and cardinal, 25c

NOR

Silk Wristlet 25c
Wool Wristlet 9c and 25c