MONTE CHOIR/SWING CHOIR

Another portion of our entertainment is the high school choir. Directed by Ann Stanley, they perform at Homecoming, the Spring and Christmas Concerts, and the Turkey Run Choral Festival. There is a devoted group known as the swing choir that perform at home and on the road. They also perform at the Spring and Christmas Concerts and Homecoming. During the course of this year, they travelled to Rockville for the Soil and Water Conservation meeting and entertained at the Home Demonstration Club. They also performed for grades K-8 in Mecca and Montezuma. For the choir and swing choir this was also a prosperous year.

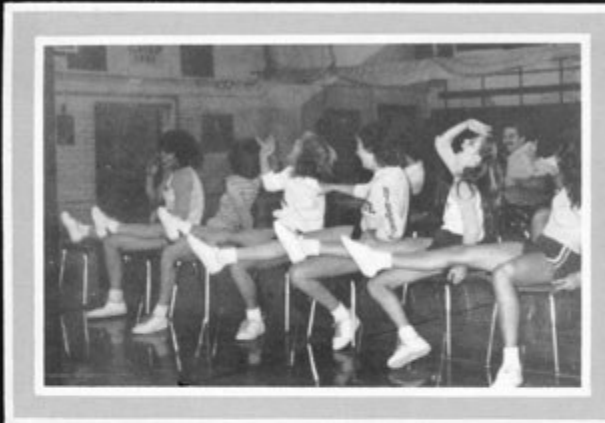

We now open the curtains to the entertainment portion of our studios here at ABC. Our band this year was involved in marching at parades including the ISU Homecoming Parade and our own Homecoming Parade. They also played at our Spring Concert and Christmas Concert and they entertained people by playing at all home basketball games. They entered the ISSMA Band Concert and received a first division win. As always, they participated in the Parke County Band Festival. The band had a good year in the '82-'83 season. Mr. Miller, a new face in our crowd, had a fine first year. The band was accepted to march at Indianapolis in the 500 Parade, which was a great achievement for a small band of only 70 members.

HOME COMING

The cameras are now looking over a very busy, bussling stage where scenes are quickly being set for a week of craziness that all the actors & actresses enjoy. The backdrops are in place & the camera's eye shows us a small school the directors have named Montezuma High. Well, while the actors are putting on their makeup I'll let you in on what will happen this week. We are acting out a high school Homecoming. To start the week off we have a Spirit Week. On Monday, punk rock day winning the prize for best punkers are Andrea Riggs & Tim Moore. Tuesday will be Mismatch &

Crazy Hairdo Day & the actor & actress winning the Prize will be portraying the rolls of J. Bloesing, Bobby Finney, Lisa Persinger, & Tim Moore. Coming up winners on Wednesday dressed the part of Greeks for Toga Day are Andrea Riggs & Mike Hawthorne. The actors took a break Thursday to rehearse lines & recuperate from the 3 day filming. They returned to the set Friday & the stage was set for Purple & White Day. Winning this day are Julie Bloesing & Bobby Finney. Awards for this Spirit Week are then given at a Super Great pep session put on by Monte's Varsity & B-team cheerleaders.

We're not ready for scene 3 of our week long episode, and the main event is about to occur. The Homecoming Game. To keep our viewers tuning in we have the Aztecs boys Varsity defeating Shakamak with a score of 64-53.

Between games we have the crowning of our Monte Homecoming Queen. Filling the role of the Queen is Angie Capps; who will reign for the rest of the year's series. Also one of her duties is to ride in the annual Homecoming Parade set up by our crew on Saturday. Other Highlights of the parade are terrific performances that are given by the Band & Pom Pon Corp. These two groups of actors & actresses also put on super shows at half-time of the Varsity game. Also featured in the parade are some pretty great floats built by our Montezuma Class Actors. Coming on top of our float competition are the Seniors.

To finish off the week we have our retired actors and actresses, Alumni, returning to Monte High for an Alumni meeting & dinner on Saturday.

Now the Directors would like to thank all you Monte Actors & Actresses for your support, enthusiasm, & superb acting throughout the week.

PROM AND POST PROM

Now the filming is close to being completed, and our actors and actresses gather for a final party to celebrate a very successful season. They dressed up in their most formal attire to attend what would normally resemble a Prom. Seeing that they are actors they decide to go ahead and act out a final Prom and Post Prom. They chose a theme of "What's Forever For". They danced, ate, and drank till 11:00, while being faithfully served by 2 fine actors and 2 fine actresses: Bill Crum, Bruce McElheny, Joyce Scott, and Terry Guoli.

The lucky actor and actress chosen to perform the roles of Prom King and Queen were Lesa Garrard and Aaron Frink.

Still very much in a partying mood the actors change their costumes and move on to the Post Prom where the theme also changed to "We Got The Beat". They danced again and ate again until the very wee hours of the morning. Prizes were awarded for the most interesting costumes, and games were played until the clock struck 3:00. I think the actors and actresses have to agree it was quite a night and also quite a season. Some of our fellow actors will be moving on to further their careers next season, but we'll be looking forward to seeing you all again next year.
