

1949 Montezuma Annual Part 1

Note: The annual from which these images were taken is housed in the Montezuma Public Library, Montezuma, IN. Images were scanned by Mike Lewman (mblewman@yahoo.com), October 2007.

To you, Mr. J. W. Hoopingarner, we, the Senior Class of 1949, dedicate this Annual in an effort to show our appreciation and gratitude for your efforts in successfully guiding us through the past three years.

To Mr. Thompson, our Principal, we wish to express our gratitude for the help and co-operation he has given us in publishing this Annual.

He's on the alert, when it comes to a skirt.

She's short and blonde,
and not much bigger,
but she buys clothes,
that gives her a figure.

The most representative
Senior of our class,
most likely to succeed.

The old woman in the shoe,
she met the boys,
and knew what to do.

Cute, red headed,
and not very big,
but dynamite comes
in small packages.

Note:

No photographs in this annual were labeled with individual student names.

Too many girls have I.

The bombshell of M. H. S., when she lets go, look out.

Cute, smart, and a little
small, but what boy wants a girl to be tall.

Strong voice, weak mind,
when it comes to singing,
we're left behind.

There's a Daisy Mae
in Dogpatch, but she's from M. H. S.

Life can be beautiful,
why can't it?

The most feeble-minded
boy in the Senior Class,
He lost his ring to a Sophomore lass.

Dopey isn't soapy,
She's crazy for Paul.

He would rather lose
a quarter to anyone in school, than a nickle to
"Mooney."

The best editor in the Senior Class.
